L0:PGI 225.7902-2 Purpose.

L1:(1) Background.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(i) The U.S. Government controls exports of defense articles, technical data, and

L0:defense services. The controls are imposed by the Arms Export Control Act (AECA) and the L0:Department of State regulation that implements the AECA export controls, also known as L0:the ITAR.

L1:(ii) Under the ITAR, the Department of State manages an export licensing system in

L0:which government approvals are often necessary for companies to hold discussions about

L0:potential projects, pursue joint activities, ship hardware, or transfer know-how to one

L0:another, and even sometimes to move engineers and other personnel within branches of the L0:same company located in different countries. This process can be challenging for U.S.

L0:exporters and for foreign firms in their supply chains.

L1:(iii) Given the close allied relationship of the United States with Australia and the

L0:United Kingdom, the President and the respective Prime Ministers decided to reform the

L0:defense trade system between their countries with the goal of facilitating the exchange of

L0:certain defense articles, technical data, and defense services between their militaries and

L0:security authorities, and their industries. They negotiated bilateral Defense Trade

L0:Cooperation DTC Treaties to achieve this goal. These bilateral DTC Treaties establish

L0:permissions for export without export licenses for each country, if an export meets the DTC

L0:Treaty requirements. Other exports remain under the AECA and the ITAR. The DTC

L0:Treaties are intended solely to waive certain requirements of the ITAR for specific

L0:transactions within the scope of the DTC Treaties not remove any requirements for L0:contractors to comply with domestic U.S. law.

L1:(iv) The Department of State regulations implementing the DTC Treaties are in the L0:ITAR.

L1:(2) How the DTC Treaties work.

L1:(i) The DTC Treaties establish Approved Communities. The "Approved Community"

L0:for each DTC Treaty is defined in DFARS clause 252.225-7047. Exports of most U.S.

L0:defense articles, technical data, and defense services are permitted to go into and to move

L0:within the Approved Community, without the need for government approvals and export

L0:licenses (provided that all persons comply with statutory and regulatory requirements

L0:outside of DFARS and ITAR concerning the import of defense articles and defense services

L0:or the possession or transfer of defense articles, including, but not limited to, regulations

L0:issued by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives found at 27 C.F.R. Parts

L0:447, 478, and 479, which are unaffected by the DTC Treaties) when in support of the

L0:following:

L0:" Combined U.S.-Australia or U.S.-U.K. military or counterterrorism operations.

L0:" U.S.-Australia or U.S.-U.K. cooperative security and defense research, development,

L0:production, and support programs.

L0:" Specific security and defense projects that are for the government of Australia or the L0:government of the United Kingdom use only.

L0:" U.S. Government end use.

L1:(ii) Under the DTC Treaties, instead of a U.S. exporter preparing and requesting

L0:Department of State approval of an export license or other written authorization for a project,

L0:the exporter may elect to use the applicable DTC Treaty if Treaty conditions are met. If

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L0:using a DTC Treaty, the exporter will check the Department of State website or other

L0:appropriate reference and verify that?

L0:" The Australian or U.K. partner is on the list of approved companies/facilities (i.e., a L0:member of the Approved Community);

L0:" The effort is in support of at least one of the scope areas identified in paragraph (2)(i) of

L0:this section; and

L0:" The defense article is not on the exempted technology list. (Also in 22 CFR 126 L0:Supplement No. 1).

L0:If all three conditions are met, then the U.S. exporter and the Australian or U.K. partner may

L0:use the DTC Treaty exemptions in the ITAR to move qualifying defense articles without the

L0:need to obtain export licenses or other written authorizations, provided compliance with

L0:paragraph (2)(i) of this section.

L1:(iii) A company using a DTC Treaty, in addition to checking the three lists (as L0:explained in paragraph (2)(ii) of this section), must also comply with requirements in the

L0:applicable DTC Treaty and the associated Implementing Arrangements, and the provisions

L0:of the ITAR pertaining to the DTC Treaty. These include marking and recordkeeping

L0:requirements to ensure that export-controlled items are recognized as such and treated

L0:accordingly. For example, instead of normal ITAR requirements, the provisions of the ITAR

L0:pertaining to the DTC Treaties establish the requirements that apply. Similarly, DFARS

L0:predominantly for use outside the United States (FAR

L0:25.100).

L0:More than 50% of

L0:foreign content, but

L0:manufactured in

L0:United States

L0:(Actions prior to FY L0:2007 only)

L0:The action is for (i) A foreign end product that is

L0:manufactured in the United States but still determined to be

L0:foreign because 50 percent or more of the cost of the

L0:components is not mined, produced, or manufactured inside

L0:the United States or qualifying countries; or (ii) Services

L0:performed in the United States by a foreign concern.

L0:Not applicable

L0:The action is NOT predominantly for acquisition of

L0:manufactured end products.

L1:(3) Note that the first and second from the last options in the drop down box are to be

L0:used only for reporting of contracts awarded or orders issued prior to October 1, 2006.

L1:(4) The other options in the drop down box apply only to contracts awarded and orders

L0:issued on or after October 1, 2006. If the solicitation for the contract contains the provision

L0:at FAR 52.225-18, Place of Manufacture , review the successful offeror?s response to this

L0:provision to select the correct option.

L1:(i) Enter ?Mfg in U.S.? if the offeror has checked the box ?In the United States.?

L1:(ii) If the offeror has checked the box ?Outside the United States,? enter one of the

L0:other options, depending on the predominant reason for acquiring end products

L0:manufactured outside the United States. These reasons correspond to the exceptions to

L0:the Buy American statute (FAR subpart 25.1 and DFARS subpart 225.1). Further

L0:explanation of these exceptions to the Buy American statute are available at the FAR and

L0:DFARS references provided in the long description for each option.

L1:(5) For any contract awarded on or after October 1, 2006, when the solicitation did not

L0:include the provision at FAR 52.225-18, Place of Manufacture , and for any order placed on

L0:or after October 1, 2006, under a contract that did not include one of these provisions, use

L0:best judgment in estimating whether the acquisition is predominantly for manufactured end

L0:products and whether the end products were predominantly end products manufactured in

L0:the United States or outside the United States, using the place of performance or other

L0:information that may be available to the contracting officer to assist in forming this judgment.

L0:PGI 225.1?BUY AMERICAN?SUPPLIES

L0:PGI 225.101 General.

L2:(d)(1) When the contracting officer obtains the approval from the senior procurement executive (this authority is not delegable) to allow for the application of an alternate domestic content test for the contract, ensure the documentation evidencing the senior procurement executive's consultation with the Office of Management and Budget's Made in America Office and subsequent allowance for the application of an alternate domestic content test is included in the contract file.

L0:PGI 225.2?BUY AMERICAN?CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS

L0:PGI 225.270 Energy savings service contracts.

L1:(a) For DoD energy savings service contracts, the requirements documents from the requiring activity are required to specify if construction and construction materials will be used during the performance of the contract. If specified, then?

L1:(1) Include the FAR provisions and clauses regarding construction materials that implement the Buy American statute; and

L1:(2) Enforce them based on the associated terms and conditions of the contract.

L1:(b) See FAR subpart 23.2, Energy Savings Performance Contracts.

L0:PGI 225.5?EVALUATING FOREIGN OFFERS?SUPPLY CONTRACTS

L0:PGI 225.504 Evaluation examples.

L0:The following examples illustrate the evaluation procedures in DFARS 225.502(c)(ii). The examples assume that the contracting officer has eliminated all offers that are unacceptable for reasons other than price or a trade agreement and that price is the determining factor in contract award. The same evaluation procedures and the 50 percent evaluation factor apply regardless of whether the acquisition is subject to the Buy American Act (BAA) or the Balance of Payments Program (BOPP).

L0:Offer A

L0:Offer B

L0:$945,000

L0:$950,000

L0:Foreign offer subject to BAA/BOPP

L0:Foreign offer exempt from BAA/BOPP

L0:Since no domestic offers are received, do not apply the evaluation factor. Award on Offer A.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(2) Example 2.

L0:Offer A

L0:Offer B

L0:Offer C

L0:$890,000

L0:$880,000

L0:Domestic offer

L0:Foreign offer exempt from BAA/BOPP

L0:Foreign offer subject to BAA/BOPP

L0:Since the exempt foreign offer is lower than the domestic offer, do not apply the evaluation

L0:factor. Award on Offer C.

L1:(3) Example 3.

L0:Offer A

L0:Offer B

L0:Offer C

L0:$8,900 Domestic offer

L0:$6,000

L0:Foreign offer subject to BAA/BOPP

L0:Foreign offer exempt from BAA/BOPP

L0:Since the domestic offer is lower than the exempt foreign offer, apply the 50 percent

L0:evaluation factor to Offer C. This results in an evaluated price of $9,000 for Offer C. Award

L0:on Offer B.

L1:(4) Example 4.

L0:$910,000 Foreign offer exempt from BAA/BOPP

L0:$890,000 Domestic offer

L0:Offer A

L0:Offer C

L0:Since the domestic offer is lower than the exempt foreign offer, apply the 50 percent

L0:evaluation factor to Offer C. This results in an evaluated price of $885,000 for Offer C.

L0:Award on Offer C.

L1:(5) Example 5.

L0:Offer A

L0:Offer B

L0:Offer C

L0:$900,000 Foreign offer exempt from BAA/BOPP

L0:$850,000 Domestic offer (complies with the required domestic content)

L0:$550,000 Foreign offer subject to BAA/BOPP (exceeds the required

L0:domestic content)

L0:Since the domestic offer complies with the required domestic content and is lower than the

L0:exempt foreign offer, apply the 50 percent evaluation factor to Offer C. This results in an

L0:evaluated price of $825,000 for Offer C. Award on Offer C.

L0:PGI 225.773 Contract administration in support of contingency operations.

L1:(1) In accordance with Joint Publication 1, Doctrine for the Armed Forces of the

L0:United States, at <https://jdeis.js.mil/jdeis/index.jsp?pindex=27&pubId=930> , the

L0:geographic combatant commander or subordinate joint force commander, through his

L0:command authority to exercise operational control, has the authority to exercise control
 L0:over the assignment of contract administration during contingency operations,
 L0:consistent with the combat support agency's established mission functions,
 L0:responsibilities, and core competencies, for contracts requiring delivery of items or L0:performance within the area of operations.

L1:(2) In certain contingency operations, the combatant commander or joint force
 L0:commander may promulgate theater or joint operations area guidance for contracting
 L0:that may include establishing?

 L0:of operations.

L1:(3) When a combat support agency is tasked by the combatant commander to
 L0:provide contingency contract administration services in support of contingency
 L0:operations and such support will be required for a long duration, the combat support
 L0:agency must initiate a memorandum of agreement with the combatant commander or

 L0:service, or service contracting activity requesting the support, combat support agency
 L0:support parameters, and a resolution process for resolving support issues.

L1:(i) The memorandum of agreement should focus on maximizing the combat
 L0:support agency's core competencies to address the more critical, complex, high-risk,
 L0:and specialized oversight requirements.

L1:(ii) The memorandum of agreement should take into consideration the combat
 L0:support agency's core competencies, workload priorities, and contract administration
 L0:services support parameters for accepting requests for contract administration services
 L0:support.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(iii) A combat support agency must not be assigned to perform tasks outside its L0:mission functions, responsibilities, or core competencies.

L1:(iv) Contracting officers contemplating requesting contract administration
 L0:support in a contingency area from a combat support agency should first ascertain
 L0:whether such a memorandum of agreement exists by contacting their combat support
 L0:agency point of contact and/or checking the combatant commander operational contract
 L0:support website (referenced in DFARS PGI 225.770).

L1:(v) The following is a notional format for a memorandum of agreement for L0:contract administration services support;

L1:(A) Purpose: Outline formal procedures for requesting contract

 L0:execution of the contract administration services support.

L1:(C) Clearing-house functions performed by the designated joint or lead
 L0:component contracting activity in the operational area-

L1:(1) Contract clearance parameters - when required;
 L1:(2) Contract delegation parameters - when required.

L1:(D) Contract administration services support parameters?
 L1:(1) Acceptable for delegation - contract types that will be accepted by L0:the combat support agency based on risk, dollar threshold, geographic dispersion of L0:performance, service type, criticality of acceptance, or other criteria;
 L1:(2) Generally not be delegated - below-threshold contract types;
 L1:(3) Will not be delegated - no agency expertise to oversee.

L1:(E) Delegation process - process for accepting and assigning contract
 L0:administration services tasks within the combat support agency.

L1:(F) Joint resolution process - procedures in the event of disagreement on L0:actions to be supported by the combat support agency.

L1:(G) Term of the Agreement and Modification - length of time the agreement
 L0:will be in effect and procedures for the parties to modify or terminate it.

L1:(4) Disputes regarding requested support should be resolved at the lowest
 L0:management level possible, through a predetermined resolution process. When

L0:PGI 225.802-70 Contracts for performance outside the United States and Canada.

L0:When a contracting office anticipates placement of a contract for performance outside the

L0:United States and Canada, and the contracting office is not under the jurisdiction of a

L0:command for the country involved, the contracting office must maintain liaison with the

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(A) Contract administration services, including?

L1:(2) Industrial security;

L1:(3) Accountability and disposal of Government property;

L1:(4) Production expediting;

L1:(5) Compliance with Canadian labor laws;

L1:(C) Inspection. The Department of National Defence (Canada) provides

L0:inspection personnel, services, and facilities, at no charge to DoD departments and

L1:(iii) In accordance with DPAP Policy Memorandum dated June 5, 2013, PWGSC

L0:Commercial Corporation. Upon advice from PWGSC, the Canadian Commercial

L0:Corporation certifies the invoice and forwards it with Standard Form (SF) 1034, Public

L0:disbursing office.

L1:(ii) For contracts placed directly with Canadian firms, the administrative contracting

L0:audit of non-Canadian Commercial Corporation contracts and subcontracts with Canadian

L0:contractors through the cognizant contract management office of the Defense Contract

L1:(A) Within 25 days of the date of the audit request, PWGSC will provide?

L1:(2) An estimate of completion form; and

L0:progress of audits.

L1:(3) A single point of contact to report the status of audit requests and the

L0:PGI 225.871-4 Statutory waivers.

L0:Forward any request for waiver under a cooperative project to the Deputy Secretary of L0:Defense, through the Principal Director, Defense Pricing, Contracting, and Acquisition Policy.

L0:The waiver request must include a draft Determination and Findings for signature by the

L0:Deputy Secretary of Defense establishing that the waiver is necessary to significantly further

L0:NATO standardization, rationalization, and interoperability.

L0:product may be made as follows:

L0:Findings

L0:1. The (contracting office) proposes to purchase under contract number

L0:_____, (describe item) mined, produced, or manufactured in (qualifying L0:country of origin). The total estimated cost of this acquisition is _____.

L0:2. The United States Government and the Government of _____ have agreed to

L0:remove barriers to procurement at the prime and subcontract level for defense equipment

L0:produced in each other's countries insofar as laws and regulations permit.

L0:3. The agreement provides that the Department of Defense will evaluate competitive offers

L0:of qualifying country end products mined, produced, or manufactured in (qualifying country)

L0:without imposing any price differential under the Buy American statute or the Balance of Payments Program and without taking applicable U.S. customs and duties into consideration so that such items may better compete for sales of defense equipment to the Department of Defense. In addition, the Agreement stipulates that acquisitions of such items must fully satisfy Department of Defense requirements for performance, quality, and delivery and must cost the Department of Defense no more than would comparable U.S. source or other foreign source defense equipment eligible for award.

L0:4. To achieve the foregoing objectives, the solicitation contained the clause (title and number of the Buy American clause contained in the contract). Offers were solicited from other sources and the offer received from (offeror) is found to be otherwise eligible for award.

L0:Determination

L0:I hereby determine that it is inconsistent with the public interest to apply the restrictions of the Buy American statute or the Balance of Payments Program to the offer described in this determination and findings.

L1:(ii) Prime contract number;

L1:(iii) Description of item for which waiver is being sought;

L1:(iv) Quantity being acquired; and

L1:(v) Amount of levy.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L0:PGI 225.70?AUTHORIZATION ACTS, APPROPRIATIONS ACTS, AND OTHER

L0:STATUTORY RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN ACQUISITION

L0:PGI 225.7002 Restrictions on food, clothing, fabrics, and hand or measuring tools.

L0:PGI 225.7002-1 Restrictions.

L4:(a)(1)(ii)(1) The following are examples, not all-inclusive, of Product and Service

L0:Codes (PSCs) that contain items of clothing:

L0:footwear, hosiery, or handwear) listed in PSC 8405, 8410, 8415, 8420, 8425, 8450, or 8475.

L1:(i) Clothing apparel (such as outerwear, headwear, underwear, nightwear,

L1:(ii) Footwear listed in PSC 8430 or 8435.

L0:suspenders, listed in PSC 8440 or 8445.

L1:(iii) Hosiery, handwear, or other items of clothing apparel, such as belts and

L1:(iv) Badges or insignia listed in PSC 8455.

L1:(2) The PSCs listed in paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(1) of this section also contain items

L0:that are not clothing, such as?

L1:(i) Visors;

L1:(ii) Kevlar helmets;

L1:(iii) Handbags; and

L1:(iv) Plastic identification tags.

L1:(3) Each item should be individually analyzed to determine if it is clothing, rather

L0:than relying on the PSC alone to make that determination.

L1:(4) The fact that an item is excluded from the foreign source restriction of the

L0:Berry Amendment applicable to clothing does not preclude application of another Berry

L0:Amendment restriction in DFARS 225.7002-1 to the components of the item.

L1:(5) Small arms protective inserts (SAPI plates) are an example of items added

L0:to, and not normally associated with, clothing. Therefore, SAPI plates are not covered

L0:under the Berry Amendment as clothing. However, fabrics used in the SAPI plate are

L0:still subject to the foreign source restrictions of the Berry Amendment. If the fabric used

L0:in the SAPI plate is a synthetic fabric or a coated synthetic fabric, the fibers and yarns

L0:used in the fabric are not covered by the Berry Amendment, because the fabric is a

L0:component of an end product that is not a textile product (see DFARS 225.7002-2(m)).

L0:Example: A SAPI plate is compliant with the Berry Amendment if the synthetic fiber or

L0:yarn is obtained from foreign country X and woven into synthetic fabric in the United States,

L0:which is then incorporated into a SAPI plate manufactured in foreign country Y.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(2) Hand or measuring tools.

L1:(A) As applied to hand or measuring tools, "produced in the United States" means

L0:that the hand or measuring tool was assembled in the United States out of components, or

L0:otherwise made from raw materials into the finished product that is to be provided to the

L0:Government.

L1:(B) If a hand or measuring tool was assembled in a country other than the United

L0:States, then disassembled and reassembled in the United States, the hand or measuring

L0:tool was not produced in the United States.

L1:(C) The requirement to buy hand or measuring tools produced in the United States

L0:does not impose any restriction on the source of the components of the hand or measuring

L0:tools. This is unlike the Berry Amendment restriction on clothing (see 225.7002-1(a)(1)(ii)),

L0:which explicitly requires domestic source for the materials and components of clothing (other L0:than unusual components such as sensors or electronics), as well as the additional separate

L0:restrictions on various types of fibers and fabrics that might be components of the clothing.

L1:(D) If the acquisition of the hand or measuring tools is also subject to the Buy

L0:American statute (see FAR subpart 25.1), then in order to qualify as a domestic end product,

L0:the cost of the components mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States or a

L0:qualifying country, must exceed 50 percent of the cost of all the components of the hand or

L0:measuring tool.

L0:PGI 225.7002-2 Exceptions.

L1:(b) Domestic nonavailability determinations.

L1:(3) Defense agencies other than the Defense Logistics Agency.

L1:(A) A defense agency requesting a domestic nonavailability determination must

L0:submit the request, including the proposed determination, to?

L0:Principal Director, Defense Pricing, Contracting, and Acquisition Policy

L0:ATTN: OUSD(A&S) DPCAP/CP

L0:3060 Defense Pentagon

L0:Washington, DC 20301-3060.

L1:(B) The Principal Director, Defense Pricing, Contracting, and Acquisition Policy,

L0:will forward the request to the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition and Sustainment)

L0:(USD(A&S)) as appropriate.

L0:PGI 225.7003 Restrictions on acquisition of specialty metals.

L0:PGI 225.7003-2 Restrictions.

L2:(a)(i) This restriction applies to the item containing the specialty metal, not just the

L0:specialty metal, as was true when the restriction was part of 10 U.S.C. 4862. The previous

L0:practice of withholding payment while conditionally accepting noncompliant items is not

L0:permissible for?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L1:(A) Contracts entered into on or after November 16, 2006; or

L1:(B) New procurements or out-of-scope changes accomplished on or after

L0:November 16, 2006, through the use of bilateral modifications to contracts originally

L0:awarded prior to November 16, 2006.

L1:(ii) Consistent with the definition of "component" in the clause at DFARS 252.225-

L0:7009, a component is any item supplied to the Government as part of an end item or of L0:another component. Items that are not incorporated into any of the items listed in DFARS L0:225.7003-2(a) are not components of those items. For example, test equipment, ground L0:support equipment, or shipping containers are not components of the missile system.

L2:(b)(2) Report of COTS items.

L0:If a department or agency uses the exception at DFARS 225.7003-3(b)(2) for an L0:acquisition of COTS end items valued at $5 million or more per item, the department or L0:agency must address use of the exception in a year-end report, to be prepared and L0:submitted as follows:

L1:(A) Entitle the report "COTS Specialty Metal Exceptions Granted During Fiscal L0:Year ____."

L1:(B) For each excepted COTS item purchased during the fiscal year, include in L0:the report, at a minimum, the applicable?

L1:(1) Contract number and any applicable delivery order number;

L1:(2) Dollar value; and

L1:(3) Item description.

L1:(C) Submit the report by October 31 of each year to:

L0:Principal Director, Defense Pricing, Contracting, and Acquisition Policy

L0:ATTN: OUSD(A&S) DPCAP/CP

L0:Washington, DC 20301-3060.

L1:(4) For samarium-cobalt magnets contained in an item listed in 225.7003-2(a)

L0:manufactured in a qualifying country, see paragraph (b)(6)(C) of this section.

L1:(5) Domestic specialty metals nonavailable as and when needed.

L1:(A) Determining availability.

L0:services at fair and reasonable prices. Thus, contracting officers must determine whether

L1:(1) FAR 15.402 requires that contracting officers purchase supplies and

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 25

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 225

L0:any increase in contract price that results from providing compliant specialty metal is fair and

L0:reasonable, given the circumstances of the particular situation. In those cases where the

L0:contracting officer determines that the price would not be fair and reasonable, the Secretary

L0:of the military department concerned may use that information in determining whether the

L0:unreasonable price causes the compliant metal to be effectively "nonavailable." Where

L0:these "reasonableness" limits should be drawn is a case-by-case decision.

L1:(2) A similar approach may be used to determine whether delays

L0:associated with incorporating compliant specialty metals into items being acquired results in

L0:the metals being effectively nonavailable.

L2:(B)(1) A department or agency requesting a determination or approval from

L0:USD(A&S) in accordance with DFARS 225.7003-3(b)(5) must submit the request, including

L0:the proposed determination, to?

L0:ATTN: OUSD(A&S) DPCAP/CP

L0:Washington, DC 20301-3060.

L0:Policy (DPCAP), will forward the request to USD(A&S) as appropriate.

L1:(C) For domestic nonavailability determinations with regard to samarium-cobalt

L0:high performance magnets, see paragraph (b)(6)(D) of this section.

L1:(6) Application of specialty metals restrictions to magnets.

L1:(A) The two most common types of high performance magnets are

L0:samarium-cobalt magnets and neodymium-iron-boron magnets. Only samarium-cobalt

L0:magnets contain specialty metals and are subject to the restrictions of 10 U.S.C. 4863

L0:in this section, as well as the restrictions of 10 U.S.C. 4872 at 225.7018. Neodymium-

L0:iron-boron magnets are only subject to the restrictions of 10 U.S.C. 4872 at 225.7018,

L0:because they do not contain specialty metals. There are no other commonly used

L0:magnets that contain specialty metals.

L0:no exception in 10 U.S.C. 4872 for items manufactured in a qualifying country comparable

L0:to the exception at 225.7003-3(b)(4) to the specialty metal restrictions of 10 U.S.C. 4863.

L1:(D) Even if samarium-cobalt magnets are determined to be domestically

L0:nonavailable under this section, the restrictions of 10 U.S.C. 4872 still apply unless

L0:Per DFARS 225.7018-4, the Head of Contracting Activity (HCA) can authorize an exception to

L0:DFARS 252.225-7052 through an "Individual Nonavailability Determination" if they determine that

L0:covered materials of satisfactory quality and quantity, in the required form, cannot be procured as and

L0:when needed at a reasonable price from a source other than a covered country.

L0:ANALYSIS OF ALTERNATIVES:

L0:See Attachment A for an analysis of why alternatives that would not require a nonavailability

L0:determination are unacceptable.

L0:CERTIFICATION: Based on the satisfactory quality, quantity, required form, timeliness, and/or

L0:reasonable price issues described in Attachment A, I hereby certify that the requirements for an L0:individual nonavailability determination under DFARS 225.7018-4 have been met.

L0:factor.

L0:PGI 226.7202-2 Postaward

L1:(a) Contracts awarded to eligible contractors under this Demonstration Project are counted
L0:toward DoD's small disadvantaged business goal. The contractor must be an eligible

L0:This subpart?

L1:(a) Prescribes policies and procedures for the acquisition of technical data, computer

L0:software, computer software documentation, and the rights to use, modify, reproduce,

L0:release, perform, display, or disclose technical data. It implements the following laws

L0:and Executive Order:

L1:(1) 10 U.S.C. 3013.

L1:(5) 10 U.S.C. 8687.

L1:(6) 17 U.S.C. 1301, et seq.

L1:(7) Public Law 103-355.

L1:(8) Executive Order 12591 (subsection 1(b)(7)).

L1:(b) Does not apply to?

L1:(1) Releases of technical data, computer software, and computer software

L0:documentation to litigation support contractors (see subpart 204.74); or

L1:(2) Computer software or computer software documentation acquired under

L0:Federal Supply Schedule contracts or orders.

227.7101 Definitions

Status: active

L0:227.7101 Definitions.

L0:As used in this subpart?

L0:?"Commercial computer software?" means software developed or regularly used for

L0:nongovernmental purposes which?

L1:(1) Has been sold, leased, or licensed to the public;

L1:(2) Has been offered for sale, lease, or license to the public;

L1:(3) Has not been offered, sold, leased, or licensed to the public but will be available

L0:for commercial sale, lease, or license in time to satisfy the delivery requirements of this

L0:contract; or

L1:(4) Satisfies a criterion expressed in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this definition and

L0:would require only minor modification to meet the requirements of this contract.

L0:?"Computer program?" means a set of instructions, rules, or routines recorded in a form

L0:that is capable of causing a computer to perform a specific operation or series of

L0:operations.

L0:?"Computer software?" means computer programs, source code, source code listings,

L0:object code listings, design details, algorithms, processes, flow charts, formulae and

L0:related material that would enable the software to be reproduced, recreated, or

L0:recompiled. Computer software does not include computer data bases or computer

L0:software documentation.

L0:?"Computer software documentation?" means owner?s manuals, user?s manuals,

L0:installation instructions, operating instructions, and other similar items, regardless of

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:storage medium, that explain the capabilities of the computer software or provide

L0:instructions for using the software.

L0: "Contractor" means a contractor to include a contractor's subcontractors, suppliers, or potential subcontractors or suppliers at any tier.

L0: "Covered Government support contractor" means a contractor (other than a litigation support contractor covered by 252.204-7014) under a contract, the primary purpose of which is to furnish independent and impartial advice or technical assistance directly to the Government in support of the Government's management and oversight of a program or effort, rather than to directly furnish an end item or service to accomplish a program or effort, provided that the contractor:

L1:(1) Is not affiliated with the prime contractor or a first-tier subcontractor on the program or effort, or with any direct competitor of such prime contractor or any such first-tier subcontractor in furnishing end items or services of the type developed or produced on the program or effort; and

L1:(2) Receives access to technical data or computer software for performance of a Government contract that contains the clause at 252.227-7994, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of Government-Furnished Information Marked with Restrictive Legends.

L0: "Detailed manufacturing or process data" means technical data that describe the steps, sequences, and conditions of manufacturing, processing or assembly used by the manufacturer to produce an item or component or to perform a process.

L0: "Developed" means:

L1:(1) (Applicable to technical data other than computer software documentation.) An item, component, or process exists and is workable. Thus, the item or component must have been constructed or the process practiced. Workability is generally established when the item, component, or process has been analyzed or tested sufficiently to demonstrate to reasonable people skilled in the applicable art that there is a high probability that it will operate as intended. Whether, how much, and what type of analysis or testing is required to establish workability depends on the nature of the item, component, or process, and the state of the art. To be considered "developed," the item, component, or process need not be at the stage where it could be offered for sale or sold on the commercial market, nor must the item, component, or process be actually reduced to practice within the meaning of Title 35 of the United States Code;

L1:(2) A computer program has been successfully operated in a computer and tested to the extent sufficient to demonstrate to reasonable persons skilled in the art that the program can reasonably be expected to perform its intended purpose;

L1:(3) Computer software, other than computer programs, has been tested or analyzed to the extent sufficient to demonstrate to reasonable persons skilled in the art that the software can reasonably be expected to perform its intended purpose; or

L1:(4) Computer software documentation the contractor must deliver under a contract has been written, in any medium, in sufficient detail to comply with requirements under that contract.

L0: Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0: "Developed exclusively at private expense" means development was accomplished entirely with costs charged to indirect cost pools, costs not allocated to a Government contract, or any combination thereof.

L1:(1) Private expense determinations should be made at the lowest practicable level.

L1:(2) Under fixed-price contracts, when total costs are greater than the firm-fixed-price or ceiling price of the contract, the additional development costs necessary to complete development shall not be considered when determining whether development was at Government, private, or mixed expense.

L0: Developed exclusively with Government funds? means development was not accomplished exclusively or partially at private expense.

L0: Developed with mixed funding? means development was accomplished partially with costs charged to indirect cost pools and/or costs not allocated to a government contract, and partially with costs charged directly to a government contract.

L0: Form, fit, and function data? means technical data that describe the required overall physical, functional, and performance characteristics (along with the qualification requirements, if applicable) of an item, component, or process to the extent necessary to permit identification of physically and functionally interchangeable items.

L0: Generated means?, with regard to technical data or computer software, first created in the performance of this contract.

L0: Government purpose? means any activity in which the United States Government is a party, including cooperative agreements with international or multi-national defense organizations, or sales or transfers by the United States Government to foreign governments or international organizations. Government purposes include competitive procurement, but do not include the rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation for commercial purposes or authorize others to do so.

L0: Government purpose rights? means the rights to?

L1:(1) Use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation within the Government without restriction; and

L1:(2) Release or disclose technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation outside the Government and authorize persons to whom release or disclosure has been made to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose that data or software for United States Government purposes.

L0: Limited rights? means the rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data, in whole or in part, within the Government. The Government may not, without the written permission of the party asserting limited rights, release or disclose the technical data outside the Government, use the technical data for manufacture, or authorize the technical data to be used by another party, except that Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27 Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0: the Government may reproduce, release, or disclose such data or authorize the use or reproduction of the data by persons outside the Government if?

L1:(1) The reproduction, release, disclosure, or use is?

L1:(i) Necessary for emergency repair and overhaul; or

L1:(ii) A release or disclosure to?

L1:(A) A covered Government support contractor in performance of its covered Government support contract for use, modification, reproduction, performance, display, or release or disclosure to a person authorized to receive limited rights technical data; or

L1:(B) A foreign government, of technical data other than detailed

L0:manufacturing or process data, when use of such data by the foreign government is in

L0:the interest of the Government and is required for evaluational or informational

L0:purposes;

L1:(2) The recipient of the technical data is subject to a prohibition on the further

L0:reproduction, release, disclosure, or use of the technical data; and

L1:(3) The contractor or subcontractor asserting the restriction is notified of such

L0:reproduction, release, disclosure, or use.

L0:Offeror? means an offeror to include an offeror's subcontractors, suppliers, or potential

L0:subcontractors or suppliers at any tier.

L0:Other than commercial computer software? means software that does not qualify as

L0:commercial computer software under the definition of ?commercial computer software?

L0:of this clause.

L0:Restricted rights? apply only to other than commercial computer software and mean

L0:the Government's rights to?

L1:(1) Use a computer program with one computer at one time. The program may not

L0:be accessed by more than one terminal or central processing unit or time shared unless

L0:otherwise permitted by this contract;

L1:(2) Transfer a computer program to another Government agency without the

L0:further permission of the Contractor if the transferor destroys all copies of the program

L0:and related computer software documentation in its possession and notifies the licensor

L0:of the transfer. Transferred programs remain subject to the provisions of this clause;

L1:(3) Make a reasonable number of copies of the computer software required for the

L0:purposes of safekeeping (archive), backup, modification, or other activities authorized in

L0:paragraphs (1), (2), (4) and (5) of this definition;

L1:(4) Modify computer software provided that the Government may?

L1:(i) Use the modified software only as provided in paragraphs (1) and (3) of this

L0:definition; and

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(ii) Not release or disclose the modified software except as provided in

L0:paragraphs (2) and (5) of this clause;

L1:(5) Use, modify, reproduce, perform, display, or release or disclose the computer

L0:software, and permit contractors, subcontractors, or covered Government support

L0:contractors to do so, for purposes set forth in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph,

L0:subject to the conditions set forth in subparagraphs (ii) of this paragraph:

L2:(i)(A) In performance of service contracts (see FAR 37.101), to diagnose and

L0:correct deficiencies, to modify the software to enable a computer program to be

L0:combined with, adapted to, or merged with other computer programs, or when

L0:necessary to respond to urgent tactical situations, provided that the Government

L0:notifies the party which has granted restricted rights that any such release or

L0:disclosure to particular contractors or subcontractors was made;

L1:(B) To perform emergency repairs or overhaul of items or components

L0:procured under this or a related contract, when necessary to perform such repairs

L0:or overhaul; or

L1:(C) For the management and oversight of a program or effort by a
L0:person authorized to receive restricted rights computer software, including in the L0:performance of covered Government support contracts.

L2:(ii)(A) Any contractor, subcontractor, or covered Government support
L0:contractor receiving access to the software for the purposes of subparagraphs (i), (ii),
L0:or (iii) of this paragraph must either be subject to the use and nondisclosure
L0:agreement at 227.7103-7 or be performing a Government contract that contains the L0:clause at 252.227-7994, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of Government-
L0:Furnished Information Marked with Restrictive Legends;

L1:(B) The Government must not permit any recipient of the software under L0:this paragraph to decompile, disassemble, or reverse engineer the software, or use
L0:software decompiled, disassembled, or reverse engineered by the Government pursuant L0:to paragraph (4) of this definition, for any other purpose; and

L1:(C) Any use, modification, reproduction, performance, display, release,
L0:or disclosure of the computer software under this paragraph remains subject to the L0:limitations in paragraphs (1) through (4) of this definition.

L0:generated in the performance of a phase I, II, or III SBIR/STTR contract or subcontract.

L0:SBIR/STTR data protection period? means the time period during which the L0:Government is obligated to protect SBIR/STTR data against unauthorized use and L0:disclosure in accordance with SBIR/STTR data rights. The SBIR/STTR data protection
L0:period begins on the date of award of the contract under which the SBIR/STTR data are L0:developed or generated and ends 20 years after that date unless, after the award, the L0:agency and the Contractor negotiate for some other protection period for the L0:SBIR/STTR data developed or generated under that contract.

L0:contract administration.

L0:Unlimited rights? means rights to use, modify, reproduce, perform, display, release, or L0:disclose technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation in L0:whole or in part, in any manner, and for any purpose whatsoever, and to have or

L1:(b) Contracting officers must ensure that solicitations and contracts?

L1:(1) Specify the technical data, computer software, and computer software
L0:documentation the contractor must deliver under a contract and delivery schedules for L0:the data;

L1:(2) Specify procedures for determining the acceptability of technical data,
L0:computer software, and computer software documentation;

L1:(3) Specify separate line items, to the extent practicable, for the technical data,
L0:computer software, and computer software documentation the contractor must deliver
L0:under a contract and require offerors and contractors to price each deliverable data or L0:computer software item separately; and

L1:(4) Require offerors and contractors to identify, to the extent practicable,
L0:technical data and computer software they will furnish or deliver with restrictions on

L1:(e) Solicitations for major systems development contracts must not require offerors
L0:to submit proposals that would permit the Government to competitively acquire items
L0:identical to items developed at private expense unless a determination is made at a
L0:level above the contracting officer (10 U.S.C. 3208). The determination must address
L0:the following:

L1:(1) The offeror will not be able to satisfy program schedule or delivery

L0:requirements.

L1:(2) The offeror's proposal to meet mobilization requirements does not satisfy

L0:mobilization needs.

L1:(f) For acquisitions involving major weapon systems or subsystems of major weapon

L0:systems, the acquisition plan must address acquisition strategies that provide for

L1:(g) The Government's rights in a vessel design, and in any useful article embodying

L0:award, any technical data or computer software that the offeror asserts should be

L0:provided to the Government with restrictions on use, modification, reproduction, release

L0:or disclosure. Offerors are required to attach the notification and identification to their L0:offer.

L2:(ii)(A) An offeror's failure to submit the attachment or to complete it in

L1:(4) Attach the successful offeror's assertions to the contract unless, in L0:accordance with the procedures at 227.7103-13, the parties have agreed that an L0:asserted restriction is not justified. Validate that the contract attachment contains the L0:same information regarding identification of the technical data, the asserted rights
L0:category, the basis for the assertion, and the name of the person asserting the L0:restrictions that the offeror provided in response to the solicitation.

L1:(5) Neither the contractor's pre- or post-award assertions, nor the fact that the L0:attachment to the contract identifies certain assertions, determines the respective L0:rights of the parties. As provided at 227.7103-13, the Government has the right to

L1:(b) [Reserved]

L1:(c) After award of the contract, the contractor may make additional assertions

L0:granted to the Government.

L1:(ii) For technical data related to items, components, or processes, the source
L0:of funds used to develop the item, component, or process generally determines the scope

L0:technical data or computer software described in paragraphs (A) and (B).

L1:(C) The Government has a government purpose rights license in such

L1:(3) Technical data that do not relate to items, components, or processes.

L0:Technical data may be created during the performance of a contract for a conceptual

L0:design or similar effort that does not require the development, manufacture,

L0:construction, or production of items, components or processes. The Government

L0:generally obtains unlimited rights in such data when the data were created exclusively

L0:with Government funds, government purpose rights when the data were created with

L0:mixed funding, and limited rights when the data were created exclusively at private

L0:expense.

L1:(b) Source of funds determination. (1) Agencies should make the determination of

L0:the source of development funds for technical data related to items, components, or

L0:processes at any practical sub-item or subcomponent level or for any segregable portion

L0:of a process. Contractors may assert limited rights in a segregable sub-item, sub-

L0:component, or portion of a process which otherwise qualifies for limited rights under the

L0:clause at 252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer

 L1:(2) Agencies should make the determination of the source of funds used to

 L0:Contractors may assert restricted rights in a segregable portion of computer software

L0:227.7103-5 Government rights.
 L0:The standard license rights that a licensor grants to the Government are unlimited
 L0:rights, government purpose rights, limited rights, or restricted rights. In unusual
 L0:situations, the standards rights may not satisfy the Government?s needs, or the L0:Government may be willing to accept lesser rights in data or computer software in L0:return for other consideration. In those cases, a special license may be negotiated.
 L0:However, the licensor is not obligated to provide the Government greater rights, and L0:the contracting officer is not required to accept lesser rights than the rights provided in L0:the standard grant of license. The situations under which a particular grant of license
 L0:applies are listed in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section.
 L1:(a) Unlimited rights. The Government obtains unlimited rights in technical data,
 L0:computer software, or computer software documentation that are?
 L1:(1) Technical data related to an item, component, or process which has been or
 L0:will be developed exclusively with Government funds;
 L1:(2) Studies, analyses, test data, or similar data produced in the performance of L0:a contract when the study, analysis, test, or similar work was specified as an element of

L1:(A) The sale, transfer, or other assignment of interest in the technical

L0:another party;

L1:(B) The sale or transfer of some or all of a business entity or its assets to

L1:(8) Technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation in

L0:which the Government has obtained unlimited rights under another Government

L0:contract or as a result of negotiations; or

L1:(9) Technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation

L0:furnished to the Government, under a Government contract or subcontract , with?

L1:(i) Restricted rights in computer software, limited rights in technical data,

L0:or government purpose license rights and the restrictive conditions have expired; or

L1:(ii) Government purpose rights and the contractor's exclusive right to use

L0:such technical data or computer software for commercial purposes has expired.

L1:(10) Computer software developed exclusively with Government funds; or

L1:(11) Computer software documentation the contractor must deliver under a

L0:Government contract.

L1:(b) Government purpose rights. (1) The Government obtains government purpose

L0:rights in?

L1:(i) Technical data related to items, components, or processes developed with

L0:mixed funding except when the Government is entitled to unlimited rights as provided

L0:in paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(4) through (9) of this section; or

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(ii) Technical data created with mixed funding in the performance of a

L0:contract that does not require the development, manufacture, construction, or

L0:production of items, components, or processes; or

L1:(iii) Computer software developed with mixed funding.

L1:(2) The period during which government purpose rights are effective is

L0:negotiable. A five year period is nominal. Either the Government or the contractor may

L0:request a different period.

L1:(3) The government purpose rights period begins upon execution of the contract,

L0:subcontract, or similar contractual instrument that required the development. Upon

L0:expiration of the Government rights period, the Government has unlimited rights in the

L0:data or software including the right to authorize others to use the data or software for

L0:commercial purposes.

L1:(4) During the government purpose rights period, the Government may not use,

L0:or authorize other persons to use, technical data or computer software marked with

L0:government purpose rights legends for commercial purposes. The Government will not

L0:release or disclose data or software in which it has government purpose rights to any

L0:person, or authorize others to do so, unless?

L1:(i) Prior to release or disclosure, the intended recipient is subject to the use

L0:and nondisclosure agreement at 227.7103-7; or

L1:(ii) The intended recipient is a Government contractor receiving access to

L0:the data or software for performance of a Government contract that contains the clause

L0:at 252.227-7994, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of Government-Furnished

L0:Information Marked with Restrictive Legends.

L1:(5) When the Government will release or disclose technical data or computer

L0:software marked with government purpose rights legends to a contractor performing

L0:under a contract that does not include the clause at 252.227-7994, modify the contract

L0:prior to release or disclosure, to include that clause in lieu of requiring the contractor to

L0:complete a use and nondisclosure agreement.

L2:(6)(i) Agencies must establish procedures to prevent the release or disclosure of

L0:marked technical data or computer software with government purpose rights legends to

L0:entities that are not subject to use and disclosure restrictions. .

L1:(ii) Public announcements in the System for Award Management or other

L0:publications must provide notice of the use and nondisclosure requirements.

L1:(iii) Consider using class use and nondisclosure agreements (e.g.,

L0:agreements covering all solicitations received by the XYZ company within a reasonable

L0:period). Enter into class agreements at any time prior to release or disclosure of the

L0:government purpose rights data or software. Documents transmitting government

L0:purpose rights data or software to persons under class agreements must identify the

L0:technical data or computer software subject to government purpose rights and the class

L0:agreement providing such data or software.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(c) Limited rights. (1) The Government obtains limited rights in technical data?

L1:(i) Related to items, components, or processes developed exclusively at

L0:private expense except when the Government is entitled to unlimited rights as provided

L0:in paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(4) through (9) of this section; or

L1:(ii) Created exclusively at private expense in the performance of a contract

L0:that does not require the development, manufacture, construction, or production of L0:items, components, or processes.

L1:(2) Do not use, release, or disclose data in which the Government has limited

L0:rights outside the Government without the permission of the contractor asserting the L0:restriction except when it is?

L1:(i) Necessary for emergency repair and overhaul;

L1:(ii) To a covered Government support contractor; or

L1:(iii) To a foreign government, other than detailed manufacturing or process

L0:data, when use, release, or disclosure is in the interest of the United States and is

L0:required for evaluational or informational purposes.

L1:(3) The Government must notify the person asserting limited rights of its intent

L0:to release, disclose, or authorize others to use such data prior to release or disclosure of

L0:the data, except for emergency repair or overhaul. For emergency repair or overhaul,

L0:the Government will make the notification as soon as practicable.

L1:(4) If the person asserting limited rights permits the Government to release,

L0:disclose, or have others use the data subject to restrictions on further use, release, or

L0:disclosure, or for a release under paragraph (c)(2)(i), (ii), or (iii) of this section, the

L0:intended recipient must, prior to receiving the limited rights data, either?

L1:(i) Complete the use and nondisclosure agreement at 227.7103-7; or

L1:(ii) Be performing under a Government contract that contains the clause at

L0:252.227-7994.

L1:(d) Restricted rights. (1) The Government obtains restricted rights in other than

L0:commercial computer software the contractor must deliver or otherwise provide to the L0:Government under a contract that was developed exclusively at private expense.

L2:(2)(i) Contractors are not required to provide the Government additional rights

L0:in computer software delivered or otherwise provided to the Government with restricted

L0:rights.

L1:(ii) When the Government has a need for additional rights, negotiate with

L0:the contractor to determine acceptable terms for transferring such rights. Any resulting

L0:license agreement, made part of the contract (see paragraph (e) of this section), must

L0:list or describe all software for which the contractor has granted the Government

L0:additional rights, and specify the additional rights granted.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(e) Specifically negotiated license rights. (1)(i) Negotiate specific licenses when the

L0:parties agree to modify the standard license rights granted to the Government or when

L0:the Government needs to obtain rights in data or software in which it does not have

L0:rights.

L1:(ii) When negotiating to obtain, relinquish, or increase the Government's

L0:rights in technical data, consider the acquisition strategy for the item, component, or

L0:process, including logistics support and other factors relevant to a particular

L0:procurement.

L1:(iii) When negotiating to obtain, relinquish, or increase the Government's

L0:rights in computer software, consider the planned software maintenance philosophy,

L0:anticipated time or user sharing requirements, and other factors relevant to a

L0:particular procurement.

L1:(iv) The Government may accept lesser rights when it has unlimited or

L0:government purpose rights in data or software but may not accept less than limited

L0:rights or restricted rights in such data or software, respectively.

L1:(v) The negotiated license rights must stipulate what rights the

L0:Government has to release or disclose the data or software to other persons or to

L0:authorize others to use the data or software.

L1:(vi) Identify all negotiated rights in a license agreement that are made part

L0:of the contract.

L2:(2)(i) When the Government needs additional rights in data or software

L0:acquired with government purpose, limited rights, or restricted rights, negotiate with

L0:the contractor to determine acceptable terms for transferring such rights. Generally,

L0:conduct such negotiations only when?

L0:Government; or

L1:(A) A need exists to disclose the data or software outside the

L1:(B) The additional rights are required for competitive procurement

L0:and the anticipated savings through competition will likely exceed the acquisition cost

L0:of the additional rights.

L1:(ii) Prior to negotiating for additional rights in limited rights data, consider

L0:alternatives such as?

L0:acquire or develop functionally equivalent items, components, or processes;

L1:(A) Using performance specifications and form, fit, and function data to

L0:additional sources and maintain adequate competition among the sources; or

L1:(B) Obtaining a contractor's contractual commitment to qualify

L1:(C) Reverse engineering, or providing items from Government

L1:(ii) Demonstrate that the omission of the marking was inadvertent, the

L0:proposed marking is justified and conforms with the requirements for the marking of

L0:technical data or computer software contained in the contract; and

L1:(iii) Acknowledge, in writing, that the Government has no liability with

L0:respect to any disclosure, reproduction, or use of the technical data or computer

L0:software made prior to the addition of the marking or resulting from the omission of the

L0:marking.

L1:(3) Contracting officers should grant permission to mark only if the technical

L0:data or computer software were not distributed outside the Government or were L0:distributed outside the Government with restrictions on further use or disclosure.

227.7103-11 Contractor procedures and records

Status: active

L0:227.7103-11 Contractor procedures and records.

L1:(a) Contractors, and their subcontractors or suppliers that will deliver technical

L0:data or computer software with other than unlimited rights, are required to establish

L0:and follow written procedures to assure that restrictive markings are used only when

L0:authorized and to maintain records to justify the validity of asserted restrictions on

L0:delivered data or software.

L1:(b) Contractors are required to maintain sufficient records to justify the validity of

L0:restrictive markings on technical data or computer software the contractor must deliver

L0:under a Government contract.

227.7103-12 Government right to establish conformity of markings

Status: active

L0:227.7103-12 Government right to establish conformity of markings.

L1:(a) Nonconforming markings. (1) The marking requirements in the applicable

L0:clauses prescribe the content and format of authorized markings on technical data and

L0:computer software. All other markings are nonconforming markings. An authorized

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:marking that is not in the form, or differs in substance, from the marking requirements

L0:in the clauses at 252.227-7989 and 252.227-7993 is also a nonconforming marking.

L1:(2) Notify the contractor or offeror of technical data or computer software

L0:bearing nonconforming markings to provide that person an opportunity to correct or

L0:strike the nonconforming marking at that person's expense. If the contractor or offeror

L0:fails to correct the nonconformity and deliver the corrected data within 60 days

L0:following the person's receipt of the data or software, the contracting officer may correct

L0:or strike the nonconformity at that person's expense. Prior to correction, the L0:Government may use the data in accordance with the proper restrictive marking.

L1:(b) Unjustified markings. (1) An unjustified marking is an authorized marking

L0:that does not accurately depict restrictions applicable to the Government's use,

L0:modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of the marked

L0:technical data or computer software. Accordingly, a limited rights legend placed on

L0:technical data related to items, components, or processes developed under a

L0:Government contract either exclusively at Government expense or with mixed funding

L0:(situations under which the Government obtains unlimited or government purpose L0:rights) is an unjustified marking. Similarly, a restricted rights legend placed on

L0:computer software developed under a Government contract either exclusively at

L0:Government expense or with mixed funding is an unjustified marking.

L1:(2) The contracting officer has the right to review and challenge the validity of L0:unjustified markings. However, at any time during performance of a contract and L0:notwithstanding existence of a challenge, the contracting officer and the person who has L0:asserted a restrictive marking may agree that the restrictive marking is not justified. L0:Upon such agreement, the contracting officer may either?

L1:(i) Strike or correct the unjustified marking at that person's expense; or

L1:(ii) Instruct the person asserting the restriction to correct the technical data L0:or computer software at that person's expense. If the person fails to correct or strike the L0:unjustified restriction and deliver the corrected data or software to the contracting L0:officer within 60 days following this instruction, strike or correct the unjustified L0:marking at that person's expense.

227.7103-13 Government right to review, verify, challenge, and validate

L0:227.7103-13 Government right to review, verify, challenge, and validate L0:asserted restrictions.

L1:(a) General. (1) An offeror's assertion of restrictions on the Government's rights to L0:use, modify, reproduce, release, or disclose technical data or computer software do not, L0:by themselves, determine the extent of the Government's rights in the technical data or L0:computer software.

L1:(2) Review asserted restrictions before acceptance of technical data and L0:computer software deliverables under a contract.

L1:(3) The contracting officer may challenge asserted restrictions when reasonable L0:grounds exist to believe an assertion is not valid.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(b) Pre-award considerations. See 227.7103-3(a) for guidance on pre-award review L0:of asserted restrictions.

L1:(c) Challenge considerations and presumption.

L1:(1) Requirements to initiate a challenge. (i) Contracting officers must have L0:reasonable grounds to challenge the validity of an asserted restriction. Before issuing a L0:challenge to an asserted restriction, carefully consider all available information related L0:to the assertion.

L1:(ii) A need for additional license rights is not, by itself, a sufficient basis for L0:requesting information concerning an asserted restriction.

L1:(iii) Follow the procedures at 227.7103-5(e) when the Government needs L0:additional license rights but has no grounds to challenge an asserted restriction.

L1:(2) Commercial products and commercial services?presumption regarding L0:development exclusively at private expense.

L1:(i) Presume that a commercial product or commercial service was developed L0:exclusively at private expense whether or not a contractor or subcontractor submits a L0:justification in response to a challenge notice. Under 10 U.S.C. 3772(a)(1) and 3784, L0:there is a presumption and procedures regarding validation of asserted restrictions for

L0:technical data related to commercial products or commercial services on the basis of L0:development exclusively at private expense.

L1:(ii) Do not challenge a contractor's assertion that a commercial product or

L0:commercial service was developed exclusively at private expense unless the

L0:Government can specifically state the reasonable grounds to question the validity of the L0:assertion. The challenge notice must include sufficient information to demonstrate that

L0:the commercial product or commercial service was not developed exclusively at private

L0:expense. To sustain the challenge, provide information demonstrating that the

L0:commercial product or commercial service was not developed exclusively at private

L0:expense.

L1:(ii) The challenge notice and all related correspondence are subject to

L0:handling procedures for classified information and controlled unclassified information.

L1:(iv) A contractor's or subcontractor's failure to respond to the challenge

L0:notice cannot be the sole basis for issuing a final decision denying the validity of an

L0:asserted restriction.

L1:(d) Challenge and validation.

L1:(1) Challenge period. Review asserted restrictions before acceptance of L0:technical data or computer software deliverable under the contract. Challenge

L0:assertions within six years after final payment under the contract or six years after

L0:delivery of the data or software, whichever is later. There is no time limit for

L0:challenging restrictive markings if the technical data or computer software?

L1:(i) Are publicly available without restrictions;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(ii) Have been provided to the United States without restriction;

L1:(iii) Have been otherwise made available without restriction other than a

L0:release or disclosure resulting from the sale, transfer, or other assignment of interest in

L0:the technical data or computer software to another party or the sale or transfer of some

L0:or all of a business entity or its assets to another party; or

L1:(iv) Is the subject of a fraudulently asserted use or release restriction.

L1:(2) Pre-challenge requests for information.

L1:(i) Contracting officers may request the person asserting a restriction to

L0:furnish a written explanation of the facts and supporting documentation for the

L0:assertion in detail to enable the contracting officer to determine the basis of the L0:restrictive markings. Request additional supporting documentation when the L0:explanation does not, in the contracting officer's opinion, establish the validity of the L0:assertion.

L1:(ii) Consider challenging the assertion when?

L0:contracting officer's request for information or additional supporting documentation; or

L1:(A) The person asserting the restriction fails to respond to the L0:related to the validity of a restrictive marking, does not justify the asserted restriction.

L1:(B) The information submitted, or any other available information

L1:(3) Transacting matters directly with subcontracts. Contracting officers should

L0:permit, after obtaining the contractor's agreement, a subcontractor or supplier to

L0:transact challenge and validation matters directly with the Government when?

L1:(i) A subcontractor's or supplier's business interests in its technical data or L0:computer software would be compromised if the data were disclosed to a higher tier
L0:contractor;

L1:(ii) The contractor will unlikely respond in a timely manner to a challenge,
L0:and an untimely response would jeopardize a subcontractor's or suppliers right to assert
L0:restrictions; or

L1:(iii) A subcontractor or supplier requests it.

L1:(4) Challenge notice.

L1:(i) Do not issue a challenge notice unless reasonable grounds exist to L0:question the validity of an assertion. For commercial products or commercial services,
L0:also see paragraph (c)(2) of this section.

L1:(ii) No requirement exists to request information under paragraph (d)(2) of L0:this section before issuing a challenge.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(iii) Issue challenge notices, in writing, to the contractor or, after L0:consideration of the situations described in paragraph (d)(3) of this section, the person
L0:asserting the restriction. See PGI 227.7103-13(d)(4)(iii) for procedures regarding L0:challenge notices.

L1:(5) Extension of response time. If the contractor submits a written request for L0:additional time to prepare a response, the contracting officer will extend the time for L0:response as appropriate, in accordance with paragraph (f)(2) of the clause at 252.225-

L0:7999.

L1:(6) Contracting officer's final decision. Issue a final decision for each challenged
L0:assertion, whether or not the contractor justified the assertion.

L1:(i) Failure to respond. If the person asserting the restriction fails to L0:respond to the challenge within 60 days or any extension of time the contracting officer
L0:granted, issue a final decision that the assertion is not justified as soon as practicable.

L1:(ii) Assertion justified. If the assertion is determined to be justified based on L0:the response to the challenge notice, issue the final decision sustaining the validity of L0:the restriction. The contracting officer will issue this final decision within 60 days after L0:receipt of the response to the challenge notice, or within a longer period that the L0:contracting officer has notified the contractor or subcontractor that the Government will L0:require. The contracting officer will provide notification of any longer period for L0:issuance of a final decision within 60 days after receipt of the response to the challenge
L0:notice. The Contracting Officer will provide notification of any longer period for
L0:issuance of a final decision within 60 days after receipt of the response to the challenge
L0:notice. If the contractor made the asserted restriction subsequent to submitting its L0:offer, then add the asserted restriction to the contract attachment.

L1:(iii) Assertion not justified. If the assertion is determined not to be justified
L0:based on the information provided, issue a final decision. The decision must be issued
L0:within 60 days after receipt of the response to the challenge notice, or within a longer
L0:period that the contracting officer has notified the contractor or subcontractor that the L0:Government will require. The Contracting Officer will provide notification of any longer
L0:period for issuance of a final decision within 60 days after receipt of the response to the

L0:challenge notice. As provided in paragraph (h) of the clause, the Government is L0:obligated to continue to respect the asserted restrictions through final disposition of any
 L0:appeal unless the agency head notifies the person asserting the restriction that urgent
 L0:or compelling circumstances dictate otherwise.

L1:(7) Multiple challenges to an asserted restriction. When more than one
 L0:contracting officer challenges an asserted restriction, the contracting officer who made
 L0:the earliest challenge is responsible for coordinating the Government challenges. That L0:contracting officer must consult with all other contracting officers making challenges,
 L0:verify that all challenges apply to the same asserted restriction and, after consulting
 L0:with the contractor, subcontractor, or supplier asserting the restriction, issue a schedule
 L0:that provides that person a reasonable opportunity to respond to each challenge.

L1:(8) Validation. Only a contracting officer's final decision, actions of an agency
 L0:board of contract appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction sustaining the validity of L0:an asserted restriction, constitutes validation of the asserted restriction.

227.7103-14 Conformity, acceptance, and warranty of technical data and

Status: active

L0:227.7103-14 Conformity, acceptance, and warranty of technical data and L0:computer software.

L1:(a) [Reserved]

L1:(b) Conformity and acceptance. (1) Solicitations and contracts requiring the L0:delivery of technical data, including computer software documentation, must specify the L0:requirements that the data must satisfy to be acceptable. Contracting officers, or their
 L0:authorized representatives, are responsible for determining whether technical data
 L0:tendered for acceptance conform to the contractual requirements.

L1:(2) The clause at 252.227-7996, Technical Data?Withholding of Payment,
 L0:provides for withholding up to 10 percent of the contract price pending either correction
 L0:or replacement of the nonconforming technical data, or negotiation of an equitable L0:reduction in contract price. The amount subject to withholding may be expressed as a L0:fixed dollar amount or as a percentage of the contract price. In either case, consider the L0:relative value and importance of the data when determining the amount.

L1:(3) Do not accept technical data that do not conform to the contractual L0:requirements in all respects. Except for nonconforming restrictive markings (see L0:paragraph (b)(4) of this section), require correction or replacement of nonconforming L0:data (or an equitable reduction in contract price when correction or replacement of the L0:nonconforming data is not practicable or is not in the Government's interests) in L0:accordance with?

L1:(i) The provisions of a contract clause providing for inspection and
 L0:acceptance of deliverables and remedies for nonconforming deliverables; or

L1:(ii) The procedures at FAR 46.407(c) through (g), if the contract does not L0:contain an inspection clause providing remedies for nonconforming deliverables.

L1:(4) Follow the procedures at 227.7103-12(a)(2) if nonconforming markings are L0:the sole reason technical data fail to conform to contractual requirements. The L0:contracting officer may withhold an amount for payment, consistent with the terms of L0:the clause at 252.227-7996, pending correction of the nonconforming markings.

L2:(5)(i) Specify, in solicitations and contracts requiring the delivery of computer
L0:software, requirements the software must satisfy to be acceptable under the contract.

L1:(ii) Contracting officers, or their authorized representatives, are responsible L0:for determining whether computer software tendered for acceptance conforms to the L0:contractual requirements.

L1:(iii) Except for nonconforming restrictive markings, do not accept software
L0:that does not conform in all respects to applicable contractual requirements. However,
L0:follow the procedures at 227.7103-12(a) if nonconforming markings are the sole reason
L0:computer software tendered for acceptance fails to conform to contractual requirements.

L1:(iv) Require correction or replacement of nonconforming software (or an L0:equitable reduction in contract price when correction or replacement of the
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L0:nonconforming data is not practicable or is not in the Government's interests) in L0:accordance with?
L0:acceptance of deliverables and remedies for nonconforming deliverables; or

L1:(A) The provisions of a contract clause providing for inspection and L1:(B) The procedures at FAR part 46.407(c) through (g), if the contract
L0:does not contain an inspection clause providing remedies for nonconforming
L0:deliverables.

L1:(c) Warranty. (1) Consider the intended use of the technical data (including repair
L0:and maintenance) and the costs to obtain the warranty before deciding to obtain a data
L0:warranty (see FAR part 46).

L1:(2) As prescribed in 246.710, insert the clause at 252.246-7001, Warranty of L0:Data, and its alternates, or a substantially similar clause when the Government needs a
L0:specific warranty of technical data.

L1:(3) Warranties for Computer Software. (i) Weapon systems. Computer software
L0:that is a component of a weapon system or major subsystem should be warranted as L0:part of the weapon system warranty. Follow the procedures at 246.7.

L1:(ii) Non-weapon systems. The contracting officer must approve use of a L0:computer software warranty other than a weapon system warranty. Consider the L0:factors at FAR 46.703 when deciding whether to obtain a computer software warranty.
L0:When approval for a warranty is obtained, modify the clause at 252.246-7001, Warranty
L0:of Data, and its alternates, as necessary for use with computer software.

227.7103-15 Subcontractor rights in technical data, computer software, or

Status: active

L0:227.7103-15 Subcontractor rights in technical data, computer software, or L0:computer software documentation.

L1:(a) Subcontractors and suppliers at all tiers should receive the same protection for L0:their rights in technical data, computer software or computer software documentation
L0:as are provided to prime contractors (10 U.S.C. 3771).

L1:(b) When a subcontractor or supplier exercises its right to transact validation
L0:matters directly with the Government, contracting officers must deal directly with such L0:persons, as provided at 227.7103-13(d)(3) (10 U.S.C. 3782).

L1:(c) Require prime contractors whose contracts include the following clauses to L0:include those clauses, without modification except for appropriate identification of the L0:parties, in contracts with subcontractors or suppliers, at all tiers, if furnishing technical L0:data for other than commercial products or commercial services or other than L0:commercial computer software in response to a Government requirement:

L1:(1) 252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer

L1:(3) 252.227-7028, Technical Data or Computer Software Previously Delivered to L0:the Government.

L1:(4) 252.227-7997, Validation of Asserted Restrictions.

L1:(d) Do not require, as a condition of award of any contract action, that a contractor
L0:compel its subcontractors or suppliers at any tier to relinquish rights in technical data
L0:or computer software. This limitation does not apply to the Government?s license rights
L0:obtained under the clause at 252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer
L0:Software, and Computer Software Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products
L0:and Commercial Services.

L0:software documentation that have asserted restrictions on use, release, or disclosure to L0:foreign entities, or authorize the use of technical data, computer software, or computer

L0:developed under a SBIR/STTR contract or any rights in computer software generated

L1:(b) Do not prohibit contractors and offerors from furnishing or offering to furnish L0:items, components, or processes developed under a SBIR/STTR contract or computer
L0:software generated under a SBIR/STTR contract solely because the Government?s
L0:rights to use, modify, release, reproduce, perform, display, or disclose such computer
L0:software or technical data related to those items, components, or processes may be L0:restricted.

L1:(c) Consistent with the guidance in this section, 227.7103-3(a)(5), and other L0:acquisition guidance applicable to SBIR/STTR solicitations, the Government may use L0:information provided by offerors in response to a solicitation in the source selection L0:process to evaluate the impact of proposed restrictions on the Government's ability to L0:use or disclose technical data or computer software.

L1:(d) SBIR/STTR data rights apply to SBIR/STTR data that are delivered, developed, L0:or generated in the performance of a contract or agreement that is covered by L0:SBIR/STTR policies, including contracts and subcontracts that include phase III work. 227.7104-2 Rights in SBIR or STTR data

L0:227.7104-2 Rights in SBIR or STTR data.

L1:(a) The Government obtains the following standard license rights in SBIR/STTR L0:data:

L1:(1) Unlimited rights in the technical data and computer software listed in L0:paragraph (c)(1) of the clause at 252.227-7993, Rights in Other Than Commercial L0:Technical Data and Computer Software-Small Business Innovation Research Program L0:and Small Business Technology Transfer Program.

L1:(2) SBIR/STTR data rights in all other technical data and computer software L0:developed or generated under the phase I, II, or III SBIR/STTR contract or subcontract L0:and marked with the SBIR/STTR data rights marking.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(i) SBIR/STTR data rights provide the Government limited rights in such L0:technical data and restricted rights in such computer software during the SBIR/STTR L0:data protection period commencing on the date of contract award and ending 20 years L0:after that date unless, after award, the agency and the contractor negotiate for some L0:other protection period for the SBIR/STTR data.

L1:(ii) Upon expiration of the SBIR/STTR data protection period, the L0:Government has government purpose rights in the SBIR/STTR data. These L0:government purpose rights do not expire. See PGI 227.7104-2 for additional guidance L0:on the SBIR/STTR data protection period.

L1:(b) During the SBIR/STTR data protection period, the Government may not release
L0:or disclose technical data or computer software subject to SBIR/STTR data rights to any
L0:person except as authorized for limited rights technical data or restricted rights
L0:computer software, respectively.

L1:(c) The Government and contractor or subcontractor may negotiate special license
L0:rights only after contract award. The Government must not condition contract award
L0:on the contractor or subcontractor negotiating or consenting to negotiate special license
L0:rights. Negotiation of special license rights is authorized only after contract award by L0:mutual agreement of the parties.

L1:(d) The Small Business Administration's SBIR and STTR Program Policy Directive
L0:(effective May 3, 2023) provides for special consideration regarding the handling (e.g., L0:disclosure, reverse engineering) of prototypes generated under SBIR and STTR awards,
L0:to avoid effects that may appear to be inconsistent with the SBIR and STTR program
L0:objectives and to allow the SBIR/STTR awardee to retain rights in SBIR/STTR data
L0:during the SBIR/STTR data protection period.

L1:(e) The clause at 252.227-7993 specifies the Government's license rights in L0:SBIR/STTR data. However, the following clauses or guidance specify the Government's L0:license rights in any data that are not SBIR/STTR data:

L1:(1) For technical data related to other than commercial products or commercial
L0:services or to any portion of a commercial product or commercial service that was L0:developed in any part at Government expense, the clause at 252.227-7989, Rights in L0:Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer Software Documentation?Other L0:Than Commercial Products and Commercial Services, governs such technical data in L0:accordance with 227.7102-4(b).

L1:(2) For technical data related to any portion of a commercial product or
L0:commercial service developed exclusively at private expense, the clause at 252.227-
L0:7990, Technical Data?Commercial Products and Commercial Services, governs such L0:technical data, in accordance with 227.7102-4(b).

L1:(3) For other than commercial computer software or computer software
L0:documentation, the clause at 252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer
L0:Software, and Computer Software Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products
L0:and Commercial Services, governs such software and computer software
L0:documentation, in accordance with 227.7103-6(c).

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:227.7104-3 STTR program requirements.

L1:(a) Before award of a contract under STTR program requirements offerors submit,

L0:as part of their proposal, a written agreement between the offeror and a research
L0:institution that allocates any rights in intellectual property and the offeror's written
L0:representation that the offeror is satisfied with the agreement. Review the agreement
L0:to ensure it does not conflict with the requirements of the solicitation or any right to L0:carry out follow-on research. If such conflicts exist and cannot be resolved, the L0:submitted proposal is not eligible for award.

L1:(b) At contract award for STTR program requirements, attach to the contract the L0:accepted written agreement and representation provided by the contractor pursuant to L0:the provision at 252.227-7998.

L1:(c) After contract award, for any modification to the written agreement between the L1:(ii) Negotiated terms may specify the purposes and conditions (including L0:time limitations) under which the contractor may use, release, or reproduce the special

L0:works other than for contract performance.

L1:(iii) Such contract terms should not permit a contractor to incorporate into a L0:special work any works copyrighted by others unless the contractor obtains the L0:contracting officer's permission to do so and obtains for the Government a non-
L0:exclusive, paid up, world-wide license to make and distribute copies of that work, to

Workability is generally established when the item, component, or process has been analyzed or tested sufficiently to demonstrate to reasonable people skilled in the applicable art that there is a high probability that it will operate as intended. Whether, how much, and what type of analysis or testing is required to establish workability depends on the nature of the item, component, or process, and the state of the art. To be considered developed, the item, component, or process need not be at the stage where it could be offered for sale or sold on the commercial market, nor must the item, component, or process be actually reduced to practice within the meaning of Title 35 of the United States Code;

L1:(2) A computer program has been successfully operated in a computer and tested to the extent sufficient to demonstrate to reasonable persons skilled in the art that the program can reasonably be expected to perform its intended purpose;

L1:(4) When requested by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall provide

L0:sufficient information to enable the Contracting Officer to evaluate the Contractor?s

L0:assertions. The Contracting Officer reserves the right to add the Contractor?s assertions

L0:to the Attachment and validate any listed assertion, at a later date, in accordance with

L0:the procedures in the DFARS 252.227-7997, Validation of Asserted Restrictions, clause

L0:of this contract.

L1:(g) Marking requirements. The Contractor, and its subcontractors or suppliers, may

L0:only assert restrictions on the Government?s rights to use, modify, reproduce, release,

L0:perform, display, or disclose technical data or computer software the Contractor must L0:deliver under this contract by marking the deliverable data or software subject to L0:restriction. Except as provided in paragraph (g)(7) of this clause, only the following
L0:legends are authorized under this contract: the government purpose rights legend at L0:paragraph (g)(3) of this clause; the limited rights legend at paragraph (g)(4) of this
L0:clause; the restricted rights legend at paragraph (g)(5) of this clause; the special license
L0:rights legend at paragraph (g)(6) of this clause; and a notice of copyright as prescribed
L0:under 17 U.S.C. 401 or 402.

L1:(1) General marking instructions. The Contractor, or its subcontractors or L0:suppliers, shall conspicuously and legibly mark the appropriate legend on all technical L0:data or computer software that qualify for such markings. The authorized legends shall L0:be placed on the transmittal document or storage container and, for printed material,
L0:each page of the printed material containing technical data or computer software for L0:which restrictions are asserted. When only portions of a page of printed material are L0:subject to the asserted restrictions, such portions shall be identified by circling,
L0:underscoring, with a note, or other appropriate identifier. Technical data or computer
L0:software transmitted directly from one computer or computer terminal to another shall L0:contain a notice of asserted restrictions. For software that will or might be used in L0:combat or situations that simulate combat conditions, the contractor shall not insert
L0:instructions that interfere with or delay the operation of computer software in order to L0:display a restrictive rights legend or other license statement at any time prior to or L0:during use of the computer software, or otherwise cause such interference or delay,
L0:unless the Contracting Officer's written permission to deliver such software has been L0:obtained prior to delivery. Reproductions of technical data or computer software or any
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L0:portions thereof subject to asserted restrictions shall also reproduce the asserted
L0:restrictions.

L1:(2) Omitted markings. (i) Technical data or computer software delivered or L0:otherwise provided under this contract without restrictive markings will be presumed L0:to have been delivered with unlimited rights. To the extent practicable, if the L0:Contractor has requested permission (see paragraph (g)(2)(ii) of this clause) to correct
L0:an inadvertent omission of markings, the Contracting Officer will not release or disclose
L0:the technical data or computer software pending evaluation of the request.

L1:(ii) The Contractor may request permission to have conforming and justified
L0:restrictive markings placed on unmarked technical data or computer software at its L0:expense. The request must be received by the Contracting Officer within 6 months
L0:following the furnishing or delivery of such technical data or computer software, or any L0:extension of that time approved by the Contracting Officer. The Contractor shall?
L0:been marked;

L1:(A) Identify the technical data or computer software that should have

L1:(B) Demonstrate that the omission of the marking was inadvertent, the L0:proposed marking is justified and conforms with the requirements for the marking of L0:technical data or computer software contained in this clause; and

L1:(C) Acknowledge, in writing, that the Government has no liability with

L0:respect to any disclosure, reproduction, or use of the technical data or computer

L0:software made prior to the addition of the marking or resulting from the omission of the

L0:marking.

L1:(3) Government purpose rights markings. Technical data or computer software

L0:delivered or otherwise furnished to the Government with government purpose rights

L0:shall be marked as follows:

L0:GOVERNMENT PURPOSE RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:Expiration Date

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose

L0:these technical data or computer software are restricted by the government purpose

L0:rights license in the DFARS 252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer

L0:Software, and Computer Software Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products

L0:and Commercial Services, clause contained in the above identified contract. No

L0:restrictions apply after the expiration date shown above. Any reproduction of technical

L0:data or portions thereof marked with this legend must also reproduce the markings.

L0:(End of legend)

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(4) Limited rights markings. Data delivered or otherwise furnished to the L0:Government with limited rights shall be marked as follows:

L0:LIMITED RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose

L0:these technical data are restricted by the limited rights license in the DFARS 252.227-

L0:7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer Software

L0:Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products and Commercial Services, clause

L0:contained in the above identified contract. Any reproduction of technical data or

L0:portions thereof marked with this legend must also reproduce the markings. Any

L0:person, other than the Government, who has been provided access to such data must

L0:promptly notify the above named Contractor.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(5) Restricted rights markings. Software delivered or otherwise furnished to the L0:Government with restricted rights shall be marked as follows:

L0:RESTRICTED RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose

L0:this software are restricted by the restricted rights license in the DFARS 252.227-7014,

L0:Rights in Other Than Commercial Computer Software and Other Than Commercial
L0:Computer Software Documentation, clause contained in the above identified contract.
L0:Any reproduction of computer software or portions thereof marked with this legend
L0:must also reproduce the markings. Any person, other than the Government, who has L0:been provided access to such software must promptly notify the above named
L0:Contractor.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(6) Special license rights markings. (i) Technical data or computer software in L0:which the Government?s rights stem from a specifically negotiated license shall be L0:marked as follows:

L0:SPECIAL LICENSE RIGHTS

L0:The Government?s rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose
L0:these data or software are restricted by Contract Number [Insert contract number],
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L0:License Number [Insert license identifier]. Any reproduction of technical data, computer
L0:software, or portions thereof marked with this legend must also reproduce the L0:markings.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(ii) For purposes of this clause, special licenses do not include government
L0:purpose license rights acquired under a prior contract (see paragraph (c)(5) of this L0:clause).

L1:(7) Preexisting data or software markings. If the terms of a prior contract or L0:license permitted the Contractor to restrict the Government?s rights to use, modify,
L0:reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data or computer software
L0:deliverable under this contract, and those restrictions are still applicable, the L0:Contractor may mark such data or software with the appropriate restrictive legend for L0:which the data or software qualified under the prior contract or license. The Contractor
L0:shall follow the marking procedures in paragraph (g)(1) of this clause.

L1:(h) Contractor procedures and records. Throughout performance of this contract,
L0:the Contractor and its subcontractors or suppliers that will deliver technical data or L0:computer software with other than unlimited rights, shall?

L1:(1) Have, maintain, and follow written procedures sufficient to assure that L0:restrictive markings are used only when authorized by the terms of this clause; and

L1:(2) Maintain records sufficient to justify the validity of any restrictive markings
L0:on technical data or computer software delivered under this contract.

L1:(i) Removal of unjustified and nonconforming markings?(1) Unjustified technical L0:data markings. The rights and obligations of the parties regarding the validation of L0:restrictive markings on technical data or computer software delivered or to be delivered
L0:under this contract are contained in the DFARS 252.227-7997, Validation of Asserted
L0:Restrictions, clause of this contract. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract
L0:concerning inspection and acceptance, the Government may ignore or, at the L0:Contractor?s expense, correct or strike a marking if, in accordance with the procedures
L0:in the Validation of Asserted Restrictions clause of this contract, a restrictive marking is L0:determined to be unjustified.

L1:(2) Nonconforming technical data or computer software markings. A

L0:nonconforming marking is a marking placed on technical data or computer software

L0:delivered or otherwise furnished to the Government under this contract that is not in

L0:the format authorized by this contract. Correction of nonconforming markings is not

L0:subject to the DFARS 252.227-7997, Validation of Asserted Restrictions, clause of this

L0:contract. If the Contracting Officer notifies the Contractor of a nonconforming marking

L0:and the Contractor fails to remove or correct such marking within 60 days, the

L0:Government may ignore or, at the Contractor's expense, remove or correct any

L0:nonconforming marking.

L1:(j) Relation to patents. Nothing contained in this clause shall imply a license to the L0:Government under any patent or be construed as affecting the scope of any license or

L0:other right otherwise granted to the Government under any patent.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(k) Limitation on charges for rights in technical data, computer software, or

L0:computer software documentation. (1) The Contractor shall not charge to this contract

L0:any cost, including, but not limited to, license fees, royalties, or similar charges, for

L0:rights in technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation the L0:Contractor must deliver under this contract when?

L1:(i) The Government has acquired, by any means, the same or greater rights

L0:in the data or software; or

L1:(ii) The data or software are available to the public without restrictions.

L1:(2) The limitation in paragraph (k)(1) of this clause?

L1:(i) Includes costs charged by a subcontractor or supplier, at any tier, or costs

L0:incurred by the Contractor to acquire rights in subcontractor or supplier technical data,

L0:computer software, or computer software documentation, if the subcontractor or

L0:supplier has been paid for such rights under any other Government contract or under a

L0:license conveying the rights to the Government; and

L1:(ii) Does not include the reasonable costs of reproducing, handling, or

L0:mailing the documents or other media in which the technical data, computer software,

L0:or computer software documentation will be delivered.

L1:(l) Applicability to subcontractors or suppliers. (1) The Contractor shall ensure that

L0:the rights afforded its subcontractors and suppliers under 10 U.S.C. 3771-3775, 10

L0:U.S.C. 3781-3786, and the identification, assertion, and delivery processes of paragraph

L1:(f) of this clause are recognized and protected.

L2:(2)(i) Except as provided in paragraph (l)(2)(ii) of this clause, the Contractor

L0:shall include this clause in any subcontract or contractual instrument under which

L0:technical data or computer software will be obtained from a subcontractor or supplier

L0:for delivery to the Government. This requirement applies to technical data or software

L0:related to other than commercial products or commercial services, or related to

L0:commercial products or commercial services developed in any part with Government

L0:funds. The Contractor shall also require its subcontractors and suppliers to include this

L0:clause, without alteration except to identify the parties, in any contractual instrument

L0:under which technical data or computer software will be obtained from a subcontractor

L0:or supplier for delivery to the Government. This clause will govern the technical data

L0:related to an other than commercial product or service or to any portion of a commercial
L0:product or commercial service that was developed in any part at Government expense,
L0:and the clause at 252.227-7990 will govern the technical data related to any portion of a
L0:commercial item that was developed exclusively at private expense. No other clause
L0:shall be used to expand or reduce the Government's, the Contractor's, or a higher-tier
L0:subcontractor's or supplier's rights in a subcontractor's or supplier's technical data,
L0:computer software, or computer software documentation.

L1:(ii) The Contractor shall use the clause at DFARS 252.227-7993, Rights in L0:Other Than Commercial Technical Data and Computer Software?Small Business
L0:Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer Program, to
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L0:govern technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation that is L0:SBIR/STTR data.

L1:(3) Technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation a
L0:subcontractor or supplier must deliver shall normally be delivered to the next higher-
L0:tier contractor, subcontractor, or supplier. However, when there is a requirement in the L0:prime contract for data which may be submitted with other than unlimited rights by a
L0:subcontractor or supplier, then said subcontractor or supplier may fulfill its L0:requirement by submitting such data or software directly to the Government, rather L0:than through a higher-tier contractor, subcontractor, or supplier.

L1:(4) The Contractor and higher-tier subcontractors or suppliers shall not use the L0:award of a contract as economic leverage to obtain rights in technical data, computer
L0:software, or computer software documentation from their subcontractors or suppliers.

L1:(5) In no event shall the Contractor use its obligation to recognize and protect
L0:subcontractor or supplier rights in technical data, computer software, or computer
L0:software documentation as an excuse for failing to satisfy its contractual obligations to L0:the Government.

L0:(End of clause)

L0:Alternate I (DEVIATION 2026-O0036) (FEB 2026). As prescribed in 227.7103-6(b)(1)
L0:and (d), add the following paragraph (m) to the basic clause:

L1:(m) Publication for sale. (1) This paragraph only applies to technical data or
L0:computer software in which the Government has obtained unlimited rights or a license
L0:to make an unrestricted release of technical data or computer software.

L1:(2) The Government will not publish a deliverable technical data or computer
L0:software item or items identified in this contract as being subject to paragraph (m) of L0:this clause or authorize others to publish such data or software on its behalf if, prior to
L0:publication for sale by the Government and within 24 months following the date
L0:specified in this contract for delivery of such data or software or the removal of any
L0:national security or export control restrictions, whichever is later, the Contractor
L0:publishes that item or items for sale and promptly notifies the Contracting Officer of L0:such publication(s). Any such publication shall include a notice identifying the number
L0:of this contract and the Government's rights in the published data or software.

L1:(3) This limitation on the Government's right to publish for sale shall continue
L0:as long as the data are reasonably available to the public for purchase.

L0:Alternate II (DEVIATION 2026-O0036) (FEB 2026). As prescribed in 227.7103-6(b)(2), L0:add the following definition of ?Vessel design? in alphabetical order to paragraph (a) and L0:add paragraph (c)(7) to the basic clause:
L1:(a) ?Vessel design? means the design of a vessel, boat, or craft, and its components,
L0:including the hull, decks, superstructure, and the exterior surface shape of all external
L0:shipboard equipment and systems. The term includes designs covered by 10 U.S.C.
L0:8687, and designs protectable under 17 U.S.C. 1301, et seq.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L2:(c)(7) Vessel designs. For a vessel design (including a vessel design embodied in a L0:useful article) that is developed or delivered under this contract, the Government shall L0:have the right to make and have made any useful article that embodies the vessel
L0:design, to import the article, to sell the article, and to distribute the article for sale or to L0:use the article in trade, to the same extent that the Government is granted rights in the L0:technical data related to the vessel design.

L0:for award.

L1:(f) If the Offeror is awarded a contract, the assertions identified in paragraph (d) of

L0:this provision shall be listed in an attachment to that contract. Upon request by the

L0:Contracting Officer, the Offeror shall provide sufficient information to enable the

L0:(End of provision)

252.227-7993 clause:

Status: active

L0:252.227-7993 clause:

L1:(1) Redelivery of SBIR data.

L1:(i) SBIR data first generated under a prior SBIR clause and redelivered under the

L0:current SBIR clause. In this example, a contractor generates and delivers SBIR data under L0:a 2016 phase II SBIR contract that includes a prior version of the clause at DFARS 252.227-7993. The contractor delivers identical data in a contiguous series of follow-on contracts, L0:including a later phase III contract that is an extension of the research effort in the 2016 L0:contract. That phase III contract includes the current version of the clause at DFARS L0:252.227-7993. The contractor asserts SBIR data rights in these data. The 2016 contract L0:included the clause at DFARS 252.227-7993, which defined the SBIR data protection period L0:as the period commencing with contract award and ending upon the date 5 years after L0:completion of the project from which such data were generated. This previous definition of L0:the SBIR data protection period applies to the redelivered SBIR data in the contiguous L0:series of follow-on contracts, including the later phase III contract. The SBIR data protection L0:period is extended because the later contract derives from, extends, or completes an effort L0:made under a prior SBIR contract that included the prior version of the clause at DFARS L0:252.227-7993. This is the case even under later contracts that include the current version of L0:the clause at DFARS 252.227-7993 with a non-extendable 20-year SBIR/STTR data L0:protection period. In addition, the SBIR data protection period from the prior version of the L0:clause at DFARS 252.227-7993 may be extended indefinitely for subsequent redeliveries of L0:identical SBIR data as long as the SBIR project has not been completed.

L1:(ii) SBIR data first delivered with the 20-year SBIR data protection period and later L0:redelivered under the current SBIR clause. In another example, a contractor generates and L0:delivers SBIR data under a 2021 phase II SBIR contract. The contractor delivers identical L0:data under a later phase III contract that is an extension of the research effort in the 2021 L0:contract. The contractor asserts SBIR data rights in these data. That 2021 contract L0:included a version of the DFARS 252.227-7993 clause that defines the SBIR data protection L0:period as the period commencing on the date of contract award and ending 20 years after L0:that date. The same definition of the SBIR/STTR data protection period applies to the L0:redelivered SBIR data in the later phase III contract. Redelivery of identical SBIR data under L0:any later contract will not extend the 20-year SBIR data protection period.

L1:(2) Modifications to previously delivered SBIR or STTR data. A contractor generates L0:and delivers SBIR/STTR data under a phase II STTR contract with the current version of the L0:clause at DFARS 252.227-7993. The contractor develops and delivers modified STTR data L0:under a later phase III contract. The contractor asserts SBIR/STTR data rights in these L0:data. The previously delivered portions of the STTR data will be governed by the previous L0:SBIR/STTR data protection period, while the newly developed portions of the STTR data will L0:be governed by a new 20-year SBIR/STTR data protection period.

L1:(3) SBIR or STTR data delivered under a contract and the contractor was not awarded a L0:SBIR or STTR contract. A subcontractor was awarded a SBIR phase I contract. Later, the L0:subcontractor performed SBIR phase III work under a contract awarded to a contractor who L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27 L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227 L0:was not awarded a SBIR or STTR contract. The subcontractor furnished technical data and L0:computer software deliverables related to SBIR phase III work performed under this L0:contract. This technical data and computer software was furnished to the Government with L0:SBIR data rights. The clause at DFARS 252.227-7993 should have been included either in L0:the initial contract or via a contract modification, and the Government's rights in this SBIR

L0:data are subject to the terms of the clause at DFARS 252.227-7993.
L0:PGI 227.7106 Contracts for special works.
L1:(c) Examples of special works include, but are not limited, to audiovisual works, scripts,
L0:soundtracks, musical compositions, and adaptations; histories of departments, agencies,
L0:services or units thereof; surveys of Government establishments; instructional works or
L0:guidance to Government officers and employees on the discharge of their official duties;
L0:reports, books, studies, surveys or similar documents; collections of data containing L0:information pertaining to individuals that, if disclosed, would violate the right of privacy or L0:publicity of the individuals to whom the information relates; or investigative reports.

L0:LIMITATIONS ON THE USE OR DISCLOSURE OF GOVERNMENT-FURNISHEDL0:INFORMATION MARKED WITH RESTRICTIVE LEGENDS*L0:(DEVIATION 2026-O0036) (FEB 2026)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L1:(1) For contracts in which the Government will furnish the Contractor with

L0:technical data, the terms "covered Government support contractor," "limited rights,"

L0:"restricted rights," and "Government purpose rights" are defined in the clause at

L0:252.227-7989, Rights in Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer Software

L0:Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products and Commercial Services.

L0:Small Business Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer

L0:Program.

L1:(b) Technical data or computer software provided to the Contractor as Government-

L0:furnished information (GFI) under this contract may be subject to restrictions on use,

L0:modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or further disclosure.

L1:(1) GFI marked with limited rights, restricted rights, or SBIR/STTR data

L0:rights legends. (i) The Contractor shall use, modify, reproduce, perform, or display

L0:technical data received from the Government with limited rights legends, computer

L0:software received with restricted rights legends, or SBIR/STTR technical data or

L0:computer software received with SBIR/STTR data rights legends (during the L0:SBIR/STTR data protection period) only in the performance of this contract. The

L0:Contractor shall not, without the express written permission of the party whose name

L0:appears in the legend, release or disclose such data or software to any unauthorized

L0:person.

L1:(ii) If the Contractor is a covered Government support contractor, the

L0:require the data or software to submit offers for, or perform, contracts under this L0:contract. Prior to disclosing the data or software, the Contractor shall require the L0:persons to whom disclosure will be made to complete and sign the nondisclosure
L0:agreement at 227.7103-7 of the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement

L1:(DFARS).

L1:(3) GFI marked with specially negotiated license rights legends. (i) The L0:Contractor shall use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, or display technical data or L0:computer software received from the Government with specially negotiated license
L0:legends only as permitted in the license. Such data or software may not be released or L0:disclosed to other persons unless permitted by the license and, prior to release or L0:disclosure, the intended recipient has completed the nondisclosure agreement at L0:DFARS 227.7103-7. The Contractor shall modify paragraph (1)(c) of the nondisclosure
L0:agreement to reflect the recipient's obligations regarding use, modification,
L0:reproduction, release, performance, display, and disclosure of the data or software.

L1:(ii) If the Contractor is a covered Government support contractor, the L0:Contractor may also be subject to some or all of the additional terms and conditions at L0:paragraph (b)(5) of this clause, to the extent such terms and conditions are required by L0:the specially negotiated license.

L1:(4) GFI technical data marked with commercial restrictive legends. (i) The L0:Contractor shall use, modify, reproduce, perform, or display technical data that are or L0:are related to a commercial product or commercial service and are received from the L0:Government with a commercial restrictive legend (i.e., marked to indicate that such L0:data are subject to use, modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or L0:disclosure restrictions) only in the performance of this contract. The Contractor shall L0:not, without the express written permission of the party whose name appears in the L0:legend, use the technical data to manufacture additional quantities of the commercial
L0:products or commercial services, or release or disclose such data to any unauthorized
L0:person.

L1:(ii) If the Contractor is a covered Government support contractor, the L0:Contractor is also subject to the additional terms and conditions at paragraph (b)(5) of L0:this clause.

L1:(5) Covered Government support contractors. If the Contractor is a covered
L0:Government support contractor receiving technical data or computer software marked
L0:with restrictive legends pursuant to paragraphs (b)(1)(ii), (b)(3)(ii), or (b)(4)(ii) of this L0:clause, the Contractor further agrees and acknowledges that?

L1:(i) The technical data or computer software will be accessed and used for the L0:sole purpose of furnishing independent and impartial advice or technical assistance
L0:directly to the Government in support of the Government's management and oversight
L0:of the program or effort to which such technical data or computer software relates, as L0:stated in this contract, and shall not be used to compete for any Government or non-
L0:Government contract;

L1:(ii) The Contractor shall take all reasonable steps to protect the technical
L0:data or computer software against any unauthorized release or disclosure;

L1:(iii) The Contractor shall ensure that the party whose name appears in the L0:legend is notified of the access or use within 30 days of the Contractor?s access or use of L0:such data or software;

L1:(iv) The Contractor shall enter into a nondisclosure agreement with the L0:party whose name appears in the legend, if required to do so by that party, and that any L0:such nondisclosure agreement will implement the restrictions on the Contractor?s use of L0:such data or software as set forth in this clause. The nondisclosure agreement shall not L0:include any additional terms and conditions unless mutually agreed to by the parties to L0:the nondisclosure agreement; and

L1:(v) That a breach of these obligations or restrictions may subject the L0:Contractor to?

L1:(A) Criminal, civil, administrative, and contractual actions in law and L0:equity for penalties, damages, and other appropriate remedies by the United States; L0:and

L1:(1) To indemnify and hold harmless the Government, its agents, and employees L0:from every claim or liability, including attorneys fees, court costs, and expenses, arising L0:out of, or in any way related to, the misuse or unauthorized modification, reproduction, L0:release, performance, display, or disclosure of technical data or computer software L0:received from the Government with restrictive legends by the Contractor or any person L0:to whom the Contractor has released or disclosed such data or software; and

L1:(2) That the party whose name appears on the restrictive legend, in addition to L0:any other rights it may have, is a third-party beneficiary who has the right of direct L0:action against the Contractor, or any person to whom the Contractor has released or L0:disclosed such data or software, for the unauthorized duplication, release, or disclosure L0:of technical data or computer software subject to restrictive legends.

L1:(d) The Contractor shall ensure that its employees are subject to use and L0:nondisclosure obligations consistent with this clause prior to the employees being L0:provided access to or use of any GFI covered by this clause.

L0:As prescribed in 227.7103-6(g), 227.7104-4(b)(6), or 227.7203-6(c), use the following

L0:clause:

L0:VALIDATION OF ASSERTED RESTRICTIONS (DEVIATION 2026-O0036)L0:(FEB 2026)

L1:(a) Definitions. The terms used in this clause are defined in the 252.227-7989,

L0:Rights in Technical Data, Computer Software, and Computer Software

L0:Documentation?Other Than Commercial Products and Commercial Services, clause of

L0:this contract.

L1:(b) Technical data related to commercial products or commercial services?

L0:presumption regarding development exclusively at private expense. For technical data

L0:related to commercial products or commercial services, the Contracting Officer will

L0:presume that the Contractor?s or a subcontractor?s asserted use or release restrictions

L0:with respect to a commercial product or commercial service are justified on the basis

L0:that the item was developed exclusively at private expense. The Contracting Officer

L0:will not issue a challenge unless there are reasonable grounds to question the validity of

L0:the assertion that the commercial item was developed exclusively at private expense.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(c) Justification. The Contractor or subcontractor at any tier is responsible for

L0:maintaining records sufficient to justify the validity of its asserted restrictions on the

L0:rights of the Government and others to use, duplicate, release, or disclose technical data

L0:or computer software delivered, required to be delivered, or otherwise provided to the L0:Government under the contract or subcontract. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of

L0:this clause, the Contractor or subcontractor shall be prepared to furnish to the

L0:Contracting Officer a written justification for such asserted restrictions in response to a

L0:challenge under paragraph (e) of this clause.

L1:(d) Prechallenge request for information related to asserted restrictions on technical

L0:data. (1) The Contracting Officer may request the Contractor or subcontractor to

L0:furnish a written explanation for any asserted restriction on the right of the United

L0:States or others to use, disclose, or release technical data. If, upon review of the

L0:explanation submitted, the Contracting Officer cannot determine the basis of the L0:asserted restriction, the Contracting Officer may further request the Contractor or L0:subcontractor to furnish additional information in the records of, or otherwise in the L0:possession of or reasonably available to, the Contractor or subcontractor to justify the L0:validity of any asserted restriction on technical data delivered, to be delivered, or L0:otherwise provided to the Government under the contract or subcontract (e.g., a L0:statement of facts accompanied with supporting documentation). The Contractor or L0:subcontractor shall submit such written data as requested by the Contracting Officer L0:within the time required or such longer period as may be mutually agreed.

L1:(2) If the Contracting Officer, after reviewing the written data furnished L0:pursuant to paragraph (d)(1) of this clause, or any other available information related to L0:the validity of an asserted restriction, determines that reasonable grounds exist to L0:question the current validity of the asserted restriction and that continued adherence to L0:the asserted restriction would make impracticable the subsequent competitive L0:acquisition of the item or process to which the technical data relates, the Contracting L0:Officer will follow the procedures in paragraph (f) of this clause.

L1:(3) If the Contractor or subcontractor fails to respond to the Contracting L0:Officer's request for information under paragraph (d)(1) of this clause, and the L0:Contracting Officer determines that continued adherence to the asserted restriction L0:would make impracticable the subsequent competitive acquisition of the item or process L0:to which the technical data relates, the Contracting Officer may challenge the validity of L0:the asserted restriction as described in paragraph (f) of this clause.

L1:(e) Prechallenge request for information related to assertion restrictions on computer L0:software. (1) The Contracting Officer may request the Contractor to provide sufficient L0:information to enable the Contracting Officer to evaluate the Contractor's asserted L0:restrictions. Such information shall be based upon the records required by this clause L0:or other information reasonably available to the Contractor.

L1:(2) Based upon the information provided, if the?

L1:(i) Contractor agrees that an asserted restriction is not valid, the L0:Contracting Officer may?

L0:expense; or

L1:(A) Strike or correct the unjustified marking at the Contractor's L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27 L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(B) Return the computer software to the Contractor for correction at the L0:Contractor's expense. If the Contractor fails to correct or strike the unjustified marking L0:and return the corrected software to the Contracting Officer within 60 days following L0:receipt of the software, the Contracting Officer may correct or strike the marking at the L0:Contractor's expense;

L1:(ii) Contracting Officer concludes that the asserted restriction is appropriate L0:for this contract, the Contracting Officer shall so notify the Contractor in writing.

L1:(3) The Contractor's failure to provide a timely response to a Contracting L0:Officer's request for information or failure to provide sufficient information to enable the L0:Contracting Officer to evaluate an asserted restriction shall constitute reasonable L0:grounds for questioning the validity of an asserted restriction.

L1:(f) Challenge. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this contract concerning

L0:inspection and acceptance, if the Contracting Officer determines that a challenge to the L0:asserted restriction is warranted, the Contracting Officer will send a written challenge L0:notice to the Contractor or subcontractor making the asserted restriction. The L0:challenge notice and all related correspondence shall be subject to handling procedures L0:for classified information and controlled unclassified information. Such challenge will?

L1:(i) State the specific grounds for challenging the asserted restriction L0:including, for technical data related to commercial products or commercial services, L0:sufficient information to reasonably demonstrate that the commercial product or L0:commercial service was not developed exclusively at private expense;

L1:(ii) Require a response within 60 days justifying the assertion based upon L0:records kept in accordance with paragraph (c) of this clause and providing sufficient L0:evidence as to the current validity of the asserted restriction;

L1:(iii) State that a Contracting Officer's final decision, issued pursuant to L0:paragraph (h) of this clause, or action of a court of competent jurisdiction or Board of L0:Contract Appeals that sustained the validity of an identical assertion made by the L0:Contractor (or a licensee) sustaining the validity of a prior asserted restriction identical L0:to the current asserted restriction, within the 3-year period preceding the current L0:challenge, shall serve as justification for the current asserted restriction if the prior L0:validated restriction was asserted by the same Contractor or subcontractor (or any L0:licensee of such Contractor or subcontractor) to which such notice is being provided; and

L1:(iv) State that failure to respond to the challenge notice may result in L0:issuance of a final decision pursuant to paragraph (g) of this clause.

L1:(2) The Contracting Officer will extend the time for response as appropriate if L0:the Contractor or subcontractor submits a written request showing the need for L0:additional time to prepare a response.

L1:(3) The Contractor's or subcontractor's written response shall be considered a L0:claim within the meaning of the 41 U.S.C. 7101, Contract Disputes, and shall be L0:certified in the form prescribed at 33.207 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation, L0:regardless of dollar amount.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(4) A Contractor or subcontractor receiving challenges to the same asserted L0:restrictions from more than one Contracting Officer shall notify each Contracting L0:Officer of the existence of more than one challenge. The notice shall also state which L0:Contracting Officer initiated the first in time unanswered challenge. The Contracting L0:Officer initiating the first in time unanswered challenge after consultation with the L0:Contractor or subcontractor and the other Contracting Officers, will formulate and L0:distribute a schedule for responding to each of the challenge notices to all interested L0:parties. The schedule will afford the Contractor or subcontractor a reasonable L0:opportunity to respond to each challenge notice. All parties will be bound by this L0:schedule.

L1:(5) The Contracting Officer may request additional supporting documentation L0:if, in the Contracting Officer's opinion, the Contractor's explanation does not provide L0:sufficient evidence to justify the validity of the asserted restrictions. The Contractor L0:agrees to promptly respond to the Contracting Officer's request for additional L0:supporting documentation.

L1:(6) Notwithstanding challenge by the Contracting Officer, the parties may

L0:agree on the disposition of an asserted restriction at any time prior to a Contracting

L0:Officer's final decision or, if the Contractor has appealed that decision, filed suit, or

L0:provided notice of an intent to file suit, at any time prior to a decision by a court of L0:competent jurisdiction or Board of Contract Appeals.

L1:(g) Final decision when Contractor or subcontractor fails to respond. Upon a failure

L0:of a Contractor or subcontractor to submit any response to the challenge notice or a

L0:request for additional information (under paragraphs (f)(1) and (f)(5) of this clause), the

L0:Contracting Officer will issue a final decision to the Contractor or subcontractor in

L0:accordance with the Disputes clause of this contract. In order to sustain the challenge

L0:for commercial products or commercial services, the Contracting Officer will provide

L0:information demonstrating that the commercial product or commercial service was not

L0:developed exclusively at private expense. This final decision will be issued as soon as

L0:possible after the expiration of the time period of paragraph (f)(1)(ii) or (f)(2) of this

L0:clause. Following issuance of the final decision, the Contracting Officer will comply

L0:with the procedures in paragraphs (h)(2)(ii) through (iv) of this clause.

L1:(h) Final decision when Contractor or subcontractor responds. (1) If the

L0:Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor or subcontractor has justified the

L0:validity of the asserted restriction, the Contracting Officer will issue a final decision to

L0:the Contractor or subcontractor that sustains the validity of the asserted restriction and

L0:that states that the Government will continue to be bound by the asserted restriction.

L0:The Contracting Officer will issue this final decision within 60 days after receipt of the

L0:Contractor's or subcontractor's response to the challenge notice, or within such longer

L0:period that the Contracting Officer has notified the Contractor or subcontractor that the

L0:Government will require. The Contracting Officer will provide notification of any longer

L0:period for issuance of a final decision within 60 days after receipt of the response to the

L0:challenge notice.

L2:(2)(i) If the Contracting Officer determines that the validity of the asserted

L0:restriction is not justified, the Contracting Officer will issue a final decision to the L0:Contractor or subcontractor in accordance with the Disputes clause of this contract. To

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:sustain the challenge for technical data related to commercial products or commercial

L0:services, the Contracting Officer will provide information demonstrating that the

L0:commercial product or commercial service was not developed exclusively at private

L0:expense. Notwithstanding paragraph (e) of the Disputes clause, the final decision will

L0:be issued within 60 days after receipt of the Contractor's or subcontractor's response to

L0:the challenge notice, or within such longer period that the Contracting Officer has

L0:notified the Contractor or subcontractor that the Government will require. The

L0:notification of a longer period for issuance of a final decision will be made within 60

L0:days after receipt of the response to the challenge notice.

L1:(ii) The Government agrees that it will continue to be bound by the asserted

L0:restriction for a period of 90 days from the issuance of the Contracting Officer's final

L0:decision under paragraph (h)(2)(i) of this clause. The Contractor or subcontractor

L0:agrees that, if it intends to file suit in the United States Court of Federal Claims, it will L0:provide a notice of intent to file suit to the Contracting Officer within 90 days from the L0:issuance of the Contracting Officer's final decision under paragraph (h)(2)(i) of this L0:clause. If the Contractor or subcontractor fails to appeal to an agency Board of Contract
 L0:Appeals, file suit in an appropriate court, or provide a notice of intent to file suit in an
 L0:appropriate court to the Contracting Officer within the 90-day period, the Government
 L0:may cancel or ignore the restrictive markings that are based on the asserted
 L0:restrictions, and the failure of the Contractor or subcontractor to take the required
 L0:action constitutes agreement with such Government action.

L1:(iii) The Government agrees that it will continue to be bound by the L0:asserted restriction where a notice of intent to file suit in the United States Court of L0:Federal Claims is provided to the Contracting Officer within 90 days from the issuance
 L0:of the final decision under paragraph (h)(2)(i) of this clause. The Government will no
 L0:longer be bound, and the Contractor or subcontractor agrees that the Government may L0:strike or ignore the restrictive marking that is based on the asserted restriction, if the L0:Contractor or subcontractor fails to file its suit within 1 year after issuance of the final
 L0:decision. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the head of an agency determines, on a
 L0:nondelegable basis, that urgent or compelling circumstances will not permit waiting for L0:the filing of a suit in the United States Court of Federal Claims, the Contractor or L0:subcontractor agrees that the agency may, following notice to the Contractor or L0:subcontractor, authorize release or disclosure of the technical data or computer
 L0:software. The Government agrees not to release or disclose such technical data or L0:computer software unless, prior to release or disclosure, the intended recipient is subject
 L0:to the use and nondisclosure agreement at Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation
 L0:Supplement (DFARS) 227.7103-7, or is a Government contractor receiving access to the L0:technical data or computer software for performance of a Government contract that L0:contains the clause at DFARS 252.227-7994, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of L0:Government-Furnished Information Marked with Restrictive Legends. Such agency
 L0:determination may be made at any time after issuance of the final decision and will not
 L0:affect the Contractor's or subcontractor's right to damages against the United States
 L0:where its asserted restrictions are ultimately upheld or to pursue other relief, if any, as L0:may be provided by law.

L1:(iv) The Government agrees that it will be bound by the asserted
 L0:restrictions where an appeal or suit is filed pursuant to the Contract Disputes statute
 L0:until final disposition by an agency Board of Contract Appeals or the United States
 L0:Court of Federal Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the head of an agency
 L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
 L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
 L0:determines, on a nondelegable basis, following notice to the Contractor that urgent or L0:compelling circumstances will not permit awaiting the decision by such Board of L0:Contract Appeals or the United States Court of Federal Claims, the Contractor or L0:subcontractor agrees that the agency may authorize release or disclosure of the L0:technical data or computer software. The Government agrees not to release or disclose L0:such technical data or computer software unless, prior to release or disclosure, the L0:intended recipient is subject to the use and nondisclosure agreement at Defense Federal

L0:Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) 227.7103-7, or is a Government contractor
L0:receiving access to the technical data or computer software for performance of a L0:Government contract that contains the clause at DFARS 252.227-7994, Limitations on L0:the Use or Disclosure of Government-Furnished Information Marked with Restrictive
L0:Legends. Such agency determination may be made at any time after issuance of the L0:final decision and will not affect the Contractor?s or subcontractor?s right to damages
L0:against the United States where its asserted restrictions are ultimately upheld or to L0:pursue other relief, if any, as may be provided by law.

L1:(i) Final disposition of appeal or suit. (1) If the Contractor or subcontractor appeals
L0:or files suit and if, upon final disposition of the appeal or suit, the Contracting Officer?s
L0:decision is sustained?

L1:(i) The restrictive marking that is based on the asserted restriction on the L0:technical data or computer software shall be cancelled, corrected or ignored; and L1:(ii) If the asserted restriction is found not to be substantially justified, the L0:Contractor or subcontractor, as appropriate, shall be liable to the Government for L0:payment of the cost to the Government of reviewing the asserted restriction and the fees
L0:and other expenses (as defined in 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(A)) incurred by the Government
L0:in challenging the asserted restriction, unless special circumstances would make such L0:payment unjust.

L1:(2) If the Contractor or subcontractor appeals or files suit and if, upon final
L0:disposition of the appeal or suit, the Contracting Officer?s decision is not sustained?

L1:(i) The Government will continue to be bound by the restrictive marking;
L0:and

L1:(ii) The Government will be liable to the Contractor or subcontractor for L0:payment of fees and other expenses (as defined in 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(A)) incurred by L0:the Contractor or subcontractor in defending the marking, if the challenge by the L0:Government is found not to have been made in good faith.

L1:(j) Duration of right to challenge. (1) The Government may review the validity of L0:any restriction on technical data or computer software, delivered or that the Contractor
L0:must deliver under a contract, asserted by the Contractor or subcontractor. During the L0:period within 6 years of final payment on a contract or within 6 years of delivery of the L0:technical data or computer software to the Government, whichever is later, the L0:Contracting Officer may review and make a written determination to challenge the L0:restriction. The Government may, however, challenge a restriction on the release,
L0:disclosure, or use of technical data or computer software at any time if such technical
L0:data or computer software?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(i) Are publicly available;

L1:(ii) Have been furnished to the United States without restriction;

L1:(iii) Have been otherwise made available without restriction; or

L1:(iv) Are the subject of a fraudulently asserted use or release restriction.

L1:(2) Only the Contracting Officer?s final decision resolving a formal challenge by L0:sustaining the validity of a restrictive marking or actions of an agency Board of L0:Contract Appeals or a court of competent jurisdiction that sustain the validity of an

L0:asserted restriction constitute ?validation? as addressed in 10 U.S.C. 3785(c).

L1:(k) Decision not to challenge. A decision by the Government, or a determination by

L0:the Contracting Officer, to not challenge the restrictive marking or asserted restriction

L0:shall not constitute ?validation.?

L1:(l) Privity of contract. The Contractor or subcontractor agrees that the Contracting

L0:Officer may transact matters under this clause directly with subcontractors at any tier

L0:that assert restrictions. However, this clause neither creates nor implies privity of L0:contract between the Government and subcontractor.

L1:(m) Flowdown. The Contractor or subcontractor agrees to insert this clause in

L0:contractual instruments, including subcontracts and other contractual instruments for

L0:commercial products or commercial services, with its subcontractors or suppliers at any

L0:tier requiring the delivery of technical data or computer software. The clause may not

L0:be altered other than to identify the appropriate parties.

L0:extent the Contractor, its licensees, or the domestic subsidiaries or affiliates have failed

L1:(c) Contractor?s obligations. (1) The Contractor shall?

L1:(i) Disclose, in writing, each subject invention to the Contracting Officer

L1:(ii) Include in the disclosure?
L1:(A) The inventor(s) and the contract under which the invention was L0:made;
L0:invention; and
L1:(B) Sufficient technical detail to convey a clear understanding of the

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
L1:(2) The Contractor shall elect in writing whether or not to retain ownership of L0:any subject invention by notifying the Contracting Officer at the time of disclosure or

L0:nontechnical employees, to?

L0:Contractor can comply with the disclosure provisions in paragraph (c) of this clause; and

L1:(B) Provide the disclosure in the Contractor?s format, which should L0:require, as a minimum, the information required by paragraph (c)(1) of this clause;

L1:(ii) Instruct its employees, through employee agreements or other suitable
L0:educational programs, as to the importance of reporting inventions in sufficient time to L0:permit the filing of patent applications prior to U.S. or statutory foreign bars; and

L0:certain rights in this invention."

L1:(5) The Contractor shall?

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:subject inventions are promptly identified and disclosed to Contractor personnel

L0:responsible for patent matters;

L1:(ii) Include in these procedures the maintenance of?

L0:reasonably necessary to document the conception and/or the first actual reduction to

L0:practice of subject inventions; and

L0:the inventions are followed; and

L0:disclosed or that there are no subject inventions.

L1:(ii) A final report, within 3 months after completion of the contracted work,

L1:(D) The dates of award and estimated completion.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(ii) The Contractor shall furnish, upon request, a copy of the subcontract, L0:and no more frequently than annually, a listing of the subcontracts that have been

L0:with any march-in proceedings undertaken by the agency in accordance with paragraph L1:(h) of this clause.

L1:(2) To the extent permitted by law, the agency shall not disclose the information
L0:provided under paragraph (f)(1) of this clause to persons outside the Government
L0:without the Contractor's permission, if the data or information is considered by the L0:Contractor or its licensee or assignee to be "privileged and confidential" (see 5 U.S.C.
L0:552(b)(4)) and is so marked.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(g) Preference for United States industry. Notwithstanding any other provision of L0:this clause, the Contractor agrees that neither the Contractor nor any assignee shall L0:grant to any person the exclusive right to use or sell any subject invention in the United L0:States unless the person agrees that any products embodying the subject invention or L0:produced through the use of the subject invention will be manufactured substantially in L0:the United States. However, in individual cases, the agency may waive the L0:requirement for an exclusive license agreement upon a showing by the Contractor or its L0:assignee that?

L1:(1) Reasonable but unsuccessful efforts have been made to grant licenses on

L0:similar terms to potential licensees that would be likely to manufacture substantially in

L0:the United States; or

L1:(2) Under the circumstances, domestic manufacture is not commercially

L0:feasible.

L1:(h) March-in rights. The Contractor acknowledges that, with respect to any subject

L0:invention in which it has retained ownership, the agency has the right to require

L0:licensing pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 203 and 210(c), 37 CFR 401.6, and any supplemental

L0:regulations of the agency in effect on the date of contract award.

L1:(i) Other inventions. Nothing contained in this clause shall be deemed to grant to

L0:the Government any rights with respect to any invention other than a subject

L0:invention.

L1:(j) Examination of records relating to inventions. (1) The Contracting Officer or any

L0:authorized representative shall, until 3 years after final payment under this contract,

L0:have the right to examine any books (including laboratory notebooks), records, and

L0:documents of the Contractor relating to the conception or first reduction to practice of

L0:inventions in the same field of technology as the work under this contract to determine

L0:whether?

L1:(i) Any inventions are subject inventions;

L1:(ii) The Contractor has established procedures required by paragraph (e)(5)

L0:of this clause; and

L1:(iii) The Contractor and its inventors have complied with the procedures.

L1:(2) If the Contracting Officer learns of an unreported Contractor invention that

L0:the Contracting Officer believes may be a subject invention, the Contractor shall be

L1:(3) Any examination of records under this paragraph (j) shall be subject to

L0:appropriate conditions to protect the confidentiality of the information involved.

L1:(k) Withholding of payment (this paragraph does not apply to subcontracts). (1) Any

L0:determined that the Contractor has rectified whatever deficiencies exist and has

L0:delivered all reports, disclosures, and other information required by this clause.

L1:(3) The Government will not make final payment under this contract before the L0:Contractor delivers to the Contracting Officer?

L1:(i) All disclosures of subject inventions required by paragraph (c)(1) of this

L0:clause;

L0:and

L1:(ii) An acceptable final report pursuant to paragraph (e)(7)(ii) of this clause;

L0:PGI 227.6?FOREIGN LICENSE AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE AGREEMENTS

L0:PGI 227.673 Foreign license and technical assistance agreements between the L0:Government and domestic concerns.

L1:(a) Contracts between the Government and a primary source to provide technical L0:assistance or patent rights to a second source for the manufacture of supplies or L0:performance of services must, to the extent practicable, specify the rights in patents and L0:data and any other rights to be supplied to the second source. Each contract should L0:provide, in connection with any separate agreement between the primary source and the L0:second source for patent rights or technical assistance relating to the articles or services
L0:involved in the contract, that?

L1:(1) The primary source and its subcontractors shall not make, on account of any L0:purchases by the Government or by others with funds derived through the Foreign Military
L0:Financing Program or otherwise through the Government, any charge to the second source
L0:for royalties or amortization for patents or inventions in which the Government holds a
L0:royalty-free license; or data which the Government has the right to possess, use, and L0:disclose to others; or any technical assistance provided to the second source for which the L0:Government has paid under a contract between the Government and the primary source;
L0:and

L1:(2) The separate agreement between the primary and second source shall include
L0:a statement referring to the contract between the Government and the primary source, and it
L0:must conform to the requirements of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (see PGI
L0:227.675-1).

L1:(b) Consider the following factors, among others, in negotiating the price to be paid the L0:primary source under contracts within (a) of this section?

L1:(1) The actual cost of providing data, personnel, manufacturing aids, samples,
L0:spare parts, etc.;

L1:(2) The extent to which the Government has contributed to the development of the L0:supplies or services, and to the methods of manufacture or performance, through past
L0:contracts for research and development or for manufacture of the supplies or performance
L0:of the services; and

L1:(3) The Government's patent rights and rights in data relating to the supplies or

L0:PGI 227.675-2 Review of agreements.

L1:(a) In reviewing foreign license and technical assistance agreements between primary
L0:and second sources, the Department concerned must, insofar as its interests are involved,
L0:indicate whether the agreement meets the requirements of sections 124.07-124.10 of the L0:ITAR (see PGI 227.675-1) or in what respects the agreement is deficient. Paragraphs (b)
L0:through (g) of this subsection provide general guidance.

L1:(b) When the Government will likely purchase from the second source the supplies or L0:services involved in the agreement, or that Foreign Military Financing Program funds will be
L0:provided for the procurement of the supplies or services, the following guidance applies:

L1:(1) If the agreement specifies a reduction in charges thereunder, with respect to L0:purchases by or for the Government or by others with funds derived through the Foreign L0:Military Financing Program or otherwise through the Government, in recognition of the
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:Government's rights in patents and data, the Department, before indicating its approval,

L0:concerned should evaluate the amount of the reduction to determine whether the amount is L0:fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

L1:(2) If the agreement does not specify any reduction in charges or otherwise fails to L0:give recognition to the Government's rights in the patents or data involved, approval should L0:be conditioned upon amendment of the agreement to reflect a reduction, evaluated by the L0:Department concerned as acceptable to the Government, in any charge thereunder with L0:respect to purchases made by or for the Government or by others with funds derived L0:through the Foreign Military Financing Program or otherwise through the Government, in L0:accordance with section 124.10 of the International Traffic in Arms Regulations.

L1:(3) If the agreement provides that no charge is to be made to the second source for
L0:data or patent rights to the extent of the Government's rights, the Department concerned
L0:should evaluate the acceptability of the provision before indicating its approval.

L1:(4) If circumstances do not permit the evaluation called for in (b) (1), (2), or (3) of L0:this subsection, follow the guidance in (c) of this subsection.

L1:(c) When the Government will unlikely purchase from the second source the supplies or L0:services involved in the agreement nor that Foreign Military Financing Program funds will be
L0:provided for the purchase of the supplies or services, then the following guidance applies:

L1:(1) If the agreement provides for charges to the second source for data or patent
L0:rights, fulfill the requirements of section 124.10 insofar as the Department of Defense is L0:concerned if:

L1:(i) The agreement requires the second source to advise the primary source
L0:when the second source has knowledge of any purchase made or to be made from the L0:second source by or for the Government or by others with funds derived through the Foreign
L0:Military Financing Program or otherwise through the Government;

L1:(ii) The primary source separately agrees with the Government that upon such L0:advice to the primary source from the second source or from the Government or otherwise
L0:as to any such a purchase or prospective purchase, the primary source will negotiate with L0:the Department concerned an appropriate reduction in its charges to the second source in L0:recognition of any Government rights in patents or data; and

L1:(iii) The agreement between the primary and second sources further provides
L0:that in the event of any such purchase and resulting reduction in charges, the second source
L0:should pass on this reduction to the Government by giving the Government a corresponding L0:reduction in the purchase price of the article or service.

L1:(2) If the agreement provides that no charge is to be made to the second source for
L0:data or patent rights to the extent to which the Government has rights, the Department
L0:concerned should?

L1:(i) Evaluate the acceptability of the provision before indicating its approval; or

L1:(ii) Explicitly condition its approval on the right to evaluate the acceptability of the L0:provision at a later time.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L1:(d) When there is a technical assistance agreement between the primary source and L0:the Government related to the agreement between the primary and second sources that is L0:under review, the latter agreement must reflect the arrangements contemplated with respect
L0:thereto by the Government's technical assistance agreement with the primary source.

L1:(e) Every agreement must provide that any license rights transferred under the L0:agreement are subject to existing rights of the Government.

L2:(f)(1) In connection with every agreement referred to in (b) of this section, a request L0:should be made to the primary source?

L1:(i) To identify the patents, data, and other technical assistance to be provided to L0:the second source by the primary source or any of its subcontractors,

L1:(ii) To identify any such patents and data in which, to the knowledge of the L0:primary source, the Government may have rights, and

L1:(iii) To segregate the charges made to the second source for each such L0:category or item of patents, data, and other technical assistance.

L1:(2) Reviewing personnel should verify this information or, where the primary source L0:does not furnish it, obtain such information from Governmental sources so far as practicable.

L1:(g) The Department concerned should make clear that its approval of any agreement L0:does not necessarily recognize the propriety of the charges or the amounts thereof, nor L0:constitute approval of any of the business arrangements in the agreement, unless the L0:Department expressly intends by its approval to commit itself to the fairness and L0:reasonableness of a particular charge or charges. In any event, a disclaimer should be L0:made to charges or business terms not affecting any purchase made by or for the L0:Government or by others with funds derived through the Foreign Military Financing Program L0:or otherwise through the Government.

 L0:stored within a contractor-controlled repository or facility (e.g., in an online environment or in L0:person). Examples of access arrangements include remote online authorization to access
 L0:an integrated data environment, product data management system operated by the L0:contractor, or mechanisms authorizing physical entry to a contractor-controlled data
 L0:repository, or cloud-based or subscription-based software products or services. The
 L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 27
 L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227
 L0:negotiated access agreement must stipulate permissions based on the assessment of life-
 L0:cycle needs; make the access agreement part of the contract.

L1:(2) For each technical data or computer software requirement, the L0:requiring activity should determine whether the Government's needs can be better satisfied L0:through access or formal delivery of the technical data or software (e.g., physical or L0:electronic transfer of the data into Government custody). The Government should consider L0:access to technical data or software when?
 L0:feasible for technical, legal, or contractual reasons; and

L1:(i) The delivery of technical data or software is not cost-effective or L0:or software throughout the life-cycle of the program;

L1:(ii) Access meets the Government's needs for such technical data

L1:(C) Software support and maintenance provided directly from the

L1:(D) Other contracting or licensing mechanisms including priced options,
 L0:specially negotiated licenses, direct licensing between contractors for qualifying second
 L0:sources, data escrow agreements, deferred delivery solutions, and subscription
 L0:agreements.

L2:(1)(i) Under a data escrow agreement, the Government and the L0:contractor identify a third-party escrow agent that will keep designated technical data or L0:computer software for safekeeping until a contractually specified condition occurs.
 L0:Government may obtain delivery of the escrowed technical data or computer software.

L1:(ii) If a contractually specified condition occurs, then the L0:the contract the Government's license rights in the escrowed technical data or computer

L1:(iii) Include the data escrow agreement in the contract. Include in

L1:(2) Use of data escrow agreements is not preferable in all cases but

L0:may be useful when formal delivery or access is not feasible or cost-effective during the L0:contract?s period of performance or delivery schedule.

L1:(3) When reviewing offers received in response to a solicitation or other request for

L0:computer software or computer software documentation, data managers should, if

L0:appropriate, balance the original assessment of the Government?s needs with prices offered.

L1:(e) Contract implementation of technical data and software requirements. Ensure that,

L0:wherever practicable, solicitations and contracts?

L1:(1) Identify the type and quantity of the technical data to be delivered under the

L0:contract and the format and media in which the data will be delivered;

L1:(2) Identify the types of computer software and the quantity of computer programs

L0:and computer software documentation to be delivered, any requirements for multiple users

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 227

L0:at one site or multiple site licenses, and the format and media in which the software or

L0:documentation will be delivered;

L1:(3) Establish each type of data item, computer software, or computer software

L0:documentation to be delivered as a separate contract line item (this requirement may be L0:satisfied by an exhibit to the contract);

L1:(4) Identify the prices established for each separately priced deliverable item of

L0:technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation under a fixed-price

L0:type contract;

L1:(5) Include delivery schedules and acceptance criteria for each deliverable item of

L0:technical data or computer software;

L1:(6) Specifically identify the place of delivery for each deliverable item of technical

L0:data or computer software; and

L1:(7) Specify in the negotiated terms that any required other than commercial

L0:computer software, related recorded information, and associated license rights identified in

L0:the assessment of life-cycle needs in paragraph (b) of this section must, to the extent

L0:appropriate?

L1:(i) Include computer software delivered in a digital format compatible with

L0:applicable computer programs on relevant system hardware;

L1:(ii) Not rely on additional internal or external other than commercial or

L0:commercial technical data and software, unless such technical data or software is?

L0:meet the Government?s needs; or

L1:(A) Included in the items to be delivered with license rights sufficient to

L0:Government?s needs; and

L1:(B) Commercially available with license rights sufficient to meet the

L1:(iii) Include sufficient information, with license rights sufficient to meet the

L0:Government?s needs, to support maintenance and understanding of interfaces and software

L0:version history when the negotiated terms do not allow for the inclusion of the external or

L0:additional other than commercial or commercial technical data and software.

L0:As used in this section?

L0:?"Aircraft?" means, unless otherwise provided in the contract Schedule, any item,

L0:other than a rocket or missile, intended for flight (e.g., fixed-winged aircraft, blended

L0:wing/lifting bodies, helicopters, vertical take-off or landing aircraft, lighter-than-air

L0:airships, and unmanned aerial vehicles), including emerging technologies that would

L0:commonly be considered aircraft. New production articles become aircraft at a stage of

L0:manufacture or production when a wing, portion of a wing, or engine is attached to a

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L0:fuselage. Blended wing/lifting bodies become aircraft at a stage of manufacture or

L0:production when the center portion and a lifting surface become attached.

L0:?"Civil aircraft?" means an aircraft other than a public aircraft or state aircraft.

L0:?"Contractor managerial personnel?" means the contractor?s directors, officers,

L0:managers, superintendents, or equivalent representatives who have supervision or

L0:direction of?

L1:(1) All, or substantially all, of the contractor?s business;

L1:(2) All, or substantially all, of the contractor?s operation at any one plant or

L0:separate location; or

L1:(3) A separate and complete major industrial operation.

L0:?"Covered aircraft?" means an aircraft owned by or to be delivered to the Government

L0:and, when determined by the contracting officer and specifically identified as such in

L0:the contract Schedule, may include contractor-furnished aircraft that are not intended

L0:for induction into the DoD inventory, including?

L1:(1) Aircraft furnished by the Government to the contractor under a contract

L0:while in the contractor?s possession, care, custody, or control regardless of their location

L0:or state of disassembly or reassembly;

L1:(2) Items removed from a Government-furnished aircraft that are?

L1:(i) Intended for reinstallation on that particular aircraft, which retain their

L0:status as covered aircraft while awaiting installation; and

L1:(ii) Not intended for reinstallation on that particular aircraft, which lose

L0:their status as covered aircraft once removal is complete;

L1:(3) New production aircraft when wholly outside of buildings on the contractor?s

L0:premises or other places described in the contract Schedule (e.g., hush houses, run

L0:stations, and paint facilities); and

L1:(4) Commercial aircraft, to include commercially available off-the-shelf aircraft,

L0:become covered aircraft when the commercial aircraft arrives at the contractor?s place of L0:performance for modification under the terms of the contract.

L0:?"Crewmember?" means, unless otherwise provided in the contract Schedule,

L0:personnel required in the flight manual, assigned for the purpose of conducting any

L0:flight on behalf of the contractor. It also includes any operator of an unmanned aerial L0:vehicle.

L0:?"Flight?" means any flight approved in writing by the Government flight

L0:representative, to include taxi test made in the performance of the contract, or flight for

L0:the purpose of safeguarding the aircraft. All aircraft off the contractor's premises shall

L0:be considered to be in flight when on the ground or water for reasonable periods of time
L0:following emergency landings, landings made in performance of the contract, or
L0:landings approved in writing by the contracting officer.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L0:Public aircraft? means an aircraft that meets the definition in 49 U.S.C.

L0:40102(a)(41) and the qualifications in 49 U.S.C. 40125. Specifically, a public aircraft

L0:means any of the following:

L1:(1) An aircraft used only for the Government, except as provided in paragraphs

L1:(5) and (7) of this definition.

L1:(2) An aircraft owned by the Government and operated by any person for

L0:purposes related to crew training, equipment development, or demonstration, except as

L0:provided in paragraph (7) of this definition.

L1:(3) An aircraft owned and operated by the government of a State, the District of

L0:Columbia, or a territory or possession of the United States or a political subdivision of L0:one of these governments, except as provided in paragraph (7) of this definition.

L1:(4) An aircraft exclusively leased for at least 90 continuous days by the

L0:government of a State, the District of Columbia, or a territory or possession of the

L0:United States or a political subdivision of one of these governments, except as provided

L0:in paragraph (7) of this definition.

L1:(5) An aircraft owned or operated by the armed forces or chartered to provide

L0:transportation or other commercial air service to the armed forces under the conditions

L0:specified by 49 U.S.C. 40125(c). In the preceding sentence, the term ?other commercial

L0:air service? means an aircraft operation that?

L1:(i) Is within the United States territorial airspace;

L1:(ii) The Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration determines is

L0:available for compensation or hire to the public; and

L1:(iii) Must comply with all applicable civil aircraft rules under title 14, Code

L0:of Federal Regulations.

L1:(6) An unmanned aircraft that is owned and operated by, or exclusively leased

L0:for at least 90 continuous days by, an Indian Tribal government, as defined in section

L0:102 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C.

L0:5122), except as provided in paragraph (7) of this definition.

L1:(7) As described in 49 U.S.C. 40125(b), an aircraft described in paragraph (1),

L1:(2), (3), or (4) of this definition does not qualify as a public aircraft in situations where

L0:the aircraft is used for commercial purposes or to carry an individual other than a

L0:crewmember or a qualified non-crewmember.

L0:Public aircraft operation? means operation of an aircraft that meets the legal

L0:definition of public aircraft established in 49 U.S.C. 40102(a)(41) and the legal

L0:qualifications for public aircraft status outlined in 49 U.S.C. 40125.

L0:State aircraft? means an aircraft operated by the Government for sovereign,

L0:noncommercial purposes such as military, customs, and police services. Military

L0:aircraft are afforded status as state aircraft. In very rare circumstances, DoD-

L0:contracted aircraft may be designated, in writing, by a responsible Government official

L0:pursuant to DoD Directive 4500.54E, DoD Foreign Clearance Program, to be operated

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28
 L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228
 L0:in state aircraft status, and States may choose to treat them as deemed state aircraft
 L0:when they are operating under a Government contract.
 L0:Workmanship error? means damage to the aircraft that is the result of an
 L0:incorrectly performed skill-based task, operation, or action that was originally planned
 L0:or intended.

228.370-2 General

Status: active

L0:228.370-2 General.

L1:(a) Assignment of a Government flight representative. See PGI 228.370-2(a) for L0:procedures on assigning a Government flight representative (GFR) when using the L0:clauses at 252.228-7001 and 252.228-7007.

L1:(b) Preaward survey. Before awarding any contract that includes the clause at L0:252.228-7001, Ground and Flight Risk, the contracting officer should obtain a preaward
 L0:survey of the offeror's proposed aircraft flight and ground operations facility. If the L0:offeror proposed subcontracting any aircraft work, the preaward survey should include
 L0:a review of the subcontractor's facility. For acquisitions falling under the exceptions at L0:228.371(b)(1)(iii), (iv), and (vi), the contracting officer must review the documentation
 L0:the offeror submitted with the proposal in response to the DD Form 1423, Contract
 L0>Data Requirements List, to ensure the offeror's commercial insurance provides the L0:appropriate coverage required by the clause at 252.228-7001.

L1:(c) Foreign military sales. The exception for foreign military sales (FMS) contracts
 L0:at 228.371(b)(1)(iii) only applies to FMS cases where the FMS customer has explicitly L0:refused assumption of risk of loss. If the FMS customer has accepted the standard
 L0:Letter of Offer and Acceptance Standard Terms and Conditions, as described in DoD
 L0:5105.38-M, Security Assistance Management Manual, they have assumed risk of loss.

L1:(d) Commercial derivative aircraft. The exception at 228.371(b)(1)(iv) for L0:commercial derivative aircraft only applies if the contractor is a licensed and certified
 L0:Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) repair station for the specific model of aircraft
 L0:under contract, when work is being performed pursuant to the FAA license under 14
 L0:CFR part 145. The FAA's repair station search tool is available at https://av-
 L0:info.faa.gov/repairstation.asp. All aircraft flying public aircraft operations operate
 L0:under airworthiness certificates maintained by the military services. The FAA
 L0:airworthiness certificate in the exception in this paragraph (d) underlies the military
 L0:service certificate.

L1:(e) Insurance. The clause at 252.228-7001, Ground and Flight Risk, is intended to L0:reduce acquisition costs by eliminating the costs of commercial insurance premiums.
 L0:This clause also is intended to encourage the contractor to perform safe and effective
 L0:operations through inclusion of a contractor's share of loss (i.e., a deductible).
 L0:Additionally, the clause requires compliance with the combined regulation/instruction
 L0:entitled Contractor's Flight and Ground Operations? (Air Force Instruction 10-220,

L0:Army Regulation 95-20, Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR) Instruction 3710.1

L1:(Series), Coast Guard Instruction M13020.3 (Series), and Defense Contract

L0:Management Agency Instruction 8210-1 (Series)), which provides procedures to

L0:mitigate the risk of loss to the Government. For this reason, paragraph (e)(4)(ii) of the

L0:clause at 252.228-7001 specifies that insurance premium costs are unallowable. In

L0:addition, paragraph (d)(4) of the clause provides that the Government's assumption of

L0:risk does not apply where the loss or damage is covered by available insurance.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(f) Damage to Government aircraft.

L1:(1) Whenever damage to Government aircraft is reported, each incident should

L0:be evaluated on its own merits. When the cost of repair exceeds the contractor's share

L0:of loss provisions, the contracting officer must make a liability determination in

L0:accordance with paragraph (g) of this section.

L1:(2) Contracting officers should consult with the requiring activity and the

L0:assigned contract administration office on replacement, repair, or beyond economic

L0:repair decisions.

L1:(3) See PGI 228.370-2(f) for an example of accident or mishap damage versus

L0:workmanship-error damage.

L1:(g) Contracting officer determination of liability.

L1:(1) When making a liability determination, the contracting officer should seek

L0:input from the GFR and legal counsel, as needed.

L1:(2) The Government's assumption of risk must not extend to damage, loss, or

L0:destruction of covered aircraft that?

L1:(i) Is the result of willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the

L0:contractor's managerial personnel, including the contractor's oversight of

L0:subcontractors;

L1:(ii) Is sustained during flight if either the flight or the crewmembers have

L0:not been approved in advance and in writing by the GFR, who has been authorized in

L0:accordance with the combined regulation/instruction entitled "Contractor's Flight and

L0:Ground Operations?;

L1:(iii) Occurs in the course of transportation by rail, or by conveyance on

L0:public streets, highways, or waterways, unless the transportation is limited to the

L0:vicinity of the contractor's premises, and incidental to work performed under the

L0:contract as described in the Schedule;

L1:(iv) Is covered by insurance;

L1:(v) Occurs after the contracting officer has, in writing, revoked the

L0:Government's assumption of risk; or

L1:(vi) Is sustained due to workmanship errors.

L1:(h) Notice of revocation of the Government's assumption of risk. The liability

L0:provisions of the clause at FAR 52.245-1, Government Property, do not apply to the L0:aircraft impacted by a notice of revocation.

L1:(1) Preliminary notice of revocation.

L1:(i) When finding that contractor managerial personnel have failed to comply

L0:with the combined regulation/instruction, as required by paragraph (b) of the clause at

L0:252.228-7001, including finding the covered aircraft are exposed to unreasonable
L0:conditions, the contracting officer must issue a preliminary notice of revocation of the
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228
L0:Government's assumption of risk to the contractor and must require the contractor to L0:comply with contract requirements. Factors for the contracting officer to consider in L0:determining exposure to unreasonable conditions include, but are not limited to, the L0:following:

L1:(A) Lack of adequate hangar fire suppression or firefighting vehicles;
L1:(B) Failure to provide adequate procedures to the GFR; or
L1:(C) Systemic failure to comply with approved procedures.

L1:(ii) The preliminary notice of revocation will state the timeframe for the L0:contractor to correct the noncompliance or conditions.

L1:(2) Notice of revocation. If the contractor fails to correct the cited
L0:noncompliance or conditions within the specified timeframe, the contracting officer
L0:must issue to the contractor a notice of revocation of the Government's assumption of L0:risk for any covered aircraft.

L1:(i) Thereafter the contractor assumes the entire risk for damage, loss, or L0:destruction of the previously covered aircraft.

L1:(ii) Any costs incurred by the contractor, including the costs of the
L0:contractor's self-insurance, insurance premiums paid to insure the contractor's
L0:assumption of risk, deductibles associated with such purchased insurance, etc., to L0:mitigate its risk are unallowable costs.

L1:(iii) The notice of revocation does not relieve the contractor of its obligation
L0:to comply with all other provisions of the clause at 252.228-7001, including the L0:combined regulation/instruction entitled "Contractor's Flight and Ground Operations".

L1:(iv) Within 3 days of receipt of the contractor's notice of correction, the L0:contracting officer must notify the contractor whether the Government will resume risk
L0:of loss. The contracting officer must determine that the noncompliance or cited
L0:conditions have been corrected prior to resuming assumption of risk.

L1:(v) Any disputes regarding the contracting officer's notice of revocation must
L0:be subject to FAR clause 52.233-1, Disputes.

L1:(i) Procedures in the event of damage, loss, or destruction of covered aircraft.

L1:(1) In the event of damage, loss, or destruction of covered aircraft, except in L0:cases covered by paragraph (j)(2) of this section, the contracting officer must evaluate L0:the contractor's statement of?

L1:(i) The damaged, lost, or destroyed aircraft;
L1:(ii) The time and origin of the damage, loss, or destruction;
L1:(iii) All known interests in commingled property of which aircraft are a part;
L0:and

L1:(iv) The insurance, if any, covering the interest in commingled property.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(2) If a new production aircraft is damaged, lost, or destroyed before it has
L0:become a covered aircraft, the Government bears no responsibility for risk of loss.

L1:(3) If a new production aircraft is damaged, lost, or destroyed after it has L0:become a covered aircraft, the contracting officer must provide written direction to the L0:contractor to take action in accordance with the contracting officer's written direction
L0:that the aircraft shall be?
L1:(i) Replaced;
L1:(ii) Repaired to the condition immediately prior to the damage; or L1:(iii) Considered beyond economic repair. The contracting officer must L0:decide whether further actions are required under the contract.
L1:(4) If a covered aircraft that has been furnished by the Government to the L0:contractor is damaged, lost, or destroyed while covered, the contracting officer must L0:provide written direction to the contractor that the aircraft shall be?
L1:(i) Repaired; or
L1:(ii) Considered beyond economic repair. The contracting officer must decide
L0:further actions required under the contract.
L1:(5) The contracting officer must make an equitable adjustment for expenditures
L0:made in performing the obligations under paragraph (h) of the clause at 252.228-7001.
L1:(j) Contracting officer determination of the contractor's share of loss.
L1:(1) The contractor's share of loss or damage to covered aircraft, except for loss or L0:damage caused by negligence of Government personnel, is the least of?
L1:(i) $200,000;
L1:(ii) 20 percent of the price or estimated acquisition cost of affected aircraft;
L0:or
L1:(iii) 20 percent of the price or estimated cost of the contract, task order, or
L0:delivery order.
L1:(2) If the Government requires covered aircraft to be replaced or repaired by the L0:contractor, any resulting equitable adjustment must not include reimbursement of the L0:contractor's share of loss.
L1:(3) In the event the Government does not decide to replace or repair the covered
L0:aircraft, the clause at 252.228-7001 requires the contractor to credit the contract price
L0:or pay the Government, as directed by the contracting officer, the least of?
L1:(i) $200,000;
L1:(ii) 20 percent of the price or estimated acquisition cost of affected aircraft;
L0:or

Status: active

L0:252.228-7001 Ground and Flight Risk.
L0:As prescribed in 228.371(b), use the following clause:
L0:GROUND AND FLIGHT RISK (MAR 2023)
L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?
L0:?Aircraft? means, unless otherwise provided in the contract Schedule, any item,
L0:other than a rocket or missile, intended for flight (e.g., fixed-winged aircraft, blended
L0:wing/lifting bodies, helicopters, vertical take-off or landing aircraft, lighter-than-air

L0:airships, and unmanned aerial vehicles), including emerging technologies that would commonly be considered aircraft. New production articles become aircraft at a stage of manufacture or production when a wing, portion of a wing, or engine is attached to a fuselage. Blended wing/lifting bodies become aircraft at a stage of manufacture or production when the center portion and a lifting surface become attached.

L0:Contractor's managerial personnel? means the Contractor's directors, officers, managers, superintendents, or equivalent representatives who have supervision or direction of?

L1:(1) All, or substantially all, of the Contractor's business;

L1:(2) All, or substantially all, of the Contractor's operation at any one plant or separate location; or

L1:(3) A separate and complete major industrial operation.

L0:Contractor's premises? means those premises, including subcontractors' premises, designated in the Schedule or in writing by the Contracting Officer, and any other place the aircraft is moved for safeguarding.

L0:Covered aircraft? means an aircraft owned by or to be delivered to the Government and, when determined by the contracting officer and specifically identified as such in the contract Schedule, may include contractor-furnished aircraft that are not intended for induction into the DoD inventory, including?

L1:(1) Aircraft furnished by the Government to the Contractor under this contract

L0:while in the Contractor's possession, care, custody, or control regardless of their location or state of disassembly or reassembly;

L1:(2) Items removed from a Government-furnished aircraft that are?

L1:(i) Intended for reinstallation on that particular aircraft, which retain their status as covered aircraft while awaiting installation; and

L1:(ii) Not intended for reinstallation on that particular aircraft, which lose their status as covered aircraft once removal is complete;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(3) New production aircraft when wholly outside of buildings on the

L0:Contractor's premises or other places described in the Schedule (e.g., hush houses, run stations, and paint facilities); and

L1:(4) Commercial aircraft, to include commercially available off-the-shelf aircraft,

L0:become covered aircraft when the commercial aircraft arrives at the Contractor's place of performance for modification under the terms of the contract.

L0:Crewmember? means, unless otherwise provided in the Schedule, personnel

L0:required in the flight manual, assigned for the purpose of conducting any flight on

L0:behalf of the Contractor. It also includes any operator of an unmanned aerial vehicle.

L0:Flight? means any flight approved in writing by the Government flight

L0:representative, to include taxi test made in the performance of this contract, or flight for

L0:the purpose of safeguarding the aircraft. All aircraft off the Contractor's premises shall

L0:be considered to be in flight when on the ground or water for reasonable periods of time

L0:following emergency landings, landings made in performance of the contract, or

L0:landings approved in writing by the contracting officer.

L0:Workmanship error? means damage to the aircraft that is the result of an

L0:incorrectly performed skill-based task, operation, or action that was originally planned
L0:or intended.

L1:(b) Combined regulation/instruction. The Contractor shall be bound by the L0:operating procedures contained in the combined regulation/instruction entitled L0:Contractor's Flight and Ground Operations? (Air Force Instruction 10-220, Army
L0:Regulation 95-20, NAVAIR Instruction 3710.1 (Series), Coast Guard Instruction
L0:M13020.3 (Series), and Defense Contract Management Agency Instruction 8210-1
L1:(Series)) in effect on the date of contract award. Compliance with the combined
L0:regulation/instruction is required from the time of contract award throughout the period
L0:of performance of the contract, regardless of the Government's assumption of risk under L0:the contract.

L1:(c) Government as self-insurer. The Government self-insures and assumes the risk
L0:of damage to, or loss or destruction of, covered aircraft subject to the following
L0:conditions:

L1:(1) The Contractor's liability to the Government for damage, loss, or destruction
L0:of covered aircraft is limited to the Contractor's share of loss as defined at paragraph (h)
L0:of this clause, except when one of the exclusions at paragraph (d) applies.

L1:(2) The liability provisions of this clause take precedence over the liability
L0:provisions of Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) clause 52.245-1, Government
L0:Property, with respect to covered aircraft.

L1:(3) The Contractor is not liable for loss, damage, or destruction of covered
L0:aircraft as the result of normal wear and tear, or intentional damage or destruction as L0:required in the Schedule.

L1:(4) Conditions for Government assumption of risk in flight are as follows:

L1:(i) The Contractor's crewmembers are approved in writing by the L0:Government flight representative (GFR).

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(ii) The flight is approved in writing by the GFR.

L1:(d) Exclusions from the Government's assumption of risk. The Government's L0:assumption of risk under this clause shall not extend to damage, loss, or destruction of L0:covered aircraft which?

L1:(1) Is the result of willful misconduct or lack of good faith on the part of the L0:Contractor's managerial personnel, including the Contractor's oversight of L0:subcontractors;

L1:(2) Is sustained during flight if either the flight or the crewmembers have not L0:been approved in advance and in writing by the GFR, who has been authorized in L0:accordance with the combined regulation/instruction entitled Contractor's Flight and L0:Ground Operations?;

L1:(3) Occurs in the course of transportation by rail, or by conveyance on public
L0:streets, highways, or waterways, unless the transportation is limited to the vicinity of L0:the Contractor's premises, and incidental to work performed under the contract as L0:described in the Schedule;

L1:(4) Is covered by insurance;

L1:(5) Occurs after the Contracting Officer has, in writing, revoked the

L0:Government's assumption of risk in accordance with paragraph (e)(3) of this clause;

L0:or

L1:(6) Is sustained due to workmanship errors.

L1:(e) Revoking the Government's assumption of risk.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer, when finding that the Contractor's managerial

L0:personnel have failed to comply with paragraph (b) of this clause, will issue a

L0:preliminary notice of revocation requiring the Contractor to comply with contract

L0:requirements within a timeframe specified by the Contracting Officer. In determining

L0:exposure to unreasonable conditions, the Contracting Officer will consider factors

L0:including, but not limited to, the following: lack of adequate hangar fire suppression or

L0:firefighting vehicles, failure to provide adequate procedures to the GFR, or systemic

L0:failure to comply with approved procedures.

L1:(2) Upon receipt of the preliminary notice of revocation, the Contractor shall

L0:promptly correct the noncompliance or cited conditions, regardless of whether there is

L0:agreement that the conditions are unreasonable.

L1:(3) If the Contracting Officer finds that the Contractor failed to correct the cited

L0:noncompliance or conditions within the specified timeframe, the Contracting Officer will

L0:issue a notice of revocation of the Government's assumption of risk for any covered

L0:aircraft.

L1:(4) If the Contracting Officer issues a notice of revocation pursuant to the terms

L0:of this clause?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(i) The Contractor shall thereafter assume the entire risk for damage, loss,

L0:or destruction of the previously covered aircraft;

L1:(ii) Any costs incurred by the Contractor (including the costs of the

L0:Contractor's self-insurance, insurance premiums paid to insure the Contractor's

L0:assumption of risk, deductibles associated with such purchased insurance, etc.) to

L0:mitigate its risk are unallowable costs; and

L1:(iii) The liability provisions of the clause at FAR 52.245-1, Government

L0:Property, are not applicable to the aircraft impacted by the notice of revocation.

L1:(5) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer when the L0:noncompliance or cited conditions have been corrected. Within 3 days of receipt of the

L0:Contractor's notice of correction, the Contracting Officer will notify the Contractor

L0:whether the Government will resume risk of loss. The Contracting Officer will

L0:determine that the noncompliance or cited conditions have been corrected prior to

L0:resuming assumption of risk.

L1:(6) The notice of revocation does not relieve the Contractor of its obligation to

L0:comply with all other provisions of this clause, including the combined

L0:regulation/instruction entitled "Contractor's Flight and Ground Operations."

L1:(7) Any disputes regarding the Contracting Officer's notice of revocation shall

L0:be subject to FAR clause 52.233-1, Disputes.

L1:(f) Contractor's exclusion of insurance costs. The Contractor warrants that the

L0:contract price does not and will not include, except as may be authorized in this clause,

L0:any charge or contingency reserve for insurance (including the Contractor's share of L0:loss) covering damage, loss, or destruction of covered aircraft when the risk has been L0:assumed by the Government even if the assumption may be terminated for covered

L0:aircraft.

L1:(g) Procedures in the event of damage, loss, or destruction.

L1:(1) In the event of damage, loss, or destruction of covered aircraft, the L0:Contractor shall take all reasonable steps to protect the aircraft from further damage, to L0:separate damaged and undamaged aircraft, and to put all aircraft in the best possible
L0:order. Except in cases covered by paragraph (h)(2) of this clause, the Contractor shall L0:furnish to the Contracting Officer a statement of?

L1:(i) The damaged, lost, or destroyed aircraft;

L1:(ii) The time and origin of the damage, loss, or destruction;

L1:(iii) All known interests in commingled property of which aircraft are a part;
L0:and

L1:(iv) The insurance, if any, covering the interest in commingled property.

L1:(2) If a new production aircraft is damaged, lost, or destroyed before it has
L0:become a covered aircraft, the Government bears no responsibility for risk of loss.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L1:(3) If a new production aircraft is damaged, lost, or destroyed after it has L0:become a covered aircraft, the Contractor shall take action in accordance with the L0:Contracting Officer's written direction that the aircraft shall be?

L1:(i) Replaced;

L1:(ii) Repaired to the condition immediately prior to the damage; or

L1:(iii) Considered beyond economic repair. The Contracting Officer will decide
L0:whether further actions are required under the contract.

L1:(4) If a covered aircraft that has been furnished by the Government to the L0:Contractor is damaged, lost, or destroyed while covered, the Contractor shall take action
L0:in accordance with the Contracting Officer's written direction that the aircraft shall L0:be?

L1:(i) Repaired; or

L1:(ii) Considered beyond economic repair. The Contracting Officer will decide
L0:further actions required under the contract.

L1:(5) The Contracting Officer will make an equitable adjustment for expenditures
L0:made in performing the obligations under this paragraph (g).

L1:(h) Contractor's share of loss.

L1:(1) The Contractor's share of loss or damage to covered aircraft, except for loss
L0:or damage caused by negligence of Government personnel, is the least of?

L1:(i) $200,000;

L1:(ii) 20 percent of the price or estimated acquisition cost of affected aircraft;
L0:or

L1:(iii) 20 percent of the price or estimated cost of the contract, task order, or
L0:delivery order.

L1:(2) If the Government requires covered aircraft be replaced or repaired by the L0:Contractor, any resulting equitable adjustment shall not include reimbursement of the L0:Contractor's share of loss.

L1:(3) In the event the Government does not decide to replace or repair, the L0:Contractor agrees to credit the contract price or pay the Government, as directed by the L0:Contracting Officer, the least of?
L1:(i) $200,000;
L1:(ii) 20 percent of the price or estimated acquisition cost of affected aircraft;
L0:or
L1:(iii) 20 percent of the price or estimated cost of the contract, task order, or
L0:delivery order.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L1:(ii) The costs of the Contractor's self-insurance;
L1:(iii) The deductible for any Contractor-purchased insurance;
L1:(iv) Insurance premiums paid for Contractor-purchased insurance; and L1:(v) Costs associated with determining, litigating, and defending against the L0:Contractor's liability.
L1:(i) Reimbursement from a third party. In the event the Contractor is reimbursed or L0:compensated by a third party for damage, loss, or destruction of covered aircraft and L0:has also been compensated by the Government, the Contractor shall equitably
L0:reimburse the Government. The Contractor shall do nothing to prejudice the L0:Government's right to recover against third parties for damage, loss, or destruction.
L0:Upon the request of the Contracting Officer or authorized representative, the L0:Contractor shall at Government expense furnish to the Government all reasonable L0:assistance and cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of L0:instruments of assignment or subrogation) in obtaining recovery.
L1:(j) Liability to third parties. Unless the flight and crewmembers have been L0:approved in writing by the GFR, the Contractor shall not be reimbursed for liability to L0:third parties for loss or damage to property or for death or bodily injury caused by L0:covered aircraft during flight, even if the Government has accepted such liability under L0:any other provisions of the contract.
L1:(k) Subcontracts. The Contractor shall incorporate the requirements of this clause,
L0:including this paragraph (k), in subcontracts to include subcontracts for commercial
L0:products and commercial services, except?
L1:(1) The Contractor shall not include paragraph (f) of this clause in subcontracts
L0:for commercial products or commercial services; and L1:(2) The Contractor shall not incorporate the requirements of this clause in L0:subcontracts with Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) part 145 repair stations
L0:performing work pursuant to their FAA license.

L1:(A) A defense project is eligible when?

L1:(1) Eligible contracts represent, at the inception of the plan, at least 90

L1:(c) Foreign military sales. The Government self-insures through the use of the clause at

L0:252.228-7001, which requires risk-mitigation procedures in lieu of private-sector,

L0:commercially-available hull insurance to cover the physical aircraft from damage or

L0:destruction, similar to the comprehensive portion of automobile insurance. It does not

L0:address personnel liability. For contracts falling under the exceptions at DFARS

L0:228.371(b)(1)(iii), (iv), and (vi), review the commercial insurance policy to determine what

L0:coverage exists on the contract aircraft. Commercial hull insurance policies may contain

L0:various coverage exclusions, particularly for Government-furnished aircraft, which may

L0:mean the Government is at risk without the risk management safeguards provided through

L0:the Combined Instruction.

L1:(f) Damage to Government aircraft. Whenever damage to Government aircraft is

L0:reported, particularly when the cost of repair exceeds the contractor's share of loss

L0:provisions, the contracting officer must make a proper liability determination. For most

L0:situations, determining whether an incident is an accident or mishap, or a workmanship error

L0:can be made based on intent of the employee(s) involved. Although each incident involving

L0:damage should be evaluated on its own merits, use the following general rules and

L0:examples when determining if an incident constitutes an accident or mishap (damage

L0:normally covered under the clause at 252.228-7001) or a workmanship error (damage not L0:normally covered under the clause at 252.228-7001).

L1:(1) An accident or mishap is the result of a task, operation, or action that was not

L0:originally planned or intended. For example, a mechanic was pushing a stand next to the L0:aircraft and scratches the inlet coating. The intent of the task was to move the stand, not to

L0:scratch the coating. This would be considered accident or mishap damage to the aircraft,

L0:and a contractor should expect to be reimbursed under the clause at 252.228-7001 (minus L0:the appropriate contractor share of loss).

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 28

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 228

L2:(2)(i) A workmanship error consists of damage that is the result of an incorrectly

L0:performed skill-based task, operation, or action that was originally planned or intended, but

L0:the end result was not within allowable limits. For example, a mechanic was scraping

L0:coating off an inlet and removed too much material. The intent of the task was to scrape the

L0:inlet coating, but too much was removed. This would not be considered aircraft damage

L0:reimbursed under the clause at 252.228-7001.

L1:(ii) Missing a step in a procedure or checklist item is not considered a skill-

L0:based error and therefore is not considered workmanship error damage.

L0:?"Covered contract?" means a DoD prime contract or subcontract above the simplified

L0:acquisition threshold, except for a fixed-price contract without cost incentives or a fixed-

L0:price subcontract without cost incentives under such a prime contract.

L0:?"Covered segment?" means?

L1:(1) A product division of the contractor that allocated more than $1,100,000 in

L0:independent research and development (IR&D) costs and bid and proposal (B&P)

L0:costs to covered contracts during the preceding fiscal year;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 31

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 231

L1:(2) The contractor as a whole if the contractor has no product divisions; or

L1:(3) A product division of the contractor that allocated less than $1,100,000 in IR&D

L0:costs and B&P costs to covered contracts during the preceding fiscal year and is not

L0:subject to the limitations in paragraph (c) of this section.

L0:?"Major contractor?" means any contractor whose covered segments allocated a total of

L0:more than $11 million in IR&D costs and B&P costs to covered contracts during the

L0:preceding fiscal year. For purposes of calculating the dollar threshold amounts to

L0:determine whether a contractor meets the definition of ?major contractor,? do not

L0:include contractor segments allocating less than $1,100,000 of IR&D and B&P costs to

L0:covered contracts during the preceding fiscal year.

L1:(c) Allowability.

L1:(i) This regulation shall not be supplemented in any way that limits IR&D cost

L0:allowability and B&P cost allowability.

L1:(ii) For foreign military sales contracts, see 225.7303-2(c) for allowable costs.

L2:(iii)(A) For IR&D costs incurred on covered contracts to be allowable, a major

231.205-70 External restructuring costs

Status: active

L0:231.205-70 External restructuring costs.
L1:(a) Scope. This subsection contains policies and procedures for allowing contractor
L0:external restructuring costs when savings would result for DoD and implements 10
L0:U.S.C. 3761.
L1:(b) Definitions. As used in this section--
L0:?"Business combination?" means a transaction whereby assets or operations of L0:two or more companies not previously under common ownership or control are

L0:combined, whether by merger, acquisition, or sale/purchase of assets.

L0:External restructuring activities? means restructuring activities occurring

L0:after a business combination, affecting the operations of companies not previously

L0:under common ownership or control. They exclude restructuring within a single

L0:company or only affecting one company from the combination. External restructuring

L0:activities are a direct outgrowth of a business combination and normally occur within 3

L0:years of the business combination.

L0:Restructuring activities? means nonroutine, nonrecurring, or extraordinary

L0:activities to combine facilities, operations, or workforce, to eliminate redundant

L0:capabilities, improve future operations, and reduce overall costs. Restructuring

L0:activities exclude routine or ongoing repositionings and redeployments of a contractor's

L0:productive facilities or workforce (e.g., normal plant rearrangement or employee

L0:relocation), and exclude other routine or ordinary activities charged as indirect costs

L0:that would otherwise have been incurred (e.g., planning and analysis, contract L0:administration and oversight, or recurring financial and administrative support).

L0:Restructuring costs? means both direct and indirect costs of restructuring

L0:activities. Allowable restructuring costs include, but are not limited to, severance pay

L0:for employees, early retirement incentive payments for employees, employee retraining

L0:costs, relocation expense for retained employees, and relocation and rearrangement of

L0:plant and equipment. For purposes of this definition, restructuring costs under $2.5

L0:million related to external restructuring activities allocated to DoD contracts are not

L0:subject to the audit, review, and determination requirements of paragraph (c)(4) of this

L0:subsection; instead, standard cost allowability rules in FAR Part 31 apply.

L0:Restructuring savings? means both direct and indirect cost reductions

L0:resulting from restructuring activities. Cost reassignments to future periods are not

L0:restructuring savings.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 31

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 231

L1:(c) Limitations on cost allowability. Restructuring costs associated with external

L0:restructuring activities are not allowed unless?

L1:(1) The costs are allowable in accordance with FAR Part 31 and DFARS Part

L0:231;

L1:(2) An audit of projected restructuring costs and restructuring savings is

L0:performed;

L1:(3) The administrative contracting officer (ACO) reviews the audit report,

L0:projected costs, and projected savings, then negotiates an advance agreement per

L0:paragraph (d) of this subsection; and

L2:(4)(i) The official designated in paragraph (c)(4)(ii) of this subsection makes a

L0:written determination that the audited projected savings, on a present value basis, for

L0:DoD resulting from the restructuring will exceed either?

L1:(A) The costs allowed by a factor of at least two to one; or

L0:preservation of a critical capability that DoD might otherwise lose.

L1:(B) The costs allowed, and the business combination will result in the

L2:(ii)(A) If the amount of restructuring costs is expected to exceed $25 million

L0:over a 5-year period, the designated official is the Under Secretary of Defense

L0:(Acquisition and Sustainment) or the Principal Deputy. This authority cannot be L0:delegated below the Assistant Secretary of Defense level.
L0:is the Director of the Defense Contract Management Agency.
L1:(B) For all other cases, on a nondelegable basis, the designated official
L1:(d) Procedures and ACO responsibilities. As soon as it is known that the contractor
L0:will incur restructuring costs for external restructuring activities, the ACO shall follow
L0:the procedures at PGI 231.205-70(d).
L1:(e) Information needed to obtain a determination.
L1:(1) The novation agreement (if one is required).
L1:(2) The contractor?s restructuring proposal.
L1:(3) The proposed advance agreement.
L1:(4) The audit report.
L1:(5) Any other pertinent information.
L1:(6) The ACO?s recommendation for a determination. This recommendation
L0:must clearly indicate one of the following, consistent with paragraph (c)(4)(i) of this
L0:subsection:
L1:(i) The audited projected savings for DoD will exceed the costs allowed by a
L0:factor of at least two to one on a present value basis.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 31
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 231
L1:(ii) The business combination will result in the preservation of a critical
L0:capability that might otherwise be lost to DoD, and the audited projected savings for L0:DoD will exceed the costs allowed on a present value basis.
L1:(f) Contracting officer responsibilities.
L1:(1) The contracting officer, with the ACO?s input, should consider a repricing
L0:clause in noncompetitive fixed-price contracts negotiated during the period between?
L1:(i) The time a business combination is announced; and L1:(ii) The time the contractor?s forward pricing rates are adjusted to reflect L0:the impact of restructuring.
L1:(2) Use of a repricing clause depends on the specific situation, including?
L1:(i) When the restructuring will take place;
L1:(ii) When restructuring savings will begin to be realized;
L1:(iii) The contract performance period;
L1:(iv) Whether the contracting parties can reasonably estimate the L0:restructuring impact on the contract; and
L1:(v) The size of the potential dollar impact of restructuring on the contract.
L1:(3) If the contracting officer decides to use a repricing clause, the clause must L0:provide for a downward-only price adjustment to ensure that DoD receives its L0:appropriate share of restructuring net savings.

L0:authentication efforts; through a Government Industry Data Exchange Program
L1:(GIDEP) alert; or by other means; and

L1:(ii) Provides timely (i.e., within 60 days after the contractor becomes aware)
L0:written notice to?

L1:(A) The contracting officer(s); and

L0:organizations performing similar work under DoD contracts (section 841 of Pub. L. 103-

L0:education are exempt from the 26 percent indirect cost limitation imposed by OMB
L0:Circular No. A-21 because the same limitation is not uniformly applied to other
L0:organizations performing similar work.

L1:(2) The administrative contracting officer can waive the 231.303(1) prohibition if the L0:governing body of the institution of higher education requests the waiver to simplify its

Status: active

L0:232.072 Financial responsibility of contractors.

L0:Use the policies and procedures in this section in determining the financial capability of

L0:current or prospective contractors.

232.072-1 Required financial reviews

Status: active

L0:232.072-1 Required financial reviews.

L0:Perform a financial review when there is insufficient information to make a positive
L0:determination of financial responsibility. In addition, the contracting officer must L0:consider performing a financial review?

L1:(a) Prior to award of a contract, when the contractor?

L1:(1) Is on a list requiring preaward clearance or other special clearance before
L0:award;

L1:(2) Is listed on the Consolidated List of Contractors Indebted to the Government
L0:(Hold-Up List), or is otherwise known to be indebted to the Government;

L1:(3) May receive Government assets such as contract financing payments or
L0:Government property;

L1:(4) Is experiencing performance difficulties on other work; or

L1:(5) Is a new company or a new supplier of the item.

L1:(b) At periodic intervals after award of a contract, when?

L1:(1) Any of the conditions in paragraphs (a)(2) through (a)(5) of this subsection
L0:are applicable; or

L1:(2) There is any other reason to question the contractor's ability to finance
L0:performance and completion of the contract.

232.072-2 Appropriate information

Status: active

L0:232.072-2 Appropriate information.

L1:(a) Obtain the type and depth of financial and other information that is required to
L0:establish a contractor's financial capability or disclose a contractor's financial condition.

L0:The contracting officer should not request information that is not necessary for L0:protection of the Government's interests. The unwillingness or inability of a contractor
L0:to present reasonably requested information in a timely manner, especially information
L0:that a prudent businessperson is expected to have and to use in the professional L0:management of a business, may be a material fact in the determination of the L0:contractor's responsibility and prospects for contract completion.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 32

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L1:(b) Obtain the following information to the extent required to protect the L0:Government's interest. In addition, if the contracting officer concludes that information
L0:not listed in paragraphs (b)(1) through (b)(10) of this subsection is required to comply
L0:with 232.072-1, that information should be requested. The information must be for the L0:person(s) who are legally liable for contract performance. If the contractor is not a
L0:corporation, the contracting officer must obtain the required information for each
L0:individual/joint venturer/partner:

L1:(1) Balance sheet and income statement?

L1:(i) For the current fiscal year (interim);

L1:(ii) For the most recent fiscal year and, preferably, for the 2 preceding fiscal L0:years. These should be certified by an independent public accountant or by an

L0:appropriate officer of the firm; and

L1:(iii) Forecasted for each fiscal year for the remainder of the period of L0:contract performance.

L1:(2) Summary history of the contractor and its principal managers, disclosing

L0:any previous insolvencies whether corporate or personal, and describing its products or L0:services.

L1:(3) Statement of all affiliations disclosing?

L1:(i) Material financial interests of the contractor;

L1:(ii) Material financial interests in the contractor;

L1:(iii) Material affiliations of owners, officers, directors, major stockholders;

L0:and

L1:(iv) The major stockholders if the contractor is not a widely-traded, publicly-

L0:held corporation.

L1:(4) Statement of all forms of compensation to each officer, manager, partner,

L0:joint venturer, or proprietor, as appropriate?

L1:(i) Planned for the current year;

L1:(ii) Paid during the past 2 years; and

L1:(iii) Deferred to future periods.

L1:(5) Business base and forecast that?

L1:(i) Shows, by significant markets, existing contracts and outstanding offers,

L0:including those under negotiation; and

L1:(ii) Is reconcilable to indirect cost rate projections.

L1:(6) Cash forecast for the duration of the contract (see 232.072-3).

L1:(ii) Contractor's exposure to financial crisis from creditor's demands;

L1:(iii) Degree to which credit security provisions could conflict with

L0:Government title terms under contract financing;

L1:(iv) Clearly stated confirmations of credit with no unacceptable

L0:qualifications; and

L1:(v) Unambiguous written agreement by a creditor if credit arrangements

L0:include deferred trade payments or creditor subordinations/repayment suspensions.

L1:(8) Statement of all state, local, and Federal tax accounts, including special

L0:mandatory contributions, e.g., environmental superfund.

L1:(9) Description and explanation of the financial effect of issues such as?

L1:(i) Leases, deferred purchase arrangements, or patent or royalty

L0:arrangements;

232.072-3 Cash flow forecasts

Status: active

L0:232.072-3 Cash flow forecasts.

L1:(a) Contractors are required to sustain a sufficient cash flow to perform the contract.

L0:If the contractor?s cashflow is questionable, the contracting officer should require the L0:contractor to submit a cash flow forecast covering the duration of the contract.

L1:(b) A contractor?s inability or refusal to prepare and provide cash flow forecasts or to

L0:reconcile actual cash flow with previous forecasts is a strong indicator of serious

L0:managerial deficiencies or potential contract cost or performance problems.

L1:(c) Single or one-time cash flow forecasts are of limited forecasting power and should

L0:be limited to preaward survey situations. Establish reliable cash flow forecasts by

L0:comparing a series of previous actual cash flows with the corresponding forecasts and

L0:examining the causes of any differences.

L1:(d) See PGI 232.072-3(d) for cash flow forecast requirements

L1:(e) See PGI 232.072-3(e) for guidance on cash flow forecast assumptions.

L1:(f) The contracting officer should review the assumptions underlying the cash flow

L0:forecasts. In determining whether the assumptions are reasonable and realistic, the L0:contracting officer should consult with?

L1:(1) The contractor;

L1:(2) Government personnel in the areas of finance, engineering, production, cost,

L0:and price analysis; or

L1:(3) Prospective supply, subcontract, and loan or credit sources.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 32

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L1:(1) The use of customary contract financing (see FAR 32.113), other than loan

L0:officer must use the ceiling percentage of contract price that is customary in the L0:particular marketplace (not to exceed the maximum rate established in FAR 52.232-30).

L1:(A) An emergency, as defined in the Disaster Relief Act of 1974;
L1:(B) A contingency operation (see FAR 2.101(b)); or L1:(C) The release or threatened release of hazardous substances (as defined in L0:4 U.S.C. 9606, section 106);
L1:(ii) The head of the contracting activity has made a determination, after L0:consultation with the cognizant comptroller, that conditions exist that limit normal
L0:business operations; and
L1:(iii) Payments will be made in the operational area or made contingent upon L0:receiving supporting documentation (i.e., contract, invoice, and receiving report) from L0:the operational area.
L1:(2) Criteria limiting normal business operations during emergencies and L0:contingency operations that restrict the use of FAR 32.9 may include such conditions
L0:as?
L1:(i) Support infrastructure, hardware, communications capabilities, and L0:bandwidth are not consistently available such that normal business operations can be L0:carried out;
L1:(ii) Support resources, facilities, and banking needs are not consistently
L0:available for use as necessary in carrying out normal business operations;
L1:(iii) Military mission priorities override the availability of appropriately skilled
L0:personnel in support of back-office operations;
L1:(iv) Mobility impairments and security concerns restrict free movement of L0:personnel and documents necessary for timely processing;
L1:(v) Foreign vendors are not familiar with or do not understand DoD contract
L0:requirements (i.e., proper invoice, receiving documentation, and contracting terms); or L1:(vi) Documents received in support of payment requests and shipments require

L0:language translations that cannot be performed and documented within normal
L0:business processing times.

L1:(3) Subsequent Determinations. The head of the contracting activity must make

L0:subsequent determinations, after consultation with the cognizant comptroller, as the L0:operational area evolves into either a more stable or less stable environment.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L1:(i) If the head of the contracting activity determines that the operational area

L0:has evolved into a more stable environment, the contracting officer must notify, by

L0:issuance of a contract modification, each contractor performing in the operational area

L0:under review. The modification deactivates this clause 252.232-7011 and activates the L0:applicable FAR Prompt Payment clause in the contract.

L1:(ii) If after deactivation of this clause, the head of the contracting activity

L0:subsequently determines that the operational area has evolved into a less stable

L0:environment, the head of the contracting activity will make a determination that

L0:conditions exist that limit normal business operations. The contracting officer will then

L0:reactivate this clause 252.232-7011 by issuance of a contract modification.

L0:In accordance with 10 U.S.C. 3801(b), DoD must assist small business concerns by

L0:providing payment as quickly as possible, to the fullest extent permitted by law, with a

L0:goal of 15 days after receipt of proper invoices and all required documentation,

L0:232.904 Determining payment due dates.

L1:(d) In most cases, Government acceptance or approval can occur within the 7-day

L0:constructive acceptance period specified in the FAR Prompt Payment clauses.

L0:Government payment of construction progress payments can, in most cases, be made

L0:within the 14-day period allowed by the Prompt Payment for Construction Contracts

L0:clause. While the contracting officer may specify a longer period because the period

L0:specified in the contract is not reasonable or practical, such change should be

L0:coordinated with the Government offices responsible for acceptance or approval and for

L0:payment. Reasons for specifying a longer period include but are not limited to: the

L0:nature of the work or supplies or services, inspection or testing requirements, shipping

L0:and acceptance terms, and resources available at the acceptance activity. A

L0:constructive acceptance period of less than the cited 7 or 14 days is not authorized.

The contract or agreement number under which the order was L0:placed may be omitted from invoices and receiving reports. The contractor may choose L0:to identify both the contract number and the 13-character order number on invoices and L0:receiving reports. L0:232.1001 Policy.

L1:(a) As with all contract financing, the purpose of performance-based payments is to L0:assist the contractor in the payment of costs incurred during the performance of the L0:contract. See PGI 232.1001(a) for additional information on use of performance-based L0:payments. However, in accordance with 10 U.S.C. 3802(a)(2), performance-based L0:payments must not be conditioned upon costs incurred in contract performance, but on L0:the achievement of performance outcomes. Subject to the criteria in 232.1003-70, all L0:companies, including nontraditional defense contractors, are eligible for performance-L0:based payments, consistent with best commercial practices.

L1:(d) The contracting officer must use the following standard payment terms for L0:performance-based payments: The contractor entitlement date, if any, specified in the L0:contract, or 14 days after receipt by the designated billing office of a proper request for L0:payment, whichever is later.

Only one type of financing will L0:be included in the resultant contract, except as may be authorized on separate orders L0:subject to FAR 32.1003(c)).

L1:(ii) The contracting officer must analyze the performance-based payment L0:schedule using the performance-based payments (PBP) analysis tool. The PBP analysis L0:tool is on the Defense Pricing, Contracting, and Acquisition Policy website in the Price, L0:Cost and Finance section. The PBP analysis tool and Performance Based Payment L0:Guidebook are available at https://www.acq.osd.mil/asda/dpc/pcf/pricing- L0:topics.html#pdp.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L1:(A) When considering performance-based payments, obtain from the L0:offeror/contractor a proposed performance-based payments schedule that includes all L0:performance-based payments events, completion criteria and event values along with L0:the projected monthly expenditure profile in order to negotiate the value of the

L0:performance events such that the performance-based payments are not expected to L0:result in an unreasonably low or negative level of contractor investment in the contract.
L0:If performance-based payments are deemed practical, the Government will evaluate L0:and negotiate the details of the performance-based payments schedule.
L1:(B) For modifications to contracts that already use performance-based L0:payments financing, the basis for negotiation must include performance-based L0:payments. The PBP analysis tool will be used in the same manner to help determine
L0:the price for the modification;
L1:(iii) The contracting officer must document in the contract file that the L0:performance-based payment schedule provides a mutually beneficial settlement
L0:position that reflects adequate consideration to the Government for the improved
L0:contractor cash flow.
L1:(c) Instructions for multiple appropriations. If the contract contains foreign military L0:sales requirements, the contracting officer must provide instructions for distribution of L0:the contract financing payments to each country's account.

L0:As prescribed in 232.706-70, use the following clause:

L0:(End of clause)

L0:LIMITATION OF GOVERNMENT'S OBLIGATION (APR 2014)

L0:this contract. An allotment schedule is set forth in paragraph (j) of this clause.

L1:(b) For item(s) identified in paragraph (a) of this clause, the Contractor agrees to

L0:perform up to the point at which the total amount payable by the Government,
L0:including reimbursement in the event of termination of those item(s) for the L0:that point. The Government will not be obligated in any event to reimburse the L0:Contractor in excess of the amount allotted to the contract for those item(s) regardless

L0:Government." As used in this clause, the total amount payable by the Government in

L0:additional funding, if any, needed to continue performance of applicable line items up to L0:the next scheduled date for allotment of funds identified in paragraph (j) of this clause, L0:or to a mutually agreed upon substitute date. The notification will also advise the L0:Contracting Officer of the estimated amount of additional funds that will be required for L0:the timely performance of the item(s) funded pursuant to this clause, for a subsequent L0:period as may be specified in the allotment schedule in paragraph (j) of this clause or

L0:the performance of the contract line item(s) identified in paragraph (a) of this clause.

L0:Government under the clause entitled Default. The provisions of this clause are L0:limited to the work and allotment of funds for the contract line item(s) set forth in L0:paragraph (a) of this clause. This clause no longer applies once the contract is fully L0:funded except with regard to the rights or obligations of the parties concerning L0:equitable adjustments negotiated under paragraphs (d) and (e) of this clause.

L0:this contract, no financing payment will be made under this contract. Upon receipt of L0:adequate security, financing payments will be made, including all previous payments to

L0:all fixed-price contracts because they require considerable effort between the contractor and

L0:Government to identify the appropriate performance-based payment events and establish

L0:the proper completion criteria for those events. Additionally, FAR 32.1003 prohibits contracts

L0:from having both progress payments and performance-based payment financing on a

L0:contract at the same time. Additional information and instruction on performance-based

L0:PGI 232.70?ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION AND PROCESSING OF PAYMENT

L0:REQUESTS AND RECEIVING REPORTS

L0:PGI 232.7003 Procedures.

L1:(a) DoD officials receiving payment requests in electronic form must process the

L1:(1) Documents necessary for payment, such as receiving reports, invoice

L0:approvals, contracts, contract modifications, and required certifications, must be processed

L0:in electronic form.

L1:(2) Scanned documents and other commonly used file formats are only acceptable

L0:for processing supporting documentation.

L1:(b) If one of the exceptions to submission in electronic form at 232.7002(a) applies, the

L0:contracting officer must?

L1:(1) Consult the payment office and the contract administration office regarding the L0:alternative method to be used for submission of payment requests or receiving reports (e.g., L0:facsimile or conventional mail); and

L1:(2) Provide procedures for invoicing in the contract administration data section of L0:the contract or task or delivery order (e.g., section G, an addendum to FAR 52.212-4, or L0:applicable clause) for submission of invoices by nonelectronic means. If submission of

L0:invoices by nonelectronic means is temporary, the procedures should specify the time period

L0:for which they apply.

L0:PGI 232.7004 Contract clause instructions.

L2:(b)(1) The clause 252.232-7006, Wide Area WorkFlow Payment Instructions must be

L1:(iv) Navy Construction/Facilities Management Invoice.

L1:(v) Telecom Invoice (Contractual).

L1:(4) Do not use the Combo selection for a receiving report.

L1:(5) Complete paragraph (f)(3) of the clause before contract award. Selection of

L0:applicable DoDAACs is dependent on the document type and the entitlement system used
L0:by the DoD Component.

L1:(i) To determine applicable DoDAACs, use the guidance for WAWF payment
L0:instructions at <https://piee.eb.mil/>.

L1:(ii) If a DoDAAC field is not listed in paragraph (f)(3) Routing Data Table, select
L0:Other DoDAAC(s)? and list the DoDAAC field name(s) as they appear in the WAWF
L0:system and applicable DoDAAC(s).

L1:(iii) When multiple ?Ship to? and inspection/acceptance locations? (i.e.
L0:DoDAACs) exist, enter ?See schedule.? The corresponding schedule in the contract/order
L0:must cite all applicable DoDAACs.

L1:(iv) Validate DoDAACs using the following resources:

L1:(A) For inspector, acceptor and local processing office roles, use
L0:<https://piee.eb.mil/> and click on the ?Active DoDAACs & Roles link? in the ?Help? section on L0:the home page to validate active DoDAACs and user roles in WAWF.

L1:(B) For all other DoDAACs, use <https://www.daas.dla.mil/daasing/>.

L0:the contracting activity, if applicable. List parties to be notified of document submission.

L0:PGI 232.71?LEVIES ON CONTRACT PAYMENTS

L0:PGI 232.7101 Policy and procedures.

L0:Background. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is authorized to collect overdue taxes
L0:through a continuous levy up to 100 percent of the debt on certain vendor contract
L0:payments disbursed by the Defense Finance and Accounting Service. The levy is L0:continuous until the overdue taxes are paid in full, or other arrangements are made to L0:satisfy the debt. Contractors are required to promptly notify the procuring contracting
L0:officer when a tax levy that may result in an inability to perform the contract is imposed,
L0:so that the contracting officer and the Principal Director, Defense Pricing, Contracting,
L0:and Acquisition Policy (DPCAP), can take appropriate action to mitigate any possible
L0:adverse effect on national security.

L1:(b) Procuring contracting officer procedures for reviewing the contractor?s rationale
L0:and submitting the required documentation.

L1:(i) When the procuring contracting officer receives notification from the L0:contractor that the tax levy may result in an inability to perform the contract, the L0:procuring contracting officer must promptly review the contractor?s assessment and

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 32

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L0:either agree or disagree that the levy may result in an inability to perform. The

L0:procuring contracting officer must alert the administrative contracting officer and the

L0:cognizant contract auditor when a notice of levy has been received and must obtain any

L0:necessary assistance from the administrative contracting officer or contract auditor

L0:when performing this review.

L1:(ii) If the procuring contracting officer does not agree with the contractor's

L0:assessment, the procuring contracting officer must notify the contractor of this

L0:determination, and no further action will be taken.

L1:(iii) If the procuring contracting officer agrees with the contractor's assessment

L0:that the levy may result in an inability to perform the contract, the procuring contracting

L0:officer must document, in writing, whether the inability to perform?

L1:(A) Adversely affects national security; and/or

L1:(B) Will result in significant additional costs to the Government (e.g., cost of

L0:re-procurement, loss of contract financing payments when the product produced to date

L0:is not salvageable).

L1:(iv) If the procuring contracting officer believes that the levy will impact national

L0:security and/or result in significant additional costs to DoD, the procuring contracting

L0:officer must, in accordance with agency procedures, promptly notify the Principal

L0:Director, DPCAP, via email at osd.pentagon.ousd-a-s.mbx.asda-dp-c-

L0:contractpolicy@mail.mil. The notification to the Principal Director, DPCAP, must L0:include?

L1:(A) The rationale supporting the recommendation that the levy may result in

L0:an inability to perform the contract;

L1:(B) A description of the adverse effect on national security, if applicable;

L0:and

L1:(C) A description and estimate of the additional costs to the Government, if

L0:applicable. Since prompt notification to the Principal Director, DPCAP, is essential, the

L0:procuring contracting officer should not delay the notification while trying to achieve

L0:more precise data.

L1:(c) Principal Director, DPCAP, procedures. The Principal Director, DPCAP, will

L0:promptly evaluate the procuring contracting officer's notification package.

L1:(i) If the Principal Director, DPCAP, disagrees with the recommendation of the

L0:procuring contracting officer, the Principal Director, DPCAP, will notify the procuring

L0:contracting officer through the same agency channels that were used for submission of L0:the notification.

L1:(ii) If the Principal Director, DPCAP, agrees with the recommendation of the L0:procuring contracting officer?

L1:(A) When there is an adverse effect on national security, the Principal

L0:Director, DPCAP, will notify the payment office, the IRS, and the procuring contracting

L0:officer that the total amount of the levy should be promptly returned to the contractor; or

L1:(B) When there is not an adverse effect on national security, but the levy will

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 32

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 232

L0:result in significant additional costs to DoD, the Principal Director, DPCAP, will promptly

L0:notify the procuring contracting officer and the IRS. The Principal Director, DPCAP, L0:notification to the IRS will?

L1:(1) State that the procuring contracting officer has notified the

L0:contractor and has recommended that the contractor contact the IRS to resolve the L0:situation;

L0:contractor; and

L1:(2) Request that the IRS expedite resolution of the situation with the

L0:contractor is unable to perform on the contract.

L1:(3) Include an estimate of additional costs to DoD that will result if the

L1:(d) Procuring contracting officer procedures for notifying the contractor of the L0:decision of the Principal Director, DPCAP. The procuring contracting officer shall

L0:promptly notify the contractor, in writing, of the decision made by the Principal Director,

L0:DPCAP, including the actions to be taken (if any).

L1:(3) The retained percentage will be paid in accordance with the Payments to

L0:252.236-7004 Payment for Mobilization and Demobilization.

L0:As prescribed in 236.101-71(b)(2), use the following clause:

L0:(End of clause)

L0:PAYMENT FOR MOBILIZATION AND DEMOBILIZATION (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) The Government will pay all costs for the mobilization and demobilization of all

L0:of the Contractor's plant and equipment at the contract lump sum price for this item.

L1:(1) _____ percent of the lump sum price upon completion of the contractor's

L0:mobilization at the work site.

L1:(2) The remaining _____ percent upon completion of demobilization.

L1:(b) The Contracting Officer may require the Contractor to furnish cost data to

L0:justify this portion of the bid if the Contracting Officer believes that the percentages in

L0:paragraphs (a)(1) and (2) of this clause do not bear a reasonable relation to the cost of

L0:the work in this contract.

L1:(1) Failure to justify such price to the satisfaction of the Contracting Officer will

L0:result in payment, as determined by the Contracting Officer, of?

L1:(i) Actual mobilization costs at completion of mobilization;

L1:(ii) Actual demobilization costs at completion of demobilization; and

L1:(iii) The remainder of this item in the final payment under this contract.

252.236-7005 Airfield Safety Precautions

Status: active

L0:252.236-7005 Airfield Safety Precautions.

L0:As prescribed in 236.101-71(b)(3), use the following clause. At some airfields, the width

L0:of the primary surface is 1,500 feet (750 feet on each side of the runway centerline). In

L0:such instances, substitute the proper width in the clause.

L0:AIRFIELD SAFETY PRECAUTIONS (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L1:(1) ?Landing areas? means?

L1:(i) The primary surfaces, comprising the surface of the runway, runway

L0:shoulders, and lateral safety zones. The length of each primary surface is the same as L0:the runway length. The width of each primary surface is 2,000 feet (1,000 feet on each L0:side of the runway centerline);

L1:(ii) The ?clear zone? beyond the ends of each runway, i.e., the extension of

L0:the primary surface for a distance of 1,000 feet beyond each end of each runway;

L1:(iii) All taxiways, plus the lateral clearance zones along each side for the L0:length of the taxiways (the outer edge of each lateral clearance zone is laterally 250 feet

L0:from the far or opposite edge of the taxiway, e.g., a 75-foot-wide taxiway would have a

L0:combined width of taxiway and lateral clearance zones of 425 feet); and

L1:(iv) All aircraft parking aprons, plus the area 125 feet in width extending

L0:beyond each edge all around the aprons.

L1:(2) ?Safety precaution areas? means those portions of approach-departure

L0:clearance zones and transitional zones where placement of objects incident to contract

L0:performance might result in vertical projections at or above the approach-departure

L0:clearance, or the transitional surface.

L1:(i) The ?approach-departure clearance surface? is an extension of the

L0:primary surface and the clear zone at each end of each runway, for a distance of 50,000

L0:feet, first along an inclined (glide angle) and then along a horizontal plane, both flaring

L0:symmetrically about the runway centerline extended.

L1:(A) The inclined plane (glide angle) begins in the clear zone 200 feet

L0:past the end of the runway (and primary surface) at the same elevation as the end of

L0:the runway. It continues upward at a slope of 50:1 (1 foot vertically for each 50 feet L0:horizontally) to an elevation of 500 feet above the established airfield elevation. At that

L0:point the plane becomes horizontal, continuing at that same uniform elevation to a

L0:point 50,000 feet longitudinally from the beginning of the inclined plane (glide angle)

L0:and ending there.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 36

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 236

L1:(B) The width of the surface at the beginning of the inclined plane (glide L0:angle) is the same as the width of the clear zone. It then flares uniformly, reaching the L0:maximum width of 16,000 feet at the end.

L1:(ii) The ?approach-departure clearance zone? is the ground area under the

L0:approach-departure clearance surface.

L1:(iii) The ?transitional surface? is a sideways extension of all primary

L0:surfaces, clear zones, and approach-departure clearance surfaces along inclined planes.

L1:(A) The inclined plane in each case begins at the edge of the surface.

L0:7 feet horizontally). It continues to the point of intersection with the?

L1:(B) The slope of the incline plane is 7:1 (1 foot vertically for each L0:150 feet above the established airfield elevation); or L1:(1) Inner horizontal surface (which is the horizontal plane

L0:500 feet above the established airfield elevation), whichever is applicable.

L1:(2) Outer horizontal surface (which is the horizontal plane

L1:(iv) The ?transitional zone? is the ground area under the transitional

L0:surface. (It adjoins the primary surface, clear zone, and approach-departure clearance L0:zone.)

L1:(b) General.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall comply with the requirements of this clause while?

L1:(i) Operating all ground equipment (mobile or stationary);

L1:(ii) Placing all materials; and

L1:(iii) Performing all work, upon and around all airfields.

L1:(2) The requirements of this clause are in addition to any other safety

L0:requirements of this contract.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Report to the Contracting Officer before initiating any work;

L1:(2) Notify the Contracting Officer of proposed changes to locations and

L0:operations;

L1:(3) Not permit either its equipment or personnel to use any runway for

L0:purposes other than aircraft operation without permission of the Contracting Officer,

L0:unless the runway is?

L1:(i) Closed by order of the Contracting Officer; and

L1:(ii) Marked as provided in paragraph (d)(2) of this clause;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 36

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 236

L1:(4) Keep all paved surfaces, such as runways, taxiways, and hardstands, clean

L0:at all times and, specifically, free from small stones which might damage aircraft

L0:propellers or jet aircraft;

L1:(5) Operate mobile equipment according to the safety provisions of this clause,

L0:while actually performing work on the airfield. At all other times, the Contractor shall

L0:remove all mobile equipment to locations?

L1:(i) Approved by the Contracting Officer;

L1:(ii) At a distance of at least 750 feet from the runway centerline, plus any

L0:additional distance; and

L1:(iii) Necessary to ensure compliance with the other provisions of this clause;

L0:and

L1:(6) Not open a trench unless material is on hand and ready for placing in the

L0:trench. As soon as practicable after material has been placed and work approved, the L0:Contractor shall backfill and compact trenches as required by the contract. Meanwhile,

L0:all hazardous conditions shall be marked and lighted in accordance with the other

L0:provisions of this clause.

L1:(d) Landing areas. The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Place nothing upon the landing areas without the authorization of the

L0:Contracting Officer;

L1:(2) Outline those landing areas hazardous to aircraft, using (unless otherwise L0:authorized by the Contracting Officer) red flags by day, and electric, battery-operated

L0:low-intensity red flasher lights by night;

L1:(3) Obtain, at an airfield where flying is controlled, additional permission from

L0:the control tower operator every time before entering any landing area, unless the

L0:landing area is marked as hazardous in accordance with paragraph (d)(2) of this clause;

L1:(4) Identify all vehicles it operates in landing areas by means of a flag on a staff
L0:attached to, and flying above, the vehicle. The flag shall be three feet square, and L0:consist of a checkered pattern of international orange and white squares of 1 foot on L0:each side (except that the flag may vary up to ten percent from each of these L0:dimensions);

L1:(5) Mark all other equipment and materials in the landing areas, using the L0:same marking devices as in paragraph (d)(2) of this clause; and

L1:(6) Perform work so as to leave that portion of the landing area which is
L0:available to aircraft free from hazards, holes, piles of material, and projecting shoulders
L0:that might damage an airplane tire.

L1:(e) Safety precaution areas. The Contractor shall?
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 36
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 236

L1:(1) Place nothing upon the safety precaution areas without authorization of the L0:Contracting Officer;

L1:(2) Mark all equipment and materials in safety precaution areas, using (unless L0:otherwise authorized by the Contracting Officer) red flags by day, and electric, battery-
L0:operated, low-intensity red flasher lights by night; and

L1:(3) Provide all objects placed in safety precaution areas with a red light or red
L0:lantern at night, if the objects project above the approach-departure clearance surface
L0:or above the transitional surface.

252.236-7006 Cost Limitation

Status: active

L0:252.236-7006 Cost Limitation.

L0:As prescribed in 236.101-71(b)(4), use the following provision:

L0:COST LIMITATION (JAN 1997)

L1:(a) Certain items in this solicitation are subject to statutory cost limitations. The L0:limitations are stated in the Schedule.

L1:(b) An offer which does not state separate prices for the items identified in the L0:Schedule as subject to a cost limitation may be considered nonresponsive.

L1:(c) Prices stated in offers for items subject to cost limitations shall include an L0:appropriate apportionment of all costs, direct and indirect, overhead, and profit.

L1:(d) Offers may be rejected which?

L1:(1) Are materially unbalanced for the purpose of bringing items within cost
L0:limitations; or

L1:(2) Exceed the cost limitations, unless the limitations have been waived by the L0:Government prior to award.

L0:(End of provision)

252.236-7007 Additive or Deductive Items

L0:252.236-7007 Additive or Deductive Items.

L0:As prescribed in 236.101-71(b)(5), use the following provision:

L0:ADDITIVE OR DEDUCTIVE ITEMS (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) The low offeror and the items to be awarded shall be determined as follows?

L1:(1) Prior to the opening of bids, the Government will determine the amount of L0:funds available for the project.

L1:(2) The low offeror shall be the Offeror that?

L1:(i) Is otherwise eligible for award; and

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 36

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 236

L1:(ii) Offers the lowest aggregate amount for the first or base bid item, plus or

L0:minus (in the order stated in the list of priorities in the bid schedule) those additive or

L0:deductive items that provide the most features within the funds determined available.

L1:(3) The Contracting Officer shall evaluate all bids on the basis of the same

L0:additive or deductive items.

L1:(i) If adding another item from the bid schedule list of priorities would make

L0:the award exceed the available funds for all offerors, the Contracting Officer will skip

L0:that item and go to the next item from the bid schedule of priorities; and

L1:(ii) Add that next item if an award may be made that includes that item and

L0:is within the available funds.

L1:(b) The Contracting Officer will use the list of priorities in the bid schedule only to

L0:determine the low offeror. After determining the low offeror, an award may be made on

L0:any combination of items if?

L1:(1) It is in the best interest of the Government;

L1:(2) Funds are available at the time of award; and

L1:(3) The low offeror's price for the combination to be awarded is less than the

L0:price offered by any other responsive, responsible offeror.

L1:(c) Example. The amount available is $100,000. Offeror A's base bid and four

L0:additives (in the order stated in the list of priorities in the bid Schedule) are $85,000,

L0:$10,000, $8,000, $6,000, and $4,000. Offeror B's base bid and four additives are

L0:$80,000, $16,000, $9,000, $7,000, and $4,000. Offeror A is the low offeror. The

L0:aggregate amount of offeror A's bid for purposes of award would be $99,000, which

L0:includes a base bid plus the first and fourth additives. The second and third additives

L0:were skipped because each of them would cause the aggregate bid to exceed $100,000.

L1:(1) Furnishing all plant, labor, equipment, appliances, and materials; and

L1:(2) Performing all operations required to complete the work in conformity with

L0:the drawings and specifications.

L0:elsewhere. Persons with whom a personal services contract may be entered into under

L0:this authority include clinical social workers, psychologists, psychiatrists, and other

L0:comparable professionals who have advanced degrees in counseling or related academic

L0:disciplines and who meet all requirements for State licensure and board certification

L0:requirements, if any, within their fields of specialization.

L1:(2) Select sources for personal services contracts with individuals under the L0:accordance with agency procedures. Individuals must be considered solely based on the

L0:professional qualifications established for the particular personal services being

L0:acquired and the Government's estimate of reasonable rates, fees, or other costs. The L0:commander of the facility shall provide the contracting officer with rationale for the L0:ranking of individuals, consistent with the required qualifications.

L1:(7) Upon receipt from the facility of the ranked listing of applicants, the L0:PGI 237.876 Certification of nonpersonal services.

L0:To comply with the certification requirement at DFARS 237.876, complete a

L0:certification substantially the same as the following and include a copy in the

L0:contract file:

L0:Certification of Nonpersonal Services

L0:This certification and enclosed worksheet are designed to ensure that the agency

L0:does not award a personal-services contract unless specifically authorized by statute

L0:(e.g., 10 U.S.C. 129b, 5 U.S.C. 3109, or 10 U.S.C. 1091). Therefore, this

L0:documentation should be completed in conjunction with the submission of a service-

L0:contract requirement to the contracting officer.

L0:A personal services contract is characterized by the employer-employee

L0:relationship it creates between the Government and the contractor's personnel. The L0:Government is normally required to obtain its employees by direct hire under

L0:competitive appointment procedures required by civil service laws. Obtaining

L0:personal services by contract, rather than by direct hire, circumvents those laws

L0:unless Congress has specifically authorized acquisition of the services by contract.

L0:An employer-employee relationship under a service contract occurs when the

L0:Government exercises relatively continuous supervision and control over contractor

L0:personnel performing the contract.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 37

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 237

L0:Upon considering the information above and the worksheet below, I certify that

L0:this requirement does not include an unauthorized personal services arrangement,

L0:either in the way the work statement is written or in the manner in which the resulting

L0:contract will be managed and overseen.

L0:NO

L0:The following descriptive elements should be used as a

L0:guide to assess whether a proposed contract is

L0:personal in nature (see FAR 37.201-2). If the answer

L0:to any of the items below is ?YES,? then additional

L0:measures should be taken to ensure the contract is not

L0:administered so as to create an employer-employee

L0:relationship between the Government and the

L0:contractor?s personnel and result in an unauthorized

L0:personal services contract.

L0:1. Contractor personnel are performing on a Government

L0:2.

L0:3.

L0:Principal tools and equipment are furnished by the L0:4. Comparable services meeting comparable needs are

L0:6.

L0:performed in this agency or similar agencies using civil-

L0:service personnel.

L0:The need for the service provided can reasonably be

L0:expected to last beyond one year.

L0:The inherent nature of the service, or the manner in which

L0:it is to be provided, reasonably requires (directly or L0:indirectly) Government direction or supervision of

L0:contractor employees in order to:

L1:(a) adequately protect the Government?s interest;

L1:(b) retain control of the function involved; or

L1:(c) retain full personal responsibility for the function

L0:PGI 237.7002 Area of performance and distribution of contracts.

L1:(1) Determine and define the geographical area to be covered by the contract using the

L0:following general guidelines:

L1:(i) Use political boundaries, streets, or other features as demarcation lines.

L1:(ii) The size should be roughly equivalent to the contiguous metropolitan or

L0:municipal area enlarged to include the activities served.

L1:(iii) If the area of performance best suited to the needs of a particular contract is not

L0:large enough to include a carrier terminal commonly used by people within the area, the

L1:(b) The Government will request educational services under this agreement by a

L0:(insert type of request, such as, delivery order, official Government order, or other written L0:communication). The (insert type of request, such as, delivery order, official Government L0:order, or other written communication) will contain the number of this agreement and will L0:designate as students at the Contractor's institution one or more Government-selected L0:persons who have already been accepted for admission under the Contractor's usual L0:admission standards.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 37

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 237

L1:(iii) If there is an appeal of the determination, process the appeal under the L0:Contractor's standard procedures;

L1:(iv) Notify the student and Contracting Officer of the result; and

L1:(v) Make the determination a part of the student's permanent record.

L1:(e) The Contractor shall not furnish any instruction or other services to any student L0:under this agreement before the effective date of a request for services in the form specified L0:in paragraph (b) of this schedule.

L0:3. Payment.

L1:(a) The Government will pay the Contractor the normal tuition and fees which the L0:Contractor charges any students pursuing the same or similar curricula, except for any L0:tuition and fees which this agreement excludes. The Contractor may change any tuition and L0:fees, provided?

L1:(3) Provides the Contracting Officer notice of changes before their effective

L1:(b) The Contractor shall not establish any tuition or fees which apply solely to L0:students under this agreement.

L1:(c) If the Contractor regularly charges higher tuition and fees for nonresident L0:students, the Contractor may charge the Government the normal nonresident tuition and L0:fees for students under this agreement who are nonresidents. The Government shall not L0:claim resident tuition and fees for any student solely on the basis of the student residing in L0:the State as a consequence of enrollment under this agreement.

L1:(d) The Contractor shall charge the Government only the tuition and fees which L0:relate directly to enrollment as a student. Tuition and fees may include?

L1:(i) Penalty fees for late registration or change of course caused by the L0:Government;

L1:(ii) Mandatory health fees and health insurance charges; and

L1:(iii) Any flat rate charge applicable to all students registered for research that L0:appears in the Contractor's publicly announced fee schedule.

L1:(e) The Contractor shall not charge the Government for?
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 37
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 237

L1:(i) Permit charges, such as vehicle registration or parking fees, unless L0:specifically authorized in the request for service; and

L0:computer time) related to student research.

L1:(f) Normally, the Contractor shall not directly charge individual students for L0:application fees or any other fee chargeable to this agreement. However, if the Contractor's
L0:standard procedures require payment of any fee before the student is enrolled under this L0:agreement, the Contractor may charge the student. When the Contractor receives payment
L0:from the Government, the Contractor shall fully reimburse the student.

L1:(g) For each term the Contractor enrolls students under this agreement, the L0:Contractor shall submit _____ copies of an invoice listing charges for each student
L0:separately. The Contractor shall submit invoices within _____ days after the start of the L0:term and shall include?

L1:(i) Agreement number and inclusive dates of the term;

L1:(ii) Name of each student;

L1:(iii) A list showing each course for each student if the school charges by credit
L0:hour;

L1:(iv) The resident or nonresident status of each student (if applicable to the L0:Contractor's school); and

L1:(v) A breakdown of charges for each student, including credit hours, tuition,
L0:application fee, and other fees. Provide a total for each student and a grand total for all
L0:students listed on the invoice.

L1:(h) If unforeseen events require additional charges that are otherwise payable L0:under the Contractor's normal tuition and fee schedule, the Contractor may submit a
L0:supplemental invoice or make the adjustment on the next regular invoice under this L0:agreement. The Contractor shall clearly identify and explain the supplemental invoice or the L0:adjustment.

L1:(i) The Contractor shall apply any credits resulting from withdrawal of students, or

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 237

L1:(b) The Contractor may request withdrawal by the Government of any student for L0:academic or disciplinary reasons.

L0:procedures.

L0:5. Transcripts. Within a reasonable time after withdrawal of a student for any reason, or

L0:after graduation, the Contractor shall send to the Contracting Officer (or to an address L0:supplied by the Contracting Officer) one copy of an official transcript showing all work by the L0:student at the institution until such withdrawal or graduation.

L0:6. Student teaching. The Government does not anticipate the Contractor awarding L0:fellowships and assistantships to students attending school under this agreement. However,

L0:for graduate students, should both the student and the Contractor decide it to be in the

L0:student's best interests to assist in the institution's teaching program, the Contractor may

L0:provide nominal compensation for part-time service. Base the compensation on the L0:Contractor's practices and procedures for other students of similar accomplishment in that

L0:department or field. The Contractor shall apply the compensation as a credit against any

L0:invoices presented for payment for any period in which the student performed the part-time

L0:teaching service.

L0:7. Termination of agreement.

L1:(a) Either party may terminate this agreement by giving 30 days advance written

L0:notice of the effective date of termination. In the event of termination, the Government shall

L0:have the right, at its option, to continue to receive educational services for those students

L0:already enrolled in the contractor's institution under this agreement until such time that the

L0:students complete their courses or curricula or the Government withdraws them from the

L0:Contractor's institution. The terms and conditions of this agreement in effect on the effective

L0:date of the termination shall continue to apply to such students remaining in the Contractor's

L0:institution.

L1:(b) Withdrawal of students under Schedule provision 4 shall not be considered a

L0:termination within the meaning of this provision 7.

L0:239.7001 Policy.

L0:Agencies must follow the procedures in DoD Manual 4140.01, Volume 9, DoD L0:Supply Chain Materiel Management Procedures: Materiel Programs, when L0:considering the exchange or sale of Government-owned information technology.

239.7400 Scope

Status: active

L0:239.7400 Scope.

L0:This subpart prescribes policy and procedures for acquisition of telecommunications L0:services and maintenance of telecommunications security. Telecommunications L0:services meet the definition of information technology.

239.7401 Definitions

L0:239.7401 Definitions.

L0:As used in this subpart?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L0:Common carrier means any entity engaged in the business of providing

L0:telecommunications services which are regulated by the Federal Communications

L0:Commission or other governmental body.

L0:Foreign carrier means any person, partnership, association, joint-stock company,

L0:trust, governmental body, or corporation not subject to regulation by a U.S.

L0:governmental regulatory body and not doing business as a citizen of the United

L0:States, providing telecommunications services outside the territorial limits of the

L0:United States.

L0:Governmental regulatory body means the Federal Communications Commission,

L0:any statewide regulatory body, or any body with less than statewide jurisdiction

L0:when operating under the State authority. The following are not ?governmental

L0:regulatory bodies??

L1:(1) Regulatory bodies whose decisions are not subject to judicial appeal; and

L1:(2) Regulatory bodies which regulate a company owned by the same entity

L0:which creates the regulatory body.

L0:Long-haul telecommunications means all general and special purpose long-

L0:distance telecommunications facilities and services (including commercial satellite

L0:services, terminal equipment and local circuitry supporting the long-haul service) to

L0:or from the post, camp, base, or station switch and/or main distribution frame

L0:(except for trunk lines to the first-serving commercial central office for local L0:communications services).

L0:Noncommon carrier means any entity other than a common carrier offering

L0:telecommunications facilities, services, or equipment for lease.

L0:Securing, sensitive information, and telecommunications systems have the

L0:meaning given in the clause at 252.239-7016, Telecommunications Security

L0:Equipment, Devices, Techniques, and Services.

L0:Telecommunications means the transmission, emission, or reception of signals,

L0:signs, writing, images, sounds, or intelligence of any nature, by wire, cable,

L0:satellite, fiber optics, laser, radio, or any other electronic, electric, electromagnetic,

L0:or acoustically coupled means.

L0:Telecommunications services means the services acquired, whether by lease or

L0:contract, to meet the Government's telecommunications needs. The term includes

L0:the telecommunications facilities and equipment necessary to provide such services.

239.7402 Policy

L0:239.7402 Policy.

L1:(a) Acquisition. DoD policy is to acquire telecommunications services from

L0:common and noncommon telecommunications carriers?

L1:(1) On a competitive basis, except when acquisition using other than full
L0:and open competition is justified;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(2) Recognizing the regulations, practices, and decisions of the Federal L0:Communications Commission (FCC) and other governmental regulatory bodies on L0:rates, cost principles, and accounting practices; and

L1:(3) Making provision in telecommunications services contracts for adoption
L0:of?

L1:(i) FCC approved practices; or

L1:(ii) The generally accepted practices of the industry on those issues
L0:concerning common carrier services where?

L1:(A) The governmental regulatory body has not expressed itself;

L1:(B) The governmental regulatory body has declined jurisdiction; or

L1:(C) There is no governmental regulatory body to decide.

L1:(b) Security. (1) The contracting officer must ensure, in accordance with agency
L0:procedures, that purchase requests identify?

L1:(i) The nature and extent of information requiring security during L0:telecommunications;

L1:(ii) The requirement for the contractor to secure telecommunications
L0:systems;

L1:(iii) The telecommunications security equipment, devices, techniques, or
L0:services with which the contractor's telecommunications security equipment,
L0:devices, techniques, or services must be interoperable; and

L1:(iv) The approved telecommunications security equipment, devices,
L0:techniques, or services, such as found in the National Security Agency's Information
L0:Systems Security Products and Services Catalogue.

L1:(2) Contractors and subcontractors must provide all telecommunications
L0:security techniques or services required for performance of Government contracts.

L1:(3) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(4) of this section, contractors and
L0:subcontractors must normally provide all required property, to include
L0:telecommunications security equipment or related devices, in accordance with FAR
L0:45.102. In some cases, such as for communications security (COMSEC) equipment
L0:designated as controlled cryptographic item (CCI), contractors or subcontractors
L0:must also meet ownership eligibility conditions.

L1:(4) The head of the agency may authorize provision of the necessary
L0:property as Government-furnished property or acquisition as contractor-acquired
L0:property, as long as conditions of FAR 45.102(b) are met.

L1:(c) Foreign carriers. For information on contracting with foreign carriers, see L0:PGI 239.7402(c).

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239
L0:239.7403-239.7404 [Reserved]

239.7405 Delegated authority for telecommunications resources

Status: active

L0:239.7405 Delegated authority for telecommunications resources.

L0:The contracting officer may enter into a telecommunications service contract on a
L0:month-to-month basis or for any longer period or series of periods, not to exceed a
L0:total of 10 years. See PGI 239.7405 for documents relating to this contracting
L0:authority, which the General Services Administration has delegated to DoD.

239.7406 Certified cost or pricing data and data other than certified cost

Status: active

L0:239.7406 Certified cost or pricing data and data other than certified cost

L0:or pricing data.

L1:(a) Common carriers are not required to submit certified cost or pricing data

L0:before award of contracts for tariffed services. Rates or preliminary estimates

L0:quoted by a common carrier for tariffed telecommunications services are considered

L0:to be prices set by regulation within the provisions of 10 U.S.C. 3703. This is true

L0:even if the tariff is set after execution of the contract.

L1:(b) Rates or preliminary estimates quoted by a common carrier for nontariffed

L0:telecommunications services or by a noncommon carrier for any telecommunications

L0:service are not considered prices set by law or regulation.

L1:(c) Contracting officers must obtain sufficient data to determine that the prices

L0:are reasonable in accordance with FAR 15.403-3 or 15.403-4. See PGI 239.7406 for

L0:examples of instances where additional data may be necessary to determine price

L0:reasonableness.

239.7407 Type of contract

Status: active

L0:239.7407 Type of contract.

L0:When acquiring telecommunications services, the contracting officer may use a

L0:basic agreement (see FAR 16.702) in conjunction with communication service

L0:authorizations. When using this method, follow the procedures at PGI 239.7407.

239.7408 Special construction

Status: active

L0:239.7408 Special construction.

239.7408-1 General

Status: active

L0:239.7408-1 General.

L1:(a) Special construction normally involves a common carrier giving a special
L0:service or facility related to the performance of the basic telecommunications service
L0:requirements. This may include?

L1:(1) Moving or relocating equipment;

L1:(2) Providing temporary facilities;

L1:(3) Expediting provision of facilities; or

L1:(4) Providing specially constructed channel facilities to meet Government
L0:requirements.

L1:(b) Use this subpart instead of FAR part 36 for acquisition of ?special
L0:construction.?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(c) Special construction costs may be?

L1:(1) A contingent liability for using telecommunications services for a shorter
L0:time than the minimum to reimburse the contractor for unamortized
L0:nonrecoverable costs. These costs are usually expressed in terms of a termination
L0:liability, as provided in the contract or by tariff;

L1:(2) A onetime special construction charge;

L1:(3) Recurring charges for constructed facilities;

L1:(4) A minimum service charge;

L1:(5) An expediting charge; or

L1:(6) A move or relocation charge.

L1:(d) When a common carrier submits a proposal or quotation which has special
L0:construction requirements, the contracting officer must require a detailed special L0:construction proposal. Analyze all special construction proposals to?

L1:(1) Determine the adequacy of the proposed construction;

L1:(2) Disclose excessive or duplicative construction; and

L1:(3) When different forms of charge are possible, provide for the form of L0:charge most advantageous to the Government.

L1:(e) When possible, analyze and approve special construction charges before
L0:receiving the service. Impose a ceiling on the special construction costs before L0:authorizing the contractor to proceed, if prior approval is not possible. The L0:contracting officer must approve special construction charges before final payment.

239.7408-2 Applicability of construction labor standards for special

Status: active

L0:239.7408-2 Applicability of construction labor standards for special
L0:construction.

L1:(a) The construction labor standards in FAR Subpart 22.4 ordinarily do not L0:apply to special construction. However, if the special construction includes L0:construction, alteration, or repair (as defined in FAR 22.401) of a public building or L0:public work, the construction labor standards may apply. Determine applicability

L0:under FAR 22.402.

L1:(b) Each CSA or other type contract which is subject to construction labor

L0:standards under FAR 22.402 must cite that fact.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

239.7409 Special assembly

Status: active

L0:239.7409 Special assembly.

L1:(a) Special assembly is the designing, manufacturing, arranging, assembling, or

L0:wiring of equipment to provide telecommunications services that cannot be provided

L0:with general use equipment.

L1:(b) Special assembly rates and charges must be based on estimated costs. The L0:contracting officer should negotiate special assembly rates and charges before

L0:starting service. When it is not possible to negotiate in advance, use provisional

L0:rates and charges subject to adjustment, until final rates and charges are

L0:negotiated. The CSAs authorizing the special assembly must be modified to reflect

L0:negotiated final rates and charges.

239.7410 Cancellation and termination

Status: active

L0:239.7410 Cancellation and termination.

L2:(a)(1) Cancellation is stopping a requirement after placing of an order but before

L0:service starts.

L1:(2) Termination is stopping a requirement after placing an order and after

L0:service starts.

L1:(b) Determine cancellation or termination charges under the provisions of the L0:applicable tariff or agreement/contract.

239.7411 Contract clauses

Status: active

L0:239.7411 Contract clauses.

L1:(a) In addition to other appropriate FAR and DFARS clauses, insert the

L0:following clauses in solicitations, contracts, and basic agreements for

L0:telecommunications services. Modify the clauses only if necessary to meet the L0:requirements of a governmental regulatory agency.

L1:(1) 252.239-7002, Access.

L1:(2) 252.239-7004, Orders for Facilities and Services.

L1:(3) 252.239-7007, Cancellation or Termination of Orders.

L0:for telecommunications services when the acquisition includes or may include
L0:special construction. Modify the clauses only if necessary to meet the requirements
L0:of a governmental regulatory agency?

L0:Agreement and Continuation of Services, in basic agreements for L0:telecommunications services.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239
L1:(1) Insert the basic clause in basic agreements that do not supersede an L0:existing basic agreement with the contractor.
L1:(2) Insert the alternate I clause in basic agreements that supersede an L0:existing basic agreement with the contractor. Complete paragraph (c)(1) of the L0:clause with the basic agreement number, date, and contacting office that issued the L0:basic agreement being superseded.
L1:(d) Insert the clause at 252.239-7016, Telecommunications Security Equipment,
L0:Devices, Techniques, and Services, in solicitations and contracts when performance
L0:of a contract requires secure telecommunications.

239.7600 Scope of subpart

L0:239.7600 Scope of subpart.
L0:This subpart prescribes policies and procedures for the acquisition of cloud
L0:computing services.

239.7601 Definitions

Status: active

L0:239.7601 Definitions.
L0:As used in this subpart?
L0:Authorizing official, as described in DoD Instruction 8510.01, Risk Management
L0:Framework (RMF) for DoD Information Technology (IT), means the senior Federal L0:official or executive with the authority to formally assume responsibility for L0:operating an information system at an acceptable level of risk to organizational L0:operations (including mission, functions, image, or reputation), organizational L0:assets, individuals, other organizations, and the Nation.
L0:Cloud computing means a model for enabling ubiquitous, convenient, on-demand
L0:network access to a shared pool of configurable computing resources (e.g., networks, L0:servers, storage, applications, and services) that can be rapidly provisioned and L0:released with minimal management effort or service provider interaction. This L0:includes other commercial terms, such as on-demand self-service, broad network
L0:access, resource pooling, rapid elasticity, and measured service. It also includes

L0:commercial offerings for software-as-a-service, infrastructure-as-a-service, and L0:platform-as-a-service.

L0:Government data means any information, document, media, or machine readable
L0:material regardless of physical form or characteristics, that is created or obtained
L0:by the Government in the course of official Government business.

L0:Government-related data means any information, document, media, or machine
L0:readable material regardless of physical form or characteristics that is created or L0:obtained by a contractor through the storage, processing, or communication of L0:Government data. This does not include a contractor's business records (e.g., L0:financial records, legal records, etc.) or data such as operating procedures, software
L0:coding, or algorithms that are not uniquely applied to the Government data.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L0:Information system means a discrete set of information resources organized for L0:the collection, processing, maintenance, use, sharing, dissemination, or disposition

L0:magnetic tapes, optical disks, magnetic disks, large-scale integration memory chips, L0:and printouts onto which information is recorded, stored, or printed within an L0:information system.

Status: active

L0:239.7602 Policy and responsibilities.

239.7602-1 General

Status: active

L0:239.7602-1 General.

L1:(a) Generally, DoD must acquire cloud computing services using commercial
L0:terms and conditions that are consistent with Federal law, and an agency's needs,
L0:including those requirements specified in this subpart. Some examples of L0:commercial terms and conditions are license agreements, End User License
L0:Agreements (EULAs), Terms of Service (TOS), or other similar legal instruments or L0:agreements. Contracting officers must incorporate any applicable service provider
L0:terms and conditions into the contract by attachment or other appropriate
L0:mechanism. Contracting officers must carefully review commercial terms and L0:conditions and consult counsel to ensure these are consistent with Federal law,
L0:regulation, and the agency's needs.

L2:(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the contracting
L0:officer must only award a contract to acquire cloud computing services from a cloud
L0:service provider (e.g., contractor or subcontractor, regardless of tier) that has been L0:granted provisional authorization by Defense Information Systems Agency, at the

L0:level appropriate to the requirement, to provide the relevant cloud computing
L0:services in accordance with the Cloud Computing Security Requirements Guide L1:(SRG) (version in effect at the time the solicitation is issued or as authorized by the L0:contracting officer) found at <https://public.cyber.mil/dccs/>.
L1:(2) The contracting officer may award a contract to acquire cloud computing
L0:services from a cloud service provider that has not been granted provisional L0:authorization when?
L1:(i) The requirement for a provisional authorization is waived by the DoD
L0:Chief Information Officer; or
L1:(ii) The cloud computing service requirement is for a private, on-
L0:premises version that will be provided from U.S. Government facilities. Under this L0:circumstance, the cloud service provider must obtain a provisional authorization
L0:prior to operational use.
L1:(c) When contracting for cloud computing services, the contracting officer must L0:ensure the following information is provided by the requiring activity:
L1:(1) Government data and Government-related data descriptions.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239
L1:(2) Data ownership, licensing, delivery and disposition instructions specific L0:to the relevant types of Government data and Government-related data (e.g., DD L0:Form 1423, Contract Data Requirements List; work statement task; line item).
L0:Disposition instructions must provide for the transition of data in commercially L0:available, or open and non-proprietary format (and for permanent records, in L0:accordance with disposition guidance issued by National Archives and Record L0:Administration).
L1:(3) Appropriate requirements to support applicable inspection, audit,
L0:investigation, or other similar authorized activities specific to the relevant types of L0:Government data and Government-related data, or specific to the type of cloud
L0:computing services being acquired.
L1:(4) Appropriate requirements to support and cooperate with applicable
L0:system-wide search and access capabilities for inspections, audits, investigations,
L0:and similar authorized activities.

239.7602-2 Required storage of data within the United States or outlying

Status: active

L0:239.7602-2 Required storage of data within the United States or outlying L0:areas.
L1:(a) Cloud computing service providers are required to maintain within the 50
L0:states, the District of Columbia, or outlying areas of the United States, all
L0:Government data that is not physically located on DoD premises, unless otherwise
L0:authorized by the authorizing official, as described in DoD Instruction 8510.01, in L0:accordance with the SRG.
L1:(b) The contracting officer must provide written notification to the contractor

L0:when the contractor is permitted to maintain Government data at a location outside
L0:the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and outlying areas of the United States. See L0:PGI 239.7602-2 for additional guidance.

239.7603 Procedures

L0:239.7604 Solicitation provision and contract clause.
L1:(a) Insert the provision at 252.239-7009, Representation of Use of Cloud
L0:Computing, in solicitations, including solicitations using FAR part 12 procedures for L0:the acquisition of commercial products and commercial services, for information
L0:technology services.
L1:(b) Insert the clause at 252.239-7010, Cloud Computing Services, in solicitations
L0:and contracts, including solicitations and contracts using FAR part 12 procedures
L0:for the acquisition of commercial products and commercial services, for information
L0:technology services.

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

252.239-7002 Access

Status: active

L0:252.239-7002 Access.
L0:As prescribed in 239.7411(a), use the following clause:
L0:ACCESS (DEC 1991)
L1:(a) Subject to military security regulations, the Government shall permit the L0:Contractor access at all reasonable times to Contractor furnished facilities.
L0:However, if the Government is unable to permit access, the Government at its own
L0:risk and expense shall maintain these facilities and the Contractor shall not be L0:responsible for the service involving any of these facilities during the period of L0:nonaccess, unless the service failure results from the Contractor's fault or L0:negligence.
L1:(b) During periods when the Government does not permit Contractor access, the L0:Government will reimburse the Contractor at mutually acceptable rates for the loss
L0:of or damage to the equipment due to the fault or negligence of the Government.
L0:Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning
L0:of the Disputes clause of this contract.

252.239-7004 Orders for Facilities and Services

Status: active

L0:252.239-7004 Orders for Facilities and Services.

L0:As prescribed in 239.7411(a), use the following clause:

L0:(End of clause)

L0:ORDERS FOR FACILITIES AND SERVICES (SEP 2019)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:Governmental regulatory body means the Federal Communications Commission,

L0:any statewide regulatory body, or any body with less than statewide jurisdiction

L0:when operating under the state authority. Regulatory bodies whose decisions are

L0:not subject to judicial appeal and regulatory bodies which regulate a company

L0:owned by the same entity that creates the regulatory body are not governmental

L0:regulatory bodies.

L1:(b) The Contractor shall acknowledge a communication service authorization or

L0:other type order for supplies and facilities by?

L1:(1) Commencing performance after receipt of an order; or

L1:(2) Written acceptance by a duly authorized representative.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall furnish the services and facilities under this

L0:agreement/contract in accordance with all applicable tariffs, rates, charges,

L0:regulations, requirements, terms, and conditions of?

L1:(1) Service and facilities furnished or offered by the Contractor to the

L0:general public or the Contractor's subscribers; or

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(2) Service as lawfully established by a governmental regulatory body.

L1:(d) The Government will not prepay for services.

L1:(e) For nontariffed services, the Contractor shall charge the Government at the

L0:lowest rate and under the most favorable terms and conditions for similar service

L0:and facilities offered to any other customer.

L1:(f) Recurring charges for services and facilities shall, in each case, start with the

L0:satisfactory beginning of service or provision of facilities or equipment and are

L0:payable monthly in arrears.

L1:(g) Expediting charges are costs necessary to get services earlier than normal.

L0:Examples are overtime pay or special shipment. When authorized, expediting

L0:charges shall be the additional costs incurred by the Contractor and the L0:subcontractor. The Government shall pay expediting charges only when?

L1:(1) They are provided for in the tariff established by a governmental

L0:regulatory body; or

L1:(2) They are authorized in a communication service authorization or other

L0:contractual document.

L1:(h) When services normally provided are technically unacceptable and the

L0:development, fabrication, or manufacture of special equipment is required, the L0:Government may?

L1:(1) Provide the equipment; or

L1:(2) Direct the Contractor to acquire the equipment or facilities. If the L0:Contractor acquires the equipment or facilities, the acquisition shall be competitive,
L0:if practicable.

L1:(i) If at any time the Government defers or changes its orders for any of the L0:services but does not cancel or terminate them, the amount paid or payable to the L0:Contractor for the services deferred or modified shall be equitably adjusted under L0:applicable tariffs filed by the Contractor with the regulatory commission in effect at L0:the time of deferral or change. If no tariffs are in effect, the Government and the L0:Contractor shall equitably adjust the rates by mutual agreement. Failure to agree
L0:on any adjustment shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the L0:meaning of the Disputes clause of this contract.

252.239-7007 Cancellation or Termination of Orders

Status: active

L0:252.239-7007 Cancellation or Termination of Orders.

L0:As prescribed in 239.7411(a), use the following clause:

L0:(End of clause)

L0:CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION OF ORDERS (SEP 2019)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L0:Actual nonrecoverable costs means the installed costs of the facilities and L0:equipment, less cost of reusable materials, and less net salvage value.

L0:Basic cancellation liability means the actual nonrecoverable cost, which the L0:Government shall reimburse the Contractor at the time services are cancelled.

L0:Basic termination liability means the nonrecoverable cost amortized in equal
L0:monthly increments throughout the liability period.

L0:Installed costs means the actual cost of equipment and materials specifically
L0:provided or used, plus the actual cost of installing (including engineering, labor,
L0:supervision, transportation, rights-of-way, and any other items which are L0:chargeable to the capital accounts of the Contractor), less any costs the government
L0:may have directly reimbursed the Contractor under the Special Construction and L0:Equipment Charges clause of this agreement/contract.

L0:Net salvage value means the salvage value less the cost of removal.

L1:(b) If the Government cancels any of the services ordered under this L0:agreement/contract, before the services are made available to the Government, or L0:terminates any of these services after they are made available to the Government,
L0:the Government will reimburse the Contractor for the actual nonrecoverable costs
L0:the Contractor has reasonably incurred in providing facilities and equipment for L0:which the Contractor has no foreseeable reuse. The Government will not reimburse L0:the Contractor for any actual nonrecoverable costs incurred after notice of award,
L0:but prior to execution of the order.

L1:(c) When feasible, the Contractor shall reuse cancelled or terminated facilities or

L0:equipment to minimize the charges to the Government.

L1:(d) If at any time the Government requires that telecommunications facilities or

L0:equipment be relocated within the Contractor's service area, the Government will

L0:have the option of paying the costs of relocating the facilities or equipment in lieu of

L0:paying any termination or cancellation charge under this clause. The basic

L0:cancellation liability or basic termination liability applicable to the facilities or

L0:equipment in their former location shall continue to apply to the facilities and

L0:equipment in their new location. Monthly recurring charges shall continue to be

L0:paid during the period.

L1:(e) When there is another requirement or foreseeable reuse in place of cancelled

L0:or terminated facilities or equipment, no charge shall apply and the basic

L0:cancellation liability or basic termination liability shall be appropriately reduced.

L0:When feasible, the Contractor shall promptly reuse discontinued channels or

L0:facilities, including equipment for which the Government is obligated to pay a

L0:minimum service charge.

L1:(f) The amount of the Government's liability upon cancellation or termination of

L0:any of the services ordered under this agreement/contract will be determined under

L0:applicable tariffs governing cancellation and termination charges which?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(1) Are filed by the Contractor with a governmental regulatory body, as

L0:defined in the Orders For Facilities and Services clause of this agreement/contract;

L1:(2) Are in effect on the date of termination; and

L1:(3) Provide specific cancellation or termination charges for the facilities and

L0:equipment involved or show how to determine the charges.

L1:(g) The amount of the Government's liability upon cancellation or termination of

L0:any of the services ordered under this agreement/contract, which are not subject to

L0:a governmental regulatory body, will be determined under a mutually agreed

L0:schedule in the communication services authorization (CSA) or other contractual L0:document.

L1:(h) If no applicable tariffs are in effect on the date of cancellation or termination

L0:or set forth in the applicable CSA or other contractual document, the Government's

L0:liability will be determined under the following settlement procedures?

L1:(1) The Contractor agrees to provide the Contracting Officer, in such

L0:reasonable detail as the Contracting Officer may require, inventory schedules

L1:(7) The Contractor agrees that, if after settlement but within the termination

L0:liability period of the services, should the Contractor make reuse of equipment or L0:facilities which were treated as nonreusable or nonsalvageable in the settlement, the L0:Contractor shall reimburse the Government for the value of the equipment or L0:facilities.

L1:(8) The Contractor agrees to exclude?

L1:(i) Any costs which are not included in determining cancellation and

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(2) In cases of cyber incidents involving multiple contracts, the DoD L0:components will work together to designate a single contracting officer to coordinate the L0:effort. The requiring activity will notify the contracting officer once a lead is designated.

L1:(b) When requested by the contractor, the contracting officer must provide the L0:contractor with the ?Instructions for Malware Submission? document available at L0:http://www.acq.osd.mil/dpap/dars/pgi/docs/Instructions_for_Submitting_Malware.docx. L0:http://www.acq.osd.mil/dpap/pdi/network_penetration_reporting_and_contracting.html.

L0:PGI 239.7603-4 DoD damage assessment activities.

L1:(a) Prior to initiating damage assessment activities, the contracting officer must

L0:verify that a contract(s) identified in the cyber incident report include(s) the clause at

L0:DFARS 252.239-7010. If the contracting officer determines that a contract identified in

L0:the report does not contain the clause, the contracting officer must notify the requiring

L0:activity that damage assessment activities, if required, may be determined to constitute

L0:a change to the contract.

L1:(b) In cases of cyber incidents involving multiple contracts, a single contracting

L0:officer will be designated to coordinate with the contractor regarding media submission.

L1:(c) If the requiring activity requests the contracting officer obtain media, as defined

L0:at DFARS 252.239-7010, from the contractor, the contracting officer must?

L0:dcise@dc3.mil, and the requiring activity.

L1:(d) If the contracting officer is notified by the requiring activity that media are not

L0:required, the contracting officer must notify the contractor and simultaneously provide a

L0:copy of the notice to DC3 and the requiring activity.

L1:(e) The contracting officer must document the action taken as required by

L0:paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, in the contract file.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 39

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 239

L1:(f) Upon receipt of the contractor media, DC3 will confirm receipt in writing to the

L0:contractor and the requesting contracting officer.

L1:(g) When the requiring activity determines that the damage assessment activities

L0:are complete, the requiring activity will provide the contracting officer with a report

L0:documenting the findings from the damage assessment activities affecting covered

L0:defense information.

L1:(h) The contracting officer must include the report documenting the findings in the

L0:contract file(s) and provide a copy to the contractor.

L0:252.242-7997 Material Management and Accounting System. (DEVIATION

L0:2026-O0050)

L0:As prescribed in 242.7204, use the following clause:

L0:MATERIAL MANAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

L0:(DEVIATION 2026-O0050) (MAR 2026)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:?"Acceptable material management and accounting system?" means a material

L0:management and accounting system that generally complies with the system criteria in L0:paragraph (d) of this clause.

L0:Contractor? means a business unit as defined in Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)

L0:2.101.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L0:Material management and accounting system (MMAS)? means the Contractor's

L0:system or systems for planning, controlling, and accounting for the acquisition, use,

L0:issuing, and disposition of material. Material management and accounting systems

L0:may be manual or automated. They may be stand-alone systems, or they may be

L0:integrated with planning, engineering, estimating, purchasing, inventory, accounting,

L0:or other systems.

L0:Material weakness? means a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in the internal

L0:control over information in contractor business systems, such that there is a reasonable

L0:possibility that a material misstatement of such information will not be prevented, or

L0:detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the

L0:likelihood of an event occurring is?

L1:(1) Probable; or

L1:(2) More than remote but less than likely (section 806 of Pub. L. 116-283).

L0:Valid time-phased requirements? means material that is?

L1:(1) Needed to fulfill the production plan, including reasonable quantities for

L0:scrap, shrinkage, yield, etc.; and

L1:(2) Charged or billed to contracts or other cost objectives in a manner consistent

L0:with the need to fulfill the production plan.

L1:(b) General. The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Maintain an MMAS that?

L1:(i) Reasonably forecasts material requirements;

L1:(ii) Ensures that costs of purchased and fabricated material charged or

L0:allocated to a contract are based on valid time-phased requirements; and

L1:(iii) Maintains a consistent, equitable, and unbiased logic for costing of

L0:material transactions; and

L1:(2) Assess its MMAS and take reasonable action to comply with the MMAS

L0:standards in paragraph (e) of this clause.

L1:(c) Disclosure and maintenance requirements. The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Have policies, procedures, and operating instructions that adequately

L0:describe its MMAS;

L1:(2) Provide to the Administrative Contracting Officer (ACO), upon request, the

L0:results of internal reviews that it has conducted to ensure compliance with established

L0:MMAS policies, procedures, and operating instructions; and

L1:(3) Disclose significant changes in its MMAS to the ACO at least 30 days prior

L0:to implementation.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L1:(d) System criteria. The MMAS shall have adequate internal controls to ensure

L0:system and data integrity, and shall?

L1:(1) Have an adequate system description including policies, procedures, and L0:operating instructions that comply with the FAR and Defense FAR Supplement;
L1:(2) Ensure that costs of purchased and fabricated material charged or allocated
L0:to a contract are based on valid time-phased requirements as impacted by L0:minimum/economic order quantity restrictions.
L1:(i) A 98 percent bill of material accuracy and a 95 percent master production
L0:schedule accuracy are desirable as a goal in order to ensure that requirements are both L0:valid and appropriately time-phased.
L1:(ii) If systems have accuracy levels below these, the Contractor shall provide L0:adequate evidence that?
L0:levels; and
L1:(A) There is no material harm to the Government due to lower accuracy
L0:impact on the Government;
L1:(B) The cost to meet the accuracy goals is excessive in relation to the L1:(3) Provide a mechanism to identify, report, and resolve system control
L0:weaknesses and manual override. Systems should identify operational exceptions, such L0:as excess/residual inventory, as soon as known;
L1:(4) Provide audit trails and maintain records (manual and those in machine-
L0:readable form) necessary to evaluate system logic and to verify through transaction
L0:testing that the system is operating as desired;
L1:(5) Establish and maintain adequate levels of record accuracy and include
L0:reconciliation of recorded inventory quantities to physical inventory by part number on L0:a periodic basis. A 95 percent accuracy level is desirable. If systems have an accuracy
L0:level below 95 percent, the Contractor shall provide adequate evidence that?
L1:(i) There is no material harm to the Government due to lower accuracy
L0:levels; and
L1:(ii) The cost to meet the accuracy goal is excessive in relation to the impact
L0:on the Government;
L1:(6) Provide detailed descriptions of circumstances that will result in manual or
L0:system generated transfers of parts;
L1:(7) Maintain a consistent, equitable, and unbiased logic for costing of material
L0:transactions as follows:
L1:(i) The Contractor shall maintain and disclose written policies describing L0:the transfer methodology and the loan/pay-back technique.
L1:(ii) The costing methodology may be standard or actual cost, or any of the L0:inventory costing methods in 48 CFR 9904.411-50(b). The Contractor shall maintain
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242
L0:consistency across all contract and customer types, and from accounting period to L0:accounting period for initial charging and transfer charging.
L1:(iii) The system should transfer parts and associated costs within the same
L0:billing period. In the few instances where this may not be appropriate, the Contractor
L0:may accomplish the material transaction using a loan/pay-back technique. The L0:loan/pay-back technique means that the physical part is moved temporarily from the L0:contract, but the cost of the part remains on the contract. The procedures for the L0:loan/pay-back technique must be approved by the ACO. When the technique is used,

L0:the Contractor shall have controls to ensure?

L1:(A) Parts are paid back expeditiously;

L0:might occur;

L1:(B) Procedures and controls are in place to correct any overbilling that

L0:and the date the part was borrowed; and

L1:(C) Monthly, at a minimum, identification of the borrowing contract

L0:contract;

L1:(D) The cost of the replacement part is charged to the borrowing

L1:(8) Where allocations from common inventory accounts are used, have controls

L0:(in addition to those in paragraphs (d)(2) and (7) of this clause) to ensure that?

L1:(i) Reallocations and any credit due are processed no less frequently than

L0:the routine billing cycle;

L1:(ii) Inventories retained for requirements that are not under contract are

L0:not allocated to contracts; and

L1:(iii) Algorithms are maintained based on valid and current data;

L1:(9) Have adequate controls to ensure that physically commingled inventories

L0:that may include material for which costs are charged or allocated to fixed-price, cost-

L0:reimbursement, and commercial contracts do not compromise requirements of any of L0:the standards in paragraphs (d)(1) through (8) of this clause. Government-furnished

L0:material shall not be?

L1:(i) Physically commingled with other material; or

L1:(ii) Used on commercial work; and

L1:(10) Be subjected to periodic internal reviews to ensure compliance with

L0:established policies and procedures.

L1:(e) Material weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer will provide an initial determination to the L0:Contractor, in writing, of any material weaknesses. The initial determination will

L0:describe the underlying deficiency in sufficient detail to allow the Contractor to

L0:understand the weaknesses or deficiencies.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L1:(2) The Contractor shall respond within 30 days to a written initial

L0:determination from the Contracting Officer that identifies material weaknesses in the L0:Contractor's MMAS. If the Contractor disagrees with the initial determination, the

L0:Contractor shall state, in writing, its rationale for disagreeing.

L1:(3) The Contracting Officer will evaluate the Contractor's response and notify

L0:the Contractor, in writing, of the Contracting Officer's final determination concerning?

L1:(i) Remaining material weaknesses;

L1:(ii) The adequacy of any proposed or completed corrective action; and

L1:(iii) System disapproval if the Contracting Officer determines that one or

L0:more material weaknesses remain.

L1:(f) If the Contractor receives the Contracting Officer's final determination of

L0:material weaknesses, the Contractor shall, within 45 days of receipt of the final

L0:determination, either correct the material weaknesses or submit an acceptable

L0:corrective action plan showing milestones and actions to eliminate the material
L0:weaknesses.

L1:(g) Withholding payments. If the Contracting Officer makes a final determination

L0:to disapprove the Contractor's MMAS, and the contract includes the clause at 252.242-

L0:7998, Contractor Business Systems, the Contracting Officer will withhold payments in

L0:accordance with that clause.

L0:As prescribed in 242.7001, use the following clause:

L0:CONTRACTOR BUSINESS SYSTEMS (DEVIATION 2026-O0050) (MAR 2026)

L0:Accounting Standards under 41 U.S.C. chapter 15, as implemented in regulations found

L0:at 48 CFR 9903.201-1 (see the FAR Appendix).

L1:(b) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:Acceptable contractor business systems? means contractor business systems that

L0:comply with the terms and conditions of the applicable business system clauses listed in

L0:the definition of "contractor business systems" in this clause.

L0:Contractor business systems? means?

L1:(1) Accounting system, if this contract includes the clause at 252.242-7999,

L0:Accounting System Administration;

L1:(2) Earned value management system, if this contract includes the clause at

L1:(3) Estimating system, if this contract includes the clause at 252.215-7002, Cost

L0:Estimating System Requirements;

L0:clause at 252.242-7997, Material Management and Accounting System;

L1:(5) Property management system, if this contract includes the clause at

L0:252.245-7003, Contractor Property Management System Administration; and

L1:(6) Purchasing system, if this contract includes the clause at 252.244-7998,

L0:Contractor Purchasing System Administration.

L0:Material weakness? means a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in the internal

L0:control over information in contractor business systems, such that there is a reasonable

L0:possibility that a material misstatement of such information will not be prevented, or

L0:detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the

L0:likelihood of an event occurring is?

L1:(1) Probable; or

L1:(2) More than remote but less than likely (section 806 of Pub. L. 116-283).

L1:(c) General. The Contractor shall establish and maintain acceptable business

L0:systems in accordance with the terms and conditions of this contract.

L1:(d) Material weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall respond, in writing, within 30 days to an initial

L0:determination that there are one or more material weaknesses in one or more of the L0:Contractor?s business systems.

L1:(2) The Contracting Officer will evaluate the Contractor's response and notify

L0:the Contractor, in writing, of the final determination as to whether the Contractor?s

L0:business system contains material weaknesses. If the Contracting Officer determines

L0:that the Contractor?s business system contains material weaknesses, the final

L0:determination will include a notice to withhold payments.

L1:(e) Withholding payments.

L1:(1) If the Contracting Officer issues the final determination with a notice to

L0:withhold payments for material weaknesses in a contractor business system required

L0:under this contract, the Contracting Officer will withhold 5 percent of amounts due

L0:from progress payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor,

L0:in writing, to withhold 5 percent from its billings on interim cost vouchers on cost-

L0:reimbursement, labor-hour, and time-and-materials contracts until the Contracting

L0:Officer has determined that the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as L0:directed by the Contracting Officer?s final determination. The Contractor shall, within

L0:45 days of receipt of the notice, either correct the weaknesses or submit an acceptable

L0:corrective action plan showing milestones and actions to eliminate the weaknesses.

L1:(2) If the Contractor submits an acceptable corrective action plan within 45

L0:days of receipt of a notice of the Contracting Officer?s intent to withhold payments, and

L0:the Contracting Officer, in consultation with the auditor or functional specialist,

L0:determines that the Contractor is effectively implementing such plan, the Contracting

L0:Officer will reduce withholding directly related to the material weaknesses covered

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L0:under the corrective action plan, to 2 percent from progress payments and performance-

L0:based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to reduce the percentage

L0:withheld on interim cost vouchers to 2 percent until the Contracting Officer determines

L0:the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting

L0:Officer?s final determination. However, if at any time, the Contracting Officer

L0:determines that the Contractor has failed to follow the accepted corrective action plan,

L0:the Contracting Officer will increase withholding from progress payments and

L0:performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to increase the

L0:percentage withheld on interim cost vouchers to the percentage initially withheld, until

L0:the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor has corrected all material

L0:weaknesses as directed by the Contracting Officer?s final determination.

L1:(3) Payment withhold percentage limits.

L1:(i) The total percentage of payments withheld on amounts due under each

L0:progress payment, performance-based payment, or interim cost voucher on this contract

L0:shall not exceed?

L0:contractor business system; and

L1:(A) Five percent for one or more material weaknesses in any single

L0:business systems.

L1:(B) Ten percent for material weaknesses in multiple contractor

L1:(ii) If this contract contains pre-existing withholds, and the application of

L0:any subsequent payment withholds will cause withholding under this clause to exceed

L0:the payment withhold percentage limits in paragraph (e)(3)(i) of this clause, the

L0:Contracting Officer will reduce the payment withhold percentage in the final

L0:determination to an amount that will not exceed the payment withhold percentage

L0:limits.

L1:(4) For the purpose of this clause, payment means any of the following

L0:payments authorized under this contract:

L1:(i) Interim payments under?

L1:(A) Cost-reimbursement contracts;

L1:(B) Incentive type contracts;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L1:(6) The withholding of any amount or subsequent payment to the Contractor

L0:shall not be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies the Government has under

L0:this contract.

L1:(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of any clause in this contract providing for

L0:interim, partial, or other payment withholding on any basis, the Contracting Officer

L0:may withhold payment in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

L1:(8) The payment withholding authorized in this clause is not subject to the L0:interest-penalty provisions of the Prompt Payment Act.

L1:(f) Correction of weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer, in writing, when the

L0:Contractor has corrected the business system's weaknesses.

L1:(2) Once the Contractor has notified the Contracting Officer that all weaknesses

L0:have been corrected, the Contracting Officer will take one of the following actions:

L1:(i) If the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor has corrected

L0:all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting Officer's final determination, the

L0:Contracting Officer will, as appropriate, discontinue the withholding of progress

L0:payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to

L0:discontinue the payment withholding from billings on interim cost vouchers under this

L0:contract associated with the Contracting Officer's final determination, and authorize

L0:the Contractor to bill for any monies previously withheld that are not also being

L0:withheld due to other material weaknesses. Any payment withholding under this

L0:contract due to other material weaknesses will remain in effect until the Contracting

L0:Officer determines that those material weaknesses are corrected.

L1:(ii) If the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor still has

L0:material weaknesses, the Contracting Officer will continue the withholding of progress
L0:payments and performance-based payments, and the Contractor shall continue
L0:withholding amounts from its billings on interim cost vouchers in accordance with L0:paragraph (e) of this clause, and not bill for any monies previously withheld.
L1:(iii) If the Contracting Officer determines, based on the evidence submitted
L0:by the Contractor, that there is a reasonable expectation that the corrective actions
L0:have been implemented and are expected to correct the material weaknesses, the L0:Contracting Officer will discontinue withholding payments, release any payments
L0:previously withheld directly related to the material weaknesses identified in the L0:Contractor notification, direct the Contractor, in writing, to discontinue the payment
L0:withholding from billings on interim cost vouchers associated with the Contracting
L0:Officer's final determination, and authorize the Contractor to bill for any monies
L0:previously withheld.
L1:(iv) If, within 90 days of receipt of the Contractor notification that the L0:Contractor has corrected the material weaknesses, the Contracting Officer has not
L0:made a determination in accordance with paragraph (f)(2)(i), (ii), or (iii) of this clause,
L0:the Contracting Officer will reduce withholding directly related to the material
L0:weaknesses identified in the Contractor notification by at least 50 percent of the L0:amount being withheld from progress payments and performance-based payments, and L0:direct the Contractor, in writing, to reduce the payment withholding from billings on
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242
L0:interim cost vouchers directly related to the material weaknesses identified in the L0:Contractor notification by a specified percentage that is at least 50 percent, but not L0:authorize the Contractor to bill for any monies previously withheld until the L0:Contracting Officer makes a determination in accordance with paragraph (f)(2)(i), (ii), or L1:(iii) of this clause.
L1:(v) At any time after the Contracting Officer reduces or discontinues the L0:withholding of progress payments and performance-based payments, or directs the L0:Contractor to reduce or discontinue the payment withholding from billings on interim
L0:cost vouchers under this contract, if the Contracting Officer determines that the L0:Contractor has failed to correct the material weaknesses identified in the Contractor's
L0:notification, the Contracting Officer will reinstate or increase withholding from progress
L0:payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to L0:reinstate or increase the percentage withheld on interim cost vouchers to the L0:percentage initially withheld, until the Contracting Officer determines that the L0:Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting
L0:Officer's final determination.

 L0:when, for example, contract work is performed at locations geographically separated from L0:the contract administration office. In lieu of transferring contract administration responsibility
 L0:through a secondary contract administration delegation, a GFR from one unit may be L0:delegated GFR responsibility from an outside contract administration organization that has L0:retained contract administration responsibility. This is accomplished through the use of a

L1:(D) Closeout Deployment Report (ACR-05). Lists all deployments where L0:the actual deployment end date was entered more than three days after the actual L0:deployment end date.

L1:(E) Open/Blank In-Theater Arrival Date (ITAD) Report (ACR- 06). Lists
 L0:where the ITAD was not entered into SPOT within 15 days after the estimated deployment

L1:(iii) Obtain a TOPSS account by following the TOPPS PKI Certificate

L0:Registration instructions at <https://www.acq.osd.mil/asds/log/cso/ocs/spot.html>.

L0:for reviewing contractor operations (see paragraph (d) of this section);

L1:(A) Preparing and maintaining an annual written cost monitoring plan
L1:(B) Maintaining an inventory of planned and completed CAO, Defense

L0:monitoring functions performed during the Government fiscal year.

L1:(I) Preparing a final cost monitoring report summarizing all of the cost
L1:(viii) The contract auditor is responsible for assisting the CMS by performing L0:the portion of cost monitoring plan and related analyses that requires access to the L0:contractor's financial and accounting records supporting the cost or pricing data. (This L0:does not preclude the program manager, contracting officer, ACO, CMS, or other L0:representatives from reviewing contractor records and data necessary to the L0:performance of their duties.)

L1:(C) The plan should include reviews required by the ACO and DFARS.

L0:Reviews will be performed by the assigned organization during the coordination phase

L0:purchasing system reviews and 215.305-70(c)(3) makes the DCAA auditor responsible

L0:for leading estimating system reviews on behalf of the ACO.

L1:(xi) The CAO selects the activities for the cost monitoring plan. DCAA will

L0:complete its annual audit plan independently and communicate the approved audit plan

Upon receipt of an acceptable corrective action plan Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42 Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242 and my determination that this corrective action plan is being effectively implemented, I will issue a notification with respect to reducing the percentage being withheld to two percent until I determine that all material weaknesses, as identified in this final determination, have been corrected. Failure to follow the accepted corrective action plan will result in an increase in the percentage withheld against each payment under this contract to five percent (or a lesser percentage if five percent will exceed the withhold limitations in DFARS 252.242-7998). L1:(3) Final determination.

L2:(ii)(A) Monitoring contractor's corrective action. The contracting officer, with the

L0:assistance of the auditor, must monitor the contractor's progress in correcting material

L0:weaknesses and deficiencies. If the contractor fails to make adequate progress, the

L0:contracting officer must take whatever action is necessary to ensure that the contractor

L0:corrects the weaknesses and deficiencies. Actions the contracting officer may take include:

L0:PGI 242.7401 Procedures.

L1:(1) When the program, project, or system manager determines that a technical

L0:representative is required, the manager must issue a letter of intent to the contract

L0:administration office commander listing the assignment location, starting and ending

L0:assignment dates, technical duties assigned, delegated authority, and support required from

L0:the contract administration office. Any issues regarding the assignment of a technical

L0:representative should be resolved promptly. However, final decision on the assignment

L0:remains with the program manager. Issues regarding the assignment of technical duties

L0:that cannot be resolved between the program office and the on-site DoD contract

L0:administration office will be elevated.

L1:(2) The program, project, or system manager will furnish the designated technical

L0:representative a letter of assignment of delegated technical duties, with copies to the

L0:contract administration office, the contracting officer, and the contractor, at least 30 days

L0:before the assignment date (or termination date). Any changes to the requirements of the

L0:assignment letter will be made by a new letter of intent and processed in accordance with

L0:paragraph (1) of this section.

L1:(3) The contract administration office normally provides the technical representative with

L0:office space, equipment, supplies, and part-time clerical support. The program, project, or

L0:system manager provides supervision, technical direction, administrative services (e.g., pay, L0:travel, maintenance of personnel records), and, when required, full-time clerical support.

L1:(4) The program manager or designee and the contract administration office, at the local

L0:be included in an existing MOA, if one exists, or as a separate MOA.

L1:(5) The technical representative must keep the contract administration office

L1:(3) Final determination.

L2:(ii)(A) Monitoring contractor's corrective action. In collaboration with the auditor,

L0:monitor the contractor's progress in correcting material weaknesses and deficiencies. If the

L0:contractor fails to make adequate progress, take whatever action is necessary to ensure that

L0:the contractor corrects the material weaknesses and deficiencies. Potential actions include:

L0:disapproving the system; bringing the issue to the attention of higher level management, as

L0:applicable; and for material weaknesses, implementing or increasing the withholding in

L0:accordance with 252.242-7998, Contractor Business Systems.

L1:(B) Correction of material weaknesses.

L1:(1) When the contractor notifies the contracting officer that the

L0:contractor has corrected the material weaknesses; request that the auditor review the

L0:correction to determine if the weaknesses and deficiencies have been resolved.

L1:(2) Determine if the contractor has corrected the material weaknesses.

L1:(3) If the contracting officer determines the contractor has corrected the

L0:material weaknesses, send the contracting officer's notification to the auditor; payment

L0:office; appropriate action officers responsible for reporting past performance at the requiring

L0:activities; and each contracting and contract administration office having substantial

L0:business with the contractor as applicable.

L1:(g) Mitigating the risk of material weaknesses and system deficiencies on specific

L1:(2) When identified deficiencies impact negotiations of a proposal, consider the L0:following taking alternative actions, including?

L1:(i) Allowing the contractor additional time to correct the deficiency and submit a

L0:corrected proposal;

L1:(ii) Considering another type of contract;

L1:(iii) Using additional cost analysis techniques to determine the

L0:reasonableness of the cost elements affected by the deficiency;

L1:(iv) Reducing the negotiation objective for profit or fee; or

L1:(v) Adding a contract (reopener) clause that provides for adjustment of the L0:contract amount after award.

L1:(3) When incorporating a contract reopener clause, negotiate price adjustments

L0:required by the clause. A contract reopener clause based upon a deficiency should?

L0:negotiation;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 42

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 242

L1:(ii) Indicate a specific time or subsequent event by which the contractor will

L0:submit a supplemental proposal, including certified cost or pricing data, identifying the cost

L0:impact adjustment necessitated by the deficient accounting system;

L1:(iii) Provide for the contracting officer to adjust the contract price unilaterally if

L0:the contractor fails to submit the supplemental proposal; and

L1:(iv) Provide that failure of the Government and the contractor to agree to the L0:price adjustment must be a dispute under the Disputes clause.

L0:by that office or, at its request, by the contract administration office.
L0:PGI 242.7603-2 Postaward conference procedure.
L2:(c)(1) The chairperson of the conference conducts the meeting. Unless a contract

L0:contract.
L1:(2) The contracting officer may make commitments or give directions within the
L0:scope of the contracting officer's authority and must put in writing and sign any commitment
L0:or direction, whether or not it changes the contract.
L1:(3) Any change to the contract that results from the postaward conference must be
L0:made only by a contract modification referencing the applicable terms of the contract.
L0:Participants without authority to bind the Government must not take action that in any way
L0:alters the contract.
L1:(4) The chairperson develops a postaward conference report that reflects all the

L0:PGI 245.4?TITLE TO GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

L0:PGI 245.402 Title to contractor-acquired property.

L0:PGI 245.402-70 Policy.

L0:Title vests in the Government for all property acquired or fabricated by the contractor in

L0:accordance with paragraph (e)(3) of the clause at FAR 52.245-1, Government Property.

L0:Oversight and visibility of contractor-acquired property (CAP) is accomplished through

L0:reviews and audits of contractor business systems, including?

L1:(1) Accounting systems (see DFARS 242.75);

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(2) Property management systems (see DFARS 245.105); and

L1:(3) Material management and accounting systems (see DFARS 242.72).

L0:PGI 245.402-71 Delivery of contractor-acquired property.

L1:(1) A line item is required for the delivery of CAP. This includes property delivered

L0:to the Government as part of a sustainment contract or similar arrangement where the

L0:Government is contracting for a level of performance which will require the contractor to

L0:deliver items in support of that performance.

L1:(2) The contractual transfer of accountability of CAP from one contract to another is

L0:prohibited. Only upon delivery under a line item can property be transferred to other

L0:contracts as Government-furnished property (GFP) (see PGI 245.103-71).

L1:(3) Upon delivery and acceptance by the Government, and when retained by the

L0:contractor for use under a contract, the delivered CAP items become GFP and must be

L0:added to the contract GFP attachment (see PGI 245.103-72).

L1:(4) Contractor-acquired property not anticipated at time of contract award.

L1:(i) For CAP not anticipated at the time of contract award, or not otherwise

L0:specified for delivery on an existing line item, the contracting officer will direct delivery of L0:the CAP items to the Government on a not separately priced (NSP) line item (e.g.

L0:contract line item, exhibit line item, etc.). Such items are typically identified through?

L1:(A) Plant clearance in accordance with the clause at DFARS 252.245-7005,

L0:Management and Reporting of Government Property.

L1:(B) Inventory reports provided by the contractor in accordance with FAR

L0:clause 52.245-1; or

L1:(C) Other reporting requirements, such as CDRLs, specified in the contract.

L1:(ii) The contracting officer will direct delivery of CAP on a line item as soon as L0:the CAP item is identified, if?

L1:(A) The value of the item meets or exceeds the capitalization threshold as

L0:identified in the memorandum issued jointly by the Under Secretary of Defense (USD)

L0:Comptroller and the USD (Acquisition and Sustainment) on 20 September 2013,

L0:entitled, ?Elimination of Military Equipment Definition and Increase to Capitalization

L0:Thresholds for General Property, Plant and Equipment? (available L0:at <http://www.acq.osd.mil/pepolicy/pdfs/FinancialReportingGPPEMemo.pdf>) or;
L1:(B) The item is special tooling, special test equipment, or equipment
L0:designated for preservation and storage under a major defense acquisition program
L0:(reference: Section 815 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2009 L0:(Pub. L. 110-417)).
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245
L1:(iii) Each NSP line item of CAP to be delivered to the Government must include
L0:the following information:
L1:(A) Line Item Number
L1:(B) Item Description
L1:(C) Either a National Stock Number, manufacturers CAGE and L0:Part Number, or a Model Number
L1:(D) Quantity
L1:(E) Unit of Measure
L1:(F) Date placed in Service by the Contractor
L0:PGI 245.602-1 Inventory Disposal Schedules
L0:For termination inventory, plant clearance officers must verify inventory schedules,
L0:either directly or through appropriate technical personnel, to determine the following:
L1:(a) Allocability.
L1:(1) Review contract requirements, delivery schedules, bills of material, and
L0:other pertinent documents to determine whether schedules include property that?
L1:(i) Is appropriate for use on the contract; or L1:(ii) Exceeds the quantity required for completion of the contract, but could L0:be diverted to other commercial work or Government use.
L1:(2) Review the contractor's?
L1:(i) Recent purchases of similar material;
L1:(ii) Plans for current and scheduled production;
L1:(iii) Stock record entries; and
L1:(iv) Bills of material for similar items.
L1:(b) Quantity. Take measures to provide assurance that available inventory is in L0:accordance with quantities listed on the inventory schedules. Quantities may be verified
L0:by actual item count, acceptance of labeled quantities in unopened/sealed packages,
L0:scale counts, or other appropriate methods.
L1:(c) Condition. Ensure that the physical condition of the property is reasonably
L0:consistent with the Federal Condition Code supplied by the contractor.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245
L0:PGI 245.604 Sale of surplus personal property.
L0:When selling surplus personal property, plant clearance officers are required to follow
L0:the following procedures.
L1:(a) Best value sales approach. Plant clearance officers must determine a best
L0:value sales approach, considering costs, risks, and benefits, e.g., potential sales
L0:proceeds.

L1:(b) Invitation for bid procedures. The plant clearance officer may direct the L0:contractor to issue informal invitations for bid (orally, telephonically, or by other informal L0:media), provided?

L1:(1) Maximum practical competition is obtained;

L1:(2) Sources solicited are recorded; and

L1:(3) Informal bids are confirmed in writing.

L1:(c) Sale approval and award. Plant clearance officers must?

L1:(1) Evaluate bids to establish that the sale price is fair and reasonable, taking
L0:into consideration?

L1:(i) Knowledge or tests of the market;

L1:(ii) Current published prices for the property;

L1:(iii) The nature, condition, quantity, and location of the property; and

L1:(iv) Past sale history for like or similar items;

L1:(2) Approve award to the responsible bidder whose bid is most advantageous to L0:the Government. The plant clearance officer must not approve award to any bidder who L0:is an ineligible transferee, as defined in 252.245-7005, Management and Reporting of L0:Government Property; and

L1:(3) Notify the contractor of the bidder to whom an award will be made within 5
L0:business days from receipt of bids.

L1:(d) Negotiated sales.

L1:(1) Negotiated sales include purchases or retention at less than cost by the L0:contractor. Negotiated sales are authorized when?

L1:(i) The plant clearance officer determines that this method is essential to L0:expeditious plant clearance; and

L1:(ii) The Government's interests are adequately protected.

L1:(2) Negotiated sales must be at fair and reasonable prices, not less than those
L0:reasonably expected under competitive sales.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(3) Conditions justifying negotiated sales are?

L1:(i) No acceptable bids are received under competitive sale;

L1:(ii) Anticipated sales proceeds do not warrant competitive sale;

L1:(iii) Specialized nature of the property would not create bidder interest;

L1:(iv) Removal of the property would reduce its value or result in L0:disproportionate handling expenses; or

L1:(v) Such action is essential to the Government's interests.

L1:(e) Plant clearance officers must consider any special disposal requirements such
L0:as demilitarization or trade security control requirements in accordance with DoDM
L0:4160.28-M, Defense Demilitarization Manual, and DoDI 2030.08, Implementation of L0:Trade Security Controls (TSCs) for Transfers of DoD Personal Property to Parties
L0:Outside DoD Control, respectively.

245.370 Contracts with foreign governments or international

Status: active

L0:245.370 Contracts with foreign governments or international L0:organizations.

L1:(a) Definition. As used in this subpart?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L0:Major defense equipment? is defined in DoD Directive 2140.2, Recoupment of L0:Nonrecurring Costs on Sales of U.S. Items, as any item of significant military L0:equipment on the United States Munitions List having a nonrecurring research, L0:development, test, and evaluation cost of more than $50 million or a total L0:production cost of more than $200 million.

L1:(b) General.

L1:(1) Approval. A contractor may use Government property on work for L0:foreign governments and international organizations only when approved in writing L0:by the contracting officer having cognizance of the property. The contracting officer L0:may grant approval, provided?

L1:(i) The use will not interfere with foreseeable requirements of the United L0:States;

L1:(ii) The work is undertaken as a DoD foreign military sale; or

L1:(iii) For a direct commercial sale, the foreign country or international L0:organization would be authorized to contract with the department concerned under L0:the Arms Export Control Act.

L1:(2) Use charges.

L1:(i) The Use and Charges clause is applicable on direct commercial sales L0:to foreign governments or international organizations.

L1:(ii) When a particular foreign government or international organization L0:has funded the acquisition of property, do not assess the foreign government or L0:international organization rental charges or nonrecurring recoupments for the use L0:of such property.

L1:(c) Special tooling and special test equipment.

L1:(1) DoD normally recovers a fair share of nonrecurring costs of special
L0:tooling and special test equipment by including these costs in its calculation of the L0:nonrecurring cost recoupment charge when major defense equipment is sold by L0:foreign military sales or direct commercial sales to foreign governments or L0:international organizations.

L1:(2) When the cost thresholds in paragraph (2)(i) of this section are not met,
L0:the contracting officer must assess rental charges for use of special tooling and L0:special test equipment pursuant to the Use and Charges clause if administratively
L0:practicable.

L1:(d) Waivers.

L1:(1) Rental charges for use of U.S. production and research property on L0:commercial sales transactions to the Government of Canada are waived for all
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245
L0:commercial contracts. This waiver is based on an understanding wherein the L0:Government of Canada has agreed to waive its rental charges.

L1:(2) Requests for waiver or reduction of charges for the use of Government
L0:property on work for foreign governments or international organizations must be L0:submitted to the contracting officer, who is authorized to approve the requests in L0:consultation with the appropriate functional specialist.

Upon L0:request of the prospective reutilization, transfer, donation, or sales customer, the L0:plant clearance officer must arrange for inspection of property at the contractor's L0:plant in such a manner as to avoid interruption of the contractor's operations, and L0:consistent with any security requirements.

L0:(End of clause)

L0:and

L1:(vii) Submit a request to buy back or to convert to GFP items of Contractor-

L0:acquired property.

L1:(2) Information regarding the GFP module is available in the GFP Module

L1:(5) When Government property is in the possession of subcontractors, the

L0:Contractor shall ensure that reporting is accomplished using the data elements
L0:required in paragraph (c) of this clause.

L0:property to the GFP module, the Contractor's property records, in addition to the L0:requirements of paragraph (f)(1)(iii) of the FAR 52.245-1 clause of this contract,
L0:shall enable recording of the following data elements:

L0:Contractor?

L1:(1) Shall assign the UII and mark the reparable items identified as serially
L0:managed in the GFP attachment to this contract with an item unique identification

L1:(IUID) data matrix, when the technical drawing for the item is accessible to the L0:Contractor and includes IUID data matrix location and marking method;

L1:(2) Shall report the UII either before or during shipment of the repaired
L0:item;

L1:(3) Is not required to mark items that were previously marked with an IUID
L0:data matrix and registered in accordance with DFARS 252.211-7003, Item Unique
L0:Identification and Valuation; and

L1:(4) Shall assign a new UII, then mark and register the item, when the L0:conditions of paragraph (d)(1) are met, if an item is found to be marked but not
L0:registered in the IUID Registry.

L0:serial number for all aircraft under FSCs 1510 and 1520.

L1:(2) If the schedules are acceptable, the plant clearance officer will confirm

L0:acceptance in the GFP module plant clearance capability, which will transmit a
 L0:notification to the Contractor. The electronic acceptance is equivalent to the DD
 L0:Form 1637, Notice of Acceptance of Inventory.

L1:(f) Demilitarization, mutilation, and destruction. If demilitarization, mutilation,
 L0:or destruction of contractor inventory is required, the Contractor shall demilitarize,

 L0:conditions of the contract and consistent with Defense Demilitarization Manual,
 L0:DoD Manual (DoDM) 4160.28-M, edition in effect as of the date of this contract. If

L1:(g) Classified Contractor inventory. The Contractor shall dispose of classified
 L0:contractor inventory in accordance with applicable security guides and regulations
 L0:or as directed by the Contracting Officer.

L1:(h) Inherently dangerous Contractor inventory. Contractor inventory that is L0:dangerous to public health or safety shall not be disposed of unless rendered
 L0:innocuous or until adequate safeguards are provided.

 L0:terms and conditions, property disposition shall be in accordance with foreign and L0:U.S. laws and regulations, including laws and regulations involving export controls, L0:host nation requirements, final governing standards, and government-to-L0:government agreements. The Contractor's responsibility to comply with all
 L0:applicable laws and regulations regarding export-controlled items exists
 L0:independent of, and is not established or limited by, the information provided by L0:this clause.

L1:(j) Disposal of scrap?(1) Contractor scrap procedures.

L1:(i) The Contractor shall include, within its property management
 L0:procedure, a process for the accountability and management of Government-owned
 L0:scrap. The process shall, at a minimum, provide for the effective and efficient
 L0:disposition of scrap, including sales to scrap dealers, so as to minimize costs,
 L0:maximize sales proceeds, and contain the necessary internal controls for mitigating
 L0:the improper release of non-scrap property.

L1:(ii) The Contractor may commingle Government and contractor-owned
 L0:scrap and provide routine disposal of scrap, with plant clearance officer
 L0:concurrence, when determined to be effective and efficient.

L0:opening to allow adequate opportunity to inspect the property and prepare bids.

L1:(vi) For large sales, the Contractor may use summary lists of items offered as bid
L0:sheets with detailed descriptions attached.

L1:(vii) In addition to providing notice of the proposed sale to prospective
L0:bidder, the Contractor may, when the results are expected to justify the additional L0:expense, display a notice of the proposed sale in appropriate public places, e.g.,
L0:publish a sales notice on the internet, in appropriate trade journals or magazines,
L0:and in local newspapers.

L1:(viii) The plant clearance officer or designated Government
L0:representative will witness the bid opening. The Contractor shall submit the bid

L0:any of the property, the Purchaser agrees to obtain the appropriate U.S. and L0:foreign export or re-export license approval.?"

L1:(ii) For sales contracts that require demilitarization, mutilation, or L0:destruction of property:
L0:?"The following items [insert list provided by plant clearance officer] require L0:demilitarization, mutilation, or destruction by the Purchaser. Additional L0:instructions are provided in accordance with Defense Demilitarization Manual,
L0:DoDM 4160.28-M, edition in effect as of the date of this sales contract. A

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(iv) Assumption of cost incident to demilitarization:

L0:~The Purchaser agrees to assume all costs incident to the demilitarization and to

L0:Purchaser, in which case the Purchaser hereby agrees to pay to the Contractor,

L0:prior to the return of the property, all costs incurred by the Contractor in

L0:repossessing, demilitarizing, and returning the property;

L1:(B) Repossess, demilitarize, and resell the property, and charge the

L0:defaulting Purchaser with all costs incurred by the Contractor. The Contractor

L0:shall deduct these costs from the purchase price and refund the balance of the

L0:purchase price, if any, to the Purchaser. In the event the costs exceed the purchase

L0:price, the defaulting Purchaser hereby agrees to pay these costs to the Contractor;

L0:or

L1:(C) Repossess and resell the property under similar terms and

L0:conditions and charge the defaulting Purchaser with all costs incurred by the

L0:Contractor. The Contractor shall deduct these costs from the original purchase price

L0:and refund the balance of the purchase price, if any, to the defaulting Purchaser.

L0:Should the excess costs to the Contractor exceed the purchase price, the defaulting

L0:Purchaser hereby agrees to pay these costs to the Contractor.?

L1:(I) Restrictions on purchase or retention of Contractor inventory. The Contractor

L0:contractor inventory.

L1:(m) Proceeds from sales of surplus property. Unless otherwise provided in the L0:contract, the proceeds of any sale, purchase, or retention shall be?

L1:(1) Forwarded to the Contracting Officer;

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(2) Credited to the Government as part of the settlement agreement

L0:pursuant to the termination of the contract;

L1:(3) Credited to the price or cost of the contract; or

L1:(4) Applied as otherwise directed by the Contracting Officer.

L0:(End of clause)

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L0:PGI Part 245?GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

L0:PGI 245.1?GENERAL

L0:PGI 245.102-70 Policy.

L1:(1) A basic principle of the Federal Acquisition Regulations System is that, upon

L0:contract award, contractors bring all the necessary organization, experience, accounting

L0:and operational controls, property, and technical skills, or the ability to obtain them

L0:(reference FAR 9.104-1 (e), (f), and (g) of General Standards). Therefore, upon

L0:contract award, responsible contractors should have the means to provide effective and

L0:efficient stewardship of Government property.

L1:(2) Government property, as defined at FAR 45.101, must be contractually

L0:accountable to a single contract and only one contract at a time. This requirement

L0:applies to both Government-furnished property and contractor-acquired property.

L0:Although accountable to only one contract at a time, contract terms and conditions may

L0:allow Government property to be used on other contracts (see FAR 52.245-9, Use and L0:Charges).

L0:PGI 245.103 General.

L0:PGI 245.103-70 Furnishing Government property to contractors.

L1:(1) The requiring activity (project or program manager, or purchase request

L0:generator), as part of its responsibility for acquisition planning (FAR part 7, Acquisition

L0:Planning), is the decision point as to whether or not to furnish property to contractors.

L0:The basis for any decision to provide Government property must be documented by the L0:requiring activity and provided to the contracting officer. Such documentation is not

L0:required when contractors are furnished property for repair, modification, or overhaul

L0:under a contract.

L1:(2) Prior to furnishing Government property to the contractor, the contracting officer

L0:must ensure that each of the requirements of FAR 45.102 are addressed as follows,

L0:and documented in the contracting file?

L1:(i) Element 1: In the Government?s best interest. Discussion should be specific,

L0:factual, and where necessary, address actual or projected dollars and percentages.

L0:Merely selecting one or two objectives supported by a general, perfunctory discussion

L0:does not address this element satisfactorily. Discussion should address the following

L0:factors:

L1:(A) Economy - Furnishing Government property is the lowest cost or price

L0:alternative.

L1:(B) Standardization - There is a critical need for precise replication.

L1:(C) Security - Government property is needed due to national security

L0:issues/concerns.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(D) Expedite production - Government property is crucial to achieving

L0:timely or accelerated delivery of a supply item or service.

L1:(E) Scarcity - The Government can obtain scarce items or is the only

L0:source of property necessary for successful execution of a contract.

L1:(F) Maintain the industrial base - Government property is needed to ensure

L0:future capability to obtain a particular supply item or service.

L1:(G) Contract type - Government property will enable the Government to

L0:obtain a more favorable contract type.

L1:(ii) Element 2: Overall benefit. Demonstrate that the overall benefit to

L0:the acquisition significantly outweighs the increased cost of administration, including

L0:property disposal.

L1:(A) Property in the hands of contractors drives program costs.

L0:Therefore, in order to make the case that providing Government property to the

L0:contractor is worthwhile, the associated costs must be considered and the business

L0:decision justified. The costs of Government property removal and disposal, including

L0:demilitarization and disposal of environmentally-regulated property, must be included.

L1:(B) Costs must be either less than what the contractor might

L0:otherwise incur, or the demonstrated benefit to the Government must outweigh these

L0:additional contract costs.

L1:(iii) Element 3: Government assumption of risk. Demonstrate that providing the L0:property does not substantially increase the Government's risk.

L1:(A) Risk must be discussed and documented. A risk analysis is warranted

L0:to demonstrate that the Government is not substantially increasing its risk. For

L0:example, when furnishing Government property, the Government is ordinarily

L0:responsible for suitability of use, timely delivery, and replacement of defective

L0:Government property.

L1:(B) Other risks may need to be considered, discussed, and documented.

L1:(iv) Element 4: Government requirements cannot otherwise be met. Document

L0:why the furnishing of Government property is critical and significant to meeting

L0:acquisition plan objectives.

L0:PGI 245.103-71 Transferring Government property accountability.

L1:(1) Use only the Standard Form 30 to execute transfers of Government property

L0:accountability between existing contracts. No other forms or documents, such as the

L0:DD Form 1149, Requisition and Invoice/Shipping Document, are authorized for the

L0:transfer of Government property accountability from one contract to another.

L1:(2) Modifications for the transfer of Government property accountability must:

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245

L1:(i) Use the Government-furnished property (GFP) attachment prescribed at

L0:PGI 245.103-72.

L1:(ii) Incorporate FAR clauses 52.245-1, Government Property, and 52.245-9,

L0:Use and Charges, and the associated DFARS clauses (see 245.107, Contract clauses)

L0:to the extent that the gaining contract lacks the required clauses.

L0:PGI 245.103-72 Government-furnished property attachments to solicitations and L0:awards.

L1:(a) When Government-furnished property (GFP) is anticipated, create the GFP

L0:attachment in the GFP module of the Procurement Integrated Enterprise Environment

L1:(PIEE) at <https://piee.eb.mil/piee-landing> to?

L1:(1) Specify the required GFP data elements; and L1:(2) Identify GFP serially-managed items, GFP nonserially-managed items, and L0:GFP items that may be requisitioned from the DoD supply system by the contractor; and L1:(3) Accomplish the electronic transmission of the GFP attachment to the L0:contract in the Electronic Data Access application in the PIEE.
L1:(4) Where the GFP attachment is classified, the PIEE GFP Module must not be
L0:used, but a property attachment with similar data is required for the contract.
L1:(b) Classified contracts are not exempt from including GFP attachments solely L0:because the contracts are classified.
L1:(c) For more information on the GFP attachments,
L0:see <https://dodprocurementtoolbox.com/site-pages/gfp-attachments>.
L0:PGI 245.103-73 Government property under sustainment contracts.
L1:(1) Sustainment contracts, including those for performance-based logistics,
L0:sustainment support, contractor logistics support, life-cycle product support, contractor
L0:inventory control points, and weapon systems product support (see 10 U.S.C. 4324(d)),
L0:may require the contractor to hold or manage Government inventory. In such cases, L0:regularly scheduled (typically, semiannually) inventory reporting from the contractor is L0:required to ensure that inventory levels meet program requirements and Government
L0:inventory in excess of authorized amounts is identified. The requiring activity is L0:responsible for providing the contracting officer with reporting requirements for L0:Government inventory. See the Data Item Description DI-PSSS-80727A, Government
L0:Furnished Material (GFM) by National Stock Number, and the instructions for L0:completing the DD Form 1423 Contract Data Requirements List (CDRL) for inventory
L0:reporting requirements on sustainment contracts available at L0:<http://dodprocurementtoolbox.com/site-pages/gfp-resources>.
L1:(2) During acquisition planning, pricing contracts, exercising options, and assessing
L0:past performance, contracting officers should review the requiring activity's assessment
L0:of the information generated by the inventory reporting requirements.
L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 45
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 245
L1:(3) In some circumstances, under fixed-price sustainment contracts, contract
L0:deliverables consist of non-hardware items, such as operational readiness rate goals or L0:mean time between failures of a system. In order to meet these deliverables, L0:contractors are required to provide certain property items to the Government. In such L0:cases, the contract does not include specific delivery line items requiring formal delivery
L0:of the property. By extension, the Government will not have title to the property at the L0:time the contractor provides the property. Not separately priced line items must be L0:included in the contract for the delivery of items in accordance with FAR 4.1003. Tables
L0:of unit acquisition prices may be included in the contract to use as the unit price on the L0:receiving report.
L0:PGI 245.103-74 Contracting office responsibilities.
L1:(1) Prepare the GFP attachments in accordance with the procedures in PGI

L1:(b) Alternative Procedures?Contract Release for Shipment.

L1:(1) For foreign military sales contracts, do not use alternative procedures.

L1:(2) The contract administration office may authorize, in writing, the L0:contractor to release supplies for shipment when?

L1:(i) The stamping or signing of the shipping papers by a representative of L0:the contract administration office interferes with the operation of the Government
L0:contract quality assurance program or takes too much of the Government
L0:representative's time;

L1:(ii) There is sufficient continuity of production to permit the Government
L0:to establish a systematic and continuing evaluation of the contractor's control of L0:quality; and

L1:(iii) The contractor has a record of satisfactory quality, including that L0:pertaining to preparation for shipment.

L1:(3) The contract administration office must withdraw, in writing, the L0:authorization when there is an indication that the conditions in paragraph (b)(2) of L0:this section no longer exist.

L1:(4) When the alternative procedure is used, require the contractor to?

L1:(i) Type or stamp, and sign, the following statement on the required copy

L0:assurance provisions that reference higher-level contract quality requirements
L0:(see 246.202-4); or

L0:Obtain warranties on technical data when practicable and cost effective. Consider L0:the factors in FAR 46.703 in deciding whether to obtain warranties of technical L0:data. Consider the following in deciding whether to use extended liability
L0:provisions?
L1:(1) The likelihood that correction or replacement of the nonconforming data, or a

L0:formulas, and/or specifications.

L0:Authorized supplier means a supplier, distributor, or an aftermarket

L0:manufacturer with a contractual arrangement with, or the express written

L0:authority of, the original manufacturer or current design activity to buy, stock,

L0:repackage, sell, or distribute the part.

L0:another company under the label or brand name of that company.

L0:Contractor-approved supplier means a supplier that does not have a contractual

L0:agreement with the original component manufacturer for a transaction, but has

L0:been identified as trustworthy by a contractor or subcontractor.

L0:Counterfeit electronic part means an unlawful or unauthorized reproduction,

L0:substitution, or alteration that has been knowingly mismarked, misidentified, or

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 46

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246

L0:otherwise misrepresented to be an authentic, unmodified electronic part from the

L0:original manufacturer, or a source with the express written authority of the original

L0:manufacturer or current design activity, including an authorized aftermarket

L0:manufacturer. Unlawful or unauthorized substitution includes used electronic

L0:parts represented as new, or the false identification of grade, serial number, lot

L0:number, date code, or performance characteristics.

L0:Electronic part means an integrated circuit, a discrete electronic component

L0:(including, but not limited to, a transistor, capacitor, resistor, or diode), or a circuit

L0:assembly (section 818(f)(2) of Pub. L. 112-81).

L0:Obsolete electronic part means an electronic part that is no longer available from

L0:the original manufacturer or an authorized aftermarket manufacturer.

L0:Original component manufacturer means an organization that designs and/or

L0:engineers a part and is entitled to any intellectual property rights to that part.

L0:Original equipment manufacturer means a company that manufactures products

L0:that it has designed from purchased components and sells those products under the

L0:company's brand name.

L0:Original manufacturer means the original component manufacturer, the original

L0:equipment manufacturer, or the contract manufacturer.

L0:Suspect counterfeit electronic part means an electronic part for which credible

L0:evidence (including, but not limited to, visual inspection or testing) provides

L0:reasonable doubt that the electronic part is authentic.

L1:(b) Acceptable counterfeit electronic part detection and avoidance system. The L0:Contractor shall establish and maintain an acceptable counterfeit electronic part

L0:detection and avoidance system. Failure to maintain an acceptable counterfeit

L0:electronic part detection and avoidance system, as defined in this clause, may result

L0:in disapproval of the purchasing system by the Contracting Officer and/or

L0:withholding of payments and affect the allowability of costs of counterfeit electronic

L0:parts or suspect counterfeit electronic parts and the cost of rework or corrective

L0:action that may be required to remedy the use or inclusion of such parts (see L0:DFARS 231.205-71).

L1:(c) System criteria. A counterfeit electronic part detection and avoidance system

L0:shall include risk-based policies and procedures that address, at a minimum, the

L0:following areas:

L1:(1) The training of personnel.

L1:(2) The inspection and testing of electronic parts, including criteria for

L0:acceptance and rejection. Tests and inspections shall be performed in accordance

L0:with accepted Government- and industry-recognized techniques. Selection of tests

L0:and inspections shall be based on minimizing risk to the Government.

L0:Determination of risk shall be based on the assessed probability of receiving a

L0:counterfeit electronic part; the probability that the inspection or test selected will

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 46

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246

L0:detect a counterfeit electronic part; and the potential negative consequences of a

L0:counterfeit electronic part being installed (e.g., human safety, mission success)

L0:where such consequences are made known to the Contractor.

L1:(3) Processes to abolish counterfeit parts proliferation.

L1:(4) Risk-based processes that enable tracking of electronic parts from the

L0:original manufacturer to product acceptance by the Government, whether the

L0:electronic parts are supplied as discrete electronic parts or are contained in

L0:assemblies, in accordance with paragraph (c) of the clause at 252.246-7008, Sources

L0:of Electronic Parts (also see paragraph (c)(2) of this clause).

L1:(5) Use of suppliers in accordance with the clause at 252.246-7008.

L1:(6) Reporting and quarantining of counterfeit electronic parts and suspect

L0:counterfeit electronic parts. Reporting is required to the Contracting Officer and to

L0:the Government-Industry Data Exchange Program (GIDEP) when the Contractor

L0:becomes aware of, or has reason to suspect that, any electronic part or end item,

L0:component, part, or assembly containing electronic parts purchased by the DoD, or

L0:purchased by a Contractor for delivery to, or on behalf of, the DoD, contains

L0:counterfeit electronic parts or suspect counterfeit electronic parts. Counterfeit

L0:electronic parts and suspect counterfeit electronic parts shall not be returned to the

L0:seller or otherwise returned to the supply chain until such time that the parts are

L0:determined to be authentic.

L1:(7) Methodologies to identify suspect counterfeit parts and to rapidly

L0:determine if a suspect counterfeit part is, in fact, counterfeit.

L1:(8) Design, operation, and maintenance of systems to detect and avoid

L0:counterfeit electronic parts and suspect counterfeit electronic parts. The Contractor

L0:may elect to use current Government- or industry-recognized standards to meet this

L0:requirement.

L0:including applicable system criteria provided herein, to subcontractors at all levels

L0:in the supply chain that are responsible for buying or selling electronic parts or

L0:assemblies containing electronic parts, or for performing authentication testing.

L1:(10) Process for keeping continually informed of current counterfeiting

L0:information and trends, including detection and avoidance techniques contained in

L0:appropriate industry standards, and using such information and techniques for

L0:continuously upgrading internal processes.

L1:(11) Process for screening GIDEP reports and other credible sources of

L0:counterfeiting information to avoid the purchase or use of counterfeit electronic L0:parts.

L1:(12) Control of obsolete electronic parts in order to maximize the availability

L0:and use of authentic, originally designed, and qualified electronic parts throughout

L0:the product's life cycle.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 46

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246

L1:(d) Government review and evaluation of the Contractor's policies and

L0:procedures will be accomplished as part of the evaluation of the Contractor's
L0:purchasing system in accordance with 252.244-7001, Contractor Purchasing System
L0:Administration?Basic, or Contractor Purchasing System Administration?
L0:Alternate I.

L0:excluding the introductory text and including only paragraphs (a) through (e), in L0:subcontracts, including subcontracts for commercial products, for electronic parts or L0:assemblies containing electronic parts.

L0:formulas, and/or specifications.
L0:Authorized supplier means a supplier, distributor, or an aftermarket
L0:manufacturer with a contractual arrangement with, or the express written
L0:authority of, the original manufacturer or current design activity to buy, stock,
L0:repackage, sell, or distribute the part.
L0:Contract manufacturer means a company that produces goods under contract for
L0:another company under the label or brand name of that company.
L0:Contractor-approved supplier means a supplier that does not have a contractual
L0:agreement with the original component manufacturer for a transaction, but has
L0:been identified as trustworthy by a contractor or subcontractor.
L0:Electronic part means an integrated circuit, a discrete electronic component
L0:(including, but not limited to, a transistor, capacitor, resistor, or diode), or a circuit
L0:assembly (section 818(f)(2) of Pub. L. 112-81).

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 46
L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246
L0:Original manufacturer means the original component manufacturer, the original
L0:equipment manufacturer, or the contract manufacturer.
L1:(b) Selecting suppliers. In accordance with section 818(c)(3) of the National L0:Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L. 112-81), as amended by L0:section 817 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015 (Pub. L. 113-291 and section 885 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2016 (Pub. L. 114-92)), the Contractor shall?

L1:(1) First obtain electronic parts that are in production by the original

L0:manufacturer or an authorized aftermarket manufacturer or currently available in L0:stock from?

L1:(i) The original manufacturers of the parts;

L1:(ii) Their authorized suppliers; or

L1:(iii) Suppliers that obtain such parts exclusively from the original

L0:manufacturers of the parts or their authorized suppliers;

L1:(2) If electronic parts are not available as provided in paragraph (b)(1) of

L0:this clause, obtain electronic parts that are not in production by the original

L0:manufacturer or an authorized aftermarket manufacturer, and that are not

L0:currently available in stock from a source listed in paragraph (b)(1) of this clause,

L0:from suppliers identified by the Contractor as contractor-approved suppliers,

L0:provided that?

L1:(i) For identifying and approving such contractor-approved suppliers,

L0:the Contractor uses established counterfeit prevention industry standards and

L0:processes (including inspection, testing, and authentication), such as the DoD-

L0:adopted standards at <https://assist.dla.mil>;

L1:(ii) The Contractor assumes responsibility for the authenticity of parts

L0:provided by such contractor-approved suppliers; and

L1:(iii) The Contractor's selection of such contractor-approved suppliers is

L0:subject to review, audit, and approval by the Government, generally in conjunction

L0:with a contractor purchasing system review or other surveillance of purchasing

L0:practices by the contract administration office, or if the Government obtains

L0:credible evidence that a contractor-approved supplier has provided counterfeit

L0:parts. The Contractor may proceed with the acquisition of electronic parts from a

L0:contractor-approved supplier unless otherwise notified by DoD; or

L2:(3)(i) Take the actions in paragraphs paragraph (b)(3)(ii) of this clause if the

L0:Contractor?

L1:(A) Obtains an electronic part from?

L0:paragraph (b)(1) or (b)(2) of this clause, due to nonavailability from such sources; or

L1:(1) A source other than any of the sources identified in

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 46

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246

L0:refuses to accept flowdown of this clause; or

L1:(2) A subcontractor (other than the original manufacturer) that

L1:(B) Cannot confirm that an electronic part is new or previously

L0:unused and that it has not been comingled in supplier new production or stock with

L0:used, refurbished, reclaimed, or returned parts.

L1:(ii) If the contractor obtains an electronic part or cannot confirm an

L0:electronic part pursuant to paragraph (b)(3)(i) of this clause?

L1:(A) Promptly notify the Contracting Officer in writing. If such

L0:notification is required for an electronic part to be used in a designated lot of

L0:assemblies to be acquired under a single contract, the Contractor may submit one
L0:notification for the lot, providing identification of the assemblies containing the L0:parts (e.g., serial numbers);
L0:accordance with existing applicable industry standards; and L1:(B) Be responsible for inspection, testing, and authentication, in L0:such electronic parts available to the Government upon request.
L1:(C) Make documentation of inspection, testing, and authentication of L1:(c) Traceability. If the Contractor is not the original manufacturer of, or L0:authorized supplier for, an electronic part, the Contractor shall?
L1:(1) Have risk-based processes (taking into consideration the consequences of L0:failure of an electronic part) that enable tracking of electronic parts from the L0:original manufacturer to product acceptance by the Government, whether the L0:electronic part is supplied as a discrete electronic part or is contained in an L0:assembly;
L1:(2) If the Contractor cannot establish this traceability from the original
L0:manufacturer for a specific electronic part, be responsible for inspection, testing,
L0:and authentication, in accordance with existing applicable industry standards; and L2:(3)(i) Maintain documentation of traceability (paragraph (c)(1) of this L0:clause) or the inspection, testing, and authentication required when traceability
L0:cannot be established (paragraph (c)(2) of this clause) in accordance with FAR
L0:subpart 4.7; and
L1:(ii) Make such documentation available to the Government upon

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 246
L1:(2) Purchasing electronic parts from suppliers accredited by the Defense
L0:Microelectronics Activity; or
L1:(3) Requisitioning electronic parts from Government inventory/stock under L0:the authority of 252.251-7000, Ordering from Government Supply Sources.
L1:(i) The cost of any required inspection, testing, and authentication of L0:such parts may be charged as a direct cost.
L1:(ii) The Government is responsible for the authenticity of the L0:requisitioned parts. If any such part is subsequently found to be counterfeit or L0:suspect counterfeit, the Government will?
L1:(A) Promptly replace such part at no charge; and L1:(B) Consider an adjustment in the contract schedule to the extent
L0:that replacement of the counterfeit or suspect counterfeit electronic parts caused a
L0:delay in performance.
L1:(e) Subcontracts. The Contractor shall include the substance of this clause,

L0:PGI 247.5?OCEAN TRANSPORTATION BY U.S.-FLAG VESSELS

L0:PGI 247.573 General.
L1:(a) Delegated authority.
L1:(1) The authority to make determinations that a U.S.-flag vessel is not available at a
L0:fair and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States, or is otherwise not

L0:available, is delegated in the Secretary of Defense Memorandum dated August 25, 2021,

L0:to?

L1:(i) The Commander, United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM);

L0:and

L1:(ii) The Secretary of the Navy.

L1:(2) In accordance with the Commander, USTRANSCOM, Memorandum dated

L0:March 1, 2023, the authority at paragraph (a)(1) of this section is further delegated as

L0:follows:

L1:(i) The Director, Acquisition (TCAQ) is delegated the authority to make

L0:determinations that a U.S.-flag vessel is not available for liner or intermodal services at a fair

L0:and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States.

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 47

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 247

L1:(ii) The Commander, United States Army Transportation Command

L1:(ARTRANS) is delegated the authority to make determinations that a U.S.-flag vessel is

L0:otherwise not available for liner or intermodal services.

L1:(iii) The Commander, Military Sealift Command (MSC) is delegated the

L0:authority to make determinations that a U.S.-flag vessel is not available at a fair and

L0:reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States or is otherwise not available for

L0:charter contracts.

L1:(3) In accordance with the Secretary of the Navy Memorandum dated March 3,

L0:2022, the Commander, MSC is delegated the authority to make determinations that a U.S.-

L0:flag vessel is not available at a fair and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United

L0:States or is otherwise not available for charter contracts.

L1:(4) Contracting officers are not delegated the authority at paragraph (a)(1) of this

L0:section and therefore are not authorized to waive the use of U.S.-flag vessels.

L1:(b) Procedures.

L1:(1) Follow these procedures when ocean transportation is not the principal purpose

L0:of the contract, and the cargo to be transported is owned by, destined for use by, or

L0:otherwise transported by DoD.

L2:(i)(A) If the contractor notifies the contracting officer that the contractor

L0:considers that no U.S.-flag vessels are available, review that notification. If the contracting

L0:officer agrees with the contractor's request, then request a nonavailability waiver, in

L0:determination and findings format, using details received from the contractor in accordance

L0:with paragraph (d) of the clause at DFARS 252.247-7023, from?

L0:Management Directorate, MSC (MSC_N103_FFW@us.navy.mil), for vessel charters; or

L1:(1) The Commander, MSC, through the Contracts and Business

L0:usarmy.scott.sddc.mbx.g3

L0:ffw-team@army.mil for ocean liner and intermodal transportation.

L1:(2) The Commander, ARTRANS, by email at

L1:(B) Pursuant to their delegations from the Secretary of the Navy or the

L0:?

L0:Commander, USTRANSCOM, the Commander, MSC, or the Commander, ARTRANS, will

L0:make a determination to approve a waiver based on nonavailability of a U.S.-flag vessel.

L0:Upon receipt of an approved waiver, provide the contractor with written approval to use a

L0:non-U.S. flag carrier in accordance with that waiver. Variances from that approved waiver, including changing the foreign-flag vessel approved for use, may require a new request and approval from the cognizant waiver approval authority. Additionally, see contractors' bill of lading submission requirement at paragraph (e) of the clause at DFARS 252.247-7023.

L1:(ii) If the contractor notifies the contracting officer that the contractor considers that U.S.-flag carriers are not available at a fair and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States, and if the contracting officer agrees with the contractor's assertion, then?

L1:(A) Prepare a waiver request in determination and findings format, and?

L0:Revolutionary Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Overhaul Part 47

L0:Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) Part 247

L1:(1) Take into consideration that the Military Cargo Preference Act of 1904 is, in part, a subsidy of the U.S.-flag commercial shipping industry that recognizes that lower prices may be available from foreign-flag carriers. Therefore, a lower price for use of a foreign-flag vessel is not a sufficient basis, on its own, to determine that a U.S.-flag vessel is not available at a fair and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States for the services sought. However, such a price differential may indicate a need for further review;

L1:(2) Include a description of efforts taken pursuant to FAR 15.405 to negotiate a reasonable price. For the purpose of FAR 15.405(d), this waiver request is the referral to a level above the contracting officer; and factors such as?

L1:(3) Include an analysis of price reasonableness, taking into account or for similar services;

L1:(i) A comparison of U.S.-flag rates charged on comparable routes,

L1:(ii) Any other relevant economic and financial considerations; and L1:(B) Forward the waiver request to?

L0:Management Directorate, MSC (MSC_N103_FFW@us.navy.mil), for charters; or

L1:(1) The Commander, MSC, through the Contracts and Business

L1:(2) The USTRANSCOM Director of Acquisition, through the Sealift

L0:Services Division (transcom.scott.tcaq.mbx.i-foreign-flag-waiver@mail.mil), for ocean liner and intermodal transportation.

L1:(C) Pursuant to their delegations from the Secretary of the Navy and the Commander, USTRANSCOM, the Commander, MSC, or the USTRANSCOM Director of Acquisition, will make a determination whether to approve the request that a U.S.-flag vessel is not available at a fair and reasonable rate for commercial vessels of the United States. Upon receipt of an approved waiver, provide the contractor with written approval to use a non-U.S. flag carrier, in accordance with the terms of that waiver. Variances from that approved waiver, including changing the foreign-flag vessel approved for use, may require a new request and approval from the cognizant waiver approval authority. Additionally, see contractors' bill of lading submission requirement at paragraph (e)(1) of the clause at DFARS L0:252.247-7023.

L1:(2) Follow these procedures when the direct purchase of ocean transportation services is the principal purpose of the contract.

L1:(i) Direct purchase of ocean transportation may include?

L1:(A) Contracts for full or partial charter vessel services;
L1:(B) Dedicated contractor contracts for charter vessel services;

L1:(D) Subcontracts under Government contracts or agreements for ocean

L0:Transportation and Traffic Management, and DoDI 4500.57, Transportation and Traffic

L1:(iii) All solicitations within the scope of this section must provide?
L0:Preference Act of 1904;

L0:247.572(d).
L1:(iv) Do not award a contract of the type described in paragraph (b)(2)(i) of this

L0:This subpart?

L1:(a) Implements?

Status: active

L1:(1) The Military Cargo Preference Act of 1904 (?the 1904 Act?), 10 U.S.C. 2631, L0:which applies to the ocean transportation of cargo owned by, destined for use by, or
L0:otherwise transported by DoD;

L1:(2) Section 1017 of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal L0:Year (FY) 2007 (Pub. L. 109-364) (10 U.S.C. 2631 note), which requires consideration, in L0:solicitations requiring a covered vessel, of the extent to which offerors have had L0:overhaul, repair, and maintenance work performed in shipyards located in the United L0:States or Guam;

L1:(3) Section 3504 of the NDAA for FY 2009 (Pub. L. 110-417) (10 U.S.C. chapter L0:257 note), which addresses requirements that apply to riding gang members and DoD-
L0:exempted individuals (see 252.247-7027(c)) who perform work on U.S.-flag vessels
L0:under DoD contracts for transportation services documented under 46 U.S.C. chapter
L0:121; and

L1:(4) Section 1024 of the NDAA for FY 2021 (Pub. L. 116-283), which updates the L0:listed circumstances where DoD may waive the requirement that DoD supplies be L0:transported by sea in vessels belonging to the United States or vessels of the United L0:States, and it modifies the requirement for reflagging or repair work in the United L0:States for vessels used under time-charter contracts.

L1:(b) Does not specifically implement the Cargo Preference Act of 1954 (?the 1954 L0:Act?), 46 U.S.C. chapter 553. The 1954 Act is applicable to DoD, but DFARS coverage is

Status: active

L0:252.215-7010 Requirements for Certified Cost or Pricing Data and Data Other Than Certified Cost or Pricing Data.

L0:Basic. As prescribed in 215.408 (5)(i) and (5)(i)(A), use the following provision:

L0:REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFIED COST OR PRICING DATA AND DATA OTHER THAN CERTIFIED COST OR L0:PRICING DATA?BASIC (MAY 2024)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this provision?

L0:Market prices? means current prices that are established in the course of ordinary trade between buyers and sellers free to

L0:bargain and that can be substantiated through competition or from sources independent of the offerors.

L0:Non-Government sales? means sales of the supplies or services to non-Governmental entities for purposes other than

L0:governmental purposes.

L0:Relevant sales data? means information provided by an offeror on sales of the same or similar items that can be used to

L0:establish price reasonableness taking into consideration the age, volume, and nature of the transactions (including any L0:related discounts, refunds, rebates, offsets, or other adjustments).

L0:Sufficient non-Government sales means relevant sales data that reflects market pricing and contains enough information to L0:make adjustments covered by Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 15.404-1(b)(2)(ii)(B).

L0:Uncertified cost data? means the subset of ?data other than certified cost or pricing data? (see FAR 2.101) that relates to L0:cost.

L1:(b) Exceptions from certified cost or pricing data.

L1:(1) In lieu of submitting certified cost or pricing data, the Offeror may submit a written request for exception by submitting

L0:the information described in paragraphs (b)(1)(i) and (ii) of this provision. The Contracting Officer may require additional

L0:supporting information, but only to the extent necessary to determine whether an exception should be granted and whether

L0:the price is fair and reasonable.

L1:(i) Exception for prices set by law or regulation - Identification of the law or regulation establishing the prices offered. If

L0:the prices are controlled under law by periodic rulings, reviews, or similar actions of a governmental body, attach a copy of

L0:the controlling document, unless it was previously submitted to the contracting office.

L1:(ii) Commercial product or commercial service exception. For a commercial product or commercial service exception, the

L0:Offeror shall submit, at a minimum, information that is adequate for determining commerciality and evaluating the

L0:reasonableness of the price for this acquisition, including prices at which the same product or service or similar products or

L0:services have been sold in the commercial market. Such information shall include?

L1:(A) For items previously determined to be commercial, the contract number and military department, defense agency, or

L0:other DoD component that rendered such determination, and if available, a Government point of contact;

L1:(B) For subsystems of a major weapon system and components and spare parts of a major weapon system or subsystem of L0:a major weapon system that have not previously been determined to be commercial?

L1:(1) The comparable commercial product the Offeror sells to the general public or nongovernmental entities;

L1:(2) A comparison between the physical characteristics and functionality of the comparable commercial product and the L0:subsystem, component, or spare part, including?

L1:(i) For products under paragraph (3)(i) of the "commercial product" definition at FAR 2.101, a description of the

L0:modification and documentation to support that the modification is customarily available in the marketplace; or

L1:(ii) For products under paragraph (3)(ii) of the "commercial product" definition at FAR 2.101, a detailed description of the

L0:modification and detailed technical data to demonstrate that the modification is minor (e.g., information on production

L0:processes and material differences); and

L1:(3) The national stock number (NSN) for the comparable commercial product, if one is assigned, and the NSN for the

L0:subsystem, component, or spare part, if one is assigned; or

L1:(4) If the Offeror does not sell a comparable commercial product to the general public or nongovernmental entities for

L0:purposes other than government purposes, the Offeror shall?

L1:(i) Notify the Contracting Officer in writing that it does not sell such a comparable product; and

L1:(ii) Provide the Contracting Officer with a comparison of the physical characteristics and functionality of the most

L0:comparable commercial product in the commercial market.

L1:(C) For items priced based on a catalog?

L1:(1) A copy of or identification of the Offeror's current catalog showing the price for that item; and

L1:(2) If the catalog pricing provided with this proposal is not consistent with all relevant sales data, a detailed description of

L0:differences or inconsistencies between or among the relevant sales data, the proposed price, and the catalog price

L0:(including any related discounts, refunds, rebates, offsets, or other adjustments);

L1:(D) For items priced based on market pricing, a description of the nature of the commercial market, the methodology used

L0:to establish a market price, and all relevant sales data. The description shall be adequate to permit DoD to verify the

L0:accuracy of the description;

L1:(E) For items included on an active Federal Supply Service Multiple Award Schedule contract, proof that an exception has

L0:been granted for the schedule item; or

L1:(F) For items provided by nontraditional defense contractors, a statement that the entity is not currently performing and has

L0:not performed, for at least the 1-year period preceding the solicitation of sources by DoD for the procurement or

L0:transaction, any contract or subcontract for DoD that is subject to full coverage under the cost accounting standards

L0:prescribed pursuant to 41 U.S.C. 1502 and the regulations implementing such section.

L1:(2) The Offeror grants the Contracting Officer or an authorized representative the right to examine, at any time before

L0:award, books, records, documents, or other directly pertinent records to verify any request for an exception under this

L0:provision, and to determine the reasonableness of price.

L1:(c) Requirements for certified cost or pricing data. If the Offeror is not granted an exception from the requirement to

L0:submit certified cost or pricing data, the following applies:

L1:(1) The Offeror shall prepare and submit certified cost or pricing data and supporting attachments in accordance with the

L0:instructions contained in Table 15-2 of FAR 15.408, which is incorporated by reference with the same force and effect as

L0:though it were inserted here in full text. The instructions in Table 15-2 are incorporated as a mandatory format to be used in

L0:any resultant contract, unless the Contracting Officer and the Offeror agree to a different format and change this provision

L0:to use Alternate I.

L1:(2) As soon as practicable after agreement on price, but before contract award (except for unpriced actions such as letter L0:contracts), the Offeror shall submit a Certificate of Current Cost or Pricing Data, as prescribed by FAR 15.406-2.

L1:(3) The Offeror is responsible for determining whether a subcontractor qualifies for an exception from the requirement for

L0:submission of certified cost or pricing data on the basis of adequate price competition, i.e., two or more responsible

L0:offerors, competing independently, submit priced offers that satisfy the Government's expressed requirement in accordance

L0:with FAR 15.403-1(c)(1)(ii).

L1:(d) Requirements for data other than certified cost or pricing data.

L1:(1) Data other than certified cost or pricing data submitted in accordance with this provision shall include the minimum

L0:information necessary to permit a determination that the proposed price is fair and reasonable, to include the requirements

L0:in Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) 215.402(a)(i), 215.404-1(b), and 234.7002(e).

L1:(2) In cases in which uncertified cost data is required, the information shall be provided in the form in which it is regularly

L0:maintained by the Offeror or prospective subcontractor in its business operations.

L1:(3) If the Offeror redacts data that identifies the customer (see DFARS 234.7002(e)(2)), then the Offeror shall include, for

L0:each sale, the following signed statement with the data submitted:

L0:By submission of this data, the Offeror [Offeror insert company name] certifies that the customer was [Offeror insert one

L0:or more of the following as applicable: a government customer; a commercial customer purchasing the same or similar

L0:product for governmental purposes (e.g., Federal, state, local, or foreign government); or a commercial customer

L0:purchasing the same or similar product for a commercial, mixed, or unknown purpose].?

L1:(4) Within 10 days of a written request from the Contracting Officer for additional information to permit an adequate

L0:evaluation of the proposed price in accordance with FAR 15.403-3 or DFARS 234.7002(e), the Offeror shall provide either

L0:the requested information, or a written explanation for the inability to fully comply.

L1:(5) Subcontract price evaluation. (i) Offerors shall obtain from subcontractors the minimum information necessary to

L0:support a determination of price reasonableness, as described in FAR part 15 and DFARS part 215.

L1:(ii) No cost data may be required from a prospective subcontractor in any case in which there are sufficient nonGovernment sales of the same item to establish reasonableness of price.

L1:(iii) If the Offeror relies on relevant sales data for similar items to determine the price is reasonable, the Offeror shall obtain

L0:only that technical information necessary (A) To support the conclusion that items are technically similar; and

L1:(B) To explain any technical differences that account for variances between the proposed prices and the sales data

L0:presented.

L1:(e) Subcontracts. The Offeror shall insert the substance of this provision, including this paragraph (e), in subcontracts

L0:exceeding the simplified acquisition threshold defined in FAR part 2. The Offeror shall require prospective subcontractors

L0:to adhere to the requirements of <https://www.acquisition.gov/node/36356/printable/print>

L1:(1) Paragraphs (c) and (d) of this provision for subcontracts above the threshold for submission of certified cost or pricing

L0:data in FAR 15.403-4; and

L1:(2) Paragraph (d) of this provision for subcontracts exceeding the simplified acquisition threshold defined in FAR part 2.

L0:(End of provision)

L0:Alternate I. As prescribed in 215.408(5)(i) and (5)(i)(B), use the following provision, which includes a different paragraph

L0:purchased under said contract (e.g., a project to develop or advance a capability, technology transfer, or know-how in a L0:foreign company). Indirect offsets may be accomplished without a clearly defined period of performance.

L1:(b) Exceptions from certified cost or pricing data requirements. Notwithstanding the requirements of Federal Acquisition

L0:Regulation (FAR) 52.215-20, Requirements for Certified Cost or Pricing Data and Data Other Than Certified Cost or L0:Pricing Data, in the case of this contract or a subcontract, and FAR 52.215-21, Requirements for Certified Cost or Pricing

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:?Established price? means a price which is an established catalog or market price for a commercial product sold in L0:substantial quantities to the general public.

L0:?Unit price? excludes any part of the price which reflects requirements for preservation, packaging, and packing beyond

L0:standard commercial practice.

L1:(b) As represented by the Contractor in its offer, the unit price stated for _____(Identify the item) is not

L0:in excess of the Contractor's established price in effect on the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date if this is a

L0:negotiated contract) for like quantities of the same item. This price is the net price after applying any applicable standard

L0:trade discounts offered by the Contractor from its catalog, list, or schedule price.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer of the amount and effective date of each decrease in any L0:established price.

L1:(1) Each corresponding contract unit price shall be decreased by the same percentage that the established price is L0:decreased.

L1:(2) This decrease shall apply to items delivered on or after the effective date of the decrease in the Contractor's established

L0:price.

L1:(3) This contract shall be modified accordingly.

L1:(d) If the Contractor's established price is increased after the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date if this is a

L0:contract unit price;

L1:(2) The increased contract unit price shall be effective on the effective date of the increase in the applicable established

L0:price if the Contractor's written request is received by the Contracting Officer within ten days of the change. If it is not, the

L0:effective date of the increased unit price shall be the date of receipt of the request by the Contracting Officer; and

L1:(3) The increased contract unit price shall not apply to quantities scheduled for delivery before the effective date of the

L0:increased contract unit price unless the Contractor's failure to deliver before that date results from causes beyond the

L0:control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of the Default clause of this contract.

L1:(4) The Contracting Officer shall not execute a modification incorporating an increase in a contract unit price under this

L0:clause until the increase is verified.

L1:(e) Within 30 days after receipt of the Contractor's written request, the Contracting Officer may cancel, without liability to

L0:either party, any portion of the contract affected by the requested increase and not delivered at the time of such

L0:cancellation, except as follows?

L0:ECONOMIC PRICE ADJUSTMENT?NONSTANDARD STEEL ITEMS (JAN 2023)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:?Base labor index? means the average of the labor indices for the three months which consist of the month of bid opening

L0:(or offer submission) and the months immediately preceding and following that month.

L0:?Base steel index? means the Contractor's established price (see Note 6) including all applicable extras of $_____ per

L0:_____ (see Note 1) for _____ (see Note 2) on the date set for bid opening (or the date of submission

L0:of the offer).

L0:?Current labor index? means the average of the labor indices for the month in which delivery of supplies is required to be

L0:made and the month preceding.

L0:?Current steel index? means the Contractor's established price (see Note 6) for that item, including all applicable extras in

L0:effect ____ days (see Note 3) prior to the first day of the month in which delivery is required.

L0:?Established price? is?

L1:(1) A price which is an established catalog or market price of a commercial product sold in substantial quantities to the

L0:general public; and

L0:schedule price. (But see Note 6.)

L0:?Labor index? means the average straight time hourly earnings of the Contractor's employees in the _____ shop of

L0:the Contractor's _____ plant (see Note 4) for any particular month.

L0: "Month" means calendar month. However, if the Contractor's accounting period does not coincide with the calendar month,

L0:then that accounting period shall be used in lieu of "month".

L1:(b) Each contract unit price shall be subject to revision, under the terms of this clause, to reflect changes in the cost of labor

L0:and steel. For purpose of this price revision, the proportion of the contract unit price attributable to costs of labor not otherwise included in the price of the steel item identified under the "base steel index" definition in paragraph (a) shall be

L0:_____ percent, and the proportion of the contract unit price attributable to the cost of steel shall be _____ percent. (See

L0:Note 5.)

L1:(c)(1) Unless otherwise specified in this contract, the labor index shall be computed by dividing the total straight time earnings of the Contractor's employees in the shop identified in paragraph (a) for any given month by the total number of

L0:straight time hours worked by those employees in that month.

L1:(2) Any revision in a contract unit price to reflect changes in the cost of labor shall be computed solely by reference to the L0:"base labor index" and the "current labor index".

L1:(d) Any revision in a contract unit price to reflect changes in the cost of steel shall be computed solely by reference to the L0:"base steel index" and the "current steel index".

L1:(e)(1) Each contract unit price shall be revised for each month in which delivery of supplies is required to be made.

L1:(2) The revised contract unit price shall apply to the deliveries of those quantities required to be made in that month regardless of when actual delivery is made.

L1:(3) Each revised contract unit price shall be computed by adding?

L1:(i) The adjusted cost of labor (obtained by multiplying _____ percent of the contract unit price by a fraction, of which the L0:numerator shall be the current labor index and the denominator shall be the base labor index);

L1:(ii) The adjusted cost of steel (obtained by multiplying _____ percent of the contract unit price by a fraction, of which the L0:numerator shall be the current steel index and the denominator shall be the base steel index); and L1:(iii) The amount equal to _____ percent of the original contract unit price (representing that portion of the unit price which L0:relates neither to the cost of labor nor the cost of steel, and which is therefore not subject to revision (see Note 5)).

L1:(4) The aggregate of the increases in any contract unit price under this contract shall not exceed ten percent of the original

L0:contract unit price.

L1:(5) Computations shall be made to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent.

L1:(f)(1) Pending any revisions of the contract unit prices, the Contractor shall be paid the contract unit price for deliveries

L0:made.

L1:(2) Within 30 days after final delivery (or such other period as may be authorized by the Contracting Officer), the

L0:Contractor shall furnish a statement identifying the correctness of?

L1:(i) The average straight time hourly earnings of the Contractor's employees in the shop identified in paragraph (a) that are

L0:relevant to the computations of the "base labor index" and the "current labor index;" and

L1:(ii) The Contractor's established prices (see Note 6), including all applicable extras for like quantities of the item that are

L0:relevant to the computation of the "base steel index" and the "current steel index."

L1:(3) Upon request of the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall make available all records used in the computation of the L0:labor indices.

L1:(4) Upon receipt of the statement, the Contracting Officer will compute the revised contract unit prices and modify the L0:contract accordingly. No modification to this contract will be made pursuant to this clause until the Contracting Officer has

L0:verified the revised established price (see Note 6).

L1:(g)(1) In the event any item of this contract is subject to a total or partial termination for convenience, the month in which

L0:the Contractor receives notice of the termination, if prior to the month in which delivery is required, shall be considered the

L0:month in which delivery of the terminated item is required for the purposes of determining the current labor and steel

L0:indices under paragraphs (c) and (d).

L1:(2) For any item which is not terminated for convenience, the month in which delivery is required under the contract shall

L0:continue to apply for determining those indices with respect to the quantity of the non-terminated item.

L1:(3) If this contract is terminated for default, any price revision shall be limited to the quantity of the item which has been

L0:delivered by the Contractor and accepted by the Government prior to receipt by the Contractor of the notice of termination.

L1:(h) If the Contractor's failure to make delivery of any required quantity arises out of causes beyond the control and without

L0:the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Default," the quantity

L0:not delivered shall be delivered as promptly as possible after the cessation of the cause of the failure, and the delivery

L0:schedule set forth in this contract shall be amended accordingly.

L0:NOTES:

In

L0:paragraph (e)(3)(iii), insert the percentage representing the difference between the sum of the percentages inserted in

L0:paragraph (b) and 100 percent.

L0:6 In negotiated acquisitions of nonstandard steel items, when there is no ?established price? or when it is not desirable to

L0:use this price, this paragraph may refer to another appropriate price basis, e.g., an established interplant price.

L0:evidence thereof) or an annual performance and payment bond (or evidence thereof).

L1:(b) If the solicitation does not require a bid bond, the Offeror shall not include in the price any contingency to cover the

L0:premium of such a bond.

L1:(c) Even if the solicitation does not require bonds, the Contracting Officer may nevertheless require a performance and

L0:payment bond, in form, amount, and with a surety acceptable to the Contracting Officer. Where performance and payment

L0:bond is required, the offer price shall be increased upon the award of the job order in an amount not to exceed the premium

L0:under the Master Agreement.

L0:(End of clause)

252.217-7009 Default

Status: active

L0:252.217-7009 Default.

L0:As prescribed in 217.7104 (a), use the following clause:

L0:DEFAULT (DEC 1991)

L1:(2) Make progress, so as to endanger performance of the job order; or

L1:(3) Perform any of the other provisions of this agreement or a job order.

L1:(b) Except for defaults of subcontractors, the Contractor shall not be liable for any excess costs if failure to perform the job

L0:include acts of God or of the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires,

L0:floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather.

L1:(c) If the Contractor's failure to perform is caused by the default of a subcontractor, and if such default arises out of causes

L0:beyond the control of both the Contractor and subcontractor, and without the fault or negligence of either, the Contractor

L0:shall not be liable for any excess costs for failure to perform, unless the supplies or services to be furnished by the

L0:subcontractor were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time to permit the Contractor to perform the job order within

L0:the time specified.

L1:(d) If the Government terminates the job order in whole or in part as provided in paragraph (a) of this clause?

L1:(1) The Government may, upon such terms and in such manner as the Contracting Officer may deem appropriate, arrange

L0:by the Contracting Officer.

L1:(i) The Contractor shall continue the performance of the job order to the extent not terminated under the provisions of this

L0:clause.

L1:(ii) If the work is to be completed at the plant, the Government may use all tools, machinery, facilities, and equipment of

L0:the Contractor determined by the Contracting Office to be necessary for that purpose.

L1:(iii) If the cost to the Government of the work procured or completed (after adjusting such cost to exclude the effect of L0:changes in the plans and specifications made subsequent to the date of termination) exceeds the price fixed for work under

L0:the job order (after adjusting such price on account of changes in the plans and specifications made before the date of L0:termination), the Contractor, or the Contractor's surety, if any, shall be liable for such excess.

L1:(2) The Government, in addition to any other rights provided in this clause, may require the Contractor to transfer title and

L0:delivery to the Government, in the manner and to the extent directed by the Contracting Officer, any completed supplies

L0:and such partially completed supplies and materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, plans, drawings, information and

L0:contract rights (hereinafter called "manufacturing materials") as the Contractor has specifically produced or specifically

L0:delivered to and accepted by the Government, and for the protection and preservation of property. Failure to agree shall be

L0:a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the Disputes clause.

L1:(e) If, after notice of termination of the job order, it is determined that the Contractor was not in default, or that the default

L0:was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be the same as if the notice of termination had been issued for

L0:the convenience of the Government.

L1:(f) If the Contractor fails to complete the performance of a job order within the time specified, or any extension, the actual

L0:damage to the Government for the delay will be difficult or impossible to determine.

L1:(1) In lieu of actual damage, the Contractor shall pay to the Government as fixed, agreed, and liquidated damages for each

L0:calendar day of delay the amount, if any, set forth in the job order (prorated to the nearest hour for fractional days).

L1:(2) If the Government terminates the job order, the Contractor shall be liable, in addition to the excess costs provided in

L0:paragraph (d) of this clause, for liquidated damages accruing until such time as the Government may reasonably obtain

L0:completion of the work.

L1:(3) The Contractor shall not be charged with liquidated damages when the delay arises out of causes beyond the control

L0:and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor. Subject to the provisions of the Disputes clause of the Master

L0:Agreement, the Contracting Officer shall ascertain the facts and the extent of the delay and shall extend the time for

L0:performance when in the judgment of the Contracting Officer, the findings of fact justify an extension.

L1:(g) The rights and remedies of the Government provided in this clause shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any

L0:other rights and remedies provided by law under this agreement.

L0:(End of clause)

L0:?Component? means an article, material, or supply incorporated directly into an end product.

L0:delivered in calendar years 2024 through 2028 and 75 percent for items delivered starting in calendar year 2029, unless an

L0:alternate percentage is established for a contract in accordance with FAR 25.101(d), or award is made before January 1,

L0:is considered to have been mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States (regardless of its source in fact)

if the

L0:end product in which it is incorporated is manufactured in the United States and the component is of a class or kind for

L0:which the Government has determined that?

L0:produced in the United States or a qualifying country includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products

L0:(such as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States or a qualifying

L0:country, utilized in the manufacture of the end product and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components

L0:not produced in the United States or a qualifying country, excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown

L0:estimate of the cost of iron or steel components excluding COTS fasteners.

252.225-7009 Restriction on Acquisition of Certain Articles Containing Specialty Metals

Status: active

L0:252.225-7009 Restriction on Acquisition of Certain Articles Containing Specialty Metals.

L0:As prescribed in 225.7003-5(a)(2), use the following clause:

L0:Restriction on Acquisition of Certain Articles Containing Specialty Metals (JAN 2023)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause ?Alloy? means a metal consisting of a mixture of a basic metallic element and one or more metallic, or non-metallic,

L0:alloying elements.

L1:(i) For alloys named by a single metallic element (e.g., titanium alloy), it means that the alloy contains 50 percent or more

L0:of the named metal (by mass).

L1:(ii) If two metals are specified in the name (e.g., nickel-iron alloy), those metals are the two predominant elements in the

L0:alloy, and together they constitute 50 percent or more of the alloy (by mass).

L0:Assembly? means an item forming a portion of a system or subsystem that?

L1:(i) Can be provisioned and replaced as an entity; and

L1:(ii) Incorporates multiple, replaceable parts.

L0:Commercial derivative military article? means an item acquired by the Department of Defense that is or will be produced

L0:using the same production facilities, a common supply chain, and the same or similar production processes that are used for

L0:the production of articles predominantly used by the general public or by nongovernmental entities for purposes other than

L0:governmental purposes.

L0:Commercially available off-the-shelf item??

L1:(i) Means any item of supply that is (A) A commercial product (as defined in paragraph (1) of the definition of ?commercial product? in section 2.101 of the L0:Federal Acquisition Regulation);

L1:(B) Sold in substantial quantities in the commercial marketplace; and

L1:(C) Offered to the Government, under this contract or a subcontract at any tier, without modification, in the same form in

L0:which it is sold in the commercial marketplace; and

L1:(ii) Does not include bulk cargo, as defined in 46 U.S.C. 40102(4), such as agricultural products and petroleum products.

L0:?"Component?" means any item supplied to the Government as part of an end item or of another component.

L0:?"Electronic component?" means an item that operates by controlling the flow of electrons or other electrically charged

L0:particles in circuits, using interconnections of electrical devices such as resistors, inductors, capacitors, diodes, switches,

L0:transistors, or integrated circuits. The term does not include structural or mechanical parts of an assembly containing an

L0:electronic component, and does not include any high performance magnets that may be used in the electronic component.

L0:?"End item?" means the final production product when assembled or completed and ready for delivery under a line item of

L0:this contract.

L0:?"High performance magnet?" means a permanent magnet that obtains a majority of its magnetic properties from rare earth

L0:metals (such as samarium).

L0:?"Produce?" means?

L1:(i) Atomization;

L1:(ii) Sputtering; or

L1:(iii) Final consolidation of non-melt derived metal powders.

L0:?"Qualifying country?" means any country listed in the definition of ?"Qualifying country?" at 225.003 of the Defense Federal L0:Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS).

L0:?"Specialty metal?" means?

L1:(i) Steel?

L1:(A) With a maximum alloy content exceeding one or more of the following limits: manganese, 1.65 percent; silicon, 0.60

L0:percent; or copper, 0.60 percent; or

L1:(B) Containing more than 0.25 percent of any of the following elements: aluminum, chromium, cobalt, molybdenum,

L0:nickel, niobium (columbium), titanium, tungsten, or vanadium;

L1:(ii) Metal alloys consisting of?

L1:(A) Nickel or iron-nickel alloys that contain a total of alloying metals other than nickel and iron in excess of 10 percent; or

L1:(B) Cobalt alloys that contain a total of alloying metals other than cobalt and iron in excess of 10 percent;

L1:(iii) Titanium and titanium alloys; or

L1:(iv) Zirconium and zirconium alloys.

L0:?"Steel?" means an iron alloy that includes between .02 and 2 percent carbon and may include other elements.

L0:?"Subsystem?" means a functional grouping of items that combine to perform a major function within an end item, such as

L0:electrical power, attitude control, and propulsion.

L1:(b) Restriction. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this clause, any specialty metals incorporated in items delivered

L0: under this contract shall be melted or produced in the United States, its outlying areas, or a qualifying country.

L1:(c) Exceptions. The restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause does not apply to?

L1:(1) Electronic components.

L1:(2)(i) Commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) items, other than?

L1:(A) Specialty metal mill products, such as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet, that have not been incorporated into COTS

L0: end items, subsystems, assemblies, or components;

L1:(B) Forgings or castings of specialty metals, unless the forgings or castings are incorporated into COTS end items,

L0: subsystems, or assemblies;

L1:(C) Commercially available high performance magnets that contain specialty metal, unless such high performance magnets

L0: are incorporated into COTS end items or subsystems; and

L1:(D) COTS fasteners, unless?

L1:(1) The fasteners are incorporated into COTS end items, subsystems, assemblies, or components; or

L1:(2) The fasteners qualify for the commercial item exception in paragraph (c)(3) of this clause.

L1:(ii) A COTS item is considered to be "without modification" if it is not modified prior to contractual acceptance by the next

L0: higher tier in the supply chain.

L1:(A) Specialty metals in a COTS item that was accepted without modification by the next higher tier are excepted from the

L0: restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause, and remain excepted, even if a piece of the COTS item subsequently is removed

L0: (e.g., the end is removed from a COTS screw or an extra hole is drilled in a COTS bracket).

L1:(B) Specialty metals that were not contained in a COTS item upon acceptance, but are added to the COTS item after

L0: acceptance, are subject to the restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause (e.g., a special reinforced handle made of specialty

L0: metal is added to a COTS item).

L1:(C) If two or more COTS items are combined in such a way that the resultant item is not a COTS item, only the specialty

L0: metals involved in joining the COTS items together are subject to the restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause (e.g., a L0: COTS aircraft is outfitted with a COTS engine that is not the COTS engine normally provided with the aircraft).

L1:(D) For COTS items that are normally sold in the commercial marketplace with various options, items that include such

L0: options are also COTS items. However, if a COTS item is offered to the Government with an option that is not normally

L0: offered in the commercial marketplace, that option is subject to the restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause (e.g., - An

L0: aircraft is normally sold to the public with an option for installation kits. The Department of Defense requests a military-unique kit. The aircraft is still a COTS item, but the military-unique kit is not a COTS item and must comply with the L0: restriction in paragraph (b) of this clause unless another exception applies).

L1:(3) Fasteners that are commercial products, if the manufacturer of the fasteners certifies it will purchase, during the L0:relevant calendar year, an amount of domestically melted or produced specialty metal, in the required form, for use in the

L0:production of fasteners for sale to the Department of Defense and other customers, that is not less than 50 percent of the

L0:total amount of the specialty metal that it will purchase to carry out the production of such fasteners for all customers.

L1:(4) Items manufactured in a qualifying country.

L1:(5) Specialty metals for which the Government has determined in accordance with DFARS 225.7003-3 that specialty metal

L0:melted or produced in the United States, its outlying areas, or a qualifying country cannot be acquired as and when needed

L0:in?

L1:(i) A satisfactory quality;

L1:(ii) A sufficient quantity; and

L1:(iii) The required form. In accordance with 10 U.S.C. 4863(m)(4), the term "required form" in this clause refers to the form

L0:of the mill product, such as bar, billet, wire, slab, plate, or sheet, in the grade appropriate for the production of a finished

L0:end item to be delivered to the Government under this contract; or a finished component assembled into an end item to be

L0:delivered to the Government under this contract.

L1:(6) End items containing a minimal amount of otherwise noncompliant specialty metals (i.e., specialty metals not melted or

L0:produced in the United States, an outlying area, or a qualifying country, that are not covered by one of the other exceptions

L0:in this paragraph (c)), if the total weight of such noncompliant metals does not exceed 2 percent of the total weight of all

L0:specialty metals in the end item, as estimated in good faith by the Contractor. This exception does not apply to high

L0:performance magnets containing specialty metals.

L1:(d) Compliance for commercial derivative military articles.

L1:(1) As an alternative to the compliance required in paragraph (b) of this clause, the Contractor may purchase an amount of

L0:domestically melted or produced specialty metals in the required form, for use during the period of contract performance in

L0:the production of the commercial derivative military article and the related commercial article, if?

L1:(i) The Contracting Officer has notified the Contractor of the items to be delivered under this contract that have been

L0:determined by the Government to meet the definition of "commercial derivative military article"; and

L1:(ii) For each item that has been determined by the Government to meet the definition of "commercial derivative military

L0:article," the Contractor has certified, as specified in the provision of the solicitation entitled "Commercial Derivative

L0:Military Article"Specialty Metals Compliance Certificate" (DFARS 252.225-7010), that the Contractor and its

L0:subcontractor(s) will enter into a contractual agreement or agreements to purchase an amount of domestically melted or

L0:produced specialty metal in the required form, for use during the period of contract performance in the production of each

L0:commercial derivative military article and the related commercial article, that is not less than the Contractor's good faith

L0:estimate of the greater of?

L1:(A) An amount equivalent to 120 percent of the amount of specialty metal that is required to carry out the production of the

L0:commercial derivative military article (including the work performed under each subcontract); or

L1:(B) An amount equivalent to 50 percent of the amount of specialty metal that will be purchased by the Contractor and its

L0:subcontractors for use during such period in the production of the commercial derivative military article and the related

L0:commercial article.

L1:(2) For the purposes of this alternative, the amount of specialty metal that is required to carry out production of the L0:commercial derivative military article includes specialty metal contained in any item, including COTS items.

L1:(e) Subcontracts.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall exclude and reserve paragraph (d) and this paragraph (e)(1) when flowing down this clause to

L0:subcontracts.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall insert paragraphs (a) through (c) and this paragraph (e)(2) of this clause in subcontracts, including

L0:subcontracts for commercial products, that are for items containing specialty metals to ensure compliance of the end

L0:products that the Contractor will deliver to the Government. When inserting this clause in subcontracts, the Contractor

L0:shall?

L1:(i) Modify paragraph (c)(6) of this clause only as necessary to facilitate management of the minimal content exception at

L0:the prime contract level. The minimal content exception does not apply to specialty metals contained in high-performance

L0:magnets; and

L1:(ii) Not further alter the clause other than to identify the appropriate parties.

252.225-7036 Buy American?Free Trade Agreements?Balance of Payments Program

Status: active

L0:252.225-7036 Buy American?Free Trade Agreements?Balance of Payments Program.

L0:Basic. As prescribed in 225.1101 (10)(i) and (10)(i)(A), use the following clause:

L0:BUY AMERICAN?FREE TRADE AGREEMENTS?BALANCE OF PAYMENTS PROGRAM?BASIC (FEB 2024)

L1:(a) Definitions.As used in this clause?

L0:Bahraini end product means an article that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of Bahrain; or

L1:(2) In the case of an article that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been substantially transformed in Bahrain into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of the

L0:article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply contract,

L0:but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services) incidental to

L0:its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the value of the product itself.

L0:?Commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) item??

L1:(1) Means any item of supply (including construction material) that is?

L1:(i) A commercial product (as defined in paragraph (1) of the definition of ?commercial product? in section 2.101 of the L0:Federal Acquisition Regulation);

L1:(ii) Sold in substantial quantities in the commercial marketplace; and

L1:(iii) Offered to the Government, under a contract or subcontract at any tier, without modification, in the same form in L0:which it is sold in the commercial marketplace; and

L1:(2) Does not include bulk cargo, as defined in 46 U.S.C. 40102(4), such as agricultural products and petroleum products.

L0:?Component? means an article, material, or supply incorporated directly into an end product.

L0:?Critical component ? means a component that is mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States and deemed

L0:critical to the U.S. supply chain. The list of critical components is at FAR 25.105.

L0:?Critical item? means domestic construction material or a domestic end product that is deemed critical to the U.S. supply

L0:chain. The list of critical items is at FAR 25.105.

L0:?Domestic end product? means?

L1:(1) For an end product that does not consist wholly or predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both?

L1:(i) An unmanufactured end product that has been mined or produced in the United States; or

L1:(ii) An end product manufactured in the United States if?

L1:(A) The cost of its qualifying country components and its components that are mined, produced, or manufactured in the

L0:United States exceeds 60 percent of the cost of all its components, except that the percentage will be 65 percent for items

L0:delivered in calendar years 2024 through 2028 and 75 percent for items delivered starting in calendar year 2029, unless an

L0:alternate percentage is established for a contract in accordance with Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement

L1:(DFARS) 225.101(d); or award is made before January 1, 2030, for a foreign end product that exceeds 55 percent domestic

L0:content (see DFARS 225.103(b)(ii)). The cost of components includes transportation costs to the place of incorporation

L0:into the end product and U.S. duty (whether or not a duty-free entry certificate is issued). Components of unknown origin

L0:are treated as foreign. Scrap generated, collected, and prepared for processing in the United States is considered domestic.

L0:A component is considered to have been mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States (regardless of its source in

L0:fact) if the end product in which it is incorporated is manufactured in the United States and the component is of a class or

L0:kind for which the Government has determined that?

L1:(1) Sufficient and reasonably available commercial quantities of a satisfactory quality are not mined, produced, or

L0:manufactured in the United States; or

L1:(2) It is inconsistent with the public interest to apply the restrictions of the Buy American statute; or

L1:(B) The end product is a COTS item; or

L1:(2) For an end product that consists wholly or predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both, an end product

L0:manufactured in the United States, if the cost of iron and steel not produced in the United States or a qualifying country

L0:constitutes less than 5 percent of the cost of all the components used in the end product (produced in the United States or a

L0:qualifying country means that all manufacturing processes of the iron or steel must take place in the United States or a

L0:qualifying country, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives). The cost of iron and steel not

L0:produced in the United States or a qualifying country includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products

L0:(such as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States or a qualifying

L0:country, utilized in the manufacture of the end product and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components

L0:not produced in the United States or a qualifying country, excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown

L0:origin are treated as foreign. If the end product contains multiple components, the cost of all the materials used in such end

L0:product is calculated in accordance with the explanation of cost of components in paragraph (1)(ii)(A) of this definition.

L0:End product? means those articles, materials, and supplies to be acquired under this contract for public use.

L0:Foreign end product? means an end product other than a domestic end product.

L0:transformed in a Free Trade Agreement country into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use

L0:distinct from that of the article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase

L0:under a supply contract, but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except L0:transportation services) incidental to its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the

L0:value of the product itself.

L0:?Moroccan end product? means an article that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of Morocco; or

L1:(2) In the case of an article that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been substantially L0:transformed in Morocco into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of

L0:the article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply L0:contract, but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services)

L0:incidental to its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the value of the product itself.

L0:?Panamanian end product? means an article that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of Panama; or

L1:(2) In the case of an article that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been substantially L0:transformed in Panama into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of the

L0:article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply contract,

L0:but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services) incidental to

L0:its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the value of the product itself.

L0:?Peruvian end product? means an article that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of Peru; or

L1:(2) In the case of an article that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been substantially L0:transformed in Peru into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of the

L0:article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply contract,

L0:but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services) incidental to

L0:its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the value of the product itself.

L0:?Predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both? means that the cost of the iron and steel content exceeds 50

L0:percent of the total cost of all its components. The cost of iron and steel is the cost of the iron or steel mill products (such

L0:as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings utilized in the manufacture of the product and a good faith

L0:estimate of the cost of iron or steel components excluding COTS fasteners.

L0:?Qualifying country? means a country with a reciprocal defense procurement memorandum of understanding or

L0:international agreement with the United States in which both countries agree to remove barriers to purchases of supplies

L0:produced in the other country or services performed by sources of the other country, and the memorandum or agreement

L0:transformed in Bahrain into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of the

L0:article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply contract,

L0:but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services) incidental to

L1:(i) A commercial product (as defined in paragraph (1) of the definition of "commercial product" in section 2.101 of the

L0:delivered in calendar years 2024 through 2028 and 75 percent for items delivered starting in calendar year 2029, unless an

L0:alternate percentage is established for a contract in accordance with Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement

L0:content (see DFARS 225.103(b)(ii)). The cost of components includes transportation costs to the place of incorporation

L0:into the end product and U.S. duty (whether or not a duty-free entry certificate is issued). Components of unknown origin

L0:are treated as foreign. Scrap generated, collected, and prepared for processing in the United States is considered domestic.

L0:A component is considered to have been mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States (regardless of its source in

L0:fact) if the end product in which it is incorporated is manufactured in the United States and the component is of a class or

L0:kind for which the Government has determined that?

L1:(1) Sufficient and reasonably available commercial quantities of a satisfactory quality are not mined, produced, or

L0:manufactured in the United States; or

L0:qualifying country means that all manufacturing processes of the iron or steel must take place in the United States or a

L0:qualifying country, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives). The cost of iron and steel not

L0:produced in the United States or a qualifying country includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products

L0:(such as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States or a qualifying

L0:country, utilized in the manufacture of the end product and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components

L0:not produced in the United States or a qualifying country, excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown

L0:origin are treated as foreign. If the end product contains multiple components, the cost of all the materials used in such end

L0:product is calculated in accordance with the explanation of cost of components in paragraph (1)(ii)(A) of this definition.

L0:Predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both? means that the cost of the iron and steel content exceeds 50

L0:percent of the total cost of all its components. The cost of iron and steel is the cost of the iron or steel mill products (such

L0:transformed in Bahrain into a new and different article of commerce with a name, character, or use distinct from that of the

L0:article or articles from which it was transformed. The term refers to a product offered for purchase under a supply contract,

L0:but for purposes of calculating the value of the end product includes services (except transportation services) incidental to

L0:its supply, provided that the value of those incidental services does not exceed the value of the product itself.

L0:?Commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) item??

L1:(1) Means any item of supply (including construction material) that is?

L1:(i) A commercial product (as defined in paragraph (1) of the definition of ?commercial product? in section 2.101 of the

L0:cost of all its components; calendar years 2024 through 2028, 65 percent of the cost of all its components; or calendar year

L0:2029 or later, 75 percent of the cost of all its components. The cost of components includes transportation costs to the place

L0:of incorporation into the end product and U.S. duty (whether or not a duty-free entry certificate is issued). Components of

L0:(such as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States or a qualifying

L0:country, utilized in the manufacture of the end product and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel

components

L0: not produced in the United States or a qualifying country, excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown

L1:(2) The Contractor's failure to comply with the requirements of this clause will be included in appropriate databases of past

L0:performance and considered in any responsibility determination or evaluation of past performance; and

L1:(3) If this is an award-fee contract, the Contractor's failure to comply with the requirements of this clause shall be

L0:considered in the evaluation of the Contractor's performance during the relevant evaluation period, and the Contracting

L0:Officer may treat such failure to comply as a basis for reducing or denying award fees for such period or for recovering all

L0:or part of award fees previously paid for such period.

L1:(e) Rule of construction. The duty of the Contractor to comply with the requirements of this clause shall not be reduced or

L0:diminished by the failure of a higher- or lower-tier Contractor or subcontractor to comply with the clause requirements or

L0:by a failure of the contracting activity to provide required oversight.

L1:(f) Subcontracts. The Contractor shall include the substance of this clause, including this paragraph (f), in subcontracts,

252.225-7040 Contractor Personnel Supporting U.S. Armed Forces Deployed Outside the United States

Status: active

L0:252.225-7040 Contractor Personnel Supporting U.S. Armed Forces Deployed Outside the United States.

L0:As prescribed in 225.371-5 (a), use the following clause:

L0:CONTRACTOR PERSONNEL SUPPORTING U.S. ARMED FORCES DEPLOYED OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

L0:(OCT 2023)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:“Combatant Commander” means the commander of a unified or specified combatant command established in accordance

L0:with 10 U.S.C. 161.

L0:“Contractors authorized to accompany the Force,” or “CAAF,” means contractor personnel, including all tiers of L0:subcontractor personnel, who are authorized to accompany U.S. Armed Forces in applicable operations and have been

L0:afforded CAAF status through a letter of authorization. CAAF generally include all U.S. citizen n and third-country

L0:national employees not normally residing within the operational area whose area of performance is in the direct vicinity of

L0:U.S. Armed Forces and who routinely are collocated with the U.S. Armed Forces (especially in non-permissive L0:environments). Personnel collocated with U.S. Armed Forces shall be afforded CAAF status through a letter of

L0:authorization. In some cases, Combatant Commander subordinate commanders may designate mission-essential host nation

L0:or local national contractor employees (e.g., interpreters) as CAAF. CAAF includes contractors previously identified as

L0:contractors deploying with the U.S. Armed Forces. CAAF status does not apply to contractor personnel in support of L0:applicable operations within the boundaries and territories of the United States.

L0:“Designated operational area” means a geographic area designated by the combatant commander or subordinate joint force

L0:commander for the conduct or support of specified military operations.

L0:“Designated reception site” means the designated place for the reception, staging, integration, and onward movement of

L0:contractors deploying during a contingency. The designated reception site includes assigned joint reception centers and

L0:other Service or private reception sites.

L0:Law of war? means that part of international law that regulates the conduct of armed hostilities. The law of war

L0:encompasses all international law for the conduct of hostilities binding on the United States or its individual citizens,

L0:including treaties and international agreements to which the United States is a party, and applicable customary international

L0:law.

L0:Non-CAAF? means personnel who are not designated as CAAF, such as local national (LN) employees and non-LN

L0:employees who are permanent residents in the operational area or third-country nationals not routinely residing with U.S.

L0:Armed Forces (and third-country national expatriates who are permanent residents in the operational area) who perform

L0:support functions away from the close proximity of, and do not reside with, U.S. Armed Forces. Government-furnished

L0:support to non-CAAF is typically limited to force protection, emergency medical care, and basic human needs (e.g., bottled

L0:water, latrine facilities, security, and food when necessary) when performing their jobs in the direct vicinity of U.S. Armed

L0:Forces. Non-CAAF status does not apply to contractor personnel in support of applicable operations within the boundaries

L0:and territories of the United States.

L0:Subordinate joint force commander? means a sub-unified commander or joint task force commander.

L1:(b) General.

L1:(1) This clause applies to both CAAF and non-CAAF when performing in a designated operational area outside the United L0:States to support U.S. Armed Forces deployed outside the United States in?

L1:(i) Contingency operations;

L1:(ii) Peace operations, consistent with Joint Publication 3-07.3; or

L1:(iii) Other military operations or military exercises, when designated by the Combatant Commander or as directed by the L0:Secretary of Defense.

L1:(2) Contract performance in support of U.S. Armed Forces deployed outside the United States may require work in

L0:dangerous or austere conditions. Except as otherwise provided in the contract, the Contractor accepts the risks associated

L0:with required contract performance in such operations.

L1:(3) When authorized in accordance with paragraph (j) of this clause to carry arms for personal protection, Contractor

L0:personnel are only authorized to use force for individual self-defense.

L1:(4) Unless immune from host nation jurisdiction by virtue of an international agreement or international law, inappropriate

L0:use of force by contractor personnel supporting the U.S. Armed Forces can subject such personnel to United States or host

L0:nation prosecution and civil liability (see paragraphs (d) and (j)(3) of this clause).

L1:(5) Service performed by Contractor personnel subject to this clause is not active duty or service under 38 U.S.C. 106 note.

L1:(c) Support.

L1:(1)(i) The Combatant Commander will develop a security plan for protection of Contractor personnel in locations where

L0:there is not sufficient or legitimate civil authority, when the Combatant Commander decides it is in the interests of the L0:Government to provide security because?

L1:(A) The Contractor cannot obtain effective security services;

L1:(B) Effective security services are unavailable at a reasonable cost; or

L1:(C) Threat conditions necessitate security through military means.

L1:(ii) In appropriate cases, the Combatant Commander may provide security through military means, commensurate with the L0:level of security provided DoD civilians.

L1:(2)(i) Generally, CAAF will be afforded emergency medical and dental care if injured while supporting applicable

L0:operations. Additionally, non-CAAF employees who are injured while in the vicinity of U. S. Armed Forces will normally

L0:receive emergency medical and dental care. Emergency medical and dental care includes medical care situations in which

L0:life, limb, or eyesight is jeopardized. Examples of emergency medical and dental care include examination and initial

L0:treatment of victims of sexual assault; refills of prescriptions for life-dependent drugs; repair of broken bones, lacerations,

L0:infections; and traumatic injuries to the dentition. Hospitalization will be limited to stabilization and short-term medical

L0:treatment with an emphasis on return to duty or placement in the patient movement system.

L1:(ii) When the Government provides medical treatment or transportation of Contractor personnel to a selected civilian

L0:facility, the Contractor shall ensure that the Government is reimbursed for any costs associated with such treatment or

L0:transportation.

L1:(iii) Medical or dental care beyond this standard is not authorized.

L1:(3) Contractor personnel must have a Synchronized Predeployment and Operational Tracker (SPOT)-generated letter of

L0:authorization signed by the Contracting Officer in order to process through a deployment center or to travel to, from, or

L0:within the designated operational area. The letter of authorization also will identify any additional authorizations,

L0:privileges, or Government support that Contractor personnel are entitled to under this contract. Contractor personnel who

L0:are issued a letter of authorization shall carry it with them at all times while deployed.

L1:(4) Unless specified elsewhere in this contract, the Contractor is responsible for all other support required for its personnel

L0:engaged in the designated operational area under this contract.

L1:(d) Compliance with laws and regulations.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall comply with, and shall ensure that its personnel supporting U.S. Armed Forces deployed outside

L0:the United States as specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this clause are familiar with and comply with, all applicable?

L1:(i) United States, host country, and third country national laws;

L1:(ii) Provisions of the law of war, as well as any other applicable treaties and international agreements;

L1:(iii) United States regulations, directives, instructions, policies, and procedures; and

L1:(iv) Orders, directives, and instructions issued by the Combatant Commander, including those relating to force protection,

L0:security, health, safety, or relations and interaction with local nationals.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall institute and implement an effective program to prevent violations of the law of war by its

L0:employees and subcontractors, including law of war training in accordance with paragraph (e)(1)(vii) of this clause.

L1:(3) The Contractor shall ensure that CAAF and non-CAAF are aware?

L1:(i) Of the DoD definition of "sexual assault" in DoD Directive 6495.01, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program;

L1:(ii) That the offenses addressed by the definition are covered under the Uniform Code of Military Justice (see paragraph (e)

L1:(2)(iv) of this clause). Other sexual misconduct may constitute offenses under the Uniform Code of Military Justice,

L0:Federal law, such as the Military Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Act, or host nation laws; and

L1:(iii) That the offenses not covered by the Uniform Code of Military Justice may nevertheless have consequences to the L0:contractor employees (see paragraph (h)(1) of this clause).

L1:(4) The Contractor shall report to the appropriate investigative authorities, identified in paragraph (d)(6) of this clause, any

L0:alleged offenses under?

L1:(i) The Uniform Code of Military Justice (chapter 47 of title 10, United States Code) (applicable to contractors serving with L0:or accompanying an armed force in the field during a declared war or contingency operations); or

L1:(ii) The Military Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Act (chapter 212 of title 18, United States Code).

L1:(5) The Contractor shall provide to all contractor personnel who will perform work on a contract in the deployed area,

L0:before beginning such work, information on the following:

L1:(i) How and where to report an alleged crime described in paragraph (d)(4) of this clause.

L1:(ii) Where to seek victim and witness protection and assistance available to contractor personnel in connection with an

L0:alleged offense described in paragraph (d)(4) of this clause.

L1:(iii) That this section does not create any rights or privileges that are not authorized by law or DoD policy.

L1:(6) The appropriate investigative authorities to which suspected crimes shall be reported include the following?

L1:(i) US Army Criminal Investigation Command at <http://www.cid.army.mil/reportacrime.html>;

L1:(7) Personnel seeking whistleblower protection from reprisals for reporting criminal acts shall seek guidance through the

L0:DoD Inspector General hotline at 800-424-9098 or www.dodig.mil/HOTLINE/index.html. Personnel seeking other forms

L0:of victim or witness protections should contact the nearest military law enforcement office.

L1:(8)(i) The Contractor shall ensure that Contractor employees supporting the U.S. Armed Forces are aware of their rights to L0:significant portion of the workforce.

L1:(iii) The Contractor shall enforce the rights of Contractor personnel supporting the U.S. Armed Forces.

L1:(e) Preliminary personnel requirements.

L1:(ii) All CAAF deploying in support of an applicable operation?

L1:(A) Are medically, dentally, and psychologically fit for deployment and performance of their contracted duties;

L0:the geographic Combatant Commander (as posted to the Geographic Combatant Commander's website or other venue);

L0:and

L1:(C) Have received all required immunizations as specified in the contract.

L1:(1) During predeployment processing, the Government will provide, at no cost to the Contractor, any military-specific

L0:immunizations and/or medications not available to the general public.

L1:(2)All other immunizations shall be obtained prior to arrival at the deployment center.

L1:(3)All CAAF and selected non-CAAF, as specified in the statement of work, shall bring to the designated operational area a

L0:copy of the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) Form 731, International Certificate of Vaccination or L0:vaccinations are current.

L1:(iii) Deploying personnel have all necessary passports, visas, and other documents required to enter and exit a designated

L0:operational area and have a Geneva Conventions identification card, or other appropriate DoD identity credential, from the L0:deployment center.

L1:(iv) Special area, country, and theater clearance is obtained for all personnel deploying. Clearance requirements are in DoD

L0:mission complete, killed, wounded) shall be annotated within the SPOT database in accordance with the timelines

L0:established in the SPOT Business Rules at <https://www.acq.osd.mil/asds/log/cso/ocs/spot.html>.

L1:(v) Understand that the inappropriate use of force could subject them to U.S. or host-nation prosecution and civil liability.

L1:(4) Whether or not weapons are Government-furnished, all liability for the use of any weapon by Contractor personnel

L0:rests solely with the Contractor and the Contractor employee using such weapon.

L1:(5) Upon redeployment or revocation by the Combatant Commander of the Contractor's authorization to issue firearms, the

L0:Contractor shall ensure that all Government-issued weapons and unexpended ammunition are returned as directed by the

L0:Contracting Officer.

Status: active

L0:252.225-7044 Balance of Payments Program?Construction Material.

L0:Basic. As prescribed in 225.7503 (a) and (a)(1), use the following clause:

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:?Commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) item??

L1:(1) Means any item of supply (including construction material) that is?

L1:(i) A commercial product (as defined in paragraph (1) of the definition of ?commercial product? in section 2.101 of the L0:Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR));

L0:?Cost of components? means?

L1:(1) For components purchased by the Contractor, the acquisition cost, including transportation costs to the place of L0:incorporation into the end product (whether or not such costs are paid to a domestic firm), and any applicable duty L0:(whether or not a duty-free entry certificate is issued); or

L1:(2) For components manufactured by the Contractor, all costs associated with the manufacture of the component, including

L0:transportation costs as described in paragraph (1) of this definition, plus allocable overhead costs, but excluding profit.

L0:Cost of components does not include any costs associated with the manufacture of the construction material.

L0: "Critical component" means a component that is mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States and deemed

L0: critical to the U.S. supply chain. The list of critical components is at FAR 25.105.

L0: "Critical item" means domestic construction material or a domestic end product that is deemed critical to the U.S. supply

L0: chain. The list of critical items is at FAR 25.105.

L0: "Domestic construction material" means?

L1: (1) For construction material that does not consist wholly or predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both?

L1: (i) An unmanufactured construction material mined or produced in the United States; or

L1: (ii) A construction material manufactured in the United States, if?

L1: (A) The cost of its components mined, produced, or manufactured in the United States exceeds 60 percent of the cost of all

L0: its components, except that the percentage will be 65 percent for items delivered in calendar years 2024 through 2028 and

L0: 75 percent for items delivered starting in calendar year 2029, unless an alternate percentage is established for a contract in

L0: accordance with FAR 25.201(c). Components of foreign origin of the same class or kind for which nonavailability

L0: determinations have been made are treated as domestic. Components of unknown origin are treated as foreign; or

L1: (B) The construction material is a COTS item; or

L1: (2) For construction material that consists wholly or predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both, a construction

L0: material manufactured in the United States if the cost of iron and steel not produced in the United States (excluding L0: fasteners) as estimated in good faith by the contractor, constitutes less than 5 percent of the cost of all the components used

L0: in such construction material (produced in the United States means that all manufacturing processes of the iron or steel

L0: must take place in the United States, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives). The cost of L0: iron and steel not produced in the United States includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products (such as

L0: bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States, utilized in the manufacture of

L0: the end product and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components not produced in the United States,

L0: excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown origin are treated as foreign. If the construction material

L0: contains multiple components, the cost of all the materials used in such construction material is calculated in accordance

L0: with the definition of "cost of components" in this clause.

L0: "Predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both" means that the cost of the iron and steel content exceeds 50

L0: percent of the total cost of all its components. The cost of iron and steel is the cost of the iron or steel mill products (such

L0: as bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings utilized in the manufacture of the product and a good faith

L0:estimate of the cost of iron or steel components excluding COTS fasteners.

L0:Steel? means an alloy that includes at least 50 percent iron, between 0.02 and 2 percent carbon, and may include other

L0:elements.

L0:United States? means the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and outlying areas.

L1:(b) Domestic preference. This clause implements the Balance of Payments Program by providing a preference for domestic

L0:construction material. The Contractor shall use only domestic construction material in performing this contract, except for

L0:?

L1:(1) Construction material valued at or below the simplified acquisition threshold in part 2 of the Federal Acquisition

L0:Regulation;

L1:(2) Information technology that is a commercial product; or

L1:(3) The construction material or components listed by the Government as follows:

L0:

L0:[Contracting Officer to list applicable excepted materials or indicate ?none?]

L0:(End of clause)

L0:Alternate I. As prescribed in 225.7503 (a) and (a)(2), use the following clause, which adds definitions for ?South

L0:Caucasus/Central and South Asian (SC/CASA) state? and ?SC/CASA state construction material? to paragraph (a), and

L0:uses ?domestic construction material or SC/CASA state construction material? instead of ?domestic construction material?

L0:?Cost of components? means?

L1:(1) For components purchased by the Contractor, the acquisition cost, including transportation costs to the place of L0:incorporation into the end product (whether or not such costs are paid to a domestic firm), and any applicable duty L0:(whether or not a duty-free entry certificate is issued); or

L0:material manufactured in the United States if the cost of iron and steel not produced in the United States (excluding

L0:fasteners) as estimated in good faith by the contractor, constitutes less than 5 percent of the cost of all the components used

L0:in such construction material (produced in the United States means that all manufacturing processes of the iron or steel

L0:must take place in the United States, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives). The cost of L0:iron and steel not produced in the United States includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products (such as

L0:bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States, utilized in the manufacture of

L0:the construction material and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components not produced in the United

L0:States, excluding COTS fasteners. Iron or steel components of unknown origin are treated as foreign. If the construction

L0:material contains multiple components, the cost of all the materials used in such construction material is calculated

in

L0:accordance with the definition of "cost of components" in this clause.

L0:"Free Trade Agreement country construction material" means a construction material that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a Free Trade Agreement country; or

L0:materials from which it was transformed.

L0:"Predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both" means that the cost of the iron and steel content exceeds 50

L0:estimate of the cost of iron or steel components excluding COTS fasteners.

L0:"Steel" means an alloy that includes at least 50 percent iron, between 0.02 and 2 percent carbon, and may include other

L0:elements.

L0:substantially transformed in a WTO GPA country into a new and different construction material distinct from the materials

L0:from which it was transformed.

L1:(b) This clause implements the Balance of Payments Program by providing a preference for domestic construction

L0:material. In addition, the Contracting Officer has determined that the WTO GPA and Free Trade Agreements apply to this L0:acquisition. Therefore, the Balance of Payments Program restrictions are waived for designated country construction L0:materials.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall use only domestic or designated country construction material in performing this contract, except L0:for?

L0:States-Mexico-Canada Agreement and the Bahrain Free Trade Agreement, and other waivers relating to acquisitions in

L0:support of operations in Afghanistan apply to this acquisition. Therefore, the Balance of Payments Program restrictions are

L0:waived for SC/CASA state and designated country construction material other than Bahraini or Mexican construction material.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall use only domestic, SC/CASA state, or designated country construction material other than Bahraini or Mexican construction material in performing this contract, except for?

L0:2024 through 2028, 65 percent of the cost of all its components; or calendar year 2029 or later, 75 percent of the cost of all

L0:its components. Components of foreign origin of the same class or kind for which nonavailability determinations have been

L0:made are treated as domestic. Components of unknown origin are treated as foreign; or

L0:material manufactured in the United States if the cost of iron and steel not produced in the United States (excluding L0:fasteners) as estimated in good faith by the contractor, constitutes less than 5 percent of the cost of all the components used

L0:in such construction material (produced in the United States means that all manufacturing processes of the iron or steel

L0:must take place in the United States, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives). The cost of L0:iron and steel not produced in the United States includes but is not limited to the cost of iron or steel mill products (such as

L0:bar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet), castings, or forgings, not produced in the United States, utilized in the manufacture of

L0:the construction material and a good faith estimate of the cost of all iron or steel components not produced in the United

L0:accordance with the definition of "cost of components" in this clause.

L0:"Free Trade Agreement country construction material" means a construction material that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a Free Trade Agreement country; or

L1:(2) In the case of a construction material that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been

L0:substantially transformed in a Free Trade Agreement country into a new and different construction material distinct from

L0:the material from which it was transformed.

L0:"Least developed country construction material" means a construction material that?

L1:(1) Is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a least developed country; or

L1:(2) In the case of a construction material that consists in whole or in part of materials from another country, has been

L0:substantially transformed in a least developed country into a new and different construction material distinct from the

L0:materials from which it was transformed.

L0:"Predominantly of iron or steel or a combination of both" means that the cost of the iron and steel content exceeds 50

L0:percent of the total cost of all its components. The cost of iron and steel is the cost of the iron or steel mill products (such

L0:substantially transformed in a WTO GPA country into a new and different construction material distinct from the materials

L0:from which it was transformed.

L1:(b) This clause implements the Balance of Payments Program by providing a preference for domestic construction

L0:material. In addition, the Contracting Officer has determined that the WTO GPA, Free Trade Agreements, and other L0:waivers relating to acquisitions in support of operations in Afghanistan apply to this acquisition. Therefore, the Balance of L0:Payments Program restrictions are waived for SC/CASA state and designated country construction materials.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall use only domestic, SC/CASA state, or designated country construction material in performing this

L0:contract, except for?

L1:(1) Construction material valued at or below the simplified acquisition threshold in FAR part 2;

L0:Government are supplies, not construction material.

L0:Cost of components? means?

L0:data generated under this contract, that are?

L1:(i) Form, fit, and function data;

L1:(ii) Necessary for installation, operation, maintenance, or training purposes (other than detailed manufacturing or process

L0:data);

L1:(iii) Corrections or changes to Government-furnished technical data or computer software;

L1:(iv) Otherwise publicly available or have been released or disclosed by the Contractor or a subcontractor without

L0:restrictions on further use, release, or disclosure other than a release or disclosure resulting from the sale, transfer, or other

L0:assignment of interest in the technical data or computer software to another party or the sale or transfer of some or all of a

L0:business entity or its assets to another party;

L1:(v) Technical data or computer software in which the Government has acquired previously unlimited rights under another

L0:Government contract or as a result of negotiations;

L1:(vi) Technical data or computer software furnished to the Government, under this or any other Government contract or

L0:subcontract thereunder, with license rights for which all restrictive conditions on the Government have expired; and

L1:(vii) Computer software documentation generated or required to be delivered under this contract.

L1:(2) Government purpose rights.

L1:(i) The Government shall have government purpose rights for the period specified in paragraph (c)(2)(ii) of this clause in

L0:data that are?

L1:(A) Not SBIR/STTR data, and are?

L1:(1) Technical data pertaining to items, components, or processes developed with mixed funding, or are computer software

L0:developed with mixed funding, except when the Government is entitled to unlimited rights in such data as provided in

L0:paragraph (c)(1) of this clause;

L1:(2) Created with mixed funding in the performance of a contract that does not require the development, manufacture,

L0:construction, or production of items, components, or processes; or

L1:(B) SBIR/STTR data, upon expiration of the SBIR/STTR data protection period.

L1:(ii)(A) For the non-SBIR/STTR data described in paragraph (c)(2)(i)(A) of this clause, the Government shall have

L0:government purpose rights for a period of 5 years, or such other period as may be negotiated. This period shall commence

L0:upon award of the contract, subcontract, letter contract (or similar contractual instrument), or contract modification

L0:(including a modification to exercise an option) that required development of the items, components, or processes, or

L0:creation of the data described in paragraph (c)(2)(i)(A)(2) of this clause. Upon expiration of the 5-year or other negotiated

L0:period, the Government shall have unlimited rights in the data.

L1:(B) For the SBIR/STTR data described in paragraph (c)(2)(i)(B) of this clause, the Government shall have government

L0:purpose rights perpetually. This Government purpose rights period commences upon the expiration of the

SBIR/STTR data

L0:protection period.

L1:(iii) The Government shall not release or disclose data in which it has government purpose rights unless?

L1:(A) Prior to release or disclosure, the intended recipient is subject to the nondisclosure agreement at DFARS 227.7103-7;

L0:or

L1:(B) The recipient is a Government contractor receiving access to the data for performance of a Government contract that

L0:contains the clause at DFARS 252.227-7025, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of Government-Furnished Information

L0:Marked with Restrictive Legends.

L1:(iv) The Contractor has the exclusive right, including the right to license others, to use technical data in which the

L0:Government has obtained government purpose rights under this contract for any commercial purpose during the time

L0:period specified in the government purpose rights marking prescribed in paragraph (g)(3) of this clause.

L1:(3) Limited rights. The Government shall have limited rights in technical data that were not generated under this contract,

L0:pertain to items, components, or processes developed exclusively at private expense, and are marked, in accordance with

L0:the marking instructions in paragraph (g)(1) of this clause, with the legend prescribed in paragraph (g)(4) of this clause.

L1:(4) Restricted rights in computer software. The Government shall have restricted rights in other than commercial computer

L0:software required to be delivered or otherwise furnished to the Government under this contract that were developed

L0:exclusively at private expense and were not generated under this contract.

L1:(5) SBIR/STTR data rights. Except for technical data, including computer software documentation, or computer software in

L0:which the Government has unlimited rights under paragraph (c)(1) of this clause, the Government shall have SBIR/STTR

L0:data rights, during the SBIR/STTR data protection period of this contract, in all SBIR/STTR data developed or

L0:generated under this contract . This protection period is not extended by any subsequent SBIR/STTR contracts under which

L0:any portion of that SBIR/STTR data is used or delivered. The SBIR/STTR data protection period of any such subsequent

L0:SBIR/STTR contract applies only to the SBIR/STTR data that are developed or generated under that subsequent contract.

L0:The SBIR/STTR data protection period is governed by the version of this clause that is incorporated in the contract under

L0:which the SBIR/STTR data are developed or generated. If the SBIR/STTR data were developed or generated under a

L0:contract that included a previous version of this clause, then the SBIR/STTR data protection period is governed by that

L0:previous version of this clause.

L1:(6) Specifically negotiated license rights. After contract award, the standard license rights granted to the Government under

L0:paragraphs (c)(1) through (5) of this clause may be modified by mutual agreement to provide such rights as the parties

L0:consider appropriate but shall not provide the Government lesser rights in technical data, including computer software

L0:documentation, than are enumerated in) the definition of "limited rights" of this clause or lesser rights in computer

L0:software than are enumerated the definition of "restricted rights" of this clause. Any rights so negotiated shall be identified

L0:in a license agreement made part of this contract.

L1:(7) Prior government rights. Technical data, including computer software documentation, or computer software that will be

L0:delivered, furnished, or otherwise provided to the Government under this contract, in which the Government has previously

L0:obtained rights shall be delivered, furnished, or provided with the preexisting rights, unless?

L1:(i) The parties have agreed otherwise; or

L1:(ii) Any restrictions on the Government's rights to use, modify, release, perform, display, or disclose the technical data or

L0:computer software have expired or no longer apply.

L1:(8) Release from liability. The Contractor agrees to release the Government from liability for any release or disclosure of

L0:technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation made in accordance with , the definitions of

L0:"Government purpose," "other than commercial computer software," or paragraph (c)(5) of this clause, or in accordance

L0:with the terms of a license negotiated under paragraph (c)(6) of this clause, or by others to whom the recipient has released

L0:or disclosed the data, software, or documentation and to seek relief solely from the party who has improperly used,

L0:modified, reproduced, released, performed, displayed, or disclosed Contractor data or software marked with restrictive

L0:legends.

L1:(9) Covered Government support contractors. The Contractor acknowledges that (i) Limited rights technical data and restricted rights computer software are authorized to be released or disclosed to

L0:covered Government support contractors;

L1:(ii) The Contractor will be notified of such release or disclosure;

L1:(iii) The Contractor may require each such covered Government support contractor to enter into a nondisclosure agreement

L0:directly with the Contractor (or the party asserting restrictions as identified in a restrictive legend) regarding the covered

L0:Government support contractor's use of such data or software, or alternatively that the Contractor (or party asserting L0:restrictions) may waive in writing the requirement for a nondisclosure agreement; and

L1:(iv) Any such nondisclosure agreement shall address the restrictions on the covered Government support contractor's use

L0:of the data or software as set forth in the clause at DFARS 252.227-7025, Limitations on the Use or Disclosure of

L0:Government-Furnished Information Marked with Restrictive Legends. The nondisclosure agreement shall not include any

L0:additional terms and conditions unless mutually agreed to by the parties to the nondisclosure agreement.

L1:(d) Rights in derivative computer software or computer software documentation. The Government shall retain its rights in

L0:the unchanged portions of any computer software or computer software documentation delivered under this contract that

L0:the Contractor uses to prepare, or includes in, derivative software or documentation.

L1:(e) Third party copyrighted technical data and computer software. The Contractor shall not, without the written approval of

L0:the Contracting Officer, incorporate any copyrighted technical data, including computer software documentation, or

L0:computer software in the data or software to be delivered under this contract unless the Contractor is the copyright owner

L0:or has obtained for the Government the license rights necessary to perfect a license or licenses in the deliverable data or

L0:software of the appropriate scope set forth in paragraph (c) of this clause and, prior to delivery of such (1) Technical data, has affixed to the transmittal document a statement of the license rights obtained; or

L1:(2) Computer software, has provided a statement of the license rights obtained in a form acceptable to the Contracting

L0:Officer.

L1:(f) Identification and delivery of technical data or computer software to be furnished with restrictions on use, release, or

L0:disclosure.

L1:(1) This paragraph does not apply to technical data or computer software that were or will be generated under this contract

L0:or to restrictions based solely on copyright.

L1:(2) Except as provided in paragraph (f)(3) of this clause, technical data or computer software that the Contractor asserts

L0:should be furnished to the Government with restrictions on use, release, or disclosure is identified in an attachment to this

L0:contract (the Attachment). The Contractor shall not deliver any technical data or computer software with restrictive

L0:markings unless the technical data or computer software are listed on the Attachment.

L1:(3) In addition to the assertions made in the Attachment, other assertions may be identified after award when based on new

L0:information or inadvertent omissions unless the inadvertent omissions would have materially affected the source selection

L0:decision. Such identification and assertion shall be submitted to the Contracting Officer as soon as practicable prior to the

L0:scheduled date for delivery of the technical data or computer software, in the following format, and signed by an official

L0:authorized to contractually obligate the Contractor:

L0:IDENTIFICATION AND ASSERTION OF RESTRICTIONS ON THE GOVERNMENT'S USE, RELEASE, OR

L0:DISCLOSURE OF TECHNICAL DATA OR COMPUTER SOFTWARE

L0:The Contractor asserts for itself, or the persons identified below, that the Government's rights to use, release, or disclose the

L0:Government's rights to use, release, or disclose technical data or computer software. Indicate whether development was

L0:exclusively or partially at private expense. If development was not at private expense, enter the specific reason for asserting

L0:that the Government's rights should be restricted.

L1:(4) When requested by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall provide sufficient information to enable the

L0:Contracting Officer to evaluate the Contractor's assertions. The Contracting Officer reserves the right to add the

L0:Contractor's assertions to the Attachment and validate any listed assertions, at a later date, in accordance with the

L0:procedures in the DFARS 252.227-7019, Validation of Asserted Restrictions?Computer Software, and/or DFARS

L0:252.227-7037, Validation of Asserted Restrictions on Technical Data, clauses of this contract.

L1:(g) Marking requirements. The Contractor, and its subcontractors or suppliers, may only assert restrictions on the

L0:Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data or computer software to

L0:be delivered under this contract by marking the deliverable data or software subject to restriction. Except as provided in

L0:paragraph (g)(8) of this clause, only the following markings are authorized under this contract: the government purpose

L0:rights marking at paragraph (g) (3) of this clause; the limited rights legend at paragraph (g)(4) of this clause; the restricted

L0:rights legend at paragraph (g)(5) of this clause; the SBIR/STTR data rights legend at paragraph (g)(6) of this clause; the

L0:special license rights legend at paragraph (g)(7) of this clause; and a notice of copyright as prescribed under 17 U.S.C. 401

L0:or 402.

L1:(1) General marking instructions. The Contractor, or its subcontractors or suppliers, shall conspicuously and legibly mark

L0:the appropriate legend to all technical data and computer software that qualify for such markings. The authorized legends

L0:shall be placed on the transmittal document or storage container and, for printed material, each page of the printed material

L0:containing technical data or computer software for which restrictions are asserted. When only portions of a page of printed

L0:material are subject to the asserted restrictions, such portions shall be identified by circling, underscoring, with a note, or

L0:other appropriate identifier. Technical data or computer software transmitted directly from one computer or computer

L0:terminal to another shall contain a notice of asserted restrictions. However, instructions that interfere with or delay the

L0:operation of computer software in order to display a restrictive rights legend or other license statement at any time prior to

L0:or during use of the computer software, or otherwise cause such interference or delay, shall not be inserted in software that

L0:will or might be used in combat or situations that simulate combat conditions, unless the Contracting Officer's written

L0:permission to deliver such software has been obtained prior to delivery. Reproductions of technical data, computer

L0:software, or any portions thereof subject to asserted restrictions shall also reproduce the asserted restrictions.

L1:(2) Omitted markings.

L1:(i) Technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation delivered or otherwise provided under this

L0:contract without restrictive markings shall be presumed to have been delivered with unlimited rights. To the extent

L0:practicable, if the Contractor has requested permission (see paragraph (g)(2)(ii) of this clause) to correct an inadvertent

L0:omission of markings, the Contracting Officer will not release or disclose the technical data, software, or documentation

L0:pending evaluation of the request.

L1:(ii) The Contractor may request permission to have conforming and justified restrictive markings placed on unmarked

L0:technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation at its expense. The request must be received by the

L0:Contracting Officer within 6 months following the furnishing or delivery of such technical data, software, or L0:documentation, or any extension of that time approved by the Contracting Officer. The Contractor shall?

L1:(A) Identify the technical data, software, or documentation that should have been marked;

L1:(B) Demonstrate that the omission of the marking was inadvertent, the proposed marking is justified and conforms with the

L0:requirements for the marking of technical data, computer software, or computer software documentation contained in this

L0:clause; and

L1:(C) Acknowledge, in writing, that the Government has no liability with respect to any disclosure, reproduction, or use of

L0:the technical data, software, or documentation made prior to the addition of the marking or resulting from the omission of L0:the marking.

L1:(3) Government purpose rights markings. Technical data or computer software delivered or otherwise furnished to the

L0:Government with government purpose rights shall be marked as follows:

L0:GOVERNMENT PURPOSE RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:Expiration Date

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose these technical data or computer

L0:software are restricted by paragraph (c)(2) of the DFARS 252.227-7018, Rights in Other Than Commercial Technical

L0:Data and Computer Software? Small Business Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer

L0:Any reproduction of technical data or computer software or portions thereof marked with this restrictive marking must also

L0:reproduce the markings.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(4) Limited rights markings. Technical data not generated under this contract that pertain to items, components, or

L0:processes developed exclusively at private expense and delivered or otherwise furnished with limited rights shall be

L0:marked as follows:

L0:LIMITED RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose these technical data are restricted

L0:by paragraph (c)(3) of the DFARS 252.227-7018, Rights in Other Than Commercial Technical Data and Computer

L0:Software? Small Business Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer Program, clause

L0:contained in the above identified contract. Any reproduction of technical data or portions thereof marked with this legend

L0:must also reproduce the markings. Any person, other than the Government, who has been provided access to such data

L0:must promptly notify the above named Contractor.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(5) Restricted rights markings. Computer software delivered or otherwise furnished to the Government with restricted

L0:rights shall be marked as follows:

L0:RESTRICTED RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose this software are restricted by

L0:paragraph (c)(4) of the DFARS 252.227-7018, Rights in Other Than Commercial Technical Data and Computer Software

L0:Small Business Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer Program, clause contained in the

L0:above identified contract. Any reproduction of computer software or portions thereof marked with this legend must also

L0:reproduce the markings. Any person, other than the Government, who has been provided access to such software must

L0:promptly notify the above named Contractor.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(6) SBIR/STTR data rights markings. Except for technical data or computer software in which the Government has acquired unlimited rights under paragraph (c)(1) of this clause or negotiated special license rights as provided in paragraph

L1:(c)(6) of this clause, technical data or computer software generated under this contract shall be marked as follows. The

L0:Contractor shall enter the expiration date for the SBIR/STTR data protection period on the legend:

L0:SBIR/STTR DATA RIGHTS

L0:Contract Number

L0:Contractor Name

L0:Contractor Address

L0:Expiration of SBIR/STTR Data Protection Period

L0:Expiration of the Government Purpose Rights Period

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data or computer

L0:software marked with this legend are restricted during the period shown as provided in paragraph (c)(5) of the DFARS

L0:252.227-7018, Rights in Other Than Commercial Technical Data and Computer Software-Small Business Innovation Research Program and Small Business Technology Transfer Program, clause contained in the above identified contract.

L0:After the SBIR/STTR data protection period expiration date shown above, the Government has perpetual government

L0:purpose rights as provided in paragraph (c)(4) of that clause, unless otherwise indicated by the government purpose rights

L0:expiration date shown above. Any reproduction of technical data, computer software, or portions thereof marked with this

L0:legend must also reproduce the markings.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(7) Special license rights markings.

L1:(i) Technical data or computer software in which the Government's rights stem from a specifically negotiated license shall

L0:be marked as follows:

L0:SPECIAL LICENSE RIGHTS

L0:The Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose this technical data or computer

L0:software are restricted by Contract Number ____ Insert contract number ____, License Number ____ Insert license L0:identifier _____. Any reproduction of technical data, computer software, or portions thereof marked with this legend must L0:also reproduce the markings.

L0:(End of legend)

L1:(ii) For purposes of this clause, special licenses do not include government purpose license rights acquired under a prior

L0:contract (see paragraph (c)(7) of this clause).

L1:(8) Preexisting data markings. If the terms of a prior contract or license permitted the Contractor to restrict the

L0:Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose technical data or computer software,

L0:and those restrictions are still applicable, the Contractor may mark such data or software with the appropriate restrictive

L0:legend for which the data or software qualified under the prior contract or license. The Contractor shall follow the marking

L0:procedures in paragraph (g)(1) of this clause.

L1:(h) Contractor procedures and records. Throughout performance of this contract, the Contractor, and its subcontractors or

L0:suppliers that will deliver technical data or computer software with other than unlimited rights, shall?

L1:(1) Have, maintain, and follow written procedures sufficient to assure that restrictive markings are used only when

L0:authorized by the terms of this clause; and

L1:(2) Maintain records sufficient to justify the validity of any restrictive markings on technical data or computer software L0:delivered under this contract.

L1:(i) Removal of unjustified and nonconforming markings.

L1:(1) Unjustified markings. The rights and obligations of the parties regarding the validation of restrictive markings on

L0:technical data or computer software furnished or to be furnished under this contract are contained in the DFARS 252.2277037, Validation of Asserted Restrictions on Technical Data, and the DFARS 252.227-7019, Validation of Asserted

L0:Restrictions?Computer Software, clauses of this contract, respectively. Notwithstanding any provision of this contract

L0:concerning inspection and acceptance, the Government may ignore or, at the Contractor?s expense, correct or strike a

L0:marking if, in accordance with the applicable procedures of those clauses, a restrictive marking is determined to be L0:unjustified.

L1:(2) Nonconforming markings. A nonconforming marking is a marking placed on technical data or computer software

L0:delivered or otherwise furnished to the Government under this contract that is not in the format authorized by this contract.

L0:Correction of nonconforming markings is not subject to the DFARS 252.227-7037, Validation of Asserted

Restrictions on

L0:Technical Data, or the DFARS 252.227-7019, Validation of Asserted Restrictions?Computer Software, clause of this L0:contract. If the Contracting Officer notifies the Contractor of a nonconforming marking or markings and the Contractor

L0:fails to remove or correct such markings within 60 days, the Government may ignore or, at the Contractor?s expense,

L0:remove or correct any nonconforming markings.

L1:(j) Relation to patents. Nothing contained in this clause shall imply a license to the Government under any patent or be

L0:construed as affecting the scope of any license or other right otherwise granted to the Government under any patent.

L1:(k) Limitation on charges for rights in technical data or computer software.

L1:(i) The Government has acquired, by any means, the same or greater rights in the data or software; or

L1:(ii) The data are available to the public without restrictions.

L1:(2) The limitation in paragraph (k)(1) of this clause?

L1:(i) Includes costs charged by a subcontractor or supplier, at any tier, or costs incurred by the Contractor to acquire rights in

L0:subcontractor of supplier technical data or computer software, if the subcontractor or supplier has been paid for such rights

L0:under any other Government contract or under a license conveying the rights to the Government; and

L1:(ii) Does not include the reasonable costs of reproducing, handling, or mailing the documents or other media in which the

L0:technical data or computer software will be delivered.

L1:(l) Subcontractors or suppliers.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall assure that the rights afforded its subcontractors and suppliers under 10 U.S.C.3771-3775, 10

L0:U.S.C. 3781-3786, 15 U.S.C. 638(j)(1)(B)(iii) and (v), and the identification, assertion, and delivery processes required by

L0:paragraph (f) of this clause are recognized and protected.

L1:(2) Whenever any other than commercial technical data or computer software is to be obtained from a subcontractor or

L0:supplier for delivery to the Government under this contract, the Contractor shall use the following clause(s) in the L0:subcontract or other contractual instrument, and require its subcontractors or suppliers to do so, without alteration, except

L0:to identify the parties:

L1:(i) Except as provided in paragraph (l)(2)(ii) of this clause, use this clause to govern SBIR/STTR data.

L1:(ii) For data that are not SBIR/STTR data?

L1:(A) Use the clause at DFARS 252.227-7013, Rights in Technical Data?Other Than Commercial Products and Commercial

L0:Services, to govern the technical data pertaining to other than commercial products or commercial services or to any L0:portion of a commercial product or commercial service that was developed in any part at Government expense, and use the

L0:clause at DFARS 252.227-7015, Technical Data?Commercial Products and Commercial Services, to govern the technical

L0:data pertaining to any portion of a commercial product or commercial service that was developed exclusively at private

L0:expense;

L1:(B) Use the DFARS clause at 252.227-7014, Rights in Other Than Commercial Computer Software and Other Than L0:Commercial Computer Software Documentation, to govern other than commercial computer software and computer L0:software documentation; and

L1:(C) Use the license under which the data are customarily provided to the public, in accordance with DFARS 227.7202, for

L0:commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation.

L1:(iii) No other clause shall be used to enlarge or diminish the Government's, the Contractor's, or a higher tier subcontractor's

L0:or supplier's rights in a subcontractor's or supplier's technical data or computer software.

L1:(3) Technical data required to be delivered by a subcontractor or supplier shall normally be delivered to the next higher tier

L0:contractor, subcontractor, or supplier. However, when there is a requirement in the prime contract for technical data which

L0:may be submitted with other than unlimited rights by a subcontractor or supplier, then said subcontractor or supplier may

L0:fulfill its requirement by submitting such technical data directly to the Government, rather than through a higher tier

L0:contractor, subcontractor, or supplier.

L1:(4) The Contractor and higher tier subcontractors or suppliers shall not use their power to award contracts as economic

L0:leverage to obtain rights in technical data or computer software from their subcontractors or suppliers.

L1:(5) In no event shall the Contractor use its obligation to recognize and protect subcontractor or supplier rights in technical

L0:data or computer software as an excuse for failing to satisfy its contractual obligation to the Government.

L0:(End of clause)

252.227-7019 Validation of Asserted Restrictions?Computer Software

Status: active

L0:252.227-7019 Validation of Asserted Restrictions?Computer Software.

L0:As prescribed in 227.7104-4(b)(3) or 227.7203-6(c), use the following clause:

L0:VALIDATION OF ASSERTED RESTRICTIONS?COMPUTER SOFTWARE (JAN 2025)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L0:?Contractor?, unless otherwise specifically indicated, means the Contractor and its subcontractors or suppliers.

L0:Other terms are defined in the 252.227-7014, Rights in Other Than Commercial Computer Software and Other Than L0:Commercial Computer Software Documentation, clause of this contract.

L1:(b) Justification. The Contractor shall maintain records sufficient to justify the validity of any asserted restrictions on the

L0:Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, perform, display, release, or disclose computer software delivered, required

L0:to be delivered, or otherwise provided to the Government under this contract and shall be prepared to furnish to the

L0:Contracting Officer a written justification for such asserted restrictions in response to a request for information under

L0:paragraph (d) of this clause or a challenge under paragraph (f) of this clause.

L1:(c) Direct contact with subcontractors or suppliers. The Contractor agrees that the Contracting Officer may transact L0:matters under this clause directly with subcontractors or suppliers at any tier who assert restrictions on the Government's

L0:right to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or disclose computer software. Neither this clause, nor any action

L0:taken by the Government under this clause, creates or implies privity of contract between the Government and the L0:Contractor's subcontractors or suppliers.

L1:(d) Requests for information.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer may request the Contractor to provide sufficient information to enable the Contracting Officer

L0:to evaluate the Contractor's asserted restrictions. Such information shall be based upon the records required by this clause

L0:or other information reasonably available to the Contractor.

L1:(2) Based upon the information provided, if the?

L1:(i) Contractor agrees that an asserted restriction is not valid, the Contracting Officer may?

L1:(A) Strike or correct the unjustified marking at the Contractor's expense; or

L1:(B) Return the computer software to the Contractor for correction at the Contractor's expense. If the Contractor fails to

L0:correct or strike the unjustified marking and return the corrected software to the Contracting Officer within 60 days

L0:following receipt of the software, the Contracting Officer may correct or strike the marking at the Contractor's expense;

L1:(ii) Contracting Officer concludes that the asserted restriction is appropriate for this contract, the Contracting Officer shall

L0:so notify the Contractor in writing.

L1:(3) The Contractor's failure to provide a timely response to a Contracting Officer's request for information or failure to L0:provide sufficient information to enable the Contracting Officer to evaluate an asserted restriction shall constitute

L0:reasonable grounds for questioning the validity of an asserted restriction.

L1:(e) Government right to challenge and validate asserted restrictions.

L1:(1) The Government, when there are reasonable grounds to do so, has the right to review and challenge the validity of any

L0:restrictions asserted by the Contractor on the Government's rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, or

L0:disclose computer software delivered, to be delivered under this contract, or otherwise provided to the Government in the

L0:performance of this contract. Except for software that is publicly available, has been furnished to the Government without

L0:restrictions, has been otherwise made available without restrictions, or is the subject of a fraudulently asserted use or

L0:release restriction, the Government may exercise this right only within 6 years after the date(s) the software is delivered or

L0:otherwise furnished to the Government, or 6 years following final payment under this contract, whichever is later.

L1:(2) The absence of a challenge to an asserted restriction shall not constitute validation under this clause. Only a Contracting

L0:Officer's final decision or actions of an agency Board of Contract Appeals or a court of competent jurisdiction that sustain

L0:the validity of an asserted restriction constitute validation of the restriction.

L1:(f) Challenge procedures.

Status: active

L0:252.227-7037 Validation of Asserted Restrictions on Technical Data.

L0:As prescribed in 227.7102-4(c), 227.7103-6(e)(3), 227.7104-4(b)(7), or 227.7203-6(f), use the following clause:

L0:VALIDATION OF ASSERTED RESTRICTIONS ON TECHNICAL DATA (JAN 2025)

L1:(a) Definitions. The terms used in this clause are defined in the Rights in Technical Data?Other Than Commercial

L0:Products and Commercial Services clause of this contract.

L1:(b) Commercial products or commercial services-presumption regarding development exclusively at private expense. The

L0:Contracting Officer will presume that the Contractor?s or a subcontractor?s asserted use or release restrictions with respect

L0:to a commercial product or commercial service are justified on the basis that the item was developed exclusively at private

L0:expense. The Contracting Officer will not issue a challenge unless there are reasonable grounds to question the validity of L0:the assertion that the commercial product or commercial service was developed exclusively at private expense.

L1:(c) Justification. The Contractor or subcontractor at any tier is responsible for maintaining records sufficient to justify the

L0:validity of its asserted restrictions on the rights of the Government and others to use, duplicate, release, or disclose

L0:technical data delivered, required to be delivered, or otherwise provided to the Government under the contract or

L0:subcontract. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this clause, the Contractor or subcontractor shall be prepared to furnish

L0:to the Contracting Officer a written justification for such asserted restrictions in response to a challenge under paragraph

L1:(e) of this clause.

L1:(d) Prechallenge request for information.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer may request the Contractor or subcontractor to furnish a written explanation for any asserted

L0:restriction on the right of the United States or others to use, disclose, or release technical data. If, upon review of the

L0:explanation submitted, the Contracting Officer cannot determine the basis of the asserted restriction, the Contracting

L0:Officer may further request the Contractor or subcontractor to furnish additional information in the records of, or otherwise

L0:in the possession of or reasonably available to, the Contractor or subcontractor to justify the validity of any asserted

L0:restriction on technical data delivered, to be delivered, or otherwise provided to the Government under the contract or

L0:subcontract (e.g., a statement of facts accompanied with supporting documentation). The Contractor or subcontractor shall

L0:submit such written data as requested by the Contracting Officer within the time required or such longer period as may be

L0:mutually agreed.

L1:(2) If the Contracting Officer, after reviewing the written data furnished pursuant to paragraph (d)(1) of this clause, or any

L0:other available information pertaining to the validity of an asserted restriction, determines that reasonable grounds exist to

L0:question the current validity of the asserted restriction and that continued adherence to the asserted restriction would make

L0:impracticable the subsequent competitive acquisition of the item or process to which the technical data relates, the

L0:Contracting Officer will follow the procedures in paragraph (e) of this clause.

L1:(3) If the Contractor or subcontractor fails to respond to the Contracting Officer's request for information under paragraph

L1:(d)(1) of this clause, and the Contracting Officer determines that continued adherence to the asserted restriction would

L0:make impracticable the subsequent competitive acquisition of the item or process to which the technical data relates, the

L0:Contracting Officer may challenge the validity of the asserted restriction as described in paragraph (e) of this clause.

L1:(e) Challenge.

L1:(1) Notwithstanding any provision of this contract concerning inspection and acceptance, if the Contracting Officer determines that a challenge to the asserted restriction is warranted, the Contracting Officer will send a written challenge

L0:notice to the Contractor or subcontractor making the asserted restriction. The challenge notice and all related correspondence shall be subject to handling procedures for classified information and controlled unclassified information.

L0:Such challenge will?

L1:(i) State the specific grounds for challenging the asserted restriction including, for commercial products or commercial

L0:services, sufficient information to reasonably demonstrate that the commercial product or commercial service was not

L0:developed exclusively at private expense ;

L1:(ii) Require a response within 60 days justifying and providing sufficient evidence as to the current validity of the asserted

L0:restriction;

L1:(iii) State that a DoD Contracting Officer's final decision, issued pursuant to paragraph (g) of this clause, sustaining the

L0:validity of a prior asserted restrictionrestrictive marking identical to the current asserted restriction, within the three3-year

L0:period preceding the current challenge, shall serve as justification for the current asserted restriction if the prior validated

L0:restriction was asserted by the same Contractor or subcontractor (or any licensee of such Contractor or subcontractor) to

L0:which such notice is being provided; and

L1:(iv) State that failure to respond to the challenge notice may result in issuance of a final decision pursuant to paragraph (f)

L0:of this clause.

L1:(2) The Contracting Officer will extend the time for response as appropriate if the Contractor or subcontractor submits a

L0:written request showing the need for additional time to prepare a response.

L1:(3) The Contractor's or subcontractor's written response shall be considered a claim within the meaning of 41 U.S.C. 7101,

L0:Contract Disputes, and shall be certified in the form prescribed at 33.207 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation, regardless

L0:of dollar amount.

L1:(4) A Contractor or subcontractor receiving challenges to the same asserted restrictions from more than one Contracting

L0:Officer shall notify each Contracting Officer of the existence of more than one challenge. The notice shall also state which

L0:Contracting Officer initiated the first in time unanswered challenge. The Contracting Officer initiating the first in time

L0:unanswered challenge after consultation with the Contractor or subcontractor and the other Contracting Officers, will

L0:formulate and distribute a schedule for responding to each of the challenge notices to all interested parties. The schedule

L0:will afford the Contractor or subcontractor an opportunity to respond to each challenge notice. All parties will be bound by

L0:this schedule.

L1:(f) Final decision when Contractor or subcontractor fails to respond.Upon a failure of a Contractor or subcontractor to

L0:submit any response to the challenge notice the Contracting Officer will issue a final decision to the Contractor or

L0:subcontractor in accordance with the Disputes clause of this contract. In order to sustain the challenge for commercial

L0:products or commercial services, the Contracting Officer will provide information demonstrating that the commercial

L0:product or commercial service was not developed exclusively at private expense . This final decision will be issued as soon

L0:as possible after the expiration of the time period of paragraph (e)(1)(ii) or (e)(2) of this clause. Following issuance of the L0:final decision, the Contracting Officer will comply with the procedures in paragraphs (g)(2)(ii) through (iv) of this clause.

L1:(g) Final decision when Contractor or subcontractor responds.

L1:(1) If the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor or subcontractor has justified the validity of the asserted

L0:restriction, the Contracting Officer will issue a final decision to the Contractor or subcontractor that sustains the validity of

L0:the asserted restriction, and that states that the Government will continue to be bound by the asserted restriction. The

L0:Contracting Officer will issue this final decision within 60 days after receipt of the Contractor's or subcontractor's response

L0:to the challenge notice, or within such longer period that the Contracting Officer has notified the Contractor or

L0:subcontractor that the Government will require. The Contracting Officer will provide notification of any longer period for

L0:issuance of a final decision within 60 days after receipt of the response to the challenge notice.

L1:(2)(i) If the Contracting Officer determines that the validity of the asserted restriction is not justified, the Contracting

L0:Officer will issue a final decision to the Contractor or subcontractor in accordance with the Disputes clause of this contract.

L0:To sustain the challenge for commercial products or commercial services, the Contracting Officer will provide information

L0:demonstrating that the commercial product or commercial service was not developed exclusively at private expense.

L0:Notwithstanding paragraph (e) of the Disputes clause, the final decision will be issued within 60 days after receipt of the

L0:Contractor's or subcontractor's response to the challenge notice, or within such longer period that the Contracting Officer

L0:has notified the Contractor or subcontractor that the Government will require. The notification of a longer period for

L0:issuance of a final decision will be made within 60 days after receipt of the response to the challenge notice.

L1:(ii) The Government agrees that it will continue to be bound by the asserted restriction for a period of 90 days from the

L0:issuance of the Contracting Officer's final decision under paragraph (g)(2)(i) of this clause. The Contractor or

L0:subcontractor agrees that, if it intends to file suit in the United States Court of Federal Claims, it will provide a notice of

L0:intent to file suit to the Contracting Officer within 90 days from the issuance of the Contracting Officer's final decision

L0:under paragraph (g)(2)(i) of this clause. If the Contractor or subcontractor fails to appeal, file suit, or provide a notice of

L0:intent to file suit to the Contracting Officer within the 90-day period, the Government may cancel or ignore the restrictive

L0:markings that are based on the asserted restrictions, and the failure of the Contractor or subcontractor to take the required

L0:action constitutes agreement with such Government action.

L1:(iii) The Government agrees that it will continue to be bound by the asserted restriction where a notice of intent to file suit

L0:in the United States Court of Federal Claims is provided to the Contracting Officer within 90 days from the issuance of the

L0:final decision under paragraph (g)(2)(i) of this clause. The Government will no longer be bound, and the Contractor or

L0:subcontractor agrees that the Government may strike or ignore the restrictive marking that is based on the asserted L0:restriction, if the Contractor or subcontractor fails to file its suit within 1 year after issuance of the final decision.

L0:Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the head of an agency determines, on a nondelegable basis, that urgent or compelling

L0:circumstances will not permit waiting for the filing of a suit in the United States Court of Federal Claims , the Contractor

L0:or subcontractor agrees that the agency may, following notice to the Contractor or subcontractor, authorize release or

L0:disclosure of the technical data. Such agency determination may be made at any time after issuance of the final decision

L0:and will not affect the Contractor's or subcontractor's right to damages against the United States where its asserted L0:restrictions are ultimately upheld or to pursue other relief, if any, as may be provided by law.

L1:(iv) The Government agrees that it will be bound by the asserted restrictions where an appeal or suit is filed pursuant to the

L0:Contract Disputes statute until final disposition by an agency Board of Contract Appeals or the United States Court of

L0:Federal Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the head of an agency determines, on a nondelegable basis,

L0:following notice to the Contractor that urgent or compelling circumstances will not permit awaiting the decision by such

L0:Board of Contract Appeals or the United States Court of Federal Claims, the Contractor or subcontractor agrees that the

L0:agency may authorize release or disclosure of the technical data. Such agency determination may be made at any time after

L0:issuance of the final decision and will not affect the Contractor's or subcontractor's right to damages against the United

L0:States where its asserted restrictions are ultimately upheld or to pursue other relief, if any, as may be provided by law.

L1:(h) Final disposition of appeal or suit.

L1:(1) If the Contractor or subcontractor appeals or files suit and if, upon final disposition of the appeal or suit, the

L0:Contracting Officer's decision is sustained?

L1:(i) The restrictive marking that is based on the asserted restriction on the technical data shall be cancelled, corrected, or

L0:ignored; and

L1:(ii) If the asserted restriction is found not to be substantially justified, the Contractor or subcontractor, as appropriate, shall

L0:be liable to the Government for payment of the cost to the Government of reviewing the asserted restriction and the fees

L0:and other expenses (as defined in 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(A)) incurred by the Government in challenging the asserted L0:restriction, unless special circumstances would make such payment unjust.

L1:(2) If the Contractor or subcontractor appeals or files suit and if, upon final disposition of the appeal or suit, the

L0:Contracting Officer's decision is not sustained?

L1:(i) The Government will continue to be bound by the restrictive marking; and

L1:(ii) The Government will be liable to the Contractor or subcontractor for payment of fees and other expenses (as defined in L0:28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(A)) incurred by the Contractor or subcontractor in defending the marking, if the challenge by the

L0:Government is found not to have been made in good faith.

L1:(i) Duration of right to challenge.

L1:(1) The Government may review the validity of any restriction on technical data, delivered or to be delivered under a L0:contract, asserted by the Contractor or subcontractor. During the period within 6 years of final payment on a contract or

L0:within 6 years of delivery of the technical data to the Government, whichever is later, the Contracting Officer may review

L0:and make a written determination to challenge the restriction. The Government may, however, challenge a restriction on the L0:release, disclosure, or use of technical data at any time if such technical data?

L1:(i) Are publicly available;

L1:(ii) Have been furnished to the United States without restriction;

L1:(iii) Have been otherwise made available without restriction; or

L1:(iv) Are the subject of a fraudulently asserted use or release restriction.

L1:(2) Only the Contracting Officer's final decision resolving a formal challenge by sustaining the validity of a restrictive

L0:marking constitutes ?validation? as addressed in 10 U.S.C. 3785(c).

L1:(j) Decision not to challenge. A decision by the Government, or a determination by the Contracting Officer, to not

L0:challenge the restrictive marking or asserted restriction shall not constitute ?validation.?

L1:(k) Privity of contract. The Contractor or subcontractor agrees that the Contracting Officer may transact matters under this

L0:clause directly with subcontractors at any tier that assert restrictions. However, this clause neither creates nor implies

L0:privity of contract between the Government and subcontractor.

L1:(l) Flowdown. The Contractor or subcontractor agrees to insert this clause in contractual instruments, including

L0:subcontracts and other contractual instruments for commercial products or commercial services, with its subcontractors or

L0:suppliers at any tier requiring the delivery of technical data.

L0:(End of clause)

L0:252.227-7038 Patent Rights?Ownership by the Contractor (Large Business).

L1:(ii) The benefits of the invention are, to the extent permitted by law or Government regulations, available to the public on

L0:reasonable terms.

L0:?Subject invention? means any invention of the Contractor made in the performance of work under this contract.

L1:(b) Contractor?s rights.

L1:(1) Ownership. The Contractor may elect to retain ownership of each subject invention throughout the world in accordance L0:with the provisions of this clause.

L1:(2) License.

L1:(i) The Contractor shall retain a nonexclusive royalty-free license throughout the world in each subject invention to which

L0:the Government obtains title, unless the Contractor fails to disclose the invention within the times specified in paragraph

L1:(c) of this clause. The Contractor?s license?

L1:(A) Extends to any domestic subsidiaries and affiliates within the corporate structure of which the Contractor is a part;

L1:(B) Includes the right to grant sublicenses to the extent the Contractor was legally obligated to do so at the time of contract

L0:award; and

L1:(C) Is transferable only with the approval of the agency, except when transferred to the successor of that part of the L0:Contractor?s business to which the invention pertains.

L1:(ii) The agency?

L1:(A) May revoke or modify the Contractor?s domestic license to the extent necessary to achieve expeditious practical
L0:application of the subject invention pursuant to an application for an exclusive license submitted in accordance with 37

L0:CFR Part 404 and agency licensing regulations;

L1:(B) Will not revoke the license in that field of use or the geographical areas in which the Contractor has achieved practical

L0:application and continues to make the benefits of the invention reasonably accessible to the public; and

L1:(C) May revoke or modify the license in any foreign country to the extent the Contractor, its licensees, or the domestic

L0:subsidiaries or affiliates have failed to achieve practical application in that foreign country.

L1:(iii) Before revoking or modifying the license, the agency?

L1:(A) Will furnish the Contractor a written notice of its intention to revoke or modify the license; and L1:(B) Will allow the Contractor 30 days (or such other time as the funding agency may authorize for good cause shown by

L0:the Contractor) after the notice to show cause why the license should not be revoked or modified.

L1:(iv) The Contractor has the right to appeal, in accordance with 37 CFR Part 404 and agency regulations, concerning the

L0:licensing of Government-owned inventions, any decision concerning the revocation or modification of the license.

L1:(c) Contractor?s obligations.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall?

L1:(i) Disclose, in writing, each subject invention to the Contracting Officer within 2 months after the inventor discloses it
in

L0:writing to Contractor personnel responsible for patent matters, or within 6 months after the Contractor first becomes aware

L0:that a subject invention has been made, whichever is earlier;

L1:(ii) Include in the disclosure?

L1:(A) The inventor(s) and the contract under which the invention was made;

L1:(B) Sufficient technical detail to convey a clear understanding of the invention; and

L1:(C) Any publication, on sale (i.e., sale or offer for sale), or public use of the invention and whether a manuscript describing

L0:the invention has been submitted for publication and, if so, whether it has been accepted for publication; and

L1:(iii) After submission of the disclosure, promptly notify the Contracting Officer of the acceptance of any manuscript

L0:describing the invention for publication and of any on sale or public use.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall elect in writing whether or not to retain ownership of any subject invention by notifying the

L0:Contracting Officer at the time of disclosure or within 8 months of disclosure, as to those countries (including the United

L0:States) in which the Contractor will retain ownership. However, in any case where publication, on sale, or public use has

L0:initiated the 1-year statutory period during which valid patent protection can be obtained in the United States, the agency

L0:may shorten the period of election of title to a date that is no more than 60 days prior to the end of the statutory period.

L1:(3) The Contractor shall?

L1:(i) File either a provisional or a nonprovisional patent application on an elected subject invention within 1 year after
L0:election, provided that in all cases the application is filed prior to the end of any statutory period wherein valid patent
L0:protection can be obtained in the United States after a publication, on sale, or public use;

L1:(ii) File a nonprovisional application within 10 months of the filing of any provisional application; and

L1:(iii) File patent applications in additional countries or international patent offices within either 10 months of the first filed

L0:patent application (whether provisional or nonprovisional) or 6 months from the date the Commissioner of Patents grants

L0:permission to file foreign patent applications where such filing has been prohibited by a Secrecy Order.

L1:(4) The Contractor may request extensions of time for disclosure, election, or filing under paragraphs (c)(1), (2), and
(3) of

L0:this clause. The Contracting Officer will normally grant the extension unless there is reason to believe the extension would

L0:prejudice the Government's interests.

L1:(d) Government's rights.

L1:(1) Ownership. The Contractor shall assign to the agency, upon written request, title to any subject invention?

L1:(i) If the Contractor elects not to retain title to a subject invention;

L1:(ii) If the Contractor fails to disclose or elect the subject invention within the times specified in paragraph (c) of this clause

L0:and the agency requests title within 60 days after learning of the Contractor's failure to report or elect within the specified

L0:times;

L1:(iii) In those countries in which the Contractor fails to file patent applications within the times specified in paragraph
(c) of

L0:this clause, provided that, if the Contractor has filed a patent application in a country after the times specified in paragraph

L1:(c) of this clause, but prior to its receipt of the written request of the agency, the Contractor shall continue to retain

L0:ownership in that country; and

L1:(iv) In any country in which the Contractor decides not to continue the prosecution of any application for, to pay the

L0:maintenance fees on, or defend in reexamination or opposition proceeding on, a patent on a subject invention.

L1:(2) License. If the Contractor retains ownership of any subject invention, the Government shall have a nonexclusive,
L0:nontransferable, irrevocable, paid-up license to practice, or have practiced for or on behalf of the United States, the subject

L0:invention throughout the world.

L1:(e) Contractor action to protect the Government's interest.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall execute or have executed and promptly deliver to the agency all instruments necessary to?

L0:patent protection for that subject invention in any country.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall?

L1:(i) Require, by written agreement, its employees, other than clerical and nontechnical employees, to?

L1:(A) Disclose each subject invention promptly in writing to personnel identified as responsible for the administration of L0:patent matters, so that the Contractor can comply with the disclosure provisions in paragraph (c) of this clause; and L1:(B) Provide the disclosure in the Contractor's format, which should require, as a minimum, the information required
by
L0:paragraph (c)(1) of this clause;
L1:(ii) Instruct its employees, through employee agreements or other suitable educational programs, as to the importance of
L0:reporting inventions in sufficient time to permit the filing of patent applications prior to U.S. or statutory foreign bars;
and
L1:(iii) Execute all papers necessary to file patent applications on subject inventions and to establish the Government's rights
L0:in the subject inventions.
L1:(3) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer of any decisions not to file a nonprovisional patent application,
L0:continue the prosecution of a patent application, pay maintenance fees, or defend in a reexamination or opposition
L0:proceeding on a patent, in any country, not less than 30 days before the expiration of the response or filing period required
L0:by the relevant patent office.
L1:(4) The Contractor shall include, within the specification of any United States nonprovisional patent application and any
L0:patent issuing thereon covering a subject invention, the following statement: "This invention was made with Government
L0:support under (identify the contract) awarded by (identify the agency). The Government has certain rights in this
L0:invention."
L1:(5) The Contractor shall?
L1:(i) Establish and maintain active and effective procedures to ensure that subject inventions are promptly identified
and
L0:disclosed to Contractor personnel responsible for patent matters;
L1:(ii) Include in these procedures the maintenance of?
L1:(A) Laboratory notebooks or equivalent records and other records as are reasonably necessary to document the conception
L0:and/or the first actual reduction to practice of subject inventions; and L1:(B) Records that show that the procedures for identifying and disclosing the inventions are followed; and L1:(iii) Upon request, furnish the Contracting Officer a description of these procedures for evaluation and for determination as
L0:to their effectiveness.
L1:(6) The Contractor shall, when licensing a subject invention, arrange to?
L1:(i) Avoid royalty charges on acquisitions involving Government funds, including funds derived through the Government's
L0:Military Assistance Program or otherwise derived through the Government;
L1:(ii) Refund any amounts received as royalty charges on the subject inventions in acquisitions for, or on behalf of, the L0:Government; and
L1:(iii) Provide for the refund in any instrument transferring rights in the invention to any party.
L1:(7) The Contractor shall furnish to the Contracting Officer the following:
L1:(i) Interim reports every 12 months (or any longer period as may be specified by the Contracting Officer) from the date of

L0:the contract, listing subject inventions during that period and stating that all subject inventions have been disclosed or that

L0:there are no subject inventions.

L1:(ii) A final report, within 3 months after completion of the contracted work, listing all subject inventions or stating that L0:there were no subject inventions, and listing all subcontracts at any tier containing a patent rights clause or stating that

L0:there were no subcontracts.

L1:(8)(i) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer in writing upon the award of any subcontract at any tier

L0:containing a patent rights clause by identifying?

L1:(A) The subcontractor;

L1:(B) The applicable patent rights clause;

L1:(C) The work to be performed under the subcontract; and

L1:(D) The dates of award and estimated completion.

L1:(ii) The Contractor shall furnish, upon request, a copy of the subcontract, and no more frequently than annually, a listing of L0:the subcontracts that have been awarded.

L1:(9) In the event of a refusal by a prospective subcontractor to accept one of the clauses specified in paragraph (l)(1) of this

L0:clause, the Contractor?

L1:(i) Shall promptly submit a written notice to the Contracting Officer setting forth the subcontractor's reasons for the refusal

L0:and other pertinent information that may expedite disposition of the matter; and

L1:(ii) Shall not proceed with that subcontract without the written authorization of the Contracting Officer.

L1:(10) The Contractor shall provide to the Contracting Officer, upon request, the following information for any subject L0:invention for which the Contractor has retained ownership:

L1:(i) Filing date.

L1:(ii) Serial number and title.

L1:(iii) A copy of any patent application (including an English-language version if filed in a language other than English).

L1:(iv) Patent number and issue date.

L1:(11) The Contractor shall furnish to the Government, upon request, an irrevocable power to inspect and make copies of any

L0:patent application file.

L1:(f) Reporting on utilization of subject inventions.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall?

L1:(i) Submit upon request periodic reports no more frequently than annually on the utilization of a subject invention or on

L0:efforts in obtaining utilization of the subject invention that are being made by the Contractor or its licensees or assignees;

L1:(ii) Include in the reports information regarding the status of development, date of first commercial sale or use, gross L0:royalties received by the Contractor, and other information as the agency may reasonably specify; and

L1:(iii) Provide additional reports that the agency may request in connection with any march-in proceedings undertaken by the

L0:agency in accordance with paragraph (h) of this clause.

L1:(2) To the extent permitted by law, the agency shall not disclose the information provided under paragraph (f)(1) of this

L0:clause to persons outside the Government without the Contractor's permission, if the data or information is considered by

L0:the Contractor or its licensee or assignee to be "privileged and confidential" (see 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)) and is so marked.

L1:(g) Preference for United States industry. Notwithstanding any other provision of this clause, the Contractor agrees that

L0:neither the Contractor nor any assignee shall grant to any person the exclusive right to use or sell any subject invention in

L0:the United States unless the person agrees that any products embodying the subject invention or produced through the use

L0:of the subject invention will be manufactured substantially in the United States. However, in individual cases, the agency

L0:may waive the requirement for an exclusive license agreement upon a showing by the Contractor or its assignee that?

L1:(1) Reasonable but unsuccessful efforts have been made to grant licenses on similar terms to potential licensees that would

L0:be likely to manufacture substantially in the United States; or

L1:(2) Under the circumstances, domestic manufacture is not commercially feasible.

L1:(h) March-in rights. The Contractor acknowledges that, with respect to any subject invention in which it has retained

L0:ownership, the agency has the right to require licensing pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 203 and 210(c), 37 CFR 401.6, and any

L0:supplemental regulations of the agency in effect on the date of contract award.

L1:(i) Other inventions. Nothing contained in this clause shall be deemed to grant to the Government any rights with respect to L0:any invention other than a subject invention.

L1:(j) Examination of records relating to inventions.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer or any authorized representative shall, until 3 years after final payment under this contract,

L0:have the right to examine any books (including laboratory notebooks), records, and documents of the Contractor relating to

L0:the conception or first reduction to practice of inventions in the same field of technology as the work under this contract to

L0:determine whether?

L1:(i) Any inventions are subject inventions;

L1:(ii) The Contractor has established procedures required by paragraph (e)(5) of this clause; and

L1:(iii) The Contractor and its inventors have complied with the procedures.

L1:(2) If the Contracting Officer learns of an unreported Contractor invention that the Contracting Officer believes may be a

L0:subject invention, the Contractor shall be required to disclose the invention to the agency for a determination of ownership

L0:rights.

L1:(3) Any examination of records under this paragraph (j) shall be subject to appropriate conditions to protect the

L0:confidentiality of the information involved.

L1:(k) Withholding of payment (this paragraph does not apply to subcontracts).

L1:(1) Any time before final payment under this contract, the Contracting Officer may, in the Government's interest, withhold

L0:New production articles become aircraft at a stage of manufacture or production when a wing, portion of a wing, or engine

L0:is attached to a fuselage. Blended wing/lifting bodies become aircraft at a stage of manufacture or production when the L0:center portion and a lifting surface become attached.

assigned for the

L0:purpose of conducting any flight on behalf of the Contractor. It also includes any operator of an unmanned aerial vehicle.

L0:GFR, who has been authorized in accordance with the combined regulation/instruction entitled "Contractor's Flight and

L0:Ground Operations?;

L1:(3) Occurs in the course of transportation by rail, or by conveyance on public streets, highways, or waterways, unless the

L0:corrected. Within 3 days of receipt of the Contractor's notice of correction, the Contracting Officer will notify the

L0:Contractor whether the Government will resume risk of loss. The Contracting Officer will determine that the L0:noncompliance or cited conditions have been corrected prior to resuming assumption of risk.

L1:(6) The notice of revocation does not relieve the Contractor of its obligation to comply with all other provisions of this L0:clause, including the combined regulation/instruction entitled "Contractor's Flight and Ground Operations."

L1:(7) Any disputes regarding the Contracting Officer's notice of revocation shall be subject to FAR clause 52.233-1, L0:Disputes.

L0:even if the assumption may be terminated for covered aircraft.

L1:(g) Procedures in the event of damage, loss, or destruction .

L1:(iii) Considered beyond economic repair. The Contracting Officer will decide whether further actions are required under

L0:the contract.

L0:covered, the Contractor shall take action in accordance with the Contracting Officer's written direction that the aircraft

L0:shall be?

L1:(i) Repaired; or

L1:(ii) Considered beyond economic repair. The Contracting Officer will decide further actions required under the contract.

L1:(iii) 20 percent of the price or estimated cost of the contract, task order, or delivery order.

L1:(2) If the Government requires covered aircraft be replaced or repaired by the Contractor, any resulting equitable

L0:adjustment shall not include reimbursement of the Contractor's share of loss.

L1:(3) In the event the Government does not decide to replace or repair, the Contractor agrees to credit the contract price or L0:pay the Government, as directed by the Contracting Officer, the least of?

L1:(i) $200,000;

L1:(ii) 20 percent of the price or estimated acquisition cost of affected aircraft; or

L1:(iii) 20 percent of the price or estimated cost of the contract, task order, or delivery order.

L0:against third parties for damage, loss, or destruction. Upon the request of the Contracting Officer or authorized

L0:representative, the Contractor shall at Government expense furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and

L0:cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment or subrogation) in obtaining

252.234-7002 Earned Value Management System

Status: active

L0:252.234-7002 Earned Value Management System.

L0:As prescribed in 234.203 (2), use the following clause:

L0:EARNED VALUE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (JAN 2025)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause??

L0:?"Acceptable earned value management system?" means an earned value management system that generally complies with

L0:system criteria in paragraph (b) of this clause.

L0:?"Earned value management system?" means an earned value management system that complies with the earned value

L0:management system guidelines in the ANSI/EIA-748.

L0:?"Material weakness?" means a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in the internal control over information in

L0:contractor business systems, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of such information will

L0:not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the likelihood of an

L0:event occurring is?

L1:(1) Probable; or

L1:(2) More than remote but less than likely (section 806 of Pub. L. 116-283).

L1:(b) System criteria. In the performance of this contract, the Contractor shall use?

L1:(1) An Earned Value Management System (EVMS) that complies with the EVMS guidelines in the American National Standards Institute/Electronic Industries Alliance Standard 748, Earned Value Management Systems (ANSI/EIA-748); and

L1:(2) Management procedures that provide for generation of timely, reliable, and verifiable information for the Contract

L0:Performance Report (CPR) and the Integrated Master Schedule (IMS) required by the CPR and IMS data items of this

L0:contract.

L1:(c) If this contract has a value of $50 million or more, the Contractor shall use an EVMS that has been determined to be

L0:acceptable by the Cognizant Federal Agency (CFA). If, at the time of award, the Contractor?s EVMS has not been

L0:determined by the CFA to be in compliance with the EVMS guidelines as stated in paragraph (b)(1) of this clause, the

L0:Contractor shall apply its current system to the contract and shall take necessary actions to meet the milestones in the

L0:Contractor's EVMS plan.

L1:(d) If this contract has a value of less than $50 million, the Government will not make a formal determination that the L0:Contractor's EVMS complies with the EVMS guidelines in ANSI/EIA-748 with respect to the contract. The use of the L0:Contractor's EVMS for this contract does not imply a Government determination of the Contractor's compliance with the L0:EVMS guidelines in ANSI/EIA-748 for application to future contracts. The Government will allow the use of a L0:Contractor's EVMS that has been formally reviewed and determined by the CFA to be in compliance with the EVMS L0:guidelines in ANSI/EIA-748.

L1:(e) The Contractor shall submit notification of any proposed substantive changes to the EVMS procedures and the impact

L0:of those changes to the CFA. If this contract has a value of $50 million or more, unless a waiver is granted by the CFA, any

L0:EVMS changes proposed by the Contractor require approval of the CFA prior to implementation. The CFA will advise the

L0:Contractor of the acceptability of such changes as soon as practicable (generally within 30 calendar days) after receipt of

L0:the Contractor's notice of proposed changes. If the CFA waives the advance approval requirements, the Contractor shall

L0:disclose EVMS changes to the CFA at least 14 calendar days prior to the effective date of implementation.

L1:(f) The Government will schedule integrated baseline reviews as early as practicable, and the review process will be L0:conducted not later than 180 calendar days after?

L1:(1) Contract award;

L1:(2) The exercise of significant contract options; and

L1:(3) The incorporation of major modifications.

L0:During such reviews, the Government and the Contractor will jointly assess the Contractor's baseline to be used for L0:performance measurement to ensure complete coverage of the statement of work, logical scheduling of the work activities,

L0:adequate resourcing, and identification of inherent risks.

L1:(g) The Contractor shall provide access to all pertinent records and data requested by the Contracting Officer or duly L0:authorized representative as necessary to permit Government surveillance to ensure that the EVMS complies, and L0:continues to comply, with the performance criteria referenced in paragraph (b) of this clause.

L1:(h) When indicated by contract performance, the Contractor shall submit a request for approval to initiate an over-target

L0:baseline or over-target schedule to the Contracting Officer. The request shall include a top-level projection of cost and/or L0:schedule growth, a determination of whether or not performance variances will be retained, and a schedule of L0:implementation for the rebaselining. The Government will acknowledge receipt of the request in a timely manner L0:(generally within 30 calendar days).

L1:(i) Material weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer will provide an initial determination to the Contractor, in writing, of any material weaknesses.

L0:The initial determination will describe the underlying deficiency in sufficient detail to allow the Contractor to understand

L0:the weakness or deficiency.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall respond within 30 days to a written initial determination from the Contracting Officer that

L0:identifies material weaknesses in the Contractor's EVMS. If the Contractor disagrees with the initial determination, the

L0:Contractor shall state, in writing, its rationale for disagreeing.

L1:(3) The Contracting Officer will evaluate the Contractor's response and notify the Contractor, in writing, of the Contracting

L0:Officer's final determination concerning?

L1:(i) Remaining material weaknesses;

L1:(ii) The adequacy of any proposed or completed corrective action;

L1:(iii) System noncompliance, when the Contractor's existing EVMS fails to comply with the earned value management

L0:system guidelines in the ANSI/EIA-748; and

L1:(iv) System disapproval, if initial EVMS validation is not successfully completed within the timeframe approved by the

L0:Contracting Officer, or if the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor's earned value management system

L0:contains one or more material weaknesses in high-risk guidelines in ANSI/EIA-748 standards (guidelines 1, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, L0:10, 12, 16, 21, 23, 26, 27, 28, 30, or 32). When the Contracting Officer determines that the existing earned value

L0:management system contains one or more material weaknesses in one or more of the remaining 16 guidelines in

L0:ANSI/EIA-748 standards, the Contracting Officer will use discretion to disapprove the system based on input received

L0:from functional specialists and the auditor.

L1:(4) If the Contractor receives the Contracting Officer's final determination of material weaknesses, the Contractor shall,

L0:within 45 days of receipt of the final determination, either correct the material weaknesses or submit an acceptable

L0:corrective action plan showing milestones and actions to eliminate the material weaknesses.

L1:(j) Withholding payments. If the Contracting Officer makes a final determination to disapprove the Contractor's EVMS,

L0:and the contract includes the clause at 252.242-7005 , Contractor Business Systems, the Contracting Officer will withhold

L0:payments in accordance with that clause.

L1:(k) Subcontracts. With the exception of paragraphs (i) and (j) of this clause, the Contractor shall require its subcontractors

L0:to comply with EVMS requirements as follows:

L1:(1) For subcontracts valued at $50 million or more, the following subcontractors shall comply with the requirements of this

L0:clause:

L0:[Contracting Officer to insert names of subcontractors (or subcontracted effort if subcontractors have not been selected)

L0:designated for application of the EVMS requirements of this clause.]

L1:(2) For subcontracts valued at less than $50 million, the following subcontractors shall comply with the requirements of

L0:this clause, excluding the requirements of paragraph (c) of this clause:

L0:[Contracting Officer to insert names of subcontractors (or subcontracted effort if subcontractors have not been selected)

L0:designated for application of the EVMS requirements of this clause.]

L0:provided in Sections 15, 19, and 20 of the River and Harbor Act of March 3, 1899 (33 U.S.C. 410 et. seq.).

L0:the work site) acquired for the execution of the work;

L1:(2) Transportation of all plant and equipment to the site;

L1:(3) Material purchased for the prosecution of the contract, but not to be incorporated in the work;

L0:Contracting Officer.

L1:(d) Upon receiving a request for payment, the Government will make payment, less any prescribed retained percentage, if

L0:?

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer finds the?

L0:under this item.

L1:(2) If the total of payments so made does not reduce this item to zero, the balance will be paid to the Contractor in the final

L0:payment under the contract.

L1:(3) The retained percentage will be paid in accordance with the Payments to Contractor clause of this contract.

L1:(f) The Contracting Officer shall determine the value and suitability of the construction plant, equipment, materials,

252.236-7004 Payment for Mobilization and Demobilization

Status: active

L0:252.236-7004 Payment for Mobilization and Demobilization.

L0:As prescribed in 236.570 (b)(2), use the following clause:

L0:PAYMENT FOR MOBILIZATION AND DEMOBILIZATION (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) The Government will pay all costs for the mobilization and demobilization of all of the Contractor's plant and equipment at the contract lump sum price for this item.

L1:(1) _____ percent of the lump sum price upon completion of the contractor's mobilization at the work site.

L1:(2) The remaining _____ percent upon completion of demobilization.

L1:(b) The Contracting Officer may require the Contractor to furnish cost data to justify this portion of the bid if the

L0:Contracting Officer believes that the percentages in paragraphs (a)(1) and (2) of this clause do not bear a reasonable

L0:relation to the cost of the work in this contract.

L1:(1) Failure to justify such price to the satisfaction of the Contracting Officer will result in payment, as determined by the L0:Contracting Officer, of?

L1:(i) Actual mobilization costs at completion of mobilization;

L1:(ii) Actual demobilization costs at completion of demobilization; and

L1:(iii) The remainder of this item in the final payment under this contract.

252.236-7005 Airfield Safety Precautions

Status: active

L0:252.236-7005 Airfield Safety Precautions.

L0:As prescribed in 236.570 (b)(3), use the following clause. At some airfields, the width of the primary surface is 1,500 feet

L0:(750 feet on each side of the runway centerline). In such instances, substitute the proper width in the clause.

L0:AIRFIELD SAFETY PRECAUTIONS (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) Definitions. As used in this clause?

L1:(1) ?Landing areas? means?

L1:(i) The primary surfaces, comprising the surface of the runway, runway shoulders, and lateral safety zones. The length of L0:each primary surface is the same as the runway length. The width of each primary surface is 2,000 feet (1,000 feet on each

L0:side of the runway centerline);

L1:(ii) The ?clear zone? beyond the ends of each runway, i.e., the extension of the primary surface for a distance of 1,000 feet

L0:beyond each end of each runway;

L1:(iii) All taxiways, plus the lateral clearance zones along each side for the length of the taxiways (the outer edge of each

L0:lateral clearance zone is laterally 250 feet from the far or opposite edge of the taxiway, e.g., a 75-foot-wide taxiway would

L0:have a combined width of taxiway and lateral clearance zones of 425 feet); and

L1:(iv) All aircraft parking aprons, plus the area 125 feet in width extending beyond each edge all around the aprons.

L1:(2) ?Safety precaution areas? means those portions of approach-departure clearance zones and transitional zones where

L0:placement of objects incident to contract performance might result in vertical projections at or above the approach-departure clearance, or the transitional surface.

L1:(i) The ?approach-departure clearance surface? is an extension of the primary surface and the clear zone at each end of

L0:each runway, for a distance of 50,000 feet, first along an inclined (glide angle) and then along a horizontal plane, both

L0:flaring symmetrically about the runway centerline extended.

L1:(A) The inclined plane (glide angle) begins in the clear zone 200 feet past the end of the runway (and primary surface) at

L0:the same elevation as the end of the runway. It continues upward at a slope of 50:1 (1 foot vertically for each 50 feet L0:horizontally) to an elevation of 500 feet above the established airfield elevation. At that point the plane becomes horizontal,

L0:continuing at that same uniform elevation to a point 50,000 feet longitudinally from the beginning of the inclined plane

L0:(glide angle) and ending there.

L1:(B) The width of the surface at the beginning of the inclined plane (glide angle) is the same as the width of the clear zone.

L0:It then flares uniformly, reaching the maximum width of 16,000 feet at the end.

L1:(ii) The ?approach-departure clearance zone? is the ground area under the approach-departure clearance surface.

L1:(iii) The ?transitional surface? is a sideways extension of all primary surfaces, clear zones, and approach-departure

L0:clearance surfaces along inclined planes.

L1:(A) The inclined plane in each case begins at the edge of the surface.

L1:(B) The slope of the incline plane is 7:1 (1 foot vertically for each 7 feet horizontally). It continues to the point of L0:intersection with the?

L1:(1) Inner horizontal surface (which is the horizontal plane 150 feet above the established airfield elevation); or

L1:(2) Outer horizontal surface (which is the horizontal plane 500 feet above the established airfield elevation), whichever is

L0:applicable.

L1:(iv) The ?transitional zone? is the ground area under the transitional surface. (It adjoins the primary surface, clear zone, and L0:approach-departure clearance zone.)

L1:(b) General.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall comply with the requirements of this clause while?

L1:(i) Operating all ground equipment (mobile or stationary);

L1:(ii) Placing all materials; and

L1:(iii) Performing all work, upon and around all airfields.

L1:(2) The requirements of this clause are in addition to any other safety requirements of this contract.

L1:(c) The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Report to the Contracting Officer before initiating any work;

L1:(2) Notify the Contracting Officer of proposed changes to locations and operations;

L1:(3) Not permit either its equipment or personnel to use any runway for purposes other than aircraft operation without L0:permission of the Contracting Officer, unless the runway is?

L1:(i) Closed by order of the Contracting Officer; and

L1:(ii) Marked as provided in paragraph (d)(2) of this clause;

L1:(4) Keep all paved surfaces, such as runways, taxiways, and hardstands, clean at all times and, specifically, free from small

L0:stones which might damage aircraft propellers or jet aircraft;

L1:(5) Operate mobile equipment according to the safety provisions of this clause, while actually performing work on the L0:airfield. At all other times, the Contractor shall remove all mobile equipment to locations?

L1:(i) Approved by the Contracting Officer;

L1:(ii) At a distance of at least 750 feet from the runway centerline, plus any additional distance; and

L1:(iii) Necessary to ensure compliance with the other provisions of this clause; and

L1:(6) Not open a trench unless material is on hand and ready for placing in the trench. As soon as practicable after material

L0:has been placed and work approved, the Contractor shall backfill and compact trenches as required by the contract.

L0:Meanwhile, all hazardous conditions shall be marked and lighted in accordance with the other provisions of this clause.

L1:(d) Landing areas. The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Place nothing upon the landing areas without the authorization of the Contracting Officer;

L1:(2) Outline those landing areas hazardous to aircraft, using (unless otherwise authorized by the Contracting Officer) red

L0:flags by day, and electric, battery-operated low-intensity red flasher lights by night;

L1:(3) Obtain, at an airfield where flying is controlled, additional permission from the control tower operator every time

L0:before entering any landing area, unless the landing area is marked as hazardous in accordance with paragraph (d)(2) of

L0:this clause;

L1:(4) Identify all vehicles it operates in landing areas by means of a flag on a staff attached to, and flying above, the vehicle.

L0:The flag shall be three feet square, and consist of a checkered pattern of international orange and white squares of 1 foot on

L0:each side (except that the flag may vary up to ten percent from each of these dimensions);

L1:(5) Mark all other equipment and materials in the landing areas, using the same marking devices as in paragraph (d)(2) of

L0:this clause; and

L1:(6) Perform work so as to leave that portion of the landing area which is available to aircraft free from hazards, holes, piles

L0:of material, and projecting shoulders that might damage an airplane tire.

L1:(e) Safety precaution areas. The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Place nothing upon the safety precaution areas without authorization of the Contracting Officer;

L1:(2) Mark all equipment and materials in safety precaution areas, using (unless otherwise authorized by the Contracting

L0:Officer) red flags by day, and electric, battery-operated, low-intensity red flasher lights by night; and

L1:(3) Provide all objects placed in safety precaution areas with a red light or red lantern at night, if the objects project above

L0:the approach-departure clearance surface or above the transitional surface.

L0:(End of clause)

252.236-7006 Cost Limitation

Status: active

L0:252.236-7006 Cost Limitation.

L0:As prescribed in 236.570 (b)(4), use the following provision:

L0:COST LIMITATION (JAN 1997)

L1:(a) Certain items in this solicitation are subject to statutory cost limitations. The limitations are stated in the Schedule.

L1:(b) An offer which does not state separate prices for the items identified in the Schedule as subject to a cost limitation may

L0:be considered nonresponsive.

L1:(c) Prices stated in offers for items subject to cost limitations shall include an appropriate apportionment of all costs, direct

L0:and indirect, overhead, and profit.

L1:(d) Offers may be rejected which?

L1:(1) Are materially unbalanced for the purpose of bringing items within cost limitations; or

L1:(2) Exceed the cost limitations, unless the limitations have been waived by the Government prior to award.

L0:(End of provision)

252.236-7007 Additive or Deductive Items

Status: active

L0:252.236-7007 Additive or Deductive Items.

L0:As prescribed in 236.570 (b)(5), use the following provision:

L0:ADDITIVE OR DEDUCTIVE ITEMS (DEC 1991)

L1:(a) The low offeror and the items to be awarded shall be determined as follows?

L1:(1) Prior to the opening of bids, the Government will determine the amount of funds available for the project.

L1:(2) The low offeror shall be the Offeror that?

L1:(i) Is otherwise eligible for award; and

L1:(ii) Offers the lowest aggregate amount for the first or base bid item, plus or minus (in the order stated in the list of L0:priorities in the bid schedule) those additive or deductive items that provide the most features within the funds determined

L0:available.

L1:(3) The Contracting Officer shall evaluate all bids on the basis of the same additive or deductive items.

L1:(i) If adding another item from the bid schedule list of priorities would make the award exceed the available funds for all

L0:offerors, the Contracting Officer will skip that item and go to the next item from the bid schedule of priorities; and

L1:(ii) Add that next item if an award may be made that includes that item and is within the available funds.

L1:(b) The Contracting Officer will use the list of priorities in the bid schedule only to determine the low offeror. After L0:determining the low offeror, an award may be made on any combination of items if?

L1:(1) It is in the best interest of the Government;

L1:(2) Funds are available at the time of award; and

L1:(3) The low offeror's price for the combination to be awarded is less than the price offered by any other responsive,
L0:responsible offeror.

L1:(c) Example. The amount available is $100,000. Offeror A's base bid and four additives (in the order stated in the list of L0:priorities in the bid Schedule) are $85,000, $10,000, $8,000, $6,000, and $4,000. Offeror B's base bid and four additives

L0:are $80,000, $16,000, $9,000, $7,000, and $4,000. Offeror A is the low offeror. The aggregate amount of offeror A's bid for

L0:purposes of award would be $99,000, which includes a base bid plus the first and fourth additives. The second and third

L0:additives were skipped because each of them would cause the aggregate bid to exceed $100,000.

L1:(2) Performing all operations required to complete the work in conformity with the drawings and specifications.

L1:(b) The Contractor shall include in the prices for the items listed in the Bidding Schedule all costs for work in the L0:specifications, whether or not specifically listed in the Bidding Schedule.

L1:(g) Expediting charges are costs necessary to get services earlier than normal. Examples are overtime pay or special

L0:shipment. When authorized, expediting charges shall be the additional costs incurred by the Contractor and the L0:subcontractor. The Government shall pay expediting charges only when?

L1:(1) They are provided for in the tariff established by a governmental regulatory body; or

L1:(2) They are authorized in a communication service authorization or other contractual document.

L1:(h) When services normally provided are technically unacceptable and the development, fabrication, or manufacture of L0:special equipment is required, the Government may?

L1:(1) Provide the equipment; or

L1:(2) Direct the Contractor to acquire the equipment or facilities. If the Contractor acquires the equipment or facilities, the L0:acquisition shall be competitive, if practicable.

L1:(i) If at any time the Government defers or changes its orders for any of the services but does not cancel or terminate them,

L0:the amount paid or payable to the Contractor for the services deferred or modified shall be equitably adjusted under

L0:applicable tariffs filed by the Contractor with the regulatory commission in effect at the time of deferral or change. If no

L0:tariffs are in effect, the Government and the Contractor shall equitably adjust the rates by mutual agreement. Failure to

L0:agree on any adjustment shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the Disputes clause of this

L0:contract.

L0:(End of clause)

252.239-7007 Cancellation or Termination of Orders

Status: active

L0:252.239-7007 Cancellation or Termination of Orders.

L0:As prescribed in 239.7411 (a), use the following clause:

L0:CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION OF ORDERS (SEP 2019)

L1:(a) Definitions.

L0:Actual nonrecoverable costs? means the installed costs of the facilities and equipment, less cost of reusable materials, and

L0:less net salvage value.

L0:Basic cancellation liability? means the actual nonrecoverable cost, which the Government shall reimburse the Contractor

L0:at the time services are cancelled.

L0:Basic termination liability? means the nonrecoverable cost amortized in equal monthly increments throughout the liability

L0:period.

L0:Installed costs? means the actual cost of equipment and materials specifically provided or used, plus the actual cost of

L0:installing (including engineering, labor, supervision, transportation, rights-of-way, and any other items which are L0:chargeable to the capital accounts of the Contractor), less any costs the government may have directly reimbursed the

L0:Contractor under the Special Construction and Equipment Charges clause of this agreement/contract.

L0:Net salvage value? means the salvage value less the cost of removal.

L1:(b) If the Government cancels any of the services ordered under this agreement/contract, before the services are made

L0:available to the Government, or terminates any of these services after they are made available to the Government, the

L0:Government will reimburse the Contractor for the actual nonrecoverable costs the Contractor has reasonably incurred in

L0:providing facilities and equipment for which the Contractor has no foreseeable reuse. The Government will not reimburse

L0:the Contractor for any actual nonrecoverable costs incurred after notice of award, but prior to execution of the order.

L1:(c) When feasible, the Contractor shall reuse cancelled or terminated facilities or equipment to minimize the charges to the

L0:Government.

L1:(d) If at any time the Government requires that telecommunications facilities or equipment be relocated within the

L0:Contractor's service area, the Government will have the option of paying the costs of relocating the facilities or equipment

L0:in lieu of paying any termination or cancellation charge under this clause. The basic cancellation liability or basic

L0:termination liability applicable to the facilities or equipment in their former location shall continue to apply to the facilities

L0:and equipment in their new location. Monthly recurring charges shall continue to be paid during the period.

L1:(e) When there is another requirement or foreseeable reuse in place of cancelled or terminated facilities or equipment, no

L0:charge shall apply and the basic cancellation liability or basic termination liability shall be appropriately reduced. When

L0:feasible, the Contractor shall promptly reuse discontinued channels or facilities, including equipment for which the L0:Government is obligated to pay a minimum service charge.

L1:(f) The amount of the Government's liability upon cancellation or termination of any of the services ordered under this

L0:agreement/contract will be determined under applicable tariffs governing cancellation and termination charges which?

L1:(1) Are filed by the Contractor with a governmental regulatory body, as defined in the Rates, Charges, and Services clause

L0:of this agreement/contract;

L1:(2) Are in effect on the date of termination; and

L1:(3) Provide specific cancellation or termination charges for the facilities and equipment involved or show how to determine

L0:the charges.

L1:(g) The amount of the Government's liability upon cancellation or termination of any of the services ordered under this

L0:agreement/contract, which are not subject to a governmental regulatory body, will be determined under a mutually agreed

L0:schedule in the communication services authorization (CSA) or other contractual document.

L1:(h) If no applicable tariffs are in effect on the date of cancellation or termination or set forth in the applicable CSA or other

L0:contractual document, the Government's liability will be determined under the following settlement procedures?

L1:(1) The Contractor agrees to provide the Contracting Officer, in such reasonable detail as the Contracting Officer may

L0:require, inventory schedules covering all items of property or facilities in the Contractor's possession, the cost of which is

L0:included in the Basic Cancellation or Termination Liability for which the Contractor has no foreseeable reuse.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall use its best efforts to sell property or facilities when the Contractor has no foreseeable reuse or

L0:when the Government has not exercised its option to take title under the Title to Telecommunications Facilities and

L0:Equipment clause of this agreement/contract. The Contractor shall apply any proceeds of the sale to reduce any payments

L0:by the Government to the Contractor under a cancellation or termination settlement.

L1:(3) The Contractor shall record actual nonrecoverable costs under established accounting procedures prescribed by the

L0:cognizant governmental regulatory authority or, if no such procedures have been prescribed, under generally accepted

L0:accounting procedures applicable to the provision of telecommunication services for public use.

L1:(4) The net salvage value shall be deducted from the Contractor's installed cost. In determining net salvage value, the L0:Contractor shall consider the foreseeable reuse of the facilities and equipment by the Contractor. The Contractor shall make

L0:allowance for the cost of dismantling, removal, reconditioning, and disposal of the facilities and equipment when necessary

L0:either for the sale of facilities or their reuse by the Contractor in another location.

L1:(5) Upon termination of services, the Government will reimburse the Contractor for the nonrecoverable cost less such costs

L0:amortized to the date services are terminated and establish the liability period as mutually agreed to but not to exceed ten

L0:years. In the case of either a cancellation or a termination, the Government's presumed maximum liability will be capped

L0:by the unpaid non-recurring charges and the monthly recurring charges set out in the contract/agreement. The presumed

L0:maximum liability for monthly recurring charges shall be capped at monthly recurring charges for the minimum service

L0:period and any required notice period.

L1:(6) When the basic cancellation liability or basic termination liability established by the CSA or other contractual document

L0:is based on estimated costs, the Contractor agrees to settle on the basis of actual cost at the time of cancellation or L0:termination.

L1:(7) The Contractor agrees that, if after settlement but within the termination liability period of the services, should the L0:Contractor make reuse of equipment or facilities which were treated as nonreusable or nonsalvage in the settlement, the L0:Contractor shall reimburse the Government for the value of the equipment or facilities.

L1:(8) The Contractor agrees to exclude?

L1:(i) Any costs which are not included in determining cancellation and termination charges under the Contractor's standard

L0:practices or procedures; and

L1:(ii) Charges not ordinarily made by the Contractor for similar facilities or equipment, furnished under similar

L0:circumstances.

L1:(i) The Government may, under such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, make partial payments and payments on

L0:account against costs incurred by the Contractor in connection with the cancelled or terminated portion of this

L0:agreement/contract. The Government may make these payments if the Contracting Officer determines that the total of the

L0:payments is within the amount the Contractor is entitled. If the total of the payments is in excess of the amount finally

L0:agreed or determined to be due under this clause, the Contractor shall pay the excess to the Government upon demand.

L1:(j) Failure to agree shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the Disputes clause.

L0:(End of clause)

252.242-7004 Material Management and Accounting System

Status: active

L0:252.242-7004 Material Management and Accounting System.

L0:As prescribed in 242.7204 , use the following clause:

L0:MATERIAL MANAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM (JAN 2025)

L1:(a) Definitions.As used in this clause?

L0:?Acceptable material management and accounting system? means a material management and accounting system that

L0:generally complies with the system criteria in paragraph (d) of this clause.

L0:?Contractor? means a business unit as defined in Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 2.101.

L0:?Material management and accounting system (MMAS)? means the Contractor?s system or systems for planning,

L0:controlling, and accounting for the acquisition, use, issuing, and disposition of material. Material management and

L0:accounting systems may be manual or automated. They may be stand-alone systems, or they may be integrated with

L0:planning, engineering, estimating, purchasing, inventory, accounting, or other systems.

L0:?Material weakness? means a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in the internal control over information in

L0:contractor business systems, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of such information will

L0:not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the likelihood of an

L0:event occurring is?

L1:(1) Probable; or

L1:(2) More than remote but less than likely (section 806 of Pub. L. 116-283).

L0:?Valid time-phased requirements? means material that is?

L1:(1) Needed to fulfill the production plan, including reasonable quantities for scrap, shrinkage, yield, etc.; and

L1:(2) Charged or billed to contracts or other cost objectives in a manner consistent with the need to fulfill the production

L0:plan.

L1:(b) General.The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Maintain an MMAS that?

L1:(i) Reasonably forecasts material requirements;

L1:(ii) Ensures that costs of purchased and fabricated material charged or allocated to a contract are based on valid timephased requirements; and

L1:(iii) Maintains a consistent, equitable, and unbiased logic for costing of material transactions; and

L1:(2) Assess its MMAS and take reasonable action to comply with the MMAS standards in paragraph (e) of this clause.

L1:(c) Disclosure and maintenance requirements.The Contractor shall?

L1:(1) Have policies, procedures, and operating instructions that adequately describe its MMAS;

L1:(2) Provide to the Administrative Contracting Officer (ACO), upon request, the results of internal reviews that it has conducted to ensure compliance with established MMAS policies, procedures, and operating instructions; and L1:(3) Disclose significant changes in its MMAS to the ACO at least 30 days prior to implementation.

L1:(d) System criteria. The MMAS shall have adequate internal controls to ensure system and data integrity, and shall?

L1:(1) Have an adequate system description including policies, procedures, and operating instructions that comply with the

L0:FAR and Defense FAR Supplement;

L1:(2) Ensure that costs of purchased and fabricated material charged or allocated to a contract are based on valid time-phased

L0:requirements as impacted by minimum/economic order quantity restrictions.

L1:(i) A 98 percent bill of material accuracy and a 95 percent master production schedule accuracy are desirable as a goal in

L0:order to ensure that requirements are both valid and appropriately time-phased.

L1:(ii) If systems have accuracy levels below these, the Contractor shall provide adequate evidence that?

L1:(A) There is no material harm to the Government due to lower accuracy levels; and

L1:(B) The cost to meet the accuracy goals is excessive in relation to the impact on the Government;

L1:(3) Provide a mechanism to identify, report, and resolve system control weaknesses and manual override. Systems should

L0:identify operational exceptions, such as excess/residual inventory, as soon as known;

L1:(4) Provide audit trails and maintain records (manual and those in machine-readable form) necessary to evaluate system

L0:logic and to verify through transaction testing that the system is operating as desired;

L1:(5) Establish and maintain adequate levels of record accuracy, and include reconciliation of recorded inventory quantities to

L0:physical inventory by part number on a periodic basis. A 95 percent accuracy level is desirable. If systems have an

L0:accuracy level below 95 percent, the Contractor shall provide adequate evidence that?

L1:(i) There is no material harm to the Government due to lower accuracy levels; and

L1:(ii) The cost to meet the accuracy goal is excessive in relation to the impact on the Government;

L1:(6) Provide detailed descriptions of circumstances that will result in manual or system generated transfers of parts;

L1:(7) Maintain a consistent, equitable, and unbiased logic for costing of material transactions as follows:

L1:(i) The Contractor shall maintain and disclose written policies describing the transfer methodology and the loan/pay-back

L0:technique.

L1:(ii) The costing methodology may be standard or actual cost, or any of the inventory costing methods in 48 CFR 9904.41150(b). The Contractor shall maintain consistency across all contract and customer types, and from accounting period to

L0:accounting period for initial charging and transfer charging.

L1:(iii) The system should transfer parts and associated costs within the same billing period. In the few instances where this

L0:may not be appropriate, the Contractor may accomplish the material transaction using a loan/pay-back technique. The

L0:loan/pay-back technique? means that the physical part is moved temporarily from the contract, but the cost of the part

L0:remains on the contract. The procedures for the loan/pay-back technique must be approved by the ACO. When the L0:technique is used, the Contractor shall have controls to ensure?

L1:(A) Parts are paid back expeditiously;

L1:(B) Procedures and controls are in place to correct any overbilling that might occur;

L1:(C) Monthly, at a minimum, identification of the borrowing contract and the date the part was borrowed; and

L1:(D) The cost of the replacement part is charged to the borrowing contract;

L1:(8) Where allocations from common inventory accounts are used, have controls (in addition to those in paragraphs (d)(2)

L0:and (7) of this clause) to ensure that?

L1:(i) Reallocations and any credit due are processed no less frequently than the routine billing cycle;

L1:(ii) Inventories retained for requirements that are not under contract are not allocated to contracts; and

L1:(iii) Algorithms are maintained based on valid and current data;

L1:(9) Have adequate controls to ensure that physically commingled inventories that may include material for which costs are

L0:charged or allocated to fixed-price, cost-reimbursement, and commercial contracts do not compromise requirements of any

L0:of the standards in paragraphs (d)(1) through (8) of this clause. Government-furnished material shall not be?

L1:(i) Physically commingled with other material; or

L1:(ii) Used on commercial work; and

L1:(10) Be subjected to periodic internal reviews to ensure compliance with established policies and procedures.

L1:(e) Material weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contracting Officer will provide an initial determination to the Contractor, in writing, of any material weaknesses.

L0:The initial determination will describe the underlying deficiencies in sufficient detail to allow the Contractor to understand

L0:the weaknesses or deficiencies.

L1:(2) The Contractor shall respond within 30 days to a written initial determination from the Contracting Officer that

L0:identifies material weaknesses in the Contractor's MMAS. If the Contractor disagrees with the initial determination, the

L0:Contractor shall state, in writing, its rationale for disagreeing.

L1:(3) The Contracting Officer will evaluate the Contractor's response and notify the Contractor, in writing, of the Contracting

L0:Officer's final determination concerning?

L1:(i) Remaining material weaknesses;

L1:(ii) The adequacy of any proposed or completed corrective action; and

L1:(iii) System disapproval if the Contracting Officer determines that one or more material weaknesses remain.

L1:(f) If the Contractor receives the Contracting Officer's final determination of material weaknesses, the Contractor shall,

L0:within 45 days of receipt of the final determination, either correct the material weaknesses or submit an acceptable

L0:corrective action plan showing milestones and actions to eliminate the material weaknesses.

L1:(g) Withholding payments. If the Contracting Officer makes a final determination to disapprove the Contractor's MMAS,

L0:and the contract includes the clause at 252.242-7005 , Contractor Business Systems, the Contracting Officer will withhold

L0:payments in accordance with that clause.

L0:(End of clause)

252.242-7005 Contractor Business Systems

L0:the applicable business system clauses listed in the definition of "contractor business systems" in this clause.

L0:Management and Accounting System;

L1:(5) Property management system, if this contract includes the clause at 252.245-7003 , Contractor Property Management

L0:System Administration; and

L1:(6) Purchasing system, if this contract includes the clause at 252.244-7001 , Contractor Purchasing System Administration.

L0:Material weakness? means a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in the internal control over information in

L0:contractor business systems, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of such information will

L0:not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the likelihood of an

L0:event occurring is?

L1:(1) Probable; or

L1:(2) More than remote but less than likely (section 806 of Pub. L. 116-283).

L1:(c) General. The Contractor shall establish and maintain acceptable business systems in accordance with the terms and

L0:conditions of this contract.

L1:(d) Material weaknesses.

L1:(1) The Contractor shall respond, in writing, within 30 days to an initial determination that there are one or more material

L0:weaknesses in one or more of the Contractor's business systems.

L1:(2) The Contracting Officer will evaluate the Contractor's response and notify the Contractor, in writing, of the final

L0:determination as to whether the Contractor's business system contains material weaknesses. If the Contracting Officer

L0:determines that the Contractor's business system contains material weaknesses, the final determination will include a

L0:notice to withhold payments.

L1:(e) Withholding payments.

L1:(1) If the Contracting Officer issues the final determination with a notice to withhold payments for material weaknesses in

L0:a contractor business system required under this contract, the Contracting Officer will withhold 5 percent of amounts due

L0:from progress payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to withhold 5 percent from

L0:its billings on interim cost vouchers on cost-reimbursement, labor-hour, and time-and-materials contracts until the

L0:Contracting Officer has determined that the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting

L0:Officer's final determination. The Contractor shall, within 45 days of receipt of the notice, either correct the weaknesses or

L0:submit an acceptable corrective action plan showing milestones and actions to eliminate the weaknesses.

L1:(2) If the Contractor submits an acceptable corrective action plan within 45 days of receipt of a notice of the Contracting

L0:Officer's intent to withhold payments, and the Contracting Officer, in consultation with the auditor or functional specialist,

L0:determines that the Contractor is effectively implementing such plan, the Contracting Officer will reduce withholding

L0:directly related to the material weaknesses covered under the corrective action plan, to 2 percent from progress payments

L0:and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to reduce the percentage withheld on interim cost

L0:vouchers to 2 percent until the Contracting Officer determines the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as

L0:directed by the Contracting Officer's final determination. However, if at any time, the Contracting Officer determines that

L0:the Contractor has failed to follow the accepted corrective action plan, the Contracting Officer will increase withholding

L0:from progress payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to increase the percentage

L0:withheld on interim cost vouchers to the percentage initially withheld, until the Contracting Officer determines that the L0:Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting Officer's final determination.

L1:(3) Payment withhold percentage limits.

L1:(i) The total percentage of payments withheld on amounts due under each progress payment, performance-based payment,

L0:or interim cost voucher, on this contract shall not exceed?

L1:(A) Five percent for one or more material weaknesses in any single contractor business system; and

L1:(B) Ten percent for material weaknesses in multiple contractor business systems.

L1:(ii) If this contract contains pre-existing withholds, and the application of any subsequent payment withholds will cause

L0:withholding under this clause to exceed the payment withhold percentage limits in paragraph (e)(3)(i) of this clause, the

L0:Contracting Officer will reduce the payment withhold percentage in the final determination to an amount that will not exceed the payment withhold percentage limits.

L1:(4) For the purpose of this clause, payment means any of the following payments authorized under this contract:

L1:(i) Interim payments under?

L1:(A) Cost-reimbursement contracts;

L1:(B) Incentive type contracts;

L1:(C) Time-and-materials contracts;

L1:(D) Labor-hour contracts.

L1:(ii) Progress payments.

L1:(iii) Performance-based payments.

L1:(5) Payment withholding shall not apply to payments on fixed-price line items where performance is complete and the

L0:items were accepted by the Government.

L1:(6) The withholding of any amount or subsequent payment to the Contractor shall not be construed as a waiver of any

L0:rights or remedies the Government has under this contract.

L1:(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of any clause in this contract providing for interim, partial, or other payment

L0:withholding on any basis, the Contracting Officer may withhold payment in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

L1:(8) The payment withholding authorized in this clause is not subject to the interest-penalty provisions of the Prompt

L0:Payment Act.

L1:(f) Correction of weaknesses .

L1:(1) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer, in writing, when the Contractor has corrected the business system?s

L0:weaknesses.

L1:(2) Once the Contractor has notified the Contracting Officer that all weaknesses have been corrected, the Contracting

L0:Officer will take one of the following actions:

L1:(i) If the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the

L0:Contracting Officer?s final determination, the Contracting Officer will, as appropriate, discontinue the withholding of

L0:progress payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to discontinue the payment

L0:withholding from billings on interim cost vouchers under this contract associated with the Contracting Officer?s final

L0:determination, and authorize the Contractor to bill for any monies previously withheld that are not also being withheld due

L0:to other material weaknesses. Any payment withholding under this contract due to other material weaknesses will remain

L0:in effect until the Contracting Officer determines that those material weaknesses are corrected.

L1:(ii) If the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor still has material weaknesses, the Contracting Officer will

L0:continue the withholding of progress payments and performance-based payments, and the Contractor shall continue

L0:withholding amounts from its billings on interim cost vouchers in accordance with paragraph (e) of this clause, and not bill

L0:for any monies previously withheld.

L1:(iii) If the Contracting Officer determines, based on the evidence submitted by the Contractor, that there is a reasonable

L0:expectation that the corrective actions have been implemented and are expected to correct the material weaknesses, the

L0:Contracting Officer will discontinue withholding payments, release any payments previously withheld directly related to

L0:the material weaknesses identified in the Contractor notification, direct the Contractor, in writing, to discontinue the

L0:payment withholding from billings on interim cost vouchers associated with the Contracting Officer's final determination,

L0:and authorize the Contractor to bill for any monies previously withheld.

L1:(iv) If, within 90 days of receipt of the Contractor notification that the Contractor has corrected the material weaknesses,

L0:the Contracting Officer has not made a determination in accordance with paragraph (f)(2)(i), (ii), or (iii) of this clause, the

L0:Contracting Officer will reduce withholding directly related to the material weaknesses identified in the Contractor

L0:notification by at least 50 percent of the amount being withheld from progress payments and performance-based payments,

L0:and direct the Contractor, in writing, to reduce the payment withholding from billings on interim cost vouchers directly

L0:related to the material weaknesses identified in the Contractor notification by a specified percentage that is at least 50

L0:percent, but not authorize the Contractor to bill for any monies previously withheld until the Contracting Officer makes a

L0:determination in accordance with paragraph (f)(2)(i), (ii), or (iii) of this clause.

L1:(v) At any time after the Contracting Officer reduces or discontinues the withholding of progress payments and

L0:performance-based payments, or directs the Contractor to reduce or discontinue the payment withholding from billings on

L0:interim cost vouchers under this contract, if the Contracting Officer determines that the Contractor has failed to correct the

L0:material weaknesses identified in the Contractor's notification, the Contracting Officer will reinstate or increase

L0:withholding from progress payments and performance-based payments, and direct the Contractor, in writing, to reinstate or

L0:increase the percentage withheld on interim cost vouchers to the percentage initially withheld, until the Contracting Officer

L0:determines that the Contractor has corrected all material weaknesses as directed by the Contracting Officer's final

L0:determination.
